appealing to Cæsar, was sent to Rome. Here, therefore, he discovers the fourth great kingdom—the iron legs of the image of Daniel ii.; and the beast with iron teeth described in Daniel vii. But the question arises, whether this last kingdom has as yet passed away, like the other three which preceded? A little further consideration soon establishes the fact that the Roman empire still exists, though broken up into separate kingdoms; for the prophecies describe it as continuing until smashed to pieces, and carried away like chaff before the wind, by the kingdom of the Son of Man; and the enquirer is aware that the kingdoms of this world have not as yet “become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ.” Many other illustrations of a similar kind might be produced; but this may suffice to show how the Word of God supplies, from within itself, all, even the most minute particulars, that may be necessary to the right understanding of its own records.

The following are the principal features of this Work, and some of the peculiar advantages which it affords to those who believe that the Bible is in truth the WORD OF GOD.

I. The most important passages, from other parts of Scripture, which throw light upon the text under consideration, are in all cases collected under the eye of the reader; and thus the words of one inspired writer will be found to explain the statements of another, and to supply further information. Examples of the advantages derived from this mode of “comparing spiritual things with spiritual,” are almost endless; the following will, however, serve to elucidate this object of the work.

On reading the latter part of Genesis xi., and the beginning of Genesis xii., it might, at first, be thought that the message from God to Abram, directing him to leave his country, was given to him in Haran; but, on comparing this account with Genesis xv. 7, and Acts vii. 2-4, it will at once be perceived that God called him out of Mesopotamia; and on perusing Genesis xii. 1, again, the two statements will be found to agree perfectly, because the passage is worded in the past tense: “the Lord had said unto Abram,” etc.

The prophecy of Haggai throws much light on the history recorded in Ezra v., respecting the discontinuance and resumption of building the temple. It reveals the state into which the Jews had sunk, consulting their own ease, and willingly submitting to have the work of the Lord suppressed, until aroused by the warnings and exhortations of the prophet. Had it not been for the record in 2 Peter ii. 7, 8, we should not have known the state of Lot’s soul in Sodom; neither should we have appended to his name the blessed epithets of “just,” and “righteous.” Hebrews xi. 23, reveals the fact that both the parents of Moses acted in faith when they concealed their child for three months, and that they did so without any fear of the royal decree; and verse 27 informs us that the subsequent flight of Moses himself, was instigated by faith, and not because he feared the wrath of the king. Abundant proofs of the information and instruction to be derived from thus connecting Scripture together, are afforded throughout the work.

II. To have the direct and incidental references fully quoted in the very words of Scripture, and arranged under the text, will be found of great assistance, and very considerably to economise time; for the reader will hereby be enabled to perceive at a glance the comparative value and force of the various citations, without having his thoughts diverted by turning to them seriatim. The references themselves are grouped together, so that each portion of the text is successively illustrated; and each group is itself so arranged that the quotations follow one another in the order of their comparative importance.

III. Principles of truth are abundantly illustrated by examples taken from other parts of Scripture; and hereby these principles and their results are seen displayed in the conduct of living individuals; and vice versa, the actions of various scriptural characters are appropriately connected with God's moral dealings; and the secret sources from which their conduct emanates are disclosed.

IV. The mode that God has adopted to instruct by "line upon line, line upon line; precept upon precept, precept upon precept; here a little, and there a little," is amply exhibited; thus the reader cannot fail to be impressed with the deep importance of all that God enunciates, seeing how often He reiterates the same truths. Also the various ways pursued by the Great Teacher, in order that His instructions may be adapted to different degrees of comprehension, and to opposite tastes, are made very apparent. Parables, poetic imagery, living portraitures, will be found combined with direct precepts and declarations, to the end that in every way the soul may be interested and attracted.

V. The reader will find a very rich and varied collection of analogies and contrasts, whenever the subject will in any way admit of them. The Bible is a wonderful book, full of type and shadow. There will be found in it typical persons, relationships, dignities, offices, actions, names, places, times, and seasons; indeed the whole range of nature, animate and inanimate, seems to have been created with this object among others, that it might be subsequently employed to illustrate divine truth.

VI. The history of individuals has in many instances been traced, in order that the instruction to be learnt from the contemplation of the whole of their lives might be perceived at once. Frequently also the principal events which have made certain places to be of note in the Scriptures, are recorded where the names of these places occur.

VII. The connexions that may be traced between different Books of the Bible are fully pointed out; and thus an important though indirect proof is afforded, that the Word of God is a WHOLE, written indeed at sundry times, and by various pens, but all under the direct guidance and inspiration of one Spirit, the Holy Ghost.

These are some of the leading objects which induced the Publishers to undertake a Work of such extent as to research and size. It is confidently believed that much valuable time, and it may be fruitless toil, will hereby be saved to those who are engaged in the ministry of the Word. They will be enabled to pursue the current of their meditations uninterruptedly, and names which have made more noise in the world. But as none of them acted more than a subordinate part in the preparations which were made for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ—in the great work of redemption—none of them find anything but subordinate notices—less frequent and less continuous—in the Bible; while countries lying further off from Palestine are scarcely noticed at all.

The World of the Old and New Testaments.—The 45th degree of latitude on the north, and the equator on the south, may be said to contain between them the world of the Old and New Testaments. Eastern Asia and western Africa may be regarded as pretty nearly comprising all the lands of the Bible, while the little country on the extreme east of the Mediterranean is the field in which its leading events take place.

The principal countries mentioned in scripture are the following:—I. Palestine, including the Hebrews and neighbouring nations. II. Egypt and Ethiopia. III. Assyria, Babylonia, Media and Persia. IV. Greece. V. Rome.

I. Palestine: Physical Geography.—It is in accordance with the above view that we find Palestine to be remarkably situated, a country having a history and geography peculiarly its own. By its natural position it was a land by itself, eminently fitted for a people dwelling apart. Bounded on the north by a branch of the Lebanon, on the east by the Syrian and Arabian deserts, on the south by the “great and terrible wilderness” stretching between it and Egypt, and on the west by the Mediterranean, it contained no easy means of egress and ingress. At a time when the sea was regarded as a barrier, rather than a help to commerce, and possessing no safe or important harbours, it seemed fitted only for a people who, like Israel, were to live by themselves, and not to be “reckoned among the nations.” Nu. 23. 9. Cut off by natural barriers from other lands, it seemed to possess a distinct character of its own—to be fitted, not for becoming the centre of a great empire, but the residence of “a peculiar people.”

But while unlike any other single country, it yet had features in common with all. A small territory, not above two hundred miles in length, and seldom more than fifty in breadth from the Mediterranean to the Jordan, it was in a manner an epitome of the world. Like Judaism, while contracted in itself, it had features which, in the fulness of time, were to speak out to all nations, so that the imagery which seemed gathered only from this favoured spot should be found to have an echo all over the world. It was eminently the land of the mountain and the flood. It had the ranges of Lebanon and Anti-Lebanon in the north, “the hill country of Judæa” in the south, and to the east of Jordan the long wall formed by the mountains of Moab. The face of the country generally is covered with elevated heights. Jerusalem stands on a rising ground, as a city set upon a hill. It is “builded as a city that is compact together,” enclosed within walls which come in many places as to the edge of a precipice, a deep natural ditch being formed by the valley of Jehoshaphat, and the valley of Hinnom. But while itself two thousand feet above the level of the sea, “the mountains are round about Jerusalem.” Ps. 125. 2. “The little hills rejoice on every side.” Ps. 65. 12. All around it are elevated grounds. Over against it is mount Olivet, commanding a view not only of the city itself, but of the surrounding country, stretching far away to the deep basin of the Dead Sea, with the mountains of Moab beyond. As a consequence of its undulated character, Palestine was a country well watered, and hence described to the Israelites as “a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs; but a land of hills and valleys, which drinketh water of the rain of heaven.” De. 8. 7; 11. 10, 11. Then it had its plains, stretching over a comparatively lengthened space, the plain of Esdraelon, the plain of Sharon, etc. It had the deep natural valley of the Jordan, with its river coursing rapidly along from north to south, ending in the Dead Sea, at a depth of thirteen hundred feet below the level of the Mediterranean. It had its inland lakes of Tiberias and of the Dead Sea, while the billows of the Mediterranean beat on its western border. It was “a land flowing with milk and honey,” having good pasture for flocks, and wild shrubs and flowers for bees. It had a vast variety of climate. Though now neglected and comparatively sterile, it produced almost tropical fruits, being not only “a land of wheat and barley,” but of “fig-trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey.” De. 8. 8. And yet the traveller never loses sight for any lengthened period of snow-capped Hermon. These different features, not scattered over a wide surface, but gathered together in so small a space, coming directly under the eye of the same individuals, and finding a place in their sacred books, these books become the better adapted for setting forth a faith for all nations. The swarthy southern, the fur-clad Laplander, the dweller on sea-girt isles, in mountain fastnesses, on luxuriant plains, on arid deserts, the inhabitant of walled cities and of ever-moving tents, can all find somewhat here which appeals to their feelings and habits.

History: Condition prior to the Hebrew Conquest, b.c. 1921–1451.—In the time of Abraham, Palestine was occupied by a variety of tribes, known by the general name of Canaanites. Ten of these tribes are distinguished in scripture by the names of Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites, Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, Jebusites, and Canaanites. The latter name is supposed to indicate the Phœnicians, a merchant people settled on the coast; while the other nine tribes were a pastoral people occupying the interior. Eastward of the Jordan, the mountains of Gilead and the rich plain of Hauran or Bashan were occupied by several giant races known as the Rephaim, Emim, Zuzim, and Zamzummin, who, together with the Horim or "cave dwellers" in mount Seir on the south, were all subdued by Chedorlaomer in his campaign against the five Canaanite kings of the vale of Siddim.

In the time of Moses the population of Canaan had undergone considerable changes, and new nations had obtained settlements in the country. In the south were the Philistines, a powerful body of foreign emigrants, who subsequently rendered themselves so famous that the whole country was called Palestine after them. In the centre, the Amorites, the most powerful of the Canaanite races, had not only established a supremacy, but had carried their arms across the Jordan, and established the two kingdoms of Og and Sihon. In the north the Phœnicians of Sidon were becoming the merchant princes of the ancient world. Eastward of the Jordan the Ammonites and Moabites, the descendants of the two sons of Lot, had expelled the giants and occupied their territory. Still further south the Edomites, or descendants of Esau, had driven out the Horim and settled in the rugged territory of mount Seir. In the neighbouring deserts of Arabia the Amalekites and Midianites, led a half pastoral half warlike life, and are well represented in the present day by the Bedouin Arabs, who still wander along the south and eastern frontiers of ancient Palestine.

The fact of Palestine being selected as the land to be given to Abraham and to his seed did not prevent its being occupied at different periods by others. Rather, it having been first occupied by the descendants of Canaan the son of Ham, who was under the curse, and wrested from them by Joshua, a token was given in this, that the meek should inherit the earth, that Jesus would wrest the spoil from the hand of his enemies, that He must reign till all enemies are put under his footstool.

Settlement of the Hebrews, and division into tribes, B.C. 1451-1426.—The time had now come when the country which was the glory of all lands was to be occupied by that people which were descended from Abraham, "the friend of God." The country was to be purged from the idolatry which polluted it. The people were to be redeemed from the bondage under which they groaned. Four centuries earlier God had made promise of this land to Abraham.

But during all his life it was to him "a strange country," a country in which God "gave him none inheritance, no, not so much as to set his foot on," Acts 7. 5: and the righteous God, the Judge of all the earth, gave this as the reason—"for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full." Gen. 15. 16. But now the cry of their sins had risen up to heaven, and the cry of His people in Egypt had entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. The fulness of time had come for Israel to take possession of the land of promise. The dynasty which knew not Joseph was judged. Gen. 15. 14. Israel was brought out of Egypt with a strong hand and a mighty arm. Moses, raised up by God to go before them, delivered to them the law at Sinai, and though unbelief was punished by the forty years' wandering in the wilderness, yet at length the set time was come, and the promise made to Abraham was fulfilled to his descendants. It was from the east that the children of Israel were directed to invade the land. Edom, Moab, and Ammon (descended from Abraham, or from Lot his brother's son), they were forbidden to attack, and accordingly they took a circuitous route, during which they came into collision with the Midianites, and at length reached the Amorite kingdoms of Sihon and Og. Conquering these two formidable powers, they obtained possession of the countries to the east of the Jordan, which were afterwards occupied by Reuben, Gad, and half Manasseh.

At their first entrance into Palestine proper, it was made apparent that "not by might, nor by strength, but by God's Spirit," they were to prevail. As the Red Sea had parted and opened up a passage for Israel on their leaving Egypt, so the Jordan opened up an entrance for them into Canaan. "The waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho." Jos. 3. 16. Without striking a blow, but simply following the divine direction, going round about the city of Jericho, blowing with trumpets, its "wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city." Jos. 6. 20.

But while God had a special regard for Israel, it was made to appear throughout their history that His government was framed upon principles of righteousness, and that he would not let sin go unpunished. The presumption of the people received a check at Ai, and Achan, who had taken of the accursed thing, with all that belonged to him, was stoned with stones and burned with fire, as if to teach, that holiness became God's people and all that were round about Him. Again, Israel suffered in their transaction with the Gibeonites for not asking counsel of the Lord. But the fame of their conquests had spread over the land. The southern

OUTLINE OF THE GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY

Canaanites formed themselves into a confederacy under Adonizedek king of Jerusalem, with the design of smiting Gibeon because it had entered into an alliance with Israel. But this only afforded another glorious opportunity for manifesting that "the Lord fought for Israel." "The Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah. And it came to pass as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword." Jos. 10. 10, 11. The heavenly bodies themselves were obedient to Israel's leader. Joshua crying to God, "The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies." Jos. 10. 13.

The northern kings in the neighbourhood of Phœnicia were next aroused and organised into a powerful league under Jabin king of Hazor. An immense host, provided with chariots and cavalry, was assembled by the waters of Merom; but again it was made apparent that greater was He that was with Israel than all that could be arrayed against them. For "the Lord delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining. And Joshua did unto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire." Jos. 11. 8, 9.

For seven years afterwards Joshua proceeded with his conquests, during which he subdued thirty-two Canaanite kings, the secret of his success being contained in the statement—"As the Lord commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the Lord commanded Moses." Jos. 11. 15. The land was now parcelled out by lot among the tribes, according to the divine command. Reuben, and Gad, and half Manasseh, had already received their inheritance on the east side of Jordan. The others now received theirs on the west.

In connexion with the history of the conquest of Palestine, we have striking notices of the vast and warlike population who resisted the invaders. The Canaanites no longer consisted of wandering tribes of herdsmen: their cities were innumerable, their military power immense. In the kingdom of Og alone were "threescore cities, fenced with high walls, gates, and bars, beside unwalled towns a great many;" and from the enormous masses of men that Jabin brought into the field, and the continual mention of cities in those chapters which describe the division of the country among the twelve tribes, it seems certain that the Canaanites were a powerful race. But they had given their strength to idols, and their glory to graven images. The cup of their iniquity was now full, and terrible was the retribution with which they were visited.

The Judges, B.C. 1425-1095.—After the settlement of the Hebrews in Palestine, and when the great mass of the Canaanites had either fallen beneath the sword of Joshua, or retreated northward beyond the mountains of Lebanon, the bordering nations still continued in existence. The northern half of the western coast was occupied by the Phœnicians of Tyre and Sidon; and the southern half by the Philistines of Ekron, Gath, Askelon, Ashdod, and Gaza. On the south and east the country was occupied by the Edomites, Moabites, and Ammonites, as well as by the nomade tribes of Amalekites and Midianites. Moreover, in the interior a few scattered cities and tracts yet remained in the hands of a remnant of the Canaanites. After the division of the country amongst the twelve tribes, each tribe was left to expel its own enemies. But the Hebrews, instead of destroying this remnant, as they had been expressly commanded, made the idolaters tributary, and gradually suffered their children to intermarry with them. The consequences were ruinous alike to the religion and liberties of the Hebrew nation. Idolatry spread throughout the land, and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel. For four centuries the country was either oppressed by the Ammonites, Moabites, or Philistines, or else ravaged by the nomade hordes of Amalekites or Midianites; while at one time the Canaanites from beyond Lebanon invaded the northern districts of Palestine.

In each of these trials, when the suffering Hebrews cried unto God, a deliverer or dictator was raised up under the name of a judge, who expelled the enemy for the time being, and then ruled the people. These judges seem at first to have exercised authority only over that quarter of the country which was most exposed to the invader; and therefore their rule extended only to northern, or southern, or eastern Palestine. At a subsequent period we find the authority of this supreme judgeship extending over the entire nation. The earlier judgeships of such men as Gideon, Jephthah, and Samson, were also widely different from the authority wielded at a later period by Eli and Samuel. The former had been raised up and intrusted with the management of affairs as heroes or warriors, well known for military prowess; but Eli governed the people on the authority of his religious supremacy as high priest, whilst Samuel exercised the office of judge as a prophet of Jehovah, called by God and acknowledged by the nation. With Samuel a great era commenced in Hebrew history. He breathed a new life into the institutions of Moses, and established the schools of the prophets, which, during the monarchy, exercised a great and lasting influence upon the national character. But Samuel grew old, and delegated his authority to his sons, whose conduct became outrageously and shamefully wicked. Meantime the nation was threatened from all sides. On the east the Ammonites and Moabites were ravaging the country. From the south, the Edomites and wandering Amalekites were apparently making marauding excursions into the interior. In the north the king of Zobah, one of the petty Syrian states in the neighbourhood of Lebanon, was harassing the people. Above all, the whole of southern Palestine was in the hands of the terrible Philistines, who had not only filled the country with garrisons, but had deprived all the Israelites of smiths.

The Sole Monarchy, B.C. 1095–975.—It was at this crisis that the people assembled together and called upon Samuel to give them a king. Saul, the son of Kish, had been already pointed out to Samuel as the future monarch. But the faithful prophet did not fail to remind the people that in requiring a king they were rejecting their God. 1 Sa. 10. 19. While yielding to their request, as he was authorised to do, God's right to command was recognised, and the people were required to present themselves before the Lord. The choice was made by lot. The lot fell upon Saul, and Samuel, pointing to him, said, "See ye him whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king." 1 Sa. 10. 24.

Saul succeeded in driving out the foreign invaders, but the latter part of his reign was sullied by his resistance to Samuel, and persecuting conduct towards David the son of Jesse. At length, after a disastrous encounter with the Philistines at Gilboa, he closed a reign of forty years by laying violent hands on himself.

The case of Saul affords a melancholy proof of the bitter fruits which are reaped from disobedience to God. The people wearied of the government of God, and desired a king. They gloried in him who was the goodliest among the children of Israel. They trusted in an arm of flesh, but that arm, while strong to crush, was powerless to save. "I gave thee," says God, "a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath." Ho. 13. 11.

David, who is described as the man after God's own heart, had, by divine direction, been secretly anointed by Samuel during the lifetime of Saul. But though distinguished by many famous exploits, and honoured among the people, he had never attempted to steal away their hearts from the earlier monarch, whom he always esteemed, and whose life he jealously guarded, as the Lord's anointed. On the death of Saul he was acknowledged king, first by the tribe of Judah, and afterwards by all Israel. His reign was signalled by a succession of conquests. He expelled the Jebusites from Zion, and made Jerusalem his capital. He completely subdued all the neighbouring nations, and obliged them to pay tribute. He thus established peace at home, and extended his empire far beyond the frontiers of Canaan, northward to the river Euphrates, and southward to the Red Sea. The Philistines on the west, the Edomites and nomade Arabs on the south, the Moabites and Ammonites on the east, and the little Syrian states on the north, were all included within the circle of his dominions. But in his case, as in others, sin brought down punishment, and his latter days were embittered by numerous domestic trials. The reign of his son and successor, Solomon, is the golden era of Jewish history.

In this reign the magnificent temple was built, a permanent resting place for the ark of Jehovah, which, after going from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another, 1 Ch. 17. 5, had been brought up to Jerusalem by David. That pious monarch was minded to build a temple to the Lord, but having been a man of war, this work was denied him, and reserved for his son and successor. But vast preparations had been made in the lifetime of David, in gold, and silver, and brass, and iron, and wood, and all manner of precious stones. 1 Ch. 29. 2. The priests and Levites had been appointed to their courses. 1 Ch. 23, 24. Those who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals, had been separated to this service. 1 Ch. 25. The porters, and those who were over the treasures of the house of God, and the dedicated things, had been duly installed in their offices. 1 Ch. 26. And now the building itself was erected. The framework of Judaism was complete. God had given his people rest from all their enemies round about, and the temple having been finished according to the pattern of all that was given by the Spirit, 1 Ch. 28. 12, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord. 1 Ki. 8. 10; 2 Ch. 7. 2. The beautiful spectacle was now exhibited of a monarch appointed by God, with a people chosen by God, in a building occupying a site selected by God, and finished after a model given by God, offering up prayers and sacrifices according to a ritual prescribed by God. Well might "Solomon in all his glory" become a proverb with the Jew for the highest point of regal and national splendour.

In this reign other buildings besides the temple were erected. "His own house" occupied Solomon nearly twice as long in building as the house of the Lord. 1 Ki. 7. 1. Baalbec is supposed to have been built by Solomon, as well as Tadmor in the wilderness, 1 Ki. 9. 18; 2 Ch. 8. 4, still the wonder of travellers. The royal treasury was enriched by the tribute which poured in from the bordering nations; while an alliance with Egypt and Phœnicia enabled Solomon to carry on an extensive commerce by land and sea. Horses, chariots, and linen yarn were brought from Egypt; cedars and firs were conveyed by the Phœnician king Hiram from Lebanon to Jerusalem; and gold and silver, jewels and spices, ivory, apes, and peacocks, were imported from Ophir and Tarshish—two obscure names which seem respectively to indicate the Indian and Mediterranean trade. Meantime the industry of the Hebrew people was stimulated by the continued peace and a well organised government. The corn of Palestine which excelled that of Egypt, the vine which was indigenous to the soil, the oil which is superior to that of Provence, the balm which was collected in the lands round Lake Gennesareth and is still famous under the name of balsam of Mecca, were more than sufficient for the wants of the nation, and could be readily exchanged by Solomon for the luxurious riches of distant climes.

The fame of Solomon's wisdom contributed to add to his magnificence. Of the queen of Sheba we read, that "she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon," Mat. 12. 42; Lu. 11. 31, bringing with her gold, and spices, and precious stones; and of the spices in particular there was "very great store; there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon." 1 Ki. 10. 10; 2 Ch. 9. 9. But it was in this reign that the decline of the Hebrew nation really began; for Solomon was tempted by those princesses whom he admitted into his palace to worship their national deities; and the monarch who had built so glorious a temple to Jehovah on mount Moriah, now erected high places for Chemosh, Molech, and Ashtoreth on the mount of Olives. The taxation, which was necessary to support so luxurious a court, pressed heavily upon the people, and the latter part of the reign was darkened by revolt and faction.

The divided kingdoms of Israel and Judah, B. C. 975–588.—Solomon died at a critical moment, and some hopes were doubtless entertained that his son and successor, Rehoboam, would repeal the more oppressive taxes and restore the pure worship of Jehovah. The delegates from the twelve tribes met at the central city of Shechem, in the celebrated ravine between Ebal and Gerizim, to invest their new king with the royal dignity, and bring forward a statement of their grievances. But Rehoboam treated the people as his slaves rather than as his subjects, and stubbornly refused to revise the taxation. A revolt was the consequence. Ten of the tribes permanently rebelled and chose Jeroboam for their king, whilst Judah and Benjamin alone remained faithful to the house of David. This division of Palestine into the two kingdoms of Judah and Israel, weakened the supremacy of the Hebrews over the neighbouring states, and the Jewish nationality became contracted as well as divided. The Syrians in the north established the independent kingdom of Damascus under the celebrated dynasty of the Benhadads. In the east the Ammonites threw off their allegiance, though the Moabites still continued tributary to Israel. On the south little more than a nominal supremacy was retained by Judah over the Philistines and Edomites. The power of Israel and Judah was nearly balanced. Israel, it is true, possessed four times the territory of Judah and a much larger population; but then Judah possessed the city of Jerusalem and treasures of Solomon, and enjoyed a more compact dominion, and a completeness of organization as the old centre of government.

In Israel Jeroboam was promised through Abijah the prophet, that if he kept the commandments and statutes as David had done, the Lord would be with him, and build him a house equally sure. Jeroboam however pursued a mere human policy, and, with a view to preventing his subjects from worshipping at Jerusalem, he set up the golden calves in his own dominions. This golden calf worship was followed by his successors; and at length Ahab, after his Phœnician marriage with Jezebel daughter of the king of Sidon, introduced the still viler worship of Baal and Astarte, with all its concomitant vices. One after another the reigning families were removed by private assassination or intestine war, while the whole strength of the kingdom was required to keep the Benhadads of Damascus at arm's length. Meantime, prophet after prophet was sent to endeavour to awaken in the king and people a sense of their awful wickedness, and the final doom which awaited them; but preaching and chastenings were alike disregarded, and at last the kingdom was destroyed, and the people were carried away by Assyria into the threatened captivity. In the contemporary history of Judah we see the same Divine Providence favourable or adverse to the state, according as the people obeyed or transgressed the law; and we see somewhat similar, though less persevering, attempts to substitute idolatry for the pure worship of Jehovah. In Judah, however, rebellious kings were succeeded by others who feared the Lord and walked in his ways; and while in Israel the different dynasties were removed one after the other, in Judah the royal family continued unchanged, in accordance with the promise given to David. Judah, therefore, continued her national existence nearly a century and a half longer than Israel, and during that period seems to have regained a shadow of her former ascendancy over the whole country; but at last, as no durable reformation was produced, she experienced the same fate as her sister kingdom, and, notwithstanding her unholy alliance with Egypt, was carried away by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylonian captivity.

Supremacy of Persia, Egypt, and Syria, B. C. 536–168.—For seventy years Palestine was a desolation, with the exception of the central province, afterwards known as Samaria, which had been occupied by some colonists from Assyria. At length the captivity was completed.

"In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia," B. C. 536, "the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel (He is the God), which is in Jerusalem." Ezra 1. 1-3. The proclamation was eagerly met by "the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised." ver. 5.

A caravan of fifty thousand Hebrews under Zerubbabel, set out for Jerusalem; and here, under the Divine protection, in spite of the constant opposition of the Samaritans, they accomplished the erection of a second temple. Nearly eighty years afterwards, a second caravan started under Ezra, who subsequently commenced a thorough reorganization of the Jewish state in accordance with the book of the law, and the Mosaic institutions. Nehemiah, who succeeded him, ably completed the work of reform. Meantime, it must be remembered, that Palestine formed only a section of one of the many provinces of the great Medo-Persian empire which had been established by Cyrus. The Jews at first were settled in the city of Jerusalem and its immediate neighbourhood, but gradually spread over Judæa as they increased in numbers. After the death of Nehemiah they were governed by their high priest, who was, however, subject to the Persian satrap of the province; and they paid a yearly tribute to the Persian kings. In the north were their enemies and rivals, the Samaritans; on the south were the Idumæans, an Arabian race, who had spread from Edom into southern Judæa.

Two centuries after the Babylonian captivity, the Persian empire was overthrown by Alexander the Great; and, during the century and a half which followed, the Jews were included, first, in the empire of the Ptolemies of Egypt, and then in that of the Seleucidæ of Syria. But, throughout the whole period, the Jewish nationality was still governed by its own high priest, and merely paid a regular tribute to the dominant power. Meantime the people had increased in numbers and importance. Some had passed from Judæa to the north of the Samaritans, and, mingling with the Gentiles of Galilee, had cultivated that rich and fruitful country as far as the borders of Phœnicia and Syria, or established themselves as fishermen on the shores of Lake Gennesareth. Others had crossed the Jordan into Peræa, and grazed cattle in the fat pasture lands of Gilead and Bashan, surrounded by the Arabs and wandering robbers of the desert. Commercial relations were also fast spreading between Judæa and foreign countries. During the supremacy of the Ptolemies, a large body of Jews had been transplanted to the new commercial city of Alexandria, where they rapidly increased in numbers, wealth, and influence. The Jewish rabbis thus came in contact with the Greek literati; and the Hebrew Scriptures were, for the first time, translated into the Greek language, and given to the world under the name of the Septuagint, or translation of the Seventy.

The Maccabees, B.C. 168-37.—At length, in the second century before Christ, an attempt was made by Syria to force the Jews to abandon the worship of Jehovah, and practise the idolatrous rites and ceremonies of the Greek religion. A revolution was the result. A long war against Syria was carried on under the leadership of the celebrated Maccabees, and terminated by the establishment of Palestine as an independent kingdom, under a line of Maccabean princes. For a brief interval, the golden age of David and Solomon seemed to be restored to Zion. A high-priest and king of the lineage of Aaron reigned in triumphant splendour at Jerusalem. The national services were again performed in strict accordance with the laws of Moses; while quaint synagogues, with courts and porches after the fashion of the temple at Jerusalem, were erected throughout the towns and villages of Galilee and Judæa. But the glory of that brief interval was soon overshadowed by a civil war between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and by continual dissensions in the royal house. Subsequently the intrigues of Antipater, an Idumæan by birth, but a Jew by religion, led to the interference of Rome, and destruction of the Jewish independence. During the wars of Cæsar and Pompey, Antipater virtually ruled the country in the name of the weak Hyrcanus, the last of the Maccabean princes; and during the wars of the second triumvirate, Herod the Great, son of Antipater, obtained the crown of Judæa from the Roman senate, and thus became king of the Jews.

Herod the Great and the Romans, B.C. 37-A.D. 70. The kingdom of Herod comprised five districts: viz. Judæa, Samaria, and Galilee, west of the Jordan; Peræa, on the east; and Idumæa on the south. His government was magnificent and ostentatious, but the internal affairs exhibited all the signs of decay. His policy was that of entire deference to Rome; and he endeavoured, by the introduction of games and erection of theatres, to Romanize the Jews. These proceedings aroused the enmity of the people, and his life was in constant danger of conspiracy, in spite of his liberality in time of famine, and his efforts in rebuilding the temple at Jerusalem. His rule was a military despotism, by which only he was enabled to repress the rebellious spirit of his subjects, and to check the violent factions of the Pharisees and Sadducees. His reign was undisturbed by war; but his prosperity, as a sovereign, is strangely contrasted with the long series of domestic tragedies which mark his latter years. He died of an intestinal disease the year after Christ spices, ivory, apes, and peacocks, were imported from Ophir and Tarshish—two obscure names which seem respectively to indicate the Indian and Mediterranean trade. Meantime the industry of the Hebrew people was stimulated by the continued peace and a well organised government. The corn of Palestine which excelled that of Egypt, the vine which was indigenous to the soil, the oil which is superior to that of Provence, the balm which was collected in the lands round Lake Gennesareth and is still famous under the name of balsam of Mecca, were more than sufficient for the wants of the nation, and could be readily exchanged by Solomon for the luxurious riches of distant climes.

The fame of Solomon's wisdom contributed to add to his magnificence. Of the queen of Sheba we read, that "she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon," Mat. 12. 42; Lu. 11. 31, bringing with her gold, and spices, and precious stones; and of the spices in particular there was "very great store; there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon." 1 Ki. 10. 10; 2 Ch. 9. 9. But it was in this reign that the decline of the Hebrew nation really began; for Solomon was tempted by those princesses whom he admitted into his palace to worship their national deities; and the monarch who had built so glorious a temple to Jehovah on mount Moriah, now erected high places for Chemosh, Molech, and Ashtoreth on the mount of Olives. The taxation, which was necessary to support so luxurious a court, pressed heavily upon the people, and the latter part of the reign was darkened by revolt and faction.

The divided kingdoms of Israel and Judah, B. C. 975-588.—Solomon died at a critical moment, and some hopes were doubtless entertained that his son and successor, Rehoboam, would repeal the more oppressive taxes and restore the pure worship of Jehovah. The delegates from the twelve tribes met at the central city of Shechem, in the celebrated ravine between Ebal and Gerizim, to invest their new king with the royal dignity, and bring forward a statement of their grievances. But Rehoboam treated the people as his slaves rather than as his subjects, and stubbornly refused to revise the taxation. A revolt was the consequence. Ten of the tribes permanently rebelled and chose Jeroboam for their king, whilst Judah and Benjamin alone remained faithful to the house of David. This division of Palestine into the two kingdoms of Judah and Israel, weakened the supremacy of the Hebrews over the neighbouring states, and the Jewish nationality became contracted as well as divided. The Syrians in the north established the independent kingdom of Damascus under the celebrated dynasty of the Benhadads. In the east the Ammonites threw off their allegiance, though the Moabites still continued tributary to Israel. On the south little more than a nominal supremacy was retained by Judah over the Philistines and Edomites. The power of Israel and Judah was nearly balanced. Israel, it is true, possessed four times the territory of Judah and a much larger population; but then Judah possessed the city of Jerusalem and treasures of Solomon, and enjoyed a more compact dominion, and a completeness of organization as the old centre of government.

In Israel Jeroboam was promised through Abijah the prophet, that if he kept the commandments and statutes as David had done, the Lord would be with him, and build him a house equally sure. Jeroboam however pursued a mere human policy, and, with a view to preventing his subjects from worshipping at Jerusalem, he set up the golden calves in his own dominions. This golden calf worship was followed by his successors; and at length Ahab, after his Phœnician marriage with Jezebel daughter of the king of Sidon, introduced the still viler worship of Baal and Astarte, with all its concomitant vices. One after another the reigning families were removed by private assassination or intestine war, while the whole strength of the kingdom was required to keep the Benhadads of Damascus at arm's length. His reign was undisturbed by war; but his prosperity, as a sovereign, is strangely contrasted with the long series of domestic tragedies which mark his latter years. He died of an intestinal disease the year after Christ was born, after a long reign of thirty-four years. Palestine was then divided by Augustus Cæsar between the three sons of Herod. Judæa and Samaria were given to Archelaus, under the title of ethnarch; Galilee and southern Peræa were assigned to Herod Antipas, under the title of tetrarch; and northern Peræa, with its several districts of Ituræa, Gaulonitis, Batanæa, Auranitis, and Trachonitis, were governed by the tetrarch Herod Philip. Ten years afterwards, Archelaus was deposed; and Judæa and Samaria were placed under Roman procurators, of whom the most celebrated was Pontius Pilate.

A few years after our Lord's death and resurrection, Herod Philip died; and his tetrarchy of northern Peræa was given to Agrippa I., with the title of king. Shortly afterwards, Herod Antipas was deposed from Galilee and southern Peræa; and the Roman procurator was then removed from Judæa and Samaria, and Agrippa I., the same who beheaded James and imprisoned Peter, was made king of all Palestine. Agrippa died A.D. 44. His son Agrippa II. was then made tetrarch of northern Peræa only; whilst the remainder of Palestine was again placed under the government of Roman procurators, of whom the most celebrated were Felix, Festus, Albinus, and Gessius Florus. Agrippa II., however, was at the head of all ecclesiastical affairs; and in this capacity assisted Festus in the examination of the apostle Paul. Florus was the last of this line of Roman procurators, and Agrippa II. was the last tetrarch in Palestine; for A.D. 70 Jerusalem was destroyed by Titus, and the Hebrews ceased to be a nation.

It thus appears that the periods of greatest prosperity to the people and to the land have been identical, and that these were just those in which Israel, following the divine command, took possession of Canaan, and sought to carry out there the divine purposes. When the tribes entered the land under Joshua, when under David the regal dominion was extended, when the first and second temples were erected, a measure of prosperity was enjoyed sufficient to indicate that a closer and more constant walk with God would have ensured a yet richer and more abundant blessing; while the calamities which came upon Israel in the time of the judges, under many of the kings of the divided monarchies, during the captivity, and at length towards the period of the destruction of Jerusalem, are a terrible indication, not only of the truth of the prophetic word, but of the righteous retribution which awaits the transgressor. Here it is written, as with letters of gold on the one hand and of blood on the other, that "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." Pr. 14. 34.

What a comment, too, does this history furnish on the prophecy uttered by Jacob: "The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come." Ge. 49. 10.

The Jewish nationality may be said to have lasted until the appearance of Jesus; but at His birth Herod trembled for his crown. On the death of that monarch, in the following year, the kingdom was parcelled out among his sons; and, at the time of the crucifixion, the Jews testified against themselves, saying, "We have no king but Cæsar." Jno. 19. 15. But a divine providence guided the hand of the Roman governor to write—and his tongue to confirm what was written—in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin, as a testimony, not to one nation but to all—"JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS." Jno. 19. 19. HE had come of whom it was written, "Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession." Ps. 2.

II. Egypt and Ethiopia: Physical Geography.—Egypt and Ethiopia occupied the northern portion of eastern Africa, and consequently lay to the south-west of Palestine, from which they were separated by the Red Sea and desert of Arabia Petræa. Egypt, in primeval times, consisted of a long rocky valley, terminating in a deep bay. The river Nile, which flowed from the highlands of Ethiopia, traversed the entire length of the valley, and emptied its waters into the bay. At the period when recorded history begins, the Nile had covered the rocky valley with rich and teeming earth, and by its continual deposits had transformed the bay into that extensive and fruitful territory known as the Delta. Egypt thus included, first, the long and narrow valley which follows the course of the Nile from the first cataract at Syene northwards to Cairo; and, secondly, the extensive plain of the Delta, which stretches, in the form of a delta upside down (∇), from Cairo northward to the Mediterranean. The entire length of Egypt, from the first cataract to the Mediterranean, is about five hundred miles; the breadth of the Delta along the Mediterranean coast is about eighty-five miles, but the average width of the long valley between Cairo and the first cataract is only nine miles.

Egypt is bounded on the north by the Mediterranean Sea, on the east by the Red Sea, on the south by the Nubian desert and Ethiopia, and on the west by the great desert of Sahara. The country is generally divided into three parts.—1. Upper or southern Egypt, of which Thebes was the capital, and which was crowded with temples, palaces, tombs, huge obelisks, colossi, and sphinxes.—2. Middle Egypt, of which Memphis was the capital, and which contained the pyramids of Gizeh, and lake Moeris.—3. Lower, or northern Egypt, comprising the Delta and land on both sides; it was full of cities, of which Sais was anciently the most remarkable; but, in after times, Alexandria became the capital, and the first trading city in the world.

ETHIOPIA or Cush, was a name generally applied to the whole of the region south of Egypt, and extending on both sides of the Red Sea, over Arabia as well as Africa. There was, however, an ancient kingdom of Ethiopia, which appears to answer to the country called by the ancients Meroe, and by the moderns Sennaar and Atbar. This region is a large triangle formed by the Nile on the west, the Tacazze, a tributary of the Nile, on the east, and the highlands of Abyssinia on the south. The desert of Nubia divides it from Egypt, but its monarchs often held possession of Upper, or southern Egypt.

Early History of Egypt.—The ancient history of Egypt stretches far back into the drear antique, to a fabulous period when the gods were supposed to have dwelt amongst mankind, and to have been the sovereigns of the country. Manetho, an Egyptian priest who flourished about B.C. 300, compiled from the sacred books of the Egyptians a comprehensive history of the country. This history was written in three tomes or rolls of papyrus, and contained, first, the mythology, or fabulous part, purporting to give the annals of the three successive dynasties of gods, demigods, and spirits; and, secondly, the history of the thirty dynasties of mortal kings. The latter commenced with Menes, who is said to have been the first mortal king of Egypt, and ended with Nectanebus, the last of the native Egyptian kings, B.C. 350; and, according to Manetho, the whole thirty dynasties extended over a period of from three thousand to five thousand years. The history is lost, but a list of the kings and dynasties has been preserved by Julius Africanus and Eusebius, and its correctness is said to be generally confirmed by the hieroglyphical inscriptions on the monuments.

The Pharaohs, prior to B.C. 750.—Egyptian history during the thirty dynasties of Manetho, is generally regarded as the history of the Pharaohs, and has been divided into three periods.—1. The Old Empire of Menes, comprising the first twelve dynasties, is generally supposed to have existed prior to the time of Abraham; and the great pyramids of Gizeh are believed to have been built by some of the kings of this ancient period.—2. The Middle Empire of the Hyksos, or shepherd kings, comprising the five dynasties following, or the thirteenth to the seventeenth inclusive, is supposed to have been in existence at the time of Abraham's visit to Egypt, but to have terminated shortly before the arrival of Joseph, when "shepherds were an abomination to the Egyptians."—3. The New Empire of the eighteenth dynasty downwards, a period to which all the Pharaohs mentioned in the Old Testament subsequent to the time of Abraham appear to have belonged, and including the ascendancy of Joseph and deliverance of the Israelites by Moses. The first name, however, which can be actually identified is that of Shishak, who invaded Judah and captured Jerusalem in the reign of Rehoboam, about B.C. 975; he was the first king of the twenty-second dynasty, and is named Sheshonk on the monuments, and Sesonchis in the list of Manetho.

Connection of Egyptian and Ethiopian with Hebrew history, B.C. 750–588.—Egyptian history, however, does not really begin before the reign of Sabaco the Ethiopian, who is said by Herodotus to have reigned over Egypt for fifty years, B.C. 765–715. His successor Sethon was a priest of Pthah, who reigned B.C. 715–671, and was an ally of Tirhakah, the king of Ethiopia, and a contemporary of Hezekiah and Manasseh, kings of Judah. About this time Hezekiah threw off the Assyrian supremacy, and Sennacherib, king of Assyria, marched towards Palestine with an overwhelming army to punish his disaffection. The nobles of Judah, in spite of the remonstrances of Isaiah, sent camels and asses laden with treasure to request aid from Pharaoh Sethon, or So; and especially to ask for cavalry and chariots. Sethon was involved in disputes with the military caste in Egypt, and unable to comply with the wishes of the Hebrew ambassadors; but he sent dispatches to his ally Tirhakah, king of Ethiopia, who immediately set off with a large army to repel Sennacherib. Meantime, as we learn from the Scriptures, Sennacherib was besieging the town of Libnah; but, hearing of the approach of the Ethiopian, he raised the siege and prepared to meet him. "And it came to pass that night that the angel of the Lord went out and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred fourscore and five thousand."

During the following century, whilst the Assyrian power still retained her hold upon Palestine, but had become involved in wars with the Medes and Chaldee-Babylonians, Egypt was consolidating her strength. Psammitichus, who reigned B.C. 650–617, improved the Egyptian army by the adoption of Greek tactics and armour, and began to take an interest in foreign affairs. His son Necho succeeded to the throne, B.C. 617, being the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Josiah. Necho began a canal from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean, and built a fleet of triremes; and at length determined on attacking the Assyrian power. His march was directed to Carchemish, an important post on the Euphrates; and he accordingly followed the usual route along the sea coast of Palestine, northward. Meantime Josiah heard of the expedition, and resolved to intercept his progress. Misled perhaps by the fact that Egypt was an early enemy of Israel, he presumed to act on the promptings of his own heart. Making Judah a party to a contest with which she had no concern, he suffered for his temerity. Thrusting himself uncalled between two hostile powers, he met his death at Megiddo, thus reading to others a solemn lesson that while God is the strength of his people, and can save by few as well as by many, they who rush into danger without his authority cannot reasonably hope that his strong arm will be interposed to save them. Necho pursued his course to the Euphrates and defeated the Assyrians, and, on his return through Palestine, he levied a heavy fine upon Judah, and carried away Jehoahaz in bands, and placed Jehoiakim on the throne. In B.C. 607 Necho was in his turn defeated by Nebuchadnezzar, and the following year Jehoia- kim was carried captive to Babylon. Necho died, B.C. 601. Psammis, his son and successor, is not mentioned in Scripture. Apries, son of Psammis, is mentioned under the name of Pharaoh Hophra, as having allied with Zedekiah, the last king of Judah, against Nebuchadnezzar; but as having been prevented by the advance of the Babylonian army from marching to his assistance. The remaining history of Egypt is soon told. In B.C. 530, the country was subdued by Cambyses, and became a province of the Persian empire; but, after the overthrow of that empire two centuries later, by Alexander the Great, a line of Græco-Macedonian sovereigns reigned at Alexandria, under the name of Ptolemies, until the death of the celebrated Cleopatra, B.C. 30, after which Egypt became a Roman province. The contemporary history of Ethiopia is more obscure. Neither the Pharaohs, the Persians, the Ptolemies, nor the Romans, were ever able to subdue the country. It is, however, a remarkable fact that Christianity very early extended to Ethiopia, in consequence, probably, of the conversion of the treasurer of queen Candace.

III. Assyria, Babylonia, Media, and Persia: Physical Geography.—The elevated region of western Asia, which extends southward of the mountains of Armenia, towards the Persian gulf, was anciently called by the general name of Syria, or Aram, but is better known to the modern geographer as the Plateau of Iran. It is watered by two great rivers, the Euphrates and the Tigris, which take their rise in the mountains of Armenia, and after a long and devious course towards the south, at last unite and fall together into the Persian gulf. The country on the northern course of the Tigris was called Assyria; that on the southern course of the Euphrates was called Babylonia. The large intervening space between the Euphrates and Tigris, and to the north of Babylonia, was called Mesopotamia, or Aram-naharaim, that is, "Aram between the rivers;" and the southern portion of Mesopotamia, which was more highly cultivated than the other, was called Padan-aram, from Padan, a field. The region westward of the Euphrates, and extending to the Mediterranean, is the country to which the name of Syria is the more properly applied, and is still best known by that name to the modern geographer. Eastward of Assyria was Media, and eastward of Babylonia was Susiana and Persia Proper. Assyria Proper answers to the modern country of Kurdistan, Babylonia to Irak-Arabi, Mesopotamia to Algezirah, Media to Irak-Ajemi, Susiana to Khuzistan, and Persia Proper to Farsistan.

Character of the Asiatic Empires.—The three great Asiatic empires, which successively extended more or less over the regions thus briefly indicated, were those of Assyria, Chaldee-Babylonia, and Medo-Persia. All these trace back their origin through lists of unknown dynasties to the earliest times; but, it is certain that at a primeval date, the Assyrian was already the great ruling power in Asia; and, many centuries later, we find the Chaldee-Babylonian and Medo-Persian kingdoms unable to maintain their independence.

The character of these great Asiatic empires may be described in a few words. At different periods, warlike nomade hordes, pressed by famine, or lured by the hope of plunder, have forsaken their northern or more sterile climes, to carry war and conquest into the fruitful and cultivated lands of southern Asia. There the conquerors have established an empire powerful but brief; for they have quickly adopted the luxurious habits of the vanquished nations, and, consequently, have been soon overthrown by fresh swarms of uncorrupted warriors, who also have in their turn degenerated and given way to new invaders. In this manner the empires of the Assyrians, the Chaldeans, the Persians, and the Parthians, were founded and fell; such, in the middle ages, was the history of the Arabian conquest; and such, up to the present day, has been the history of the empires of Tartary and Mongul.

The general features in the gradual internal development of these empires, formed by nomade conquerors, are: first, the mere occupation of rich territories and levying of tribute, when the constitutions already established among the conquered, or tributary nations, are generally suffered to remain; secondly, the gradual progress towards the adoption of a fixed abode, and the building of cities, together with the assumption of the customs and civilization of the conquered; thirdly, the division into provinces, and establishment of satrap governments; fourthly, insurrections of the satraps, and pernicious influence of the seraglio, which quickly produced the dissolution of the empire, or its total annihilation by some violent attack from without.

Origin of the Babylonian and Assyrian Empires: Modern Discoveries of Layard, etc.—The southern kingdom of Babel or Babylon, appears to have been originally founded by Nimrod, the son of Cush, and grandson of Ham; whilst the northern kingdom of Assyria or Nineveh, was founded by Asshur, the son of Shem. The four great cities of Babylonia were Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh; whilst the four great cities of Assyria were Nineveh, Rehoboth, Calah, and Resen. We thus perceive a Hamite and a Shemite kingdom in juxtaposition; one on the Euphrates, and the other on the Tigris; but their history seemed utterly lost until Europe was astounded by the discoveries of Botta and Layard. It will be sufficient to state that by the excavations conducted by these gentlemen, the sculptured remains of immense palaces have been brought to light, not only at the traditional site of Nineveh, namely, Kouyunjik, opposite to Mosul; but also at Khorsabad, about ten miles to the N. N. E., and at a mound, which still bears the name of Nimroud, and which is situated eighteen miles lower down the Tigris. These three mounds, with a fourth mound named Karamles, stand at four corners of a trapezium sixty miles in circuit; and are all considered by Layard to represent the site of ancient Nineveh. This theory coincides with Jonah's statement that Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey; and we need not suppose that this vast metropolis was compactly built like European towns; but rather that it was, as many great Eastern cities are at this day, a collection of scattered houses, interspersed with green pastures, extensive gardens, and fruitful vineyards. It is a remarkable circumstance that a key to the interpretation of the arrow head, or cuneiform writing, should only have been discovered in this day, when the excavations of Layard have brought to light an immense collection of inscriptions in this extraordinary character. Colonel Rawlinson, Dr. Hinckes, and numerous other learned antiquarians and philologists, are still laboriously engaged in examining and decyphering the varied treasures which have been exhumed. The results, however, are not as yet sufficiently advanced for the purposes of general history; it will suffice to say that they everywhere confirm the testimony of Holy Writ.

The old Assyrian Empire, prior to B.C. 820.—At a period which may have been considerably posterior to the days of Asshur, the old Assyrian empire extended over a large portion of western Asia. Chedorlaomer, who invaded Palestine and subdued the five kings in the time of Abraham, was probably an Assyrian monarch. The fabled exploits of Ninus and Semiramis would even carry us eastward to Bactria and the banks of the Indus. The Assyrians were a powerful people in the days of Moses, and David likewise mentions them among his enemies; but they do not fairly appear upon the page of history until the latter days of the Israelite monarchy. About B.C. 862, the prophet Jonah was sent to Nineveh. At that time the city is said to have contained more than a hundred and twenty thousand children who could not discern between their right hand and their left, and the population has, accordingly, been estimated at about two million souls. The mission of the prophet proved successful. The entire city clothed itself in sackcloth, and repented before the Lord. But this repentance was short-lived, and while Nineveh for the time was spared, the overthrow which had been predicted ultimately came upon it.

The power of Assyria had been long on the decline. She had been unable to save her vassal, Priam, king of Troy, from the vengeance of the Greeks under Agamemnon. She could not assail with any success, the empire of David and Solomon; nor could she prevent the establishment of the kingdom of Damascus, under the Benhadads, or the settlement of the Greek colonies on the shores of Asia Minor. About B.C. 820, Sardanapalus, the most effeminate and luxurious of even Asiatic sovereigns, sat upon the throne of Nineveh. Arbaces, the governor of Media, and Belesis, the governor of Babylonia, marched against him, and besieged Nineveh. Sardanapalus saw that the city was lost, and is said to have resolved to die the same death as Zimri, king of Israel, who, about a century before, had been besieged in the city of Tirzah, by the rebel general Omri, the father of Ahab. Accordingly, Sardanapalus ordered a large funeral pyre to be erected in the royal palace, and placed upon it all his treasures, together with his wives and concubines; and then ascending the pyre himself, he set it on fire, and the whole perished in the flames.

Second Assyrian Empire, B.C. 820-606.—A new dynasty of kings now ascended the throne of Nineveh, whom we may call the Arbacidæ, as they are supposed to belong to the family of Arbaces the Mede; and we may therefore take it for granted that the Assyrian kings who appeared in the latter days of the divided Hebrew monarchies of Judah and Israel, belonged to this Medo-Assyrian dynasty of the Arbacidæ. The first king of Assyria named in scripture is Pul, who about B.C. 770 invaded the kingdom of the ten tribes of Israel in northern Palestine, and obliged Menahem, the reigning monarch, to pay him a heavy tribute of silver. Tiglath-Pileser, his son and successor, repeated the invasion at the invitation of Ahaz, king of Judah, and about B.C. 750 carried away captive the Syrians of Damascus and the Israelites east of the Jordan. Shalmaneser succeeded, and in B.C. 721 captured Samaria the capital of Israel, and carried away the ten tribes into captivity. The second Assyrian empire was now at its zenith, and a few years after the captivity of Israel, Sennacherib the successor of Shalmaneser, marched through Palestine with an immense army for the invasion of Egypt; but the opposition which he received from Hezekiah, the pious king of Judah, and the destruction of his army by an angel of the Lord, has already been noted in the Egyptian history. The loss of this splendid army heralded the decline of the second Assyrian empire. A conspiracy was formed in the palace, and Sennacherib was assassinated by two of his sons while worshipping in the temple of Nisroch, the eagle-headed divinity of Assyria. Esarhaddon succeeded, the same who carried Manasseh, king of Judah and son of Hezekiah, into temporary captivity. Meantime the second Assyrian empire became weakened by its wars with Babylonia. Esarhaddon for a while obtained possession of the province, but after his death it fell into the hands of the Chaldeans. At length an alliance was formed between Cyaxares king of the Medes and Nabopolassar king of the Chaldee-Babylonians; and the Assyrian empire was overturned and Nineveh captured by the allied armies about B. C. 606.

Babylonia: History, B. C. 820-536. — After the first capture of Nineveh and destruction of the old Assyrian empire, Babylonia fell into the hands of a dynasty of kings, whose names and history are at present almost totally unknown. Of these the name of Nabonassar has been preserved, because his reign was fixed upon by the Babylonian astronomers as the era whence they began their calculations. This era is called the era of Nabonassar, and commenced on the 26th of February, B. C. 747. Another king, Merodach-Baladan, is also known to the reader of scripture as having sent ambassadors to king Hezekiah, about B. C. 712, to congratulate him on his recovery from sickness. A century later we find Babylonia in the hands of the Chaldees, a warlike race from the mountains of Armenia, who are generally identified with the Kurds. About B. C. 625 Nabopolassar was king of Chaldee-Babylonia. The wars between Nabopolassar and the later Assyrian kings probably led to the invasion of Necho already mentioned in the Egyptian history; and at last, as we have seen, Nineveh was captured B. C. 606, by the united armies of the Chaldee-Babylonians and Medes. Nebuchadnezzar succeeded his father Nabopolassar about B. C. 605. He enlarged and beautified Babylon, and carried Judah into Babylonian captivity; and after a long career of conquest died about B. C. 562. After his death four other kings of less note reigned over Babylon, including Belshazzar. But the Median power was now rising. The Medes were in close alliance with the Persians, and the young Cyrus, at the head of the united armies, defeated the Babylonians in several battles, and at last succeeded in capturing Babylon and putting an end to the monarchy.

Medo-Persian History, B. C. 820-330. — The early history of Media is intimately connected with the early history of Assyria and Babylon. Media Proper comprised a large and fertile table land, on the south-west of the Caspian Sea; it consequently lay to the east of Assyria Proper, and answered to the modern territory of Irak-Ajemi. In ancient times it formed a province of the old Assyrian empire, but about B. C. 820 its governor Arbaces had joined with Belesis, the governor of Babylonia, in revolting against the Assyrian supremacy; and their united forces had laid siege to Nineveh, and terminated that Assyrian dynasty which ended with the death of Sardanapalus. During the succeeding century, Media appears to have continued in a state of freedom and independence, under a kind of republican government, in which each district chose its own judge. At length, about B. C. 710, one of these judges, named Deioeces (the Nabuchodonosor of Judith), obtained the sovereign power, and built the great city of Ecbatana, and made it the metropolis of his kingdom. Phraortes, his successor, B. C. 647-625, subdued the hardy and warlike Persians on his south, and made war against Assyria, but perished in an attempt to capture Nineveh. Cyaxares, his son, allied with Nabopolassar, king of Chaldee-Babylonia, and captured Nineveh in B. C. 606, and thus overturned the second Assyrian empire. Astyages next succeeded, B. C. 585-550, but the events of his reign are involved in obscurity. After his death Cyaxares II., better known to the Scripture reader as Darius the Mede, appears to have sat upon the throne of Media; while vast conquests were achieved by the Medo-Persian armies under the generalship of a renowned Persian prince, afterwards known to the Greek world by the name of Cyrus the Great, but celebrated in oriental tradition by the name of Kai Khosru. Cyrus conquered the whole of western Asia to the shores of the Ægean; captured Babylon on the very night that Daniel interpreted the handwriting on the wall; and published the celebrated edict for the restoration of the Jews from their Babylonian captivity, which has already been noticed in the history of Palestine.

Thus it was that He in whose hand is the king's heart, as the rivers of water, and who turneth it whithersoever he will, Pr. 21. 1, raised up Cyrus his shepherd to perform all his pleasure, "even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid." Is. 44. 28. For Jacob His servant's sake, and Israel His elect, God upheld the right hand of Cyrus, loosing the loins of kings, opening before him the two-leaved gates, giving him the treasures of darkness, and hidden treasures of secret places. Is. 45. 1-4. Events which seemed shaped only by the ambitious designs of aspiring men, were overruled by an all-wise God, and made subservient to the interests of a captive race, weeping by the waters of Babylon.

Cambyses, the son and successor of Cyrus, reigned B. C. 530-523. He conquered Egypt, and is mentioned by Ezra under the name of Ahasuerus. His successor, Smerdis Magus, an impostor, is also mentioned by Ezra, under the name of Artaxerxes, as having prohibited the Jews from proceeding with the building of the second temple; but he perished in a conspiracy of the Persian nobles after a short reign of seven months. Darius Hystaspis then ascended the throne, and reigned B. C. 523-485. He pushed his conquests in every direction until the Medo-Persian empire spread far beyond the limits of the primeval empires of Assyria and Babylonia, and extended from the Ægean Sea to the river Indus, and from the steppes of southern Russia to the cataracts of the Nile. To the reader of Scripture, however, he is principally known as having confirmed the edict of Cyrus; and it was in his reign that the second temple was completed at Jerusalem, and solemnly dedicated to the Lord. Xerxes, his son and successor, attempted the conquest of European Greece, but his overwhelming armament met with an heroic resistance at Artemisium and Thermopylæ, and at last was utterly destroyed at Salamis and Platea.

The decline of the Medo-Persian empire now began; and the unrestrained luxury at the court, and rebellions in the provinces, accelerated its downfall. The Ahasuerus of Esther has been generally identified with either Xerxes or his successor Artaxerxes Longimanus, but the identity is still a mooted point. Artaxerxes Longimanus, who succeeded his father Xerxes, and reigned B.C. 465-425, was frequently disturbed by the insurrections of his satraps. Nehemiah was his cupbearer, and it was during his reign that a second caravan of Jews set out for Palestine under the leadership of Ezra. After his death, revolutions in the government succeeded each other with rapidity and violence, and the history becomes a frightful chronicle of intrigues and jealousies, treacherous poisonings and revolting outrages. Egypt maintained a successful revolt; and the Greeks were only prevented by the Peloponnesian war from unitedly falling upon Persia. At last, in B.C. 330, the empire was finally overturned by Alexander the Great.

IV. History of Greece, prior to B.C. 336.—The history of Greece, though so important in the history of the world, presents but few points of contact with the history of Palestine. In the days of Moses, Joshua, and the Judges, the little states which occupied the eastern promontory of southern Europe and the islands of the Ægean, were governed by petty kings, whose history is lost in mythological legend. About B.C. 1184, the warriors of Greece crossed over to Asia Minor and besieged Troy; and, within a few centuries afterwards, all the western shore of Asia Minor was studded with Greek colonies. Meantime the petty monarchies of Greece had given place to small republics, and every city with its surrounding territory became a free state; but all were to some extent united by a common descent, a common religion, and a common language. From an early period the two cities of Sparta and Athens were the leading states. Towards the close of the sixth century B.C., Sparta had long preserved severe military institutions and an aristocratic government; while Athens had only just recovered from a succession of revolutions, and obtained free political institutions and a democratic government. Lycurgus had been the legislator of Sparta, and Solon of Athens. The two states united for awhile in resisting the overwhelming invasion of Xerxes; and the Spartan warriors gained immortal renown at Thermopylæ, while the Athenian fleet achieved at Salamis the deliverance of Greece. But the repulse of the Persians was followed by that tremendous struggle between Sparta and Athens, known as the Peloponnesian war; and every state in Greece was convulsed by this deadly conflict. The war ended in the establishment of the Spartan supremacy and destruction of the national patriotism of the Greeks. Another bloody struggle arose between Sparta and Thebes, which so far changed the state of Greece that no state had the predominance. But meantime while the national virtues of the Greeks were disappearing, their intellect achieved its loftiest triumphs; and the histories of Herodotus, Thucydides, and Xenophon, the dramas of Æschylus, Euripides, and Sophocles, the mocking satire of Aristophanes, the teachings of Socrates, the ideal philosophy of Plato, the practical philosophy of Aristotle, and the oratory of Isocrates and Demosthenes, were then first given to the Greek world. The disunited and decaying states at last fell a prey to the barbarian arms and intrigues of Philip of Macedon; and, in B.C. 338, he defeated a united army of Athenians and Thebans in the decisive battle of Chæronea, and thus put an end to the independence of Greece. The ascendancy of Macedonia was further acknowledged by the appointment of Philip to be generalissimo of Greece in a projected invasion of Persia; but, in B.C. 336, he was carried away by the dagger of an assassin, and his celebrated son, Alexander the Great, succeeded to his throne and ascendancy.

Conquests of Alexander the Great, and History of the Four Græco-Macedonian Kingdoms, B.C. 336-30.

—The invasion of Persia, which had been projected by Philip for the purpose of distracting Greece from her degradation, was now carried out by his son Alexander, who ascended the throne at twenty years of age and died before he was thirty-three. This prince first established his supremacy from the banks of the Danube to the southern points of the Peloponnesus. In B.C. 334, he crossed the Hellespont into Asia Minor with a mixed army of 35,000 horse and foot, and gained his first triumph over the Persians on the banks of the Granicus. The next year he defeated half a million of the enemy in the narrow plain of Issus. Phœnicia, Palestine, and Egypt immediately submitted to the young warrior. He founded soon after the commercial city of Alexandria, and at last led his army over the Euphrates and Tigris, and gained a decisive victory over an immense army of the Persians in the battle of Arbela, B.C. 331. Darius Codomannus, the reigning king of Persia, fled to Media in dismay, but fell the next year by the hand of a traitor. Alexander then traversed Bactria, and afterwards crossed the river Indus and defeated the Indian king Porus on the banks of the Hydaspes; but, after advancing through the Punjaub to the banks of the Sutlej, he was compelled by the entreaties of his exhausted veterans to return to Babylon. He now aspired to conquer the world, but his dream of ambition was broken by death, for in the midst of revels and warlike preparations he was carried away by a drunken fever, B. C. 323. After his death a fearful struggle broke out between his generals, which, in B. C. 300, terminated by a division of the Macedonian empire into four kingdoms. Macedonia and Greece fell to Cassander; Thrace and Asia Minor to Lysimachus; Egypt and Palestine to Ptolemy Lagus; and all central Asia, from the Halys to the Indus, better known as the great Syrian empire, was given to Seleucus. The fate of these four kingdoms can be told in a few words. About B. C. 200, the two first were merging into the Roman empire. Egypt was governed by a line of Ptolemies, but only retained the supremacy of Palestine from B. C. 300-200, and in B. C. 30, was formed into a Roman province. Syria was governed by a line of kings known as the Seleucidae, and speedily lost nearly the whole of her vast territories. About B. C. 200, she revived for awhile under Antiochus the Great, and obtained the supremacy of Judæa; but, in B. C. 168, the Jews revolted under the Maccabees, and established the independence of their nation; and, in B. C. 63, her few remaining territories were formed by Pompey into a Roman province.

V. History of Rome, B. C. 753—A. D. 70.—The early history of Rome, like that of Greece, is almost lost in a cloud of heroic legends. About B. C. 753, and therefore about the time that the ten tribes of Israel were carried into Assyrian captivity, the stern ancestors of the Roman people founded a little state near the centre of the peninsula of Italy. From an early period the inhabitants were involved in domestic broils of patricians and plebeians, or engaged in desperate wars with neighbouring states; but, meantime, a political constitution was formed which bound them together by an equal love of liberty and law, and taught them to glory in the title of citizens of Rome. The political divisions of Italy laid the foundations of her dominion, and the want of political union in the world at large paved her way to universal empire. During the third century B. C., and while Judæa was still paying tribute to the Ptolemies, a desperate conflict began between Rome and the African city of Carthage. After two deadly wars, the struggle terminated, in B. C. 201, by a peace which stripped Carthage of her power; but fifty years afterwards, the latter city was utterly destroyed and razed to the ground. Meantime Rome had become a great military republic. She reduced Macedonia and Greece, and carried on a war with Antiochus the Great which led to her obtaining some of the finest provinces of Asia Minor. But these acquisitions led to the ruin of her constitution.

The nobles became enriched, while the people sank lower in poverty and distress; and a new struggle arose between the aristocracy and the democracy, which became far more terrible than the old struggle between patricians and plebeians. A succession of revolutions took place, which filled Rome with horrors; but, at the same time, her power and conquests were rapidly spreading abroad. In the first century B. C., Pompey had overrun Syria and Asia Minor, while Julius Cæsar had conquered Gaul from the Rhine to the Pyrenees, and invaded the island of Albion. A terrible civil war followed between Cæsar and Pompey, which terminated in the death of the latter, B. C. 48. Cæsar was subsequently elected dictator for life, but aimed at the title of king, and perished by the daggers of assassins on the memorable Ides of March, B. C. 44. Another civil war ensued, which terminated in the establishment of Augustus Cæsar as emperor of Rome. Our Lord commenced his career on earth in the reign of Augustus, but was crucified in the reign of his successor Tiberius; and it was in the reign of the ninth emperor Vespasian that Jerusalem was finally captured and destroyed by Titus, and the Jews ceased to be a nation, A. D. 70.

What an ample confirmation does the foregoing outline afford of the truth of the prophetic word! Not to recur again to what has been said more particularly of the Jewish nation, it was not without a purpose that the inspired seer wrote—"The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof; and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts. And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up." Is. 19. 1-5. Or, again: "I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations." Eze. 29. 10, 15.

It was not in vain that an utter end was predicted of Nineveh. Na. 1. 8, 9. Its very site was long unknown, and what remains of it now has been rescued as from the grave. And how remarkably has the prediction of Daniel been fulfilled in respect to the four kingdoms or empires which preceded the appearance of Him whose right it is to reign! The magnificent kingdom of Babylon, whose head was a "king of kings"; the inferior dominion of Persia, overwhelming Babylon in ruin, but itself yielding in turn to the Grecian power which was to bear rule over all the earth; this power, rapidly acquired, as rapidly sinking, to be absorbed by Rome, strong as iron, breaking in pieces and bruising all that opposed it,—these were the head, and body, and limbs of the image which appeared in vision to Nebuchadnezzar. Da. 2. And how has the strength of the iron been deteriorated by its mixture with miry clay, the power of Rome been weakened by the infusion of new elements, and the once universal rule parted among a variety of lesser states! What confidence may we therefore place in the ultimate fulfilment of that other prophecy already partly accomplished—"In the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever." Da. 2. 44.

What, then, is the great lesson which all these various threads of history combine to weave into the web of life? Is it not this? That every merely human policy must at last be overpowered and crumble into dust, but that that kingdom which is not of this world is alone an everlasting kingdom; that its king and head is rightful lord of heaven and earth; and that to yield to Him is to occupy our legitimate place; that to "seek first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness," is the sure way to attain that godliness which "is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." 1 Ti. 4. 8.

8. Jewish Divisions of Time.

An hour.
24 A day and night.
7 A week.
29½ A synodical lunar month
354 12 A synodical lunar year.

The day by itself consisted of twelve hours. The first hour of the day commenced about six o'clock, and lasted till seven; the second hour thus corresponded to our eight, the third to our nine, etc.

The night was also divided into watches. By the ancient Hebrews into three watches, viz., the beginning of the watch, the middle watch, and the morning watch. By the Jews of our Saviour's time into four watches, viz., the first watch, extending from six to nine P.M.; the second from nine to twelve; the third from twelve to three; and the fourth from three to six. These four latter watches appear to have been popularly designated—Even, Midnight, Cockerowing, and Morning. Mark 13. 35.

The synodical lunar month was about twenty-nine and a half days, and the Jewish months therefore consisted alternately of twenty-nine and thirty days, according as the new moon appeared sooner or later.

The Jewish lunar year was more than eleven days short of the solar year; an intercalary month was therefore added as often as necessary (generally once in three years), at the end of the ecclesiastical year, after the month Adar, and was called Veadar, or the second Adar.

The Jewish ecclesiastical year began at a different time from the civil year. 1. The Ecclesiastical or sacred year began on the first day of the month Nisan, corresponding to about the middle of March, this being the time when the Jews departed out of Egypt. From this month Nisan, or Abib, the Jews computed their feasts, and the prophets also occasionally dated their oracles and visions. 2. The Civil year began on the first day of the month Tisri, from a traditionary supposition that this was the date of the creation of the world. By this year the Jews computed their jubilees, and dated their contracts, births of children, and reigns of kings.

The following table exhibits the Jewish months in the order of the sacred year, with the corresponding months of the Julian year within the compass of which the Jewish months fell:

	days.
1. Nisan or Abib, the 7th month of the civil year,	30	Mar. & April.
2. Zif or Iyar, the 8th month of the civil year,	29	April & May.
3. Sivan, the 9th month of the civil year	30	May & June.
4. Tammuz, the 10th month of the civil year,	29	June & July.
5. Ab, the 11th month of the civil year,	30	July & Aug.
6. Elul, the 12th month of the civil year,	29	Aug. & Sept.
7. Tisri or Ethanim, the 1st month of the civil year, 30	30	Sept. & Oct.
8. Marchesvan, or Bul, the 2d month of the civil year, 29	29	Oct. & Nov.
9. Chisleu, the 3d month of the civil year,	30	Nov. & Dec.
10. Tebeth, the 4th month of the civil year,	29	Dec. & Jan.
11. Sebat, the 5th month of the civil year,	30	Jan. & Feb.
12. Adar, the 6th month of the civil year,	29	Feb. & Mar.

While the Jews continued in Palestine, the commencement of their months and years was not settled by any astronomical rules, but by the phasis, or actual appearance of the new moon; but after they became dispersed through all nations, they were obliged to make use of astronomical calculations and cycles, for fixing their new moons and years, as well as their fasts and festivals. The first cycle they used for this purpose was of eighty-four years; but this being discovered to be faulty, they had recourse to the Metonic cycle of nineteen years, which was established by the authority of Rabbi Hillel, prince of the Sanhedrin, about the year 360 of the Christian æra. This they still use, and say it is to be observed till the coming of the Messiah. In the compass of this cycle there are twelve common years, consisting of twelve months; and seven intercalary years, consisting of thirteen months, which are the third, sixth, eighth, eleventh, fourteenth, seventeenth, and nineteenth of the cycle.

CHAPTER I.

IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. He. 11. 3.—In the beginning was the Word, ... and the Word was God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. Jno. 1. 1-3.—... Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands. He. 1. 10; Ps. 102. 25.—By him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. Col. 1. 16.—Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Re. 4. 11.—He that built all things is God. He. 3. 4.—By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. Ps. 33. 6.

The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens. Pr. 3. 19.—Thou, even thou, art Lord alone: thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. Nu. 9. 6.—All the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens. Ps. 96. 5.—Ah, Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee. Je. 32. 17.

Who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; and forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth? Is. 51. 12, 13.—For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse. Ro. 1. 20.

2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

Thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created. Ps. 104. 30.—Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or being his counselor hath taught him? Is. 40. 13.

3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

He spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. Ps. 33. 9.—He commanded, and they were created. Ps. 148. 5.—Where is the way where light dwelleth? Job 38. 19.—I form the light. Is. 45. 7.—Thou hast prepared the light. Ps. 74. 16.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.

4 And God saw the light, that *it was*¹ good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the² evening and the morning were the first day.

1 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun. Ec. 11. 7.—Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness. Is. 5. 20.—What communion hath light with darkness? 2 Co. 6. 14.

2 While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease. Ge. 8. 22.—The day is thine, the night also is thine. Ps. 74. 16.—Thou makest darkness, and it is night. Ps. 104. 20.—From even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath. Le. 23. 32.—Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. Jno. 11. 9.

6 ¶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

Which alone spreadeth out the heavens. Job 9. 8.—The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handy work. Ps. 19. 1.—That stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in. Is. 40. 22.—Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. Ps. 148. 4.—He hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding. Je. 51. 15.—Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge? Job 37. 16.—Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth. Ps. 147. 8.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

Fear ye not me? saith the Lord; will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? Je. 5. 22.—This they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water. 2 Pe. 3. 5.—He hath compassed the waters with bounds. Job 26. 10.—He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses. Ps. 33. 7.—The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. Ps. 95. 5.—To him that stretched out the earth above the waters. Ps. 136. 6.—All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again. Ec. 1. 7.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains. Ps. 147. 8.—The earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God. He. 6. 7.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun. Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter. Ps. 74. 16, 17.—He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down. Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth. The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God. The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens. Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening. Ps. 104. 19, 23.—While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease. Ge. 8. 22.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

The Lord ... giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night. Je. 31. 35.—To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever: the sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever: the moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 7, 9.—Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light. Ps. 148. 3.—When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? Ps. 8. 3, 4.—In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof. Ps. 19. 4, 6.—Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power: not one faileth. Is. 40. 26.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. Mat. 24. 29.—The city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Re. 21. 23.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

And [Joshua] said, ... Sun, stand thou still; ... and thou moon. And the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. There was no day like that before it or after it. Jos. 10. 12-14.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts. Ps. 104. 24, 25.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly. Ps. 107. 38.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made of the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, ¹Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and ²let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God³ created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

¹ Go to, let us go down. Ge. 11. 7.—Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Is. 6. 8.

³ God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Ec. 7. 29.—O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Is. 64. 8.—In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him. Ge. 5. 1.—After the similitude of God. Ja. 3. 9.—Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves. Ps. 100. 3.—And hath made of one blood all nations of men. Ac. 17. 26.

Put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Ep. 4. 24.—And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 10; 2 Co. 3. 18.—He is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. 1 Co. 11. 7.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3.—Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold, thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord. Ps. 128. 3, 4.—He created not [the earth] in vain, he formed it to be inhabited. Is. 45. 18.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith... forbidding to marry. 1 Ti. 4. 1, 3.—Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled. He. 13. 4.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold,¹ I have given you every herb² bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

1 The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Ps. 24. 1.—The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men. Ps. 115. 16.—The living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Th. 6. 17.—He giveth meat in abundance. Job 36. 31.—Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. Ge. 9. 3. Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 25.—Which giveth food to the hungry. Ps. 146. 7.—He left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. Ac. 14. 17.

2 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth; and wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart. Ps. 104. 14, 15.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. Ps. 145. 15, 16.—He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. Ps. 147. 9.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold,¹ it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the ²sixth day.

1 O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all. Ps. 104. 24.—Every creature of God is good. 1 Th. 4. 4.—His work is perfect. De. 32. 4.

2 In six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. Ex. 31. 17.

CHAPTER II.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. Is. 65. 17.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

He spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. He. 4. 4.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. Ex. 20. 8, 11.—Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you. Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the Lord: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. Ex. 31. 13, 17.—Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it. Is. 56. 2.—There remaineth a rest to the people of God. He that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest. He. 4. 9, 11.

...The first day of the week... came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And after eight days again... came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Jno. 20. 19, 26.—On the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made. Ac. 16. 13.—Upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them. Ac. 20. 7.—Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him. 1 Co. 16. 2.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man; that he may bring forth food out of the earth. Ps. 104. 14.—Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields. Job 5. 10.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the ¹dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the ²breath of life; and man became a living soul.

1 The first man is of the earth, earthy. 1 Co. 15. 47.—... Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19.—Them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust. Job 4. 19.—He knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. Ps. 103, 14.—The dust shall return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Ecc. 12, 7.—But now, O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Is. 64, 8.

2 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils. Job 27, 3.—The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life. Job 33, 4.—He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things. Act. 17, 25.—Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils. Is. 2, 22.—The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam a quickening spirit. 1 Co. 15, 45.—... The Father of spirits. He. 12, 9.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord. Is. 51, 3.—... Eden the garden of God. Eze. 28, 13.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

Let him put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever. Ge. 3, 22.—[Wisdom] is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her. Pr. 3, 13.—The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge. Pr. 1, 7.—To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. Re. 2, 7.—In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. ... Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Re. 22, 2, 14.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. Re. 22, 1.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou comest toward Assyria. Ge. 25, 18.—Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah ... to Shur. 1 Sa. 15, 7.—The sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah. Ge. 10, 7.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

It was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel. Da. 10, 4.

15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

Let him ... labour, working with his hands the thing which is good. Ep. 4, 28.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of ¹every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof ²thou shalt surely die.

² The wages of sin is death. Ro. 6, 23.—In Adam all die. 1 Co. 15, 22.—Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1, 5.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord. Pr. 18, 22.—Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. 1 Co. 11, 9.—For Adam was first formed, then Eve. 1 Ti. 2, 13.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith... forbidding to marry. 1 Ti. 4, 1, 3.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: all sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; the fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. Ps. 8, 6—8.—The fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered. Ge. 9, 2.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. 1 Co. 11, 8.—Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled. He. 13, 4.

For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh. Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder. Mat. 19, 5, 6.—Even as the Lord the church. We are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. Ep. 5, 29, 30.

24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

The Pharisees came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? ... What God hath joined together, let no man put asunder. Mat. 19. 3-6.—The unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband. What knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? 1 Co. 7. 14, 16.—She is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For the Lord, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away. Mal. 2. 14, 16.—The woman which hath a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth. Ro. 7. 2.—Let not the wife depart from her husband: ... and let not the husband put away his wife. 1 Co. 7. 10, 11.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

Moses saw that the people were naked; for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies. Ex. 32. 25. Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen. Is. 47. 3.—O Lord, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed. Je. 17. 13.

CHAPTER III.

NOW the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 2 Co. 11. 3.—And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world. Re. 12. 9; 20. 2.

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. Ja. 2. 19.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. 1 Th. 2. 14.—The devil ... was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him.... He is a liar, and the father of it. Jno. 8. 44.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro.

5. 12.—All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 1 Jno. 2. 16.—Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 14, 15.—Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Ja. 4. 7.—Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. 2 Co. 2. 11.—Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Mat. 6. 13.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

He that formed the eye, shall he not see? Ps. 94. 9.—Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? Ps. 139. 7.—If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom. Job 31. 33.—For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings. There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. Job 34. 21, 22.—The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth. 2 Ch. 16. 9.—The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Pr. 15. 3.—Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord. Je. 23. 24.—Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence. Am. 9. 3.

Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness. Ro. 2. 15.—The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. He. 4. 12, 13.—If we hear the voice of the Lord our God any more, then we shall die. For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? De. 5. 25, 26.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. Ps. 119. 120.—Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him. Job 23. 15.—If our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 1 Jno. 3. 20.—I counsel thee to buy of me ... white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear. Re. 3. 18.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded that thou shouldest not eat?

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. Ps. 90. 8.

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.—Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 15.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked. Gal. 6. 7.

14 And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy ¹seed and her seed; it shall ²bruise thy head, and thou shalt ³bruise his heel.

Mi. 5. 3; Mat. 1. 23, 25; Ge. 49. 10, ref.

¹ The good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one. Mat. 13. 38.—Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. Jno. 8. 44.—thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness. Ac. 13. 10.—He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil smeth from the beginning. 1 Jno. 3. 8.

² The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne. Ps. 132. 11.—Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Is. 7. 14.—And, behold, thou shalt bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest. The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. Lu. 1. 31, 32, 35.—when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. 4. 4.

And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Lu. 10. 17, 20.

And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. Re. 12. 17.—And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. Re. 20. 10.

For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. 1 Pe. 3. 5–7.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field;

Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king. 1 Sa. 15. 23.

The creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope. Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. Ro. 8. 20–22.

Man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward. Job 5. 7.—Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. Job 14. 1.—All his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. Ec. 2. 23.—In the world ye shall have tribulation. But be of good cheer, I have overcome the world. Jno. 16. 33.

19 In the ¹sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast ²thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust ³shalt thou return.

¹ Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good. Ep. 4. 28.—This we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. 2 Th. 3. 10.

² And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground. Ge. 2. 7.—And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes. Ge. 18. 27.

³ They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them. Job 21. 26.—Man shall turn again unto dust. Job 34. 15.—He knoweth our frame: he remembereth that we are dust. Ps. 103. 14.—Thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust. Ps. 104. 29.—All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Ec. 3. 20.—The dust shall return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Ec. 12. 7.—By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.—It is appointed unto men once to die. He. 9. 27.

20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of ¹all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and ² clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the ³ tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

1 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 1 Co. 15. 21.

2 He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness. Is. 61. 10.—Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Ps. 32. 1.

3 I am the living bread: ... if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever. Jno. 6. 51.—To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. Re. 2. 7.

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till ¹ the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way ² of the tree of life.

2 Having ... boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh. He. 10. 19, 20.

CHAPTER IV.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant. Ge. 33. 5.—Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3.

3 And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of the ¹ firstlings of his flock and of the ² fat thereof. And the LORD had ³ respect unto Abel and to his offering:

1 Sanctify unto me all the firstborn ... among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine. Ex. 13. 2.—The firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the Lord. Nu. 18. 17.

2 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar. Ex. 29. 13.—And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the Lord; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them. Le. 3. 3, 4.

3 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

He. 11. 4.—Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. Pe. 1. 18, 19.—The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.—And there came a fire out from before the Lord, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering, and the fat; which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces. Le. 9. 24.—The God that answereth by fire, let him be God. 1 Ki. 18. 24.—And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the Lord; and he answered him from heaven by fire, upon the altar of burnt-offering. 1 Ch. 21. 26.—Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. 2 Ch. 7. 1.

The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee. Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Ps. 20. 1, 3.

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind? Pr. 21. 27.—Is thine eye evil, because I am good? Mat. 20. 15.—In every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. Ac. 10. 35.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow: though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Is. 1. 18.

Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. Is. 3. 10, 11.—For there is no respect of persons with God. Ro. 2. 11.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; when he speaketh fair, believeth him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart. Pr. 26. 24, 25.—Cain, ... was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. 1 Jno. 3. 12.—Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 15.—Marvel not ... if the world hate you. 1 Jno. 3. 13.

9 ¶ And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

Be sure your sin will find you out. Nu. 32. 23.—He hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it. Thou hast seen it: for thou beholdest mischief and spite to require it with thy hand. Ps. 10. 13, 14.—He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.—The devil ... was a murderer from the beginning. Jno. 8. 44.

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

Precious shall their blood be in his sight. Ps. 72. 14.—Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and ... the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. He. 12. 24.—How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? Re. 6. 10.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast ¹driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever ²slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

Cast me not away from thy presence. Ps. 51. 11.—The wicked is driven away in his wickedness; but the righteous hath hope in his death. Pr. 14. 32.—The wicked flee when no man pursueth. Pr. 28. 1.

² Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. Ge. 9. 6.—He that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him. Nu. 35. 21.

16 ¶ And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived and bare Enosh: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enosh.

Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names. Ps. 49. 11.

18 And unto Enosh was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael; and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth. Ge. 5. 3.

26 And ¹to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men to ²call upon the name of the LORD.

² And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord. 1 Ki. 18. 24.—I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Ps. 116. 17.—Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered. Joel 2. 32; Ac. 2. 21; Ro. 10. 13.—All that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and ours. 1 Co. 1. 2; Ac. 9. 14.—Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. Ac. 22. 16.

CHAPTER V.

THIS is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him;

2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

Put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Ep. 4. 24.—And ... put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3. 10.—God hath made man upright. Ec. 7. 29.

3 ¶ And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth:

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Ps. 51. 5.—That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Jno. 3. 6.—Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. Job 14. 4.

4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos:

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 ¶ And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainan :

10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters :

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years : and he died.

12 ¶ And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel :

13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters :

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years : and he died.

15 ¶ And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared :

16 And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters :

17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years : and he died.

18 ¶ And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch :

19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters :

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years : and he died.

21 ¶ And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah :

22 And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters :

By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death ; before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. He. 11. 5.—Noah walked with God. Ge. 6. 9.—The Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God ; walk before me, and be thou perfect. Ge. 17. 1.—The Lord, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way. Ge. 24. 40.—I have set the Lord always before me : because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Ps. 16. 8.—I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. Ps. 116. 9.—Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord ; that walketh in his ways. Ps. 128. 1.—Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee. 1 Kz. 3. 6.—Remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. 2 Kz. 20. 3.—And [Josiah] did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left. 2 Kz. 22. 2.—They were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. Lu. 1. 6.—Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified ; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied. Ac. 9. 31.—Ye shall walk after the Lord your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him. De. 13. 4.—If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee ... a man on the throne of Israel. 1 Kz. 2. 4.—If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments ; if they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments ; then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. Ps. 89. 30-32.—Ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies ?

Ne. 5. 9.—All people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever. Mt. 4. 5.—He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good ; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God ? Mt. 6. 8.—The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips : he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity. Mal. 2. 6.—Teach me thy way, O Lord ; I will walk in thy truth : unite my heart to fear thy name. Ps. 86. 11.—Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. Gal. 5. 16.—We walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Co. 5. 7.—If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth ; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another. 1 Jno. 1. 6, 7.—He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 Jno. 2. 6.—Can two walk together, except they be agreed ? Am. 3. 3.

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years :

24 And Enoch walked with God : and he was not ; for God took him.

He had this testimony, that he pleased God. He. 11. 5.—And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. Jude 14, 15 ; Ge. 42. 36. Je. 31. 15.

25 And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech :

26 And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters :

27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years : and he died.

28 ¶ And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son :

29 And he called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the Lord hath cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters :

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years : and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old : and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER VI.

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the ¹sons of God saw the daughters of men that they ²were fair ; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

1 Then began men to call upon the name of the Lord. Ge. 4. 26.—Ye are the children of the Lord your God. De. 14. 1.—Thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods : so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. De. 7. 3, 4.

2 Solomon loved many strange women : ... and his wives turned away his heart. 1 Kz. 11. 1, 3.—Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things?...even him did outlandish women cause to sin. Shall we then do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? Ne. 13. 25, 26.—Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?...Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 14, 17, 18; Ex. 31. 16; Ge. 26. 34, 35.

3 And the LORD said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

Quench not the Spirit. 1 Th. 5. 19.—Many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. Ne. 9. 30.—I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. Je. 11. 7, 8.—Their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. For he remembered they were but flesh. Ps. 78. 37, 39.—That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Jno. 3. 6.—The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Ro. 8. 7, 8; 2 Ch. 24. 15.

Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. Is. 1. 5; 5. 4, 5.—They rebelled and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Is. 63. 10.—This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Gal. 5. 16, 17.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

The imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. Ge. 8. 21.—There is no man that sinneth not. 1 Ki. 8. 46.—The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Ps. 14. 2, 3; Ro. 3. 10.—Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Pr. 20. 9.—The heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live. Ec. 9. 3.—There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.—Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: these are the things which defile a man. Mat. 15. 19, 20.—And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. Ro. 1. 28.—There is no fear of God before their eyes. Ro. 3. 18.—De. 29. 19.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. He. 3. 10.—I am the Lord, I change not. Mal. 3. 6.—The Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.—The Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. 1 Sa. 15. 29.—God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent. Nu. 23. 19. Ro. 11. 29.

It repented me that I have set up Saul to be king. 1 Sa. 15. 11.—And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. 2 Sa. 24. 16.—They rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Is. 63. 10.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God. Ep. 4. 30. Je. 18. 7, 10; Jon. 3. 10.

7 And the LORD said, I will ¹destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found ²grace in the eyes of the LORD.

1 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea. Is. 48. 18.—And ... he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. Lu. 19. 41, 42.

2 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness. 2 Pe. 2. 5.—Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight. ... And the Lord said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. Ex. 33. 13, 17.—And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God. Lu. 1. 30.—My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments: for length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart: so shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man. Pr. 3. 1, 4.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a ¹just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah ²begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil. Job 1. 1.—Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace. But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off. Ps. 37. 37, 38.—Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith. Hab. 2. 4. Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in [the land], they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Eze. 14. 14.—I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect. Ge. 17. 1. 2 And Noah was five hundred years old: and he begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ge. 5. 32.

11 The earth also was ¹corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God ²looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

1 What things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Ro. 3. 19.

2 The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Pr. 15. 3.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

The end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. 1 Pe. 4. 7.—The heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. ... Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? 2 Pe. 3. 7, 11, 12.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER VII.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

Once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. 1 Pe. 3. 20.—In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. Pr. 14. 26.—A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Ps. 91. 7, 8.—Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger. Zep. 2. 3.—Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. Is. 3. 10, 11.—Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy; to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine. Ps. 33. 18, 19.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

See Lev. chap. 11.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. Is. 11. 6, 7.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

As the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Mat. 24. 37-39.—For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. 1 Th. 5. 3.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark ;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him : and the Lord shut him in.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Ps. 46. 1. 3.—And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage : and the door was shut. Mat. 25. 10.—Strive to enter in at the strait gate : for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us ; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are. Lu. 13. 24, 25.—My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. And I give unto them eternal life ; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28.—Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pe. 1. 5.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth ; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth ; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth ; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail ; and the mountains were covered.

21 And ¹all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man :

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every ²living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven ; and they were destroyed from the earth : and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

¹ God is not a man that he should lie ; neither the son of man, that he should repent : hath he said, and shall he not do it ? Nu. 23. 19.

² Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished : but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. Pr. 11. 21.—And these shall go away into everlasting punishment :

but the righteous into life eternal. Mat. 25. 46.—Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Eze. 14. 14.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark : and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged ;

And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt. Ge. 19. 29.—O Lord, thou preservest man and beast. Ps. 36. 6.—Should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand ; and also much cattle ? Jon. 4. 11.—Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing ? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. Mat. 10. 29.

2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained ;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually : and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month : in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made :

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground ;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth : then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days ; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark ;

I waited patiently for the Lord ; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. Ps. 40. 1.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening ; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off : so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days ; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee. Ex. 20. 24.—By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

21 And the LORD smelled a ¹sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's ²heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as ³I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

¹ Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour. Ep. 5. 2.

² The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Je. 17. 9.—The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Ro. 8. 7, 8.

³ The heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pe. 3. 7.

CHAPTER IX.

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. Ge. 1. 29.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. Le. 17. 10, 11.

For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. 1 Ti. 4. 4.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

He that smiteth a man so that he die, shall be surely put to death. If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit. Ex. 21. 12, 28.

6 Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

God created man in his own image. Ge. 1. 27.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. Psa. 145. 9.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

The world that then was, being overflooded with water, perished. But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pe. 3. 6, 7; Is. 54. 7-10.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations :

And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. Ge. 17. 11.

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant betwixt me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud :

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh ; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Ps. 106. 45.—Know therefore that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations. De. 7. 9.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud ; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the sons of Noah that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth : and Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah : and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard :

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken ; and he was uncovered within his tent.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging : and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Pr. 20. 1.—Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Pr. 23. 31, 32.—For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.—Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1 Co. 10. 12.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it. Pr. 30. 17.—Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth. 1 Co. 13. 6.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father ; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

Honour thy father. Ex. 20. 12.—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness ; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.—And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves : for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Pe. 4. 8.

25 And he said, Cursed be Canaan ; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. De. 27. 16.—And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out. Ju. 1. 28.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem ; and Canaan shall be his servant.

Happy is that people, that is in such a case : yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord. Ps. 144. 15.

27 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem ; and Canaan shall be his servant.

From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles ; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering : for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 1. 11.—Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. 2. 19.

28 ¶ And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years : and he died.

CHAPTER X.

NOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth : and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth ; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Eze. 38. 2.

3 And the sons of Gomer ; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan ; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands ; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 ¶ And the sons of Ham ; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush ; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah : and the sons of Raamah ; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod : he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD : wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth. Ge. 11. 9.—And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof. Mi. 5. 6.

11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and built Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtulim, 14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (out of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 ¶ And Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza; as thou goest unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber was born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar, a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER XI.

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty? Da. 4. 30.—Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names. Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish. This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Ps. 49. 11–13. The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot. Pr. 10. 7.

5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they ¹begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not ²understand one another's speech.

¹ Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? Ps. 2. 1.—The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought; he maketh the devices of the people of none effect. Ps. 33. 10.—He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Ps. 2. 4.

² And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Ac. 2. 4.

8 So the LORD ¹scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they ²left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

1 For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. Ps. 92. 9.—He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. Lu. 1. 51.

² The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him. Pr. 10. 24.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem:

Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah:

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber:

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg:

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu:

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug:

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah:

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Ischah.

30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER XII.

NOW the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.... So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Lu. 14. 26, 33.

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. Ge. 22. 16-18.—Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. Mt. 7. 20.—That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. Gal. 3. 14.

3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 25, 26.—The scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. Gal. 3. 8.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him: and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

By faith Abraham, when, he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Heb. 11. 8-10.

6 ¶ And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land.

Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord. Ge. 13. 18.

7 And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

And behold, the Lord said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. Ge. 28. 13.—Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Gal. 3. 16.—I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God. Ge. 17. 8.—Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father. Ge. 26. 3.—In the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates. Ge. 15. 18.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of ¹ Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called ² upon the name of the LORD.

¹ And he called the name of that place Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. Ge. 28. 19.

² All that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's. 1 Co. 1. 2.—There is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? Ro. 10. 12-14.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was fair to look upon. Ge. 26. 7.—And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake. Ge. 20. 11.—The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.—There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.—Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. Je. 17. 7.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

17 And the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 28.—Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Heb. 13. 4.—When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people; He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes. Ps. 105. 13, 14.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

The Lord hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses. Ge. 24. 35.—Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his house. Ps. 112. 1-3.—Thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day. De. 8. 18.—Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. Pr. 3. 9, 10.—The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. Pr. 10. 22.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33.—For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance. 1 Ti. 4. 8, 9.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. Ps. 145. 18.—Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth. Ps. 26. 8.—Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Ps. 116. 2, 17.

5 ¶ And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a ¹strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle, and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be ²no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

¹ Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? Ne. 5. 9.—Do all things without murmurings and disputings: that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. Phi. 2. 14, 15.

² Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Mat. 5. 9.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another. Ro. 12. 10.—My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 1 Jno. 3. 18.—If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Ro. 12. 18.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground; a fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. Ps. 107. 33, 34.—Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 Jno. 2. 15.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked. Ps. 26. 5.—Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. 1 Co. 15. 33.

13 But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the Lord exceedingly.

Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. Eze. 16. 49.—And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.) 2 Pe. 2. 7, 8.

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. Ac. 7. 5.

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

In blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. Ge. 22. 17.—And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. Ge. 26. 4.—And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Ge. 28. 14.

I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. Ge. 32. 12.—And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. Ge. 15. 5.

O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. Is. 48. 18, 19.—As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. Je. 33. 22.

Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. He. 11. 12.

After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes and palms in their hands. Re. 7. 9.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.

And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. Ge. 23. 2.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

Like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath. De. 29. 23.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim,

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zebaiim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slime-pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and repent. Re. 3. 19.

13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first. Ju. 18. 29.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale.

Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet. Is. 41. 2, 3.

18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God.

Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him. First being by interpretation king of righteousness, and after that also king of Salem, which is, king of peace. Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually. He. 7. 1. 3.—Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. He. 6. 20.—In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. Ps. 76. 2.—The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Ps. 110. 4.

19 And he ¹blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high ²God, possessor of heaven and earth:

² I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth. Mat. 11. 25.—The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's. Ps. 115. 16.—The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Ps. 24. 1.

20 And ¹blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him ²tithes of all.

¹ Blessed be the Lord my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight. Ps. 144. 1.

² To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all. ... Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. He. 7. 2, 4.—Of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee. Ge. 28. 22.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

He held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever. Da. 12. 7.—The angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever and ever. Re. 10. 5, 6.

CHAPTER XV.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear ¹not, Abram: I am thy ²shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

¹ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Is. 41. 10.—And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. Lu. 1. 30.

And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last. Re. 1. 17.—And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Mat. 10. 28.

Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. Da. 10. 12.—When Zacharias saw [the angel], he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard. Lu. 1. 12, 13.

² The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Ps. 27. 1.—Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Pr. 30. 5.—His truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Ps. 91. 4.—Thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield. Ps. 5. 12.—Thou art my hiding place and my shield. Ps. 119. 114.—The Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Ps. 84. 11.—Thou, O Lord, art a shield for me. Ps. 3. 3.—Thou art my refuge, and my portion in the land of the living. Ps. 142. 5.—The Lord is my portion, saith my soul: therefore will I hope in him. La. 3. 24.—He hath said, I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. He. 13. 5, 6.—Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed. Ps. 84. 9.

2 And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

He gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. Ac. 7. 5.—Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3.

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. He. 11. 12.—Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the Lord thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude. De. 10. 22.

6 And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. Ro. 4. 18.—Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Gal. 3. 6.—He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Ro. 4. 20, 22.

What saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Ro. 4. 3.—The scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God. Ja. 2. 23.—We say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. Ro. 4. 9.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; and foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites. Ne. 9. 7, 8.—The Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee. Ge. 12. 1.—And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. Ge. 11. 31.

8 And he said, Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me. Ju. 6. 17.—And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years. Lu. 1. 18.

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.

And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof. ... I will even give them into the hand of their enemies. Je. 34. 18, 20.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep ¹sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger, ²in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;

¹ And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof. Ge. 2. 21.

² Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. Ex. 12. 40.—Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. Ps. 105. 23.—He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants. Ps. 105. 25.

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

And the Lord shewed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes. De. 6. 22.—And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians. Ex. 12. 36.—He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes. Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them. Ps. 105. 37, 38.

15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. Is. 57. 1, 2.—Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season. Job 5. 26.—Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace. Ps. 37. 37.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Mat. 23. 32.—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pe. 3. 9.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace. Ex. 19. 18.—Our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 29.

18 In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

19 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

And the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. Ge. 13. 14, 15.—And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. Ex. 23. 31.

Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt. 1 Kz. 4. 21.—This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed. De. 34. 4.—And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel. Is. 27. 12.

CHAPTER XVI.

NOW Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was ¹ Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened ² to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

1 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. Gal. 4. 24.

2 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life. Ge. 3. 17.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear: for a servant when he reigneth;... and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress. Pr. 30. 21-23.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

Ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. 1 Pe. 3. 7.

7 ¶ And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur.

And they dwell from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria. Ge. 25. 18.—Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. Ex. 23. 20, 21.—In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them. Is. 63. 9.—And the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 3. 1.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands.

Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 18.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

12 And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? Ps. 139. 7.—For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings. Pr. 5. 21.

14 Wherefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 ¶ And Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael.

And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. Ge. 21. 20.

16 And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

And Isaac came from the way of the well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country. Ge. 24. 62.—And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi. Ge. 25. 11.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect.

I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. Ex. 6. 3.—No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. Jno. 1. 18.—Enoch walked with God. Ge. 5. 22.—Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. Ge. 6. 9.—There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God and eschewed evil. Job 1. 1.

If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. 1 Ki. 2. 4.—I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. 2 Ki. 20. 3.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us. Ep. 3. 20.—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Mat. 5. 48.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing. Ge. 12. 2.

I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. Ge. 13. 16.—In blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. Ge. 22. 17.

3 And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee.

And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. Ro. 4. 11, 12.—Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham: who is the father of us all, (as it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations.) Ro. 4. 16, 17.—If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee.

And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias; and Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa; and Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias; and Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias; and Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias; and Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon. Mat. 1. 6, 11.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

God is not ashamed to be called their God. He. 11. 16.—He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; as he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever. Lu. 1. 54, 55.

I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. Ge. 26. 24.—I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. Ge. 28. 13.

Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, in Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. Ro. 9. 7-9.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pe. 1. 4.—Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever. Is. 60. 21.—The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. Is. 63. 18.

Thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth. De. 14. 2.—The Lord hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments; and to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy people unto the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken. De. 26. 18.

Enter into covenant with the Lord thy God, and into his oath, which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day: that he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. De. 29. 12, 13.

9 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; to such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them. Ps. 103. 17, 18.

10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised. Ro. 4. 11.

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Ro. 2. 28, 29.—Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.—For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Phi. 3. 3.—In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 11.

In Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Gal. 5. 6.

12 And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. Le. 12. 3.—Eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child. Lu. 2. 21.—Circumcised the eighth day. Phi. 3. 5.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the Lord met him, and sought to kill him. Then Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son. Ex. 4. 24, 25.

15 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Jno. 8. 56.—Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased. Ps. 4. 7.

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. Ro. 9. 8.—Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. Gal. 4. 28.

20 And as for ¹ Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this ² set time in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

1 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham: and these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the first born of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Abdeel, and Mibsam, and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah: these are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations. Ge. 25. 12-16.

² Sarah conceived and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. Ge. 21. 2.

23 ¶ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

I made haste and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Ps. 119. 60.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Ro. 4. 20, 21.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron. Ge. 13. 18.—Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner. Ge. 14. 13.

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

Use hospitality one to another without grudging. 1 Pe. 4. 9.—Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Heb. 13. 2.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

Then Abraham fell upon his face and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear? Ge. 17. 17.—Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb. He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God. Ro. 4. 18–20.—Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. Accounting that God was able to raise [Isaac] up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. Heb. 11. 11, 12, 19.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

Ah Lord God, behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee. Je. 32. 17.—God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Mat. 3. 9.—With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible. Mat. 19. 26.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, Shall I ¹hide from Abraham that thing which I do;

1 The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant. Ps. 25. 14.—Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. Amos 3. 7.—Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth; but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. Jno. 15. 15.

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. Gal. 3. 8.—Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Ac. 3. 25.

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. De. 32. 46.—Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons; especially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. De. 4. 9, 10.

And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. De. 6. 7.—And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. Jos. 24. 15.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. Ps. 119. 9.—My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother. Pr. 6. 20.

And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Eph. 6. 4.

20 And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. Eze. 16. 49, 50.—Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. Ja. 5. 4.

21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Je. 17. 10.—Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. He. 4. 13.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD.

23 ¶ And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

Righteous art thou, O Lord, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments. Je. 12. 1.—Say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. Eze. 21. 3.

And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? Nu. 16. 22.—And David spake unto the Lord when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house. 2 Sa. 24. 17.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. 10. 22.

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it. Je. 5. 1.

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers. Job 8. 20.—Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. Is. 3. 10, 11.—So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth. Ps. 58. 11.

Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice? Job 8. 3.—Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just? Job 34. 17.—God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? Ro. 3. 6.

The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. Is. 57. 1.

26 And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. Eze. 22. 30.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes:

Men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.

Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19.—Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 5.

Simon Peter ... fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. Lu. 5. 8.—Them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth. Job 4. 19.

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once. Ju. 6. 39.

Thus saith the Lord, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all. Is. 65. 8.—The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.

33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. He. 13. 2.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. Lu. 24. 28.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

Ro. 1. 24, 27.

Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him. Ju. 19. 22.—Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7. They declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. Is. 3. 9.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

Ju. 19. 24.

He wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid. Mar. 9. 6. And not ... (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come: whose damnation is just. Ro. 3. 8.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? Ex. 2. 14.—And ... Elisha prayed unto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. 2 Kz. 6. 18.—Behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee [Elymas], and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. Ac. 13. 11.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

And the Lord said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation. Ge. 7. 1.—So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire. Mat. 13. 49, 50.—And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; and delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.) 2 Pe. 2. 6-8.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Lu. 17. 28, 29.—When they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. 1 Th. 5. 3.

Their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not. Lu. 24. 11.—He that regarded not the word of the Lord left his servants and his cattle in the field. Ex. 9. 21.

And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. Nu. 16. 20, 21.—And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Get ye up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces. Nu. 16. 44, 45.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, lest ye be consumed in all their sins. Nu. 16. 24, 26.—And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Re. 18. 4.

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 2 Co. 6. 2.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? He. 1. 14.

The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate. Ps. 34. 22.—It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. La. 3. 22.—For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. Ro. 9. 15, 16.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains: let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. Mat. 24. 16-18.—And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Re. 18. 14, 15.

And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. Lu. 9. 62.—This one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Phi. 3. 13, 14.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord:

Be it far from thee, Lord. Mat. 16. 22.

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. 1 Sa. 27. 1.—Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 5, 6. For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.—He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. Ps. 145. 19.

23 ¶ The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and a horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. Ps. 11. 6.—Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.—Turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly. 2 Pe. 2. 6.

And let that man be as the cities which the Lord overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide. Je. 20. 16.—As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the Lord, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it. Je. 49. 18.

Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they plated, they builded; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. Lu. 17. 28, 30.

How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Ho. 11. 8.—I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning. Am. 4. 11.

Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. Is. 1. 9.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

He that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Lu. 17. 31, 32.—If any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. He. 10. 38, 39.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the Lord:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

The kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning. Re. 18. 9.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged. Ge. 8. 1.—The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy. Ps. 145. 20.—Turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes [God] condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; and delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness. 2 Pe. 2. 6-10.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. Ja. 1. 8.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. Pr. 23. 31-33.—Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 1 Co. 10. 12.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

And the Lord said unto [Moses], Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession. De. 2. 9.—And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor: and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel. Nu. 25. 1-3.—Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh. Nu. 21. 29.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession. De. 2. 19.

CHAPTER XX.

AND Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee. The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. Ge. 12. 15.—And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon. Ge. 26. 7.

The fear of man bringeth a snare; but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.—There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20. God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. 2 Ch. 32. 31.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.

He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes. Ps. 105. 14.—When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. Eze. 33. 14, 15.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. 2 Ki. 20. 3.

Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 2 Co. 1. 12.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

God suffered him not to hurt me. Ge. 31. 7.—The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will. Pr. 21. 1.—He that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. Lu. 12. 48.—Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight. Ps. 51. 4.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the Lord. 1 Sa. 7. 5.—My servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept. Job 42. 8.—If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. 1 Jno. 5. 16.—Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Ja. 5. 14, 15.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us. Ge. 26. 10.—And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them? Ex. 32. 21.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes. Ps. 36. 1.—By the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. Pr. 16. 6.

12 And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Ischah. Ge. 11. 29.—Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Th. 5. 22.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

Now the Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee. Ge. 12. 1.—By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. He. 11. 8.

14 And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 ¶ So Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels. And the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife. Ge. 12. 16, 17.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

He of the freewoman was by promise. We, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. Gal. 4. 23, 28.—And God said, Sarah! thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac. Ge. 17. 19.

2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. He. 11. 11. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year. Ge. 17. 21.—And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. Jos. 24. 3.—Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child. Is. 54. 1.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised. Ge. 17. 10.—He gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Ac. 7. 8.

And when Abraham was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect. Ge. 17. 1.—Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is a hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear? Ge. 17. 17.

6 ¶ And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Ps. 113. 9.—And [Elizabeth's] neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her. Lu. 1. 58.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking.

And Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael. Ge. 16. 15.—As then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. Gal. 4. 29.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath a husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free. Gal. 4. 22-31.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. Ro. 9. 7, 8.—And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac. Ge. 17. 20, 21.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. Jno. 8. 35.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham: and these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah: these are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations. And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, a hundred and thirty and seven years; and he gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people. And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren. Ge. 25. 12-18.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

And they said, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee. Ge. 26. 28.—Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the Lord, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token. Jos. 2. 12.—Swear now therefore unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. 1 Sa. 24. 21.

In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. Zec. 8. 23.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

Ge. 26. 15, etc.

If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. Mat. 18. 15.

26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phicol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the Lord, the everlasting God.

1 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Ps. 90. 2.—The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. De. 33. 27.—Unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Ti. 1. 17.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND it came to pass after these things, that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of ²Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

1 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Ja. 1. 12.—That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 7.

The Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. De. 13. 3.—God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.

2 Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem in mount Moriah. 2 Ch. 3. 1.

3 God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Jno. 3. 16.

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. Ps. 119. 60.—He that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Mat. 10. 37.—If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Lu. 14. 26.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

He was buried, and ... rose again the third day according to the scriptures. 1 Co. 15. 4.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.

And [Jesus] bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha. Jno. 19. 17.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

And when they had bound [Jesus], they led him away. Mat. 27. 2.—He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Is. 53. 7.—He humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 8.—Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. Jno. 10. 17, 18.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called. Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. He. 11. 17, 19.—Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. Ja. 2. 21, 24.

Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 1 Sa. 15. 22.—Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Mt. 6. 7, 8.—For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works. Eph. 2. 10.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jchovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. Ge. 12. 3.—To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. Lu. 1. 72–75.

When God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. He. 6. 13, 14.

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. Ga. 3. 16, 7.—Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Ac. 3. 25.—And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Ga. 3. 8, 9.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor;

21 Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, 22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight Mileah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

3 ¶ And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. 1 Ch. 29. 15.—Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; and confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant: saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: when there were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. Ps. 105. 9–12.—By faith [Abraham] sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. He. 11. 9, 10.—And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. Ac. 7. 5.

These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. He. 11. 13.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty¹ prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

1 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. Ge. 13. 2.—And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen. Ge. 14. 14.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar,

9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.

10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying,

11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, ... and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. Je. 32. 9.

17 ¶ And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

His sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. Ge. 50. 13.—I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open. Je. 32. 10, 11.

Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel. Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe. And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi. Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day. Ruth 4. 7-10.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.

Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. Ge. 21. 5.—And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. Ge. 13. 2.

The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. Pr. 10. 22.—They which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Gal. 3. 9.—Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever. Psa. 112. 1-3.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee swear ¹ by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not ² take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

¹ Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. De. 6. 13.

² If Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? Ge. 27. 46.—She is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 1 Cor. 7. 39.—Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 2 Cor. 6. 14.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever. Ex. 32. 13.—Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Ex. 23. 20.—The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Psa. 34. 7.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, ¹ O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the ² daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and ³ thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

¹ And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. Ex. 3. 15.—O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer. Ne. 1. 11.

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. Ps. 37. 5.—Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 5, 6.—Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.

² Ge. 29. 9, etc. Ex. 2. 16.

³ Ju. 6. 17, etc. 1 Sa. 6. 7; 14. 8; 20. 7.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, ¹ before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah ² came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

¹ Before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. Is. 65. 24.—At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee. Da. 9. 23.—The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. Ps. 34. 15.

² She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Pr. 31. 27.

16 And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. Pr. 31. 26.—Be pitiful, be courteous. 1 Pe. 3. 8.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hastened, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his ¹ mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.

¹ I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. Ge. 32. 10.—He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Ps. 93. 3.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

Every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. Pr. 19. 6.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will ¹ not eat, until I have told mine ² errand. And he said, Speak on.

necessary food. Job 23. 12.—My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Jno. 4. 34.

2 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; ... as to the Lord, and not to men: knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 5-8.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. Pr. 10. 22.—By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life. Pr. 22. 4.

36 And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their hearts. 1 Ki. 8. 23.

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the carrying upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led ¹ me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

¹ I will ... teach thee in the way which thou shalt go. Ps. 32. 8.—This God is our God ... he will be our guide even unto death. Ps. 48. 14.—In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 6.

49 And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee; take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live. Ps. 116. 1, 2.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away, that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the well

¹ Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

¹ The well was called Beer-lahai-roi; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. Ge. 16. 14.

63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night. Jos. 1. 8.—His delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. Ps. 1. 2.—I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings. Ps. 77. 12.—I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways. Ps. 119. 15.—I muse on the work of thy hands. Ps. 143. 5.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a vail, and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. Eph. 5. 25, 28.

CHAPTER XXV.

THEN again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Ephraim, and Hanoch, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 ¶ And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 29.—[God] hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. Heb. 1. 2.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age. Ge. 15. 15.—Ye are come ... to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. Heb. 12. 23.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

[Jacob's] sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a burying-place of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. Ge. 50. 13.—There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. Ge. 49. 31.

11 ¶ And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham:

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

As for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. Ge. 17. 20.—And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. Ge. 16. 12.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren.

And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt. 1 Sa. 15. 7.

19 ¶ And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac intreated ¹ the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

¹ They cried to God ... and he was intreated of them; because they put their trust in him. 1 Ch. 5. 20.—And he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord he was God. 2 Ch. 33. 13.—We fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us. Ezr. 8. 23. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him. Ps. 145. 19.—The desire of the righteous shall be granted. Pr. 10. 24.—Ask, and it shall be given you. Mat. 7. 7.

1 Sa. 1. 11. Lut. 1. 13.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to enquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. 2 Sa. 8. 14.—It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. Ro. 9. 12.

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God. Hos. 12. 3.—Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. Ge. 27. 36.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 ¶ And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright.

He shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. De. 21. 17.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright.

Let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die. Is. 22. 13.—What advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. 1 Co. 15. 32.—[A] profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears. He. 12. 16, 17.

CHAPTER XXVI.

AND there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines, unto Gerar.

And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land. Ge. 12. 10.

2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 Sojourn ¹ in this land, and I will be ² with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform ³ the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;

² And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. Ge. 28. 15.—In the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates. Ge. 15. 18.—By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee. Ge. 22. 16, 17.

³ He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; and confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant: saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: when they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. Ps. 105. 8-12.

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

In multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies: and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. Ge. 22. 17, 18.

Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 25, 26.—Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Gal. 3. 16.

Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever. Psa. 112. 1, 3.—Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.

6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister; for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon.

The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.—There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Ec. 7. 20.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes; saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. 1 Ch. 16. 21, 22. Psa. 105. 14, 15.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the Lord blessed him.

Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee. Ge. 26. 3.—Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 1 Th. 4. 8.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great:

The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. Pr. 10. 22.

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him.

I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. Ec. 4. 4.

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we.

And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well. Ge. 21. 30.

Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we. Ex. 1. 9.

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is our's: and he called the name of the well Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Rehoboth; and he said, For now the Lord hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

Resist not evil. Mat. 5. 39.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the Lord appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear¹ not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the² name of the Lord, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

¹ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Isa. 41. 10.—He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. Heb. 13. 5, 6.—The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Psa. 27. 1.

² The Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him. Ge. 12. 7.—I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Psa. 116. 17.

26 ¶ Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

29 That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD.

Ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. Zec. 8. 23.

Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest: now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. Ge. 21. 22, 23.—He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great. Ps. 115. 13.

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swore¹ one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in² peace.

² If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Ro. 12. 18.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

34 ¶ And Esau was forty years old when he took to¹ wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

35 Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

¹ When the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, etc.; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them: neither shalt thou make marriages with them. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. De. 7. 1-4.—And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? Ge. 27. 46.—And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. Ge. 28. 1.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death:

Boast not thyself of to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. Pr. 27. 1.—Ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Ja. 4. 14.—Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ec. 9. 10.—Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. Lu. 12. 40.

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey¹ my voice according to that which I command thee.

¹ Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Ac. 5. 29.—Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Eph. 6. 1.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring *it*¹ to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

¹ Not ... let us do evil, that good may come. Ro. 3. 8.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not ... sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing of the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. Ps. 24. 4, 5.—Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing; the Lord will abhor the bloody and deceitful man. Ps. 5. 6.—Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way. De. 27. 18.—Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully. Je. 48. 10.—Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Th. 5. 22.

13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau¹ thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

¹ The serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die. Ge. 3. 4.—The Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper? Ge. 4. 9.—Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. Ge. 18. 15.—This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no. Ge. 37. 32.

An angel spake unto me, ... saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house. But he lied unto him. 1 Ki. 13. 18.—Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow. 2 Ki. 5. 25. 27.

He denied with an oath, I do not know the man. Mat. 26. 72.—Thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost. And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost. Ac. 5. 4, 5, 8, 10.

Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. Le. 19. 11.—The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. Ps. 58. 3.—Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. Jno. 8. 44.

Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Eph. 4. 25.—Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds. Col. 3. 9.—These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, etc. Pr. 6. 16, 17.—Lying lips are abomination to the Lord: but they that deal truly are his delight. Pr. 12. 22.

A righteous man hateth lying. Pr. 13. 5.—I hate and abhor lying. Ps. 119. 163.—He that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. Ps. 101. 7.—Remove from me the way of lying. Ps. 119. 29.—Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches: feed me with food convenient for me. Pr. 30. 8.—Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. Is. 63. 8.—The mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped. Ps. 63. 11.

Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue. What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue? Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper. Ps. 120. 2. 4.—The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment. Pr. 12. 19.—He that speaketh lies shall not escape. He that speaketh lies shall perish. Pr. 19. 5, 9.

The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death. Pr. 21. 6.—All liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. Re. 21. 8, 27.—Without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Re. 22. 15.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to me.

Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him? Job 13. 7.—Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Ex. 20. 7.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:

The earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God. He. 6. 7.—Of Joseph he said, Blessed of the Lord be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew. De. 33. 13, 28.

Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness: and thy paths drop fatness. Ps. 65. 9. 11.

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt. 1 Ki. 4. 21.—Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. Is. 9. 7.

And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger. Ge. 25. 23.—I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee. Ge. 12. 3. Throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. 2 Sa. 8. 14.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy first-born Esau.

33 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed.

For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.

Ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears. He. 12. 17.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. He. 11. 20.—And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells. Nu. 20. 14, 17.

In [Jehoram's] days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. 2 Ki. 8. 20, 22.

41 ¶ And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob.

Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 1 Jno. 3. 15.
For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. Ob. 10.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them? Ps. 64. 5.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran;

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand. Pr. 19. 21.

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

The daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac. Ge. 28. 8.—I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell. Ge. 24. 3.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord. 2 Co. 6. 14, 17.

She is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 1 Co. 7. 39.

2 Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

3 And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people;

4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3.—I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing. Ge. 12. 2.

And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God. Ge. 17. 8.—These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. Heb. 11. 13.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob; and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 ¶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram;

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise. Eph. 6. 1, 2.

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father;

Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah. Ge. 26. 35.

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran.

And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. Heb. 12. 12.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. Jno. 1. 51.—

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? Heb. 1. 14.

13 And, behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. Ge. 48. 3.—I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. Ge. 32. 12.—Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Nu. 23. 10.

Many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 8. 11.—Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Ac. 3. 25.—The scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. Gal. 3. 8.

15 And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

The Lord said unto [Gideon], Surely I will be with thee. Ju. 6. 16.—When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour. Is. 43. 2, 3.—They shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee. Jer. 1. 19.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore. Psa. 121. 5, 7, 8.—I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Jos. 1. 5.

The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us. 1 Kz. 8. 57.—He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. Heb. 13. 5.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—Ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof. Jos. 23. 14.

16 ¶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Ex. 3. 5.—Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. Jos. 5. 15.—Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not. Job. 9. 11.

I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. Psa. 5. 7. Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Ec. 5. 1.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.

I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me. Ge. 31. 13.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. Ee. 5. 2. 5.—Having food and raiment let us be therewith content. 1 Th. 6. 8.—Thou hast avouched the Lord this day to be thy God. De. 26. 17.

CHAPTER XXIX.

THEN Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east.

And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. Ho. 12. 12.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

And the servant took ten camels ... and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor. Ge. 24. 10.

I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor. And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban. Ge. 24. 24, 25.

6 And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. Ex. 2. 16.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. Ge. 2. 23.

15 ¶ And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldst thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Pr. 31. 30.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it. Eph. 5. 25.

21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing. Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. Ge. 27. 35, 36.—With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Mat. 7. 2.—As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. He. 3. 19.

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.

27 Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. Ju. 14. 12.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Billah his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be her's that was hated. De. 21. 15.

31 ¶ And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.

Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she said, Now will I praise the LORD:

therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing.

Jacob begat Judas and his brethren. Mat. 1. 2.

CHAPTER XXX.

AND when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. And Rachel died. Ge. 35. 16, 19.—Envy slayeth the silly one. Job 5. 2.

2 And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath. Eph. 4. 26.—He loved Hannah: but the Lord had shut up her womb. 1 Sa. 1. 5.

3 And she said, Behold my maid Billah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her.

4 And she gave him Billah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Billah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan.

7 And Billah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, a troop cometh: and she called his name Gad.

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher.

14 ¶ And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

The angel said, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. Lu. 1. 13.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb.

The Lord remembered her. Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the Lord. 1 Sa. 1. 19, 20.

23 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away my reproach:

24 And she called his name Joseph; and said, The Lord shall add to me another son.

25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the Lord hath blessed ¹ me for thy sake.

¹ And his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand. And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. Ge. 39. 3, 5.

28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes. Ge. 31. 38-40.—Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Tit. 2. 10.

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 5-8.—Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. 1 Pe. 2. 18. Col. 3. 22-24.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the Lord hath blessed thee since my coming: and now when shall I do for my own house also?

If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 1 Ti. 5. 8.

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock.

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. Ps. 37. 6.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 ¶ And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

CHAPTER XXXI.

AND he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

His eye shall be evil toward his brother. De. 28. 54.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. Ge. 28. 15.—And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee. Ge. 32. 9.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me.

6 And ye know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.

[They] have tempted me now these ten times. Nu. 14. 22.—These ten times have ye reproached me. Job 19. 3.

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and griskled.

11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: and I said, Here am I.

The angel which redeemed me from all evil. Ge. 48. 16.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and griskled: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. And he called the name of that place Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God: and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee. Ge. 28. 18—22.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is our's, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's.

Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments. Ge. 35. 2.

20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead.

The great river, the river Euphrates. Ge. 15. 18.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

God came to Abimelech in a dream by night. Ge. 20. 3.—In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed. Job 33. 15.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount : and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me ; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; when he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart. Pr. 26. 24, 25.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt : but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?

Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away. Ju. 13. 24.

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid ; for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live : before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents ; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee ; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

Honour thy father and thy mother : that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Ex. 20. 12.—Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God : I am the Lord. Le. 19. 32.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban : and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff?

set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee ; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee ; I bare the loss of it ; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was ; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night ; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house ; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle : and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, now may Israel say ; If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us : then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us. Ps. 124. 1, 3.—I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, ... for I know their sorrows. Ex. 3. 7.—Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself ; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. Is. 8. 13.—The Lord rebuke thee. Jude 9.

43 ¶ And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine : and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou ; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones ; and they took stones, and made an heap : and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha : but Jacob called it Galeed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed ;

49 And Mizpah ; for he said, The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

Mizpeh of Gilead. Ju. 11. 29.—Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh. 1 Sa. 7. 6.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.

CHAPTER XXXII.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. Ps. 91. 11.—Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? He. 1. 14.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's ¹host: and he called the name of that place ²Mahanaim.

² And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs. Jos. 21. 38.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land ¹of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus ²shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

¹ Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the Lord spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days. And the Lord spake unto me, saying, Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn ye northward. And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore: meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession. De. 2. 1-5.—And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. Jos. 24. 4.

² A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger. Pr. 15. 1.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

And the Lord said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee. Ge. 31. 3.—I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac. Ge. 28. 13.

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. Ps. 50. 15.—He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. Ps. 91. 15.—Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi. 4. 6.—David encouraged himself in the Lord his God. 1 Sa. 30. 6.—We have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee. 2 Ch. 20. 12.

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

Who am I, O Lord God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? 2 Sa. 7. 18.—Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mery and his truth. Ge. 24. 27.

I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. Is. 63. 7.—Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase. Job. 8. 7.

12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

Put me in remembrance. Is. 43. 26.—He is faithful that promised. He. 10. 23.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother ;

A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men. Pr. 18. 16.

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath. Pr. 21. 14.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

The river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon. Jos. 12. 2.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.

The second man is the Lord from heaven. 1 Co. 15. 47.—Strive together with me in your prayers to God for me. Ro. 15. 30.—Labouring fervently for you in prayers. Col. 4. 12.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

There was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. 2 Co. 12. 7.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

There is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee. Is. 64. 7.—Men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Lu. 18. 1.—O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. Mat. 15. 28.

And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. But they constrained him. Lu. 24. 28, 29.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with ¹ God and with ² men, and hast prevailed.

¹ By his strength he had power with God: yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us; even the Lord God of hosts; the Lord is his memorial. Ho. 12. 3, 5.

² And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. Ge. 25. 31. Where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou earnest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed. Ge. 27. 33.

And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. Ge. 33. 4.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? Ju. 13. 18.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

They saw the God of Israel ... they saw God, and did eat and drink. Ex. 24. 10, 11.—We have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. De. 5. 24.—Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. De. 34. 10.—When Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lord, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God! for because I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face. Ju. 6. 22. And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God. Ju. 13. 22.—Woe is me! for I am undone... for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 5.—Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live. Ex. 33. 20.—No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. Jno. 1. 18.—Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. Col. 1. 15.—Now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face. 1 Co. 13. 12.

31 And as he passed over Peniel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindmost.

3 And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. Ge. 32. 28.—I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. Ps. 34. 4.—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.—The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will. Pr. 21. 1.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3.—The Lord hath given me many sons. 1 Ch. 28. 5.—God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction. Ge. 41. 52.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself.

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it.

I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant. 2 Ki. 5. 15.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir.

The land of Seir, the country of Edom. Ge. 32. 3.

15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. Ps. 60. 6; 108. 7.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country. Ge. 34. 2.—So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and our fathers, and were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought. Ac. 7. 15, 16.—John was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there. Jno. 3. 23.

19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel.

And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. Jos. 24. 32.—Then cometh [Jesus] to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Jno. 4. 5.

Thy name shall be called no more Jacob but Israel. Ge. 32. 28.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AND Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

Teach the young women to be sober. ... to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home ... that the word of God be not blasphemed. Tit. 2. 4, 5.—And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? Ge. 27. 46.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid? Job 31. 1.—Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 28.

3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Ep. 4. 25.

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them;

let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of their's be our's? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

Avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine: I will repay, saith the Lord. Ro. 12. 19.—See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. 1 Th. 5. 15.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled ¹even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall ²be destroyed, I and my house.

¹ And the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. Ge. 35. 5.

² All these things are against me. Ge. 42. 36.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

CHAPTER XXXV.

AND God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And, behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac. Ge. 28. 12, 13.

2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments :

Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's. Ge. 31. 19.—As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the Lord God of Israel. Jos. 24. 15, 23.—What agreement hath the temple of God with idols? 2 Co. 6. 16.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes. Ex. 19. 10.—I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. Ps. 101. 2-7.

Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit. Eze. 18. 31.—Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean. Eze. 36. 25.—Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. Ge. 32. 7.—And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God: and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee. Ge. 28. 20-22.

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. Ps. 50. 15.—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! Ps. 107. 15.—I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble. Ps. 66. 13, 14.—Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live. Ps. 116. 2.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. Ps. 103. 2-5.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. ... And there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him. Ge. 12. 6, 7.—Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the Lord. Jos. 24. 25, 26.

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the Lord your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you. De. 11. 25.—Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased. Ex. 15. 16.—And [Rahab] said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. Jos. 2. 9.—When all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the Lord had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. Jos. 5. 1.—And the fear of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out with one consent. 1 Sa. 11. 7.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and called the place El-beth-el: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth.

9 ¶ And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

He dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. Ge. 28. 12.—The angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob. And I said, Here am I. Ge. 31. 11.—I am the God of Beth-el. Ge. 31. 13.—And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. Ge. 32. 1.—And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. Ge. 32. 24.

And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother. Ge. 35. 1.—Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. Ge. 32. 28.

11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, and said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession. Ge. 48. 3, 4.—And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. Ex. 6. 3.

12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land. Ge. 12. 7.—Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father; and I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. Ge. 26. 3, 4.

13 And God went up from him in the place where he talked with him.

And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham. Ge. 17. 22.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

The name of that city was called Luz at the first. Ge. 28. 19.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also.

And she called his name Joseph; and said, The Lord shall add to me another son. Ge. 30. 24.

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.

But thou, Beth-lehem Ephrath, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Mi. 5. 2; Mat. 2. 6.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

1 Sa. 10. 2.

21 ¶ And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

He was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph. 1 Ch. 5. 1.

Such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. 1 Co. 5. 1.

23 The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's hand-

maid; Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord. Ge. 13. 18.—And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. Ge. 23. 2.—Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. Ge. 23. 19.—And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. Jos. 14. 15.—The city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron. Jos. 15. 13.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years. Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people. Ge. 25. 7, 8. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off. He. 11. 13.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

NOW these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom.

And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom. Ge. 25. 30; 1 Ch. 1. 35. 54.

2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. Ge. 26. 34.

3 And Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife. Ge. 28. 9.

4 And Adah bare to Esau Eliphaz; and Bashemath bare Reuel;

5 And Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

The sons of Esau; Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah. 1 Ch. 1. 35.

6 And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir: Esau is Edom.

9 ¶ And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek: these were the sons of Adah Esau's wife.

Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. Ex. 17. 8.—And the Lord said unto Moses, ... I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. Ex. 17. 14, 16.—And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Israel shall do valiantly. And when [Balaam] looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever. Nu. 24. 18, 20.—Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt; how he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God. Therefore it shall be, when the Lord thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it. De. 25. 17-19.

13 And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife.

14 ¶ And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 ¶ These were dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek: these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.

17 ¶ And these are the sons of Reuel Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife.

18 ¶ And these are the sons of Aholibamah Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their dukes.

20 ¶ These are the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeeon, and Anah,

The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the Lord gave unto them. De. 2. 12.

21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the children of Zibeeon; both Ajah, and Anah: this was that Anah that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeeon his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these; Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the dukes that came of the Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeeon, duke Anah, 30 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Hori, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

31 ¶ And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

35 And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

36 And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

37 And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

38 And Saul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

39 And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

40 And these are the names of the dukes that came of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names: duke Timnah, duke Alvah, duke Jetheth,

41 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon,

42 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar,

43 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram: these be the dukes of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession: he is Esau the father of the Edomites.

1 Ch. 1. 43-54.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. Ge. 17. 8.—By faith [Abraham] sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. He. 11. 9.

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours.

And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him. Ge. 44. 20.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath. Ep. 6. 4.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

Joseph was the governor over the land, ... and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth. And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them. Ge. 42. 6, 9.—And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. Ge. 43. 26.—And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground. Ge. 44. 14.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

Of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, for to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. Ac. 4. 27, 28.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

Lu. 2. 19.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him.

The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him. Ps. 37. 32.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy? Pr. 27. 4.—Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. Mat. 27. 40.

21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required. Ge. 42. 22.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us. Ge. 42. 21.

25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness. Pr. 30. 20.—That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. Amos 6. 6.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?

And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. Ge. 4. 10.

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

Again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah. And she bare him ... Midian. Ge. 25. 1, 2.—And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them. Ju. 6. 3.—The patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him. Ac. 7. 9.

29 ¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said,

This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him: Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

AND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

Thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites. Ge. 24. 3.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

Be sure your sin will find you out. Nu. 32. 23.—For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Ec. 12. 14.—There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. Job 34. 22.—The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Pr. 15. 3.—The sons of Judah were Er and Onan: and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. Nu. 26. 19.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall ... take her to him to wife. De. 25. 5.—Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Mat. 22. 24; Mar. 12. 19; Lu. 20. 28.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

It shall be, that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. De. 25. 6.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. Ge. 46. 12.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? Ru. 1. 13.—If the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat. Le. 22. 13.

12 ¶ And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines. Ju. 14. 1.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner. Pr. 7. 12.—She sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city, to call passengers who go right on their ways. Pr. 9. 14, 15.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.

And David's anger was greatly kindled ...; and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die. 2 Sa. 12. 5.—Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged. Mat. 7. 1, 2.—The daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire. Le. 21. 9.—They shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die. De. 22. 21.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more.

Be sure your sin will find you out. Nu. 32. 23.—Thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? Ro. 2. 1, 3, 21, 22.—If I have done iniquity, I will do no more. Job 34. 32.—Go, and sin no more. Jno. 8. 11.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez.

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him. 1 Sa. 18. 14. Ac. 7. 9.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

Whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. Ps. 1. 3.

4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

And Laban said, ... I have learned by experience that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake. Ge. 30. 27.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly person, and well favoured.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. Pr. 1. 10.—When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee: to deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words; which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God. For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead. Pr. 2. 10, 11, 16, 17, 18.—Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death. Pr. 7. 25–27.

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?

He that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. Pr. 6. 29.—The man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, ... the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. Le. 20. 10.—Whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. Pr. 6. 32.

I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. Ge. 20. 6.—But so did not I, because of the fear of God. Ne. 5. 15.—David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. 2 Sa. 12. 13.—Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight. Ps. 51. 4.

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path. Pr. 1. 15.—Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house. Pr. 5. 8.—Note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. 2 Th. 3. 14.—Flee ... youthful lusts. 2 Th. 2. 22.—Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. Ps. 1. 1.—Abstain from all appearance of evil. Phi. 5. 22.—Lead us not into temptation. Mat. 6. 13.—There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 13.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands; whose pleaseth God shall escape from her: but the sinner shall be taken by her. Ec. 7. 26.—Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler. Pr. 6. 5.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us: he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Ex. 20. 16. De. 5. 20.—Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. Ex. 23. 1.—A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish. Pr. 19. 9.—What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue? Ps. 120. 3.—The tongue can no man tame. Ja. 3. 8.

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. Is. 54. 17.—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. Mat. 5. 11, 12.—If ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. 1 Pe. 3. 14–17.

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice, and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. Ps. 76. 10.—For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. Pr. 6. 34.

Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron. Ps. 105. 18.—This is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. 1 Pe. 2. 19.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.—Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. Ps. 37. 5, 6.—He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives. Ps. 106. 46.—God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. Da. 1. 9.—Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness. Ps. 112. 4.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison: and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD ¹ made it to prosper.

CHAPTER XL.

AND it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. Ps. 76. 10.—The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it. Pr. 16. 14.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to day?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. Ge. 41. 16.—There is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets. Da. 2. 28.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

I pray you, swear unto me by the Lord, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token. Jos. 2. 12.—If thou mayest be made free, use it rather. 1 Co. 7. 21.

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

It is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. 1 Pe. 3. 17.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head :

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Pharaoh ; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof : The three baskets are three days :

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree ; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants ; and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again ; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand :

22 But he hanged the chief baker : as Joseph had interpreted to them.

After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. Mat. 25. 19.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him.

My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. Job 19. 14.—I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind : I am like a broken vessel. Ps. 31. 12.—That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments : but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. Am. 6. 6.

CHAPTER XLI.

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years that Pharaoh dreamed : and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed ; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed ; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time : and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled ; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof : and Pharaoh told them his dream ; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint ; then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions. Job 7. 13, 14.—The wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Is. 29. 14.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day :

10 Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker :

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he ; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard ; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams ; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was ; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon : and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill ; that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people. Ps. 113. 7. 1 Sa. 2. 8.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it : and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him. Ps. 25. 14.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me : God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

As for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king. Da. 2. 30.—Why marvel ye at this ? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk ? Ac. 3. 12.—Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but our sufficiency is of God. 2 Co. 3. 5.—He revealeth the deep and secret things : he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. Da. 2. 22.—I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me. Da. 4. 2.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river :

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. Re. 4. 1.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land;

And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. Ge. 47. 13.

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure. Is. 46. 10.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit. Nu. 27. 18.—There is a spirit in man; and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding. Job 32. 8.—For the Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding. Pr. 2. 6.—No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Ps. 84. 11.

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance: to bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom. Ps. 105. 21, 22.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck;

43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman. Es. 3. 10.—Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. Da. 5. 29.—The patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. Ac. 7. 9, 10.

44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

50 And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On, bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the first-born Manasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

Thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away. Job 11. 16.

52 And the name of the second called he Ephraim: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joseph opened all the store-houses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAPTER XLII.

NOW when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die.

But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. Ac. 7. 12.

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed ¹ down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

¹ Behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. Ge. 37. 7. Ge. 43. 26, 28; 44. 14; 50. 18.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city. Pr. 18. 19.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

Ge. 37. 5-11.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies:

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

Above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. Ja. 5. 12.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear¹ God:

¹ Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. Le. 25. 43.—But so did not I, because of the fear of God. Ne. 5. 15.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us.

If they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction; then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded. Job 36. 8, 9.—Be sure your sin will find you out. Nu. 32. 23.—In their affliction they will seek me early. Ho. 5. 15.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.—Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. Pr. 21. 13.—With what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Mat. 7. 2.—He shall have judgment without mercy that hath shewed no mercy. Ja. 2. 13.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required.

And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. Ge. 9. 5.—When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble. Psa. 9. 12.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 44, 45.—Recompense to no man evil for evil. If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing, thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Ro. 12. 17, 20, 21.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

Ge. 43. 21.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

The way of transgressors is hard. Pr. 13. 15.—Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward. Pr. 22. 5.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house, and said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food: and it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand. Ge. 43. 21.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.

David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. 1 Sa. 27. 1.—Mine eyes shall no more see good. Job 7. 7.—The Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Job 42. 10.—Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Psa. 34. 19.—We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Ro. 8. 28.—Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. 2 Co. 4. 17.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you. Is. 46. 4.

CHAPTER XLIII.

AND the famine was sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever.

If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account; I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it. Phile. 18, 19.

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me. Ge. 32. 20.—A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men. Pr. 18. 16.—And, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. Ge. 37. 25.

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight:

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. Ne. 1. 11.—Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. Ps. 37. 5.

15 ¶ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

There were they in great fear, where no fear was. Ps. 53. 5.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 ¶ And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. 1 Kz. 3. 26. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord. Je. 31. 20.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the Lord our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? Ex. 8. 26.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of their's. And they drank, and were merry with him.

CHAPTER XLIV.

AND he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

They conspired against him to slay him. Ge. 37. 18.—Be sure your sin will find you out. Nu. 32. 23.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. Ge. 37. 3.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since:

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. Ex. 32. 32.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

CHAPTER XLV.

THEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

At the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren. Ac. 7. 13.

2 And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be ¹not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did ²send me before you to preserve life.

¹ Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. Is. 40. 2.—Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. 2 Co. 2. 6, 7.

² As for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. Ge. 50. 20.—He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant: whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: until the time that his word came: the word of the Lord tried him. Ps. 105. 17–19.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Ps. 105. 17–22.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast.

11 And there will I nourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither.

Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. So Jacob went down into Egypt. Ac. 7. 14, 15.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Ps. 30. 5.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land.

All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee. Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the Lord, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it. Nu. 18. 12, 29.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is your's.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

Give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. 2 Kz. 5. 22.—I will clothe thee with change of raiment. Zec. 3. 4.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father, 26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. Lu. 24. 34.—And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not. They believed not for joy, and wondered. Lu. 24. 11, 41.—When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Ps. 126. 1.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:

28 And Israel said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive. Ge. 46. 30.

CHAPTER XLVI.

AND Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices unto the God of his father Isaac.

And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran. Ge. 28. 10.—And [Isaac] went up from thence to Beer-sheba. And the Lord appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the Lord, and pitched his tent there. Ge. 26. 23, 25.—I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac. Ge. 28. 13.—The God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac. Ge. 31. 42.

2 And God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation:

A Syrian ready to perish was my father; and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous. De. 26. 5.—And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them. Ex. 1. 7.

And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt; therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever. And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children. Ex. 12. 17, 37.—Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the Lord thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude. De. 10. 22.

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again: and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. Ge. 28. 15.

I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Ex. 3. 8.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

So Jacob went down into Egypt, ... he, and our fathers. Ac. 7. 15.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him:

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 ¶ And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

9 And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 ¶ And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman.

11 ¶ And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 ¶ And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 ¶ And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.

14 ¶ And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 ¶ And the sons of Gad; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Archi.

17 ¶ And the sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife; Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 ¶ And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him.

21 ¶ And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.

23 ¶ And the sons of Dan; Hushim.

24 ¶ And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob: all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six;

All the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already. Ex. 1. 5.

27 And the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two souls: all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threescore and ten.

Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. Ac. 7. 14.

28 ¶ And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

[Jacob] took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother; two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals. Ge. 32. 13-15.

CHAPTER XLVII.

THEN Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

De. 26. 5, etc.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men. Pr. 22. 29.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days¹ of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil² have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their³ pilgrimage.

1 And the days of Isaac were a hundred and fourscore years. Ge. 35. 28.—Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. Job 14. 1.—These are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, a hundred threescore and fifteen years. Ge. 25. 7.

2 Thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee. Ge. 27. 42.—Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times. Ge. 31. 41.—Thy brother Esau ... cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him. Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. Ge. 32. 6, 7.

When Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw [Dinah], he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her. Ge. 34. 2.—And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem. And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave. ... Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Ge. 35. 19, 20, 22.—Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces. And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

Ge. 37. 33, 34.—Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me. Ge. 42. 36.

3 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. He. 13. 14.—Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.—Behold, thou hast made my days as a hand-breadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Ps. 39. 5.—The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Ps. 90. 10, 12.—What is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Ja. 4. 14.—These all died in faith, ... and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. He. 11. 13.—We are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. 1 Ch. 29. 15.—I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. Ps. 39. 12.—I am a stranger in the earth. Ps. 119. 19.—By faith [Abraham] sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. He. 11. 9.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

Let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. If any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 1 Ti. 5. 4, 8.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine.

There came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. Ac. 7. 11.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him,

We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities. Ge. 41. 48.

22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

Touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. Ezr. 7. 24.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Job 14. 14.—Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Ps. 23. 4.

29 And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

The Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die. De. 31. 14.—The days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son. 1 Ki. 2. 1.—And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. Ge. 50. 25.—Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh: and I will make thee swear by the Lord. Ge. 24. 2, 3.

30 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying place. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee. 2 Sa. 19. 37.—And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them: for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Manure. Ge. 50. 12, 13.

31 And he said, Swear unto me. And he swore unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. He. 11. 21.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

AND it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

And said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. Ge. 28. 12, 13.—And he called the name of that place Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. Ge. 28. 19.

So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is Beth-el. And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him. Ge. 35. 6, 9.

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession.

I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God. Am. 9. 15.

5 ¶ And thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

Divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh, with whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance which Moses gave them. Jos. 13. 7.—The children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land. Jos. 14. 4.

6 And thy issue, which thou begetteth after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 3; Ge. 33. 5.

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them.

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Ex. 20. 12.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn.

15 ¶ And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day,

He. 11. 21.

Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Ps. 37. 3.—Take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Mat. 6. 31, 32.—And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. 1 Ti. 6. 8.

16 The Angel ¹ which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name ² of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a ³ multitude in the midst of the earth.

1 Behold I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way. Ex. 23. 20.—There appeared to [Moses] in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. As he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Ac. 7. 30-32.

The angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them. Is. 63. 9.—As for our redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. Is. 47. 4.—Deliver us from evil. Mat. 6. 13.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Ps. 34. 7.

The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant. Mal. 3. 1.—And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. Ge. 32. 28.

2 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the Lord; and they shall be afraid of thee. De. 28. 10.

3 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power. Jos. 17. 17; De. 33. 13-17.—And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them. Ex. 1. 7.—These are the families of Manasseh, and those that were numbered of them, fifty and two thousand and seven hundred. These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those that were numbered of them, thirty and two thousand and five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph after their families. Nu. 26. 34, 37.

I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. Jno. 17. 15.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

Of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred. Of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred. Nu. 1. 33, 35; Re. 7. 4.—His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh. De. 33. 17.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

The Lord make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in Ephrath, and be famous in Beth-lehem. Ru. 4. 11.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

Behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. Ge. 28. 15.—I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again; and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes. Ge. 46. 4.—The Lord thy God walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee. De. 23. 14.—And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die; and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. Ge. 50. 24.—And the Lord, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed. De. 31. 8.

And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof. Jos. 23. 14.

22 Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's. 1 Ch. 5. 2.—Thus saith the Lord God; ... Joseph shall have two portions. Eze. 47. 13.—In the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Ge. 15. 16.

And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only; but the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down; and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong. Jos. 17. 14-18.—So Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. And they possessed all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan. So now the Lord God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it? Ju. 11. 20-23.—I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. Am. 2. 9, 10.

CHAPTER XLIX.

AND Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the ²last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

1 God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. He. 1. 1, 2.—Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. Am. 3. 7.

2 I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days. Nu. 24. 14.—And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Ac. 2. 17; Joel 2. 28.—When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice: (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them. De. 4. 30, 31.—In the latter times some shall depart from the faith. 1 Ti. 4. 1. In the last days perilous times shall come. 2 Ti. 3. 1.

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel;

because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch.

And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the Lord hath looked upon my affliction. Ge. 29. 32.—He shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. De. 21. 17.

Those that were numbered of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred. Nu. 1. 21.—Reuben the firstborn of Israel, for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel. 1 Ch. 5. 1; Ge. 35. 22; 1 Co. 5. 1.

Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife. De. 27. 20.—For the divisions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart. Ju. 5. 15.

5 ¶ Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

And [Leah] conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the Lord hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon. And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi. Ge. 29. 33, 34.—Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword. And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land. Ge. 34. 25, 26, 30.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they digged down a wall.

My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path: for their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood. Pr. 1. 15, 16.—Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men. Ps. 26. 9.—Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 11.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

Jos. 19. 1; 21. 3.

The Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel, they have no inheritance. Nu. 18. 23.—And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the Lord, these cities, and their suburbs. Jos. 21. 3.

8 ¶ Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

This is the blessing of Judah; and he said, Hear, Lord, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou a help to him from his enemies. De. 33. 7.—Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints. Ho. 11. 12.

In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies. Nu. 10. 14.—After the death of Joshua ... the children of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? And the Lord said, Judah shall go up; behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. And Judah went up; and the Lord delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men. Ju. 1. 1, 2, 4.—For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's. 1 Ch. 5. 2.—Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. Ps. 18. 40.—That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. Phi. 2. 10.—From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. He. 10. 13.

9 Judah is a lion's ¹whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall ²rouse him up?

² And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. 1 Ki. 4. 25.

10 The sceptre ¹shall not depart ²from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh ³come; and unto him shall the gathering ⁴of the people be.

¹ There shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel. Nu. 24. 17.—Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler. 1 Ch. 5. 2.—Judah is my lawgiver. Ps. 60. 7.—It is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda. He. 7. 14.—The Lion of the tribe of Juda, the root of David. Re. 5. 5.

² We have no king but Cæsar. Jno. 19. 15.—The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death. Jno. 18. 31.

⁴ Behold my servant, whom I uphold: mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. Is. 42. 1.—Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Mat. 21. 9.

There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Is. 11. 1.—The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken. De. 18. 15.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Lu. 1. 32, 33.—God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. Jno. 3. 17.—Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. Is. 60. 1, 3, 5.—Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. Is. 55. 4, 5.

It shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. Is. 2. 2.—Mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people: a light to lighten the Gentiles. Lu. 2. 30, 32.

[Caiaphas] prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. Jno. 11. 52.

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. Jno. 12. 32.—It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the Lord that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee. Is. 49. 6, 7.

In that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek; and his rest shall be glorious. Is. 11. 10; Ro. 15. 12.—He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law. Is. 42. 4.—And [Jesus] said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.

11 Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes:

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

The fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine. De. 33. 28.—I am come down to ... bring them ... unto a land flowing with milk and honey. Ex. 3. 8.

Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern: until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die; and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The Lord will deliver us. 2 Ki. 18. 31, 32.

13 ¶ Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for an haven of ships; and his border shall be unto Zidon.

The third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families; and the border of their inheritance was unto Sardi: and their border went up toward the sea. Jos. 19. 10.

And of Zebulun [Moses] said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and, Issachar, in thy tents. They shall call the people unto the mountain; there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand. De. 33. 18, 19.

14 ¶ Issachar is a strong ass couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

Jos. 19. 17, 22.

16 ¶ Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

There was a certain man ... of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife ... bare a son, and called his name Samson. Ju. 13. 2, 24.—And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years. Ju. 15. 20.—But the Philistines ... put out his eyes, ... bound him ... and he did grind in the prison-house. Howbeit ... the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life. Ju. 16. 21, 30.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. Ju. 18. 27.

18 I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord.

Thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day. Ps. 25. 5.—Lord, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments. Ps. 119. 166.—I have longed for thy salvation, O Lord. Ps. 119. 174.—I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope. My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning. Ps. 130. 5, 6.

Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Is. 25. 9.—In the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee. Is. 26. 8.

There was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simcon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel. And [Anna] coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. Lu. 2. 25, 38.

All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come, Job 14. 14.—Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: for mine eyes have seen thy salvation. Lu. 2. 29, 30.—The salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 2 Th. 2. 10.—It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord. La. 3. 26.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord. Lu. 12. 35, 36.—I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phi. 1. 23.—Ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 23.—We through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. Gal. 5. 5.—Ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 1. 7.—The Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ. 2 Th. 3. 5.—For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. Heb. 10. 36.

19 ¶ Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

And Leah said, A troop cometh: and she called his name Gad. Ge. 30. 11.—And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head. De. 33. 20.—The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war. 1 Ch. 5. 18.

20 ¶ Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil. De. 33. 24.—The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher... and reacheth to Carmel westward. Jos. 19. 24, 26.—It shall blossom abundantly, ... the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon. Is. 35. 2.

21 Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

Of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the Lord: possess thou the west and the south. De. 33. 23.

22 ¶ Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall:

Of Joseph he said, Blessed of the Lord be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath, and for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, and for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills, and for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof, and for the good will of him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren. His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh. De. 33. 13-17.

He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither. Ps. 1. 3.

23 The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:

When his brethren saw that his father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him. And they took him, and cast him into a pit: ... and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites. Ge. 37. 4, 24, 28.—And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison. Ge. 39. 20.

We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear. Ge. 42. 21.—Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the Lord helped me. Ps. 118. 13.

24 But his bow abode ¹ in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the ² shepherd, the stone of Israel:)

¹ It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. Ps. 18. 32, 34.—Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord. Ps. 27. 14.—My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand. Job 29. 20.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulfulness. Col. 1. 11.—And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families. Ge. 47. 12.

² O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadeest Joseph like a flock. Ps. 80. 1.—Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation. Is. 28. 16.—The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. Ps. 118. 22.

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb:

If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God. Ge. 28. 20, 21.—The God which fed me all my life long unto this day, the Angel which redeemed me from all evil. Ge. 48. 15, 16.—That giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season. Je. 5. 24.—The Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills. De. 8. 7.—Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Ps. 128. 3.

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

Let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren. De. 33. 16.—And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him. Ge. 37. 4.

27 ¶ Benjamin shall ravine as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men. And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war. And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites twenty and two thousand men. And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men. Ju. 20. 14, 15, 17, 21, 25.

28 ¶ All these are the twelve ¹ tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered ² unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

¹ The general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 23.

² And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age. Ge. 15. 15.—His sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. Ge. 50. 13.

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a buryingplace.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth.

These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off; and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. He. 11. 13.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace. Ps. 37. 37.

CHAPTER L.

AND Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel.

I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again: and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes. Ge. 46. 4.

And they buried [Asa] in his own sepulchres, ... and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art. 2 Ch. 16. 14.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days.

They mourned for Aaron thirty days. Nu. 20. 29.—And the children of Israel wept for Moses ... thirty days. De. 34. 8.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

And they took the bones [of Saul and his sons], and buried them, ... and fasted seven days. 1 Sa. 31. 13.—So they sat down with [Job] upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great. Job 2. 13.—And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. Ac. 8. 2.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly require us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

Confess your faults one to another. Ja. 5. 16.—He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

Your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. ... Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? Ge. 37. 7, 10.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God?

To me belongeth vengeance, and recompence. De. 32. 35.—When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only. Job 34. 29.

Dear! beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Ro. 12. 19.

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. Is. 10. 7.—Be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither. Ge. 45. 5.

We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Ro. 8. 28.

Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: whom God hath raised up. Ac. 2. 23, 24.—Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Ac. 3. 26.—Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. Ps. 76. 10.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Mat. 5. 44, 45.—If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Ro. 12. 20, 21.

22 ¶ And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: the children also of Machir the son of Manassch were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

Thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel. Ps. 128. 4, 6.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. Ge. 17. 8.—[God] said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; and also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance. Ge. 15. 13, 14; 26. 3; 35. 12.

And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. Ge. 48. 21.—These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, ... and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. He. 11. 13.

Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt: and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. Ex. 3. 16, 17.—By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. He. 11. 22.

25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you. Ex. 13. 19.—And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. Jos. 24. 32.

Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel. Ge. 50. 2.

So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, and were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. Ac. 7. 15, 16.

EXODUS.

CHAPTER I.

NOW these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

- 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,
- 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,
- 4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

1 Ch. 2. 1, 2.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.

Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons. De. 10. 22.

6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt. Ge. 50. 26. It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment. He. 9. 27.—One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh. Ec. 1. 4.—Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers. Ac. 7. 15.

7 ¶ And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

Fear not [Jacob] to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation. Ge. 46. 3.—A Syrian ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous. De. 26. 5.—Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven. Ne. 9. 23.

When the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt. Ac. 7. 17.—The children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children. And a mixed multitude went up also with them. Ex. 12. 37, 38.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.

Ac. 7. 18.

There was found in [the city] a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. Ec. 9. 15.

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love. He. 6. 10.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we:

10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

Ac. 7. 19.

Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Ps. 2. 1—4.—The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor. Ps. 10. 2.—They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. Ps. 83. 3, 4.

He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. Job. 5. 13.—There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. Pr. 16. 25.—There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. Pr. 21. 30.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses.

And [God] said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years. Ge. 15. 13.—The Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage. De. 26. 6.

I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots. Ps. 81. 6.

Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. Ge. 47. 11.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

He increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies. Ps. 105. 24.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

The children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. Ex. 2. 23.—They hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage. Ex. 6. 9.

The [king] dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. Ac. 7. 19, 34.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiprah, and the name of the other Puah :

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.

But so did not I, because of the fear of God. Ne. 5. 15.—By the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. Pr. 16. 6.

Be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Da. 3. 18.—Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Da. 6. 13.

Fear God. Honour the king. 1 Pe. 2. 17.—Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Ac. 5. 29.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

To him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. Pr. 11. 18.—Surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him. Ec. 8. 12.—Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Is. 3. 10.—God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. He. 6. 10.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made them houses.

I will build him a sure house. 1 Sa. 2. 35.—Also the Lord telleth thee that he will make thee a house. 2 Sa. 7. 11.—Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it. Lo, children are a heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Ps. 127. 1, 3.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

They cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. Ac. 7. 19.

CHAPTER II.

AND there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari; and the sons of Kohath; Amram, etc. And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses. Ex. 6. 16, 18, 20.—And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. Nu. 26. 59.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months. Ac. 7. 20.—By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. He. 11. 23.

Take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. Mat. 2. 13.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron. Ex. 15. 20.

5 ¶ And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. Ac. 7. 21.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, ... that he may set him with princes. Ps. 113. 7, 8.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. He. 11. 24-26.—And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: for he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. Ac. 7. 22-25.

Who sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. Ge. 9. 6.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother? Mat. 2. 10.—And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? Then fled Moses at this saying; and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. This Moses, whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer, by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. Ac. 7. 26-29, 35.

What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way? Mar. 9. 33.—Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Mat. 5. 9.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses¹ fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of² Midian: and he sat down by a well.

¹ By faith [Moses] forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. He. 11. 27.

² Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah. And she bare him ... Midian. Ge. 25. 1, 2.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab, the father-in-law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanan, which is by Kadesh. Ju. 4. 11.—And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which the Lord said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good; for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel. Nu. 10. 29.

When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, ... Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. Ge. 29. 10.—And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? 1 Sa. 9. 11.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman. Nu. 12. 1.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

Moses was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. Ac. 7. 29.—They were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. He. 11. 13.

23 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. Ac. 7. 30.

Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh. Ex. 7. 7.—When we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice. Nu. 20. 16.—And looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression. De. 26. 7.

Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ja. 5. 4.—For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him. Ps. 12. 5.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

And [God] said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; and also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward I shall they come out with great substance. The Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land. Ge. 15. 13, 14, 18.—I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again. Ge. 46. 4.—Unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father. Ge. 26. 3.

I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. Ex. 6. 5.—He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. Ps. 105. 8.—He regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: and he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Ps. 106. 44, 45.—He remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant. Ps. 105. 42; Lu. 1. 68-74.

Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham: and didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea. Ne. 9. 7, 9.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them.

And the people believed: and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. Ex. 4. 31.

CHAPTER III.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. Phi. 4. 11.—Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. 1 Co. 7. 20.—God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; and base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: that no flesh should glory in his presence. 1 Co. 1. 27-29.

Every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians. Ge. 46. 34.

2 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. Ac. 7. 30.

Have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? Mar. 12. 26.—In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them. Is. 63. 9.

God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long, unto this day, the angel which redeemed me from all evil. Ge. 48. 15, 16.—The good will of him that dwelt in the bush. De. 33. 16.

The light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. Is. 10. 17.

When thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. Is. 43. 2.—Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth; yet they have not prevailed against me. Ps. 129. 2.

And the angel of the Lord found [Hagar] in the wilderness. And she called the name of the Lord that spake unto her, Thou God seest me. Ge. 16. 7, 13.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Ja. 4. 8.—The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. Ps. 111. 2.—Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire. And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, ... saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. Dn. 3. 26, 27.

4 And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here am I. Ge. 46. 2.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it; whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death. Ex. 19. 12.—The captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. Jos. 5. 15.

Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Ec. 5. 1.

He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. Jno. 13. 10.—Through Him we ... have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Eph. 3. 12.

Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.

6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.

God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. He. 11. 16.—I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. Mat. 22. 32.

Have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? Mar. 12. 26.—That the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Lut. 20. 37.

After the fire a still small voice. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle. 1 K7. 19. 12, 13.

I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims; each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 1-3, 5.

7 ¶ And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

The children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them. Ex. 2. 23-25.

And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea. Ne. 9. 9.

In all their afflictions he was afflicted. Is. 63. 9.—I have seen, I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. Ac. 7. 34.

He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold. Job 23. 10.—When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. Ps. 142. 3.

8 And I am come¹ down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring² them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place³ of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

¹ God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. Ge. 50. 24.—He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phi. 1. 6.

The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. Jno. 6. 33.

² Say unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments. And I will bring you into unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for a heritage. Ex. 6. 6, 8.—That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Je. 11. 5.

We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey. Nu. 13. 27.—He hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey. De. 26. 9.

The Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey; a land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass. De. 8. 7-9.—And [the spies] took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the Lord our God doth give us. De. 1. 25.

3 The Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates; the Kenites, and the Kenizites, and the Kadmonites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites. Ge. 15. 18-21.

In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the Lord your God; in the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt unto a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands: then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. Eze. 20. 5-10.

9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

The children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. Ex. 2. 23.—When we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice. Nu. 20. 16.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen. They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. Ps. 105. 26, 27.—I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. Mi. 6. 4.

11 ¶ And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. But the Lord said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. Je. 1. 4-7.

The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. Pr. 29. 25.—Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Eph. 6. 10.

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee: and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

Ac. 7. 7.

As I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Jos. 1. 5.—If God be for us, who can be against us? Ro. 8. 31.—My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Co. 12. 9.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. Ex. 6. 3.—Before Abraham was, I am. Jno. 8. 58.—Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. He. 13. 8.—All the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. 2 Co. 1. 20.—Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come. Re. 1. 4.—Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shall be. Re. 16. 5.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

Thy name, O Lord, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations. Ps. 135. 13.—He will ever be mindful of his covenant. Ps. 111. 5.—The Lord God of hosts; the Lord is his memorial. Ito. 12. 5.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:

God will surely visit you. Ge. 50. 24.—Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people. Lu. 1. 68.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. Nu. 11. 16.

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge:

and afterward shall they come out with great substance. But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Ge. 15. 14, 16.

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the Lord our God.

And the people believed: and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. Ex. 4. 31.—And ... Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness. And they said, The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the Lord our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword. Ex. 5. 1, 3.

19 ¶ And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.

And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. Ex. 7. 3, 4.—And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go. Ex. 5. 2.

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

The Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. Ex. 7. 5.—The Lord shewed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes. De. 6. 22.—Thou ... shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. Nu. 9. 10.—Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants. Ps. 135. 9.—And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever: with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 11, 12.

And [Pharaoh] called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the Lord, as ye have said. Ex. 12. 31.—Egypt was glad when they departed; for the fear of them fell upon them. Ps. 105. 38.—He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. Ac. 7. 36.

21 And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Ex. 11. 3.—They shall come out with great substance. Ge. 15. 14.—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.—Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. Da. 1. 9.

22 But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

And they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians. Ex. 12. 35, 36.

He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. Job 27. 17.—The wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just. Pr. 13. 22.—They shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God. Eze. 39. 10.

CHAPTER IV.

AND Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the Lord said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may believe that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jno. 3. 2.

6 ¶ And the Lord said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.

Behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow. Nu. 12. 10.—And [Gehazi] went out from his presence a leper as white as snow. 2 Ki. 5. 27.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal. De. 32. 39.—Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. Mat. 8. 3.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. Je. 1. 6.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: for the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say. Lu. 12. 11, 12. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned. Is. 50. 4.

Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. Ac. 7. 22.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send.

But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went down to Joppa: and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. Jon. 1. 3.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

The word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak. Nu. 22. 38.—I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. De. 18. 18.—I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. Jno. 17. 8.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

And the Lord said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh. Ex. 7. 1, 2.

17 And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

18 ¶ And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian,

Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.

Pharaoh sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian. And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died. Ex. 2. 15, 23.

Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. Mat. 2. 20.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter. And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land. Ex. 2. 21, 22.—And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh. Ex. 18. 4.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

When Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart. Ex. 8. 15.

Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him unto thy hand, as appeareth this day. De. 2. 30.—It was of the Lord to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle. Jos. 11. 20.

[Zedekiah] stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord God of Israel. 2 Ch. 36. 13.—Who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered? Job 9. 4.—He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Pr. 29. 1.—When his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne. Da. 5. 20.

O Lord, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Is. 63. 17.—Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Ja. 1. 13, 14.

They refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts. Zec. 7. 11, 12.—Thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. Je. 5. 3.

Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? 1 Sa. 6. 6.—Thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother. De. 15. 7.—After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God. Ro. 2. 5.—Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: but exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. He. 3. 8, 13.

As they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind. Ro. 1. 28.

With all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Th. 2. 10, 12.

Though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: that the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. Jno. 12. 37-40.

Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive: for the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Ac. 28. 26, 27.

Whom he will he hardeneth. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: and that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory? Ro. 9. 18, 23.

I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. Eze. 36. 26.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my son, even my first-born:

Ye are the children of the Lord your God. For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth. De. 14. 1, 2.—When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt. Ho. 11. 1.—Out of Egypt have I called my son. Mat. 2. 15.

Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption. Ro. 9. 4.—I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. Je. 31. 9.—I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 18.—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Ja. 1. 18.

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. Ex. 12. 29.

24 ¶ And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him.

The uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant. Ge. 17. 14.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

At that time the Lord said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time. And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. Jos. 5. 2, 3.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel:

30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

They shall hearken to thy voice. Ex. 3. 18.

CHAPTER V.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness.

And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the Lord. Ex. 10. 9.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go. Ex. 3. 19.—What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? Job 21. 15.

3 And they said, The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them. ... Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we. Ex. 1. 7, 9.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶ And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hastened them, saying, Fulfil your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 2 Kz. 19. 14.—O Lord, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: ... I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. Je. 20. 7.

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAPTER VI.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof; and after that he will let you go. Ex. 3. 20.—And [Pharaoh] called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people. And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry. Ex. 12. 31, 33, 39.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

The Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God. Ge. 17. 1.—Before Abraham was, I am. Jno. 8. 58.—Him which is, and which was, and which is to come. Re. 1. 4.

And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not. Ge. 28. 16.—And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. Ex. 3. 14.

Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him. Ps. 68. 4.—That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth. Ps. 83. 18.

4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

The Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates. Ge. 15. 18.—Unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father. Ge. 26. 3.—And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land. Ge. 35. 12.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; and confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant: saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: when there were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. Ps. 105. 8, 12.—Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: and he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Ps. 106. 41, 45.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he swore to our father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. Lu. 1. 68, 72-75.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments :

The Lord brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders. De. 26. 8.—To him that smote Egypt in their firstborn : for his mercy endureth for ever : and brought out Israel from among them : for his mercy endureth for ever : with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm : for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 10-12.—Thou stretchest out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. Ex. 15. 12.

Because the Lord loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. De. 7. 8.

7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God : and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

The Lord hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day. De. 4. 20.—For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God : the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. De. 7. 6.—And the Lord hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments. De. 26. 18.—Thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever : and thou, Lord, art become their God. 2 Sa. 7. 24.

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah : not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt : which my covenant they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the Lord : but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel : After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts : and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord : for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord : for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Je. 31. 31-34.—Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered ; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God. Ho. 1. 10.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob : and I will give it you for an heritage : I am the LORD.

God is not a man, that he should lie ; neither the son of man, that he should repent : hath he said, and shall he not do it ? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good ? Nu. 23. 19.—The Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent : for he is not a man, that he should repent. 1 Sa. 15. 29.

9 ¶ And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel : but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me ; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips ?

For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them : but they understood not. Ac. 7. 25.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ These be the heads of their fathers' houses : The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel ; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi : these be the families of Reuben.

Ge. 46. 9. 1 Ch. 5. 3.

15 And the sons of Simeon ; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman : these are the families of Simeon.

1 Ch. 4. 24.

16 ¶ And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations ; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari : and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years.

Nu. 3. 17. 1 Ch. 6. 1-16.

17 The sons of Gershon ; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families.

18 And the sons of Kohath ; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel : and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

Nu. 26. 57. 1 Ch. 6. 2-18, etc.

19 And the sons of Merari ; Mahali and Mushi : these are the families of Levi according to their generations.

1 Ch. 23. 21.

20 And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife ; and she bare him Aaron and Moses : and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years.

And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt : and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. Nu. 26. 59.

21 ¶ And the sons of Izhar ; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zithri.

22 And the sons of Uzziel ; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri.

Le. 10. 4.

23 And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Aminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife ; and she bare him Nadab, and Abihu, Elcazar, and Ithamar.

Aram begat Aminadab ; and Aminadab begat Naasson. Mat. 1. 4 ; 1 Ch. 6. 3 ; 24. 1, etc.

24 And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bare him Phineas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.

27 These are they which spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

These are the journeys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of the Lord. Nu. 33. 1, 2.—Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron. Ps. 77. 20.—The children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt. Ex. 13. 18.

28 ¶ And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD; speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

He that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord. Je. 23. 28.—Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Mat. 23. 20.—And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. 1 Sa. 3. 18.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

And Moses said unto the Lord, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. Ex. 4. 10.

CHAPTER VII.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

He shall be thy spokesman unto the people. Ex. 4. 16.—And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. He shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God. Ex. 4. 15, 16.

I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. Lu. 21. 15.—See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build and to plant. Je. 1. 10.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

Ex. 4. 15, etc.

3 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth. Ps. 9. 16.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

When he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. Ac. 7. 23, 30.

I have led you forty years in the wilderness. De. 29. 5.—And [Moses] said unto them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: also the Lord hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan. De. 31. 2.—Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died. De. 34. 7.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? Jno. 2. 18.—What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? Jno. 6. 30.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

And [God] said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. Ex. 4. 3.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

He sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream. Ge. 41. 8. The king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. Da. 2. 2.

As Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth. 2 Ti. 3. 8.—And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt. And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. Ex. 8. 7, 18.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Ex. 8. 19; 9. 7.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

Ex. 10. 1, etc.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldst not hear.

Ex. 3. 18, etc.; 5. 1, etc.

And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go. Ex. 5. 2.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. ... Thou art righteous, O Lord! ... for they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink. Re. 16. 4, 6.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

Ex. 8. 5, etc.; 14. 21.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

He ... turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink. Ps. 78. 44.—He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish. Ps. 105. 29.

Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew.) Jno. 2. 7-9.

The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 17.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said.

Ex. 8. 7, etc.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

Lord, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see. Is. 26. 11.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain. And thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the Lord our God. Ex. 3. 12, 18.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs:

He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them. Ps. 78. 45.—Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings. Ps. 105. 30.—And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. Re. 16. 13.

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneadingtroughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. Ex. 8. 18.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people ; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

Intreat the Lord (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer. Ex. 9. 28.—Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and intreat the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death only. Ex. 10. 17.

And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the Lord thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. 1 Ki. 13. 6.

Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me. Ac. 8. 24.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, To morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the LORD our God.

I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me. Is. 46. 9.—Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works. Ps. 86. 8.—There is none like unto thee, O Lord; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee. Je. 10. 6, 7.—There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky. De. 33. 26.

Their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. De. 32. 31.—Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 2 Sa. 7. 22; 1 Ch. 17. 20.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Mat. 5. 44.—Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you. 1 Sa. 12. 23.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Ec. 8. 11.—And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go. Ex. 7. 14.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

As Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was. 2 Ti. 3. 8, 9.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

It shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you. See, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Bethshemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us. 1 Sa. 6. 3, 9.

If I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Mat. 12. 28.—If I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. Lu. 11. 20.

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

The Lord shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt. Is. 7. 18.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

And the Lord shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel. Of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail. Ex. 9. 4, 6, 26.—All the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. Ex. 10. 23.

There shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the Lord doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. Ex. 11. 6, 7.

And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. Ex. 12. 13.

23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God. Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing. De. 7. 25, 26.—Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God: for every abomination to the Lord, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. De. 12. 31.

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

2 Co. 6. 17.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER IX.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD

God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

If ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. Le. 26. 21.—God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his trespasses. Ps. 68. 21.—And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. Re. 16. 9.

4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell. Ex. 8. 22.—Then shall ye ... discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not. Mal. 3. 18.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. Mat. 10. 29. Doth God take care for oxen? Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written. 1 Co. 9. 9, 10.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

The Lord will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed. De. 28. 27.—And the first [angel] went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. Re. 16. 2.

11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was. 2 Ti. 3. 9.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

Ex. 4. 21.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins. Mi. 6. 13.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

The Lord hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. Pr. 16. 4.—What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: and that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory? Ro. 9. 22, 23.

Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. Ps. 76. 10.—Thou ... shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. Ne. 9. 10.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished. Pr. 22. 3.—The people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth. Jon. 3. 5.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land. Ps. 105. 32.—Fire, and hail; snow, and vapour; stormy wind fulfilling his word. Ps. 148. 8.

The Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword. Jos. 10. 11.—The Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. Is. 30. 30.—And I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. Eze. 38. 22.

The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood. Re. 8. 7.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost. He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. Ps. 78. 47, 48.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts. Ps. 105. 33.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth. Ex. 8. 22.—The Lord shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel. Ex. 9. 4.—They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. Ex. 10. 23. Against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the Lord doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. Ex. 11. 7.—The blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. Ex. 12. 13.

My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places; when it shall hail, coming down on the forest. Is. 32. 18, 19.

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. Ps. 145. 17.—Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more: that which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more. Job 34. 31, 32.—He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.

The princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The Lord is righteous. And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to She-maiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: therefore I will not destroy them. 2 Ch. 12. 6, 7.—The Lord watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice. Da. 9. 14.

The Lord is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment. La. 1. 18.

And Balaam said unto the angel of the Lord, I have sinned. Nu. 22. 34.—And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words. 1 Sa. 15. 24.—Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm: ... behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. 1 Sa. 26. 21.

28 Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God.

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof. Ps. 24. 1. 1 Co. 10. 28.

Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the Lord. Is. 26. 10.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bolted.

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten: for they were not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

Amon trespassed more and more. 2 Ch. 33. 23.—Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Ec. 8. 11.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

Ex. 3. 19; 4. 21, etc.

CHAPTER X.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs before him:

2 And that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that I am the LORD.

Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons. De. 1. 9.—We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. Ps. 44. 1.—Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. Joel 1. 3.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.

Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility. Pr. 18. 12.—Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? 1 Ki. 21. 29.—Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. Ja. 4. 10.—Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. Job 42. 6.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. 1 Pe. 5. 6.—If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 2 Ch. 7. 14.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

Mat. 10. 14.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

Ex. 9. 27, etc.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

Ex. 8. 8, etc.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

Ex. 4. 21, etc.

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.

To whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. Jude 13.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word. Ps. 105. 28.

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell. Ex. 8. 22; 9. 26.—Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.

24 ¶ And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more.

By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. He. 11. 27.

CHAPTER XI.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether.

Ex. 6. 1, etc.

If ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. Le. 26. 21.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

Every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians. Ex. 3. 22.—And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment. Ex. 12. 35.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

2 Ki. 19. 35.

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses. Amos 4. 10.

6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. Ex. 12. 30.

7 But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell. Ex. 8. 22.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men. Ex. 12. 33.

It came to pass as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount. Ex. 32. 19.—And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering. Nu. 16. 15.—(Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.) Nu. 12. 3.

He looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts. Mar. 3. 5.—Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil. Eph. 4. 26, 27.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. Ro. 9. 17.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God. Rom. 2. 5.

CHAPTER XII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

This day came ye out in the month Abib. Ex. 13. 4.—In the first month, that is the month Nisan. Est. 3. 7.—Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the month of Abib the LORD thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. De. 16. 1.

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

Jno. 1. 29.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish. And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. Le. 1. 3, 10.

Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats. But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. Le. 22. 19–21.

Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evil-favouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God. De. 17. 1.

The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.

6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

Thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou earnest forth out of Egypt. De. 16. 6.

In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover. Le. 23. 5.—Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. 2 Ch. 30. 15.—And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice. Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. Mat. 27. 46, 50.—The LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 6.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread: and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

The blood of sprinkling. He. 12. 24.—We have redemption through his blood. Eph. 1. 7.—Without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.—The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.

Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou earnest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou earnest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life. And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days. De. 16. 3, 4.—Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Co. 5. 8.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning. Le. 7. 15.—Neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning. De. 16. 4.

11 ¶ And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD's passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning. Lu. 12. 35.—As strangers and pilgrims. 1 Pe. 2. 11.

Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence. Is. 19. 1.—For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, which the Lord had smitten among them: upon their gods also the Lord executed judgments. Nu. 33. 4.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. 2 Ki. 23. 21.—This do in remembrance of me. Lu. 22. 19.

15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Co. 5. 7.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the Lord brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten. And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the Lord did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. Ex. 13. 3, 8.

18 ¶ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

And the children of Israel ... kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho. Jos. 5. 10.—And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. Ezra 6. 19.

Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished; there make ready. And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. Lu. 22. 7-13; Mat. 26. 18, 19; Mar. 14. 15, 16.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

Through faith [Moses] kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them. He. 11. 28.—Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast. Is. 26. 20.

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house. Eze. 9. 6.

Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. Re. 7. 3. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. Re. 9. 4.

When the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough; stay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord was by the threshingplace of Araamah the Jebusite. 2 Sa. 24. 16.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the Lord will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

The children of Israel ... kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho. Jos. 5. 10. I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. Ex. 3. 8, 17.

26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

And the people believed: and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. Ex. 4. 31.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

When they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. 1 Th. 5. 3.—Him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands. In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away. Job 34. 19, 20.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. Pr. 21. 13.—For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy. Ja. 2. 13.

31 ¶ And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the Lord, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

When he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether. Ex. 11. 1.—Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them. Ps. 105. 38.—And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the Lord. Ex. 10. 9.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold. Ex. 11. 2, etc.—He brought them forth also with silver and gold; and there was not one feeble person among their tribes. Ps. 105. 37.—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.—That nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge; and afterward shall they come out with great substance. Ge. 15. 14.

37 ¶ And the children of Israel journeyed from Ramesses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Ramesses. Ge. 47. 11.—And they departed from Ramesses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. Nu. 33. 3.

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation. Ge. 46. 3. The mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting. Nu. 11. 4.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.

Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran. Ge. 12. 4.—Abraham was a hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. Ge. 21. 5.

And [God] said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years. Ge. 15. 13.

The covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. Gal. 3. 17.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

The vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Hab. 2. 3.

42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

At the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt. De. 16. 6.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

He that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations; he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed. He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. Ge. 17. 12, 13. There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. Le. 22. 10.

At that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: and came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 12-22.

46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. Nu. 9. 12.

But when [the soldiers] came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs. These things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. Jno. 19. 33, 36.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

The man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. Nu. 9. 13.—All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 6.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the Lord; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. Nu. 9. 14.—Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people. Is. 56. 6, 7.

Ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3. 28.—There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. 4. 4-6.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the selfsame day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

At the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. Ex. 12. 41.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

The firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me. Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me. Ex. 22. 29, 30.—All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the Lord thy God; thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. De. 15. 19.—Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the Lord's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the Lord's. Le. 27. 26.—Because all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the Lord. Nu. 3. 13.—As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord. Lu. 2. 23.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.—Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. Col. 1. 15.—The general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 23.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

It is a night to be much observed unto the Lord for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations. Ex. 12. 42.

Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life. De. 16. 3.

4 This day came ye out in the month Abib.

Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. De. 16. 1.

5 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey: unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Ex. 3. 8.—I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for a heritage. Ex. 6. 8.

And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the Lord will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service. Ex. 12. 25.

6 Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. And in the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you. Ex. 12. 15, 16.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Co. 5. 7.—Let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 1 Co. 11. 28.

8 ¶ And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service? that ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. Ex. 12. 26.

I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: that the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments. Ps. 78. 2-7.

9 And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. De. 11. 18.—My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother: bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck. Pr. 6. 20, 21.—This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein. Jos. 1. 8.

The word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it. De. 30. 14.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, 12 That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself. Nu. 8. 17.—All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. De. 15. 19.

The first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house. Eze. 44. 30.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

For those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites; thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel is twenty gerahs.) Nu. 3. 46, 47.

Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the Lord, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem. And those that are to be redeemed, from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. Nu. 18. 15, 16.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. For thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Re. 5. 12, 9.

14 ¶ And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this?

that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage :

When thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the Lord our God hath commanded you? Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand: and the Lord shewed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes: and he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore unto our fathers. And the Lord commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day. And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us. De. 6. 20-25.

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD ¹slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast; therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by ²strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

¹ It came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. Ex. 12. 29.

² Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But thus saith the Lord, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. Is. 49. 24, 25.—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Ps. 46. 1.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt:

And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it hath been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. Ex. 14. 11, 12.—Wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt. Nu. 14. 3, 4.

O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. Je. 10. 23.—A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps. Pr. 16. 9.—He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. Ps. 107. 7.—God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able. 1 Co. 10. 13.

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

Nu. 33. 1, etc.

He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. De. 32. 10.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. Ge. 50. 24, 25.—And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. Jos. 24. 32.

Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, and were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. Ac. 7. 15, 16.

20 ¶ And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them. Ex. 14. 19. And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. Nu. 9. 15.

Thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. Ne. 9. 12.—In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. Ps. 78. 14.

He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar. Ps. 99. 7.—This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers. Ac. 7. 38.

The Lord will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. Is. 4. 5.—All our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea. 1 Co. 10. 1, 2.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Ps. 119. 105.

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

Yet thou, in thy manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Ne. 9. 19.—Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. Ps. 121. 4.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baalzephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him. Ps. 11. 11.

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. Ex. 9. 16.—The scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: and that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory. Ro. 9. 17, 22, 23.

5 ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants. Ps. 105. 25.

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God. Ps. 20. 7.—Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea. Ex. 15. 4.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

The Lord brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders. De. 26. 8.

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

[Thou] didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea. Ne. 9. 9.—Lord, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. Is. 26. 16.—The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. Ps. 34. 17.

They compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord helped him. 2 Ch. 18. 31.—They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. Ps. 107. 6.

There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee. Ps. 53. 5.

Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary. Is. 8. 12. 14.—I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; and forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? Is. 51. 12, 13.

Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. Mat. 8. 26.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. Ps. 106. 7, 8.

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

The Lord look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our saviour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us. Ex. 5. 21.—They hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage. Ex. 6. 9.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. 2 Ki. 6. 16.—Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's. 2 Ch. 20. 15.—Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God. Is. 41. 10.—Their strength is to sit still. Is. 30. 7.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Ps. 46. 1. 3.—The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though a war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. Ps. 27. 1, 3.

Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel. Je. 3. 23.—It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord. La. 3. 26.

14 The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow you out against them: for the Lord will be with you. 2 Ch. 20. 17.—In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength. Is. 30. 15.—Say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted. Is. 7. 4.—Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. Ps. 46. 10.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

Before they call, I will answer: and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. Is. 65. 24.—The Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Ro. 8. 26.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Ec. 23. 20.

When we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt. Nu. 20. 16.—In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. Is. 63. 9.

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

Blackness of darkness for ever. Jude 13.—The saints in light. Col. 1. 12.—If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost. 2 Co. 4. 3.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

Thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters. Nu. 9. 11.—Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters. Ps. 74. 13. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. Ps. 106. 9. Who walketh upon the wings of the wind. Ps. 104. 3.—He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him. Ps. 66. 6.

The waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon a heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho. Jos. 3. 16.

22 And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea. 1 Co. 10. 1, 2.

The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high. Hab. 3. 10.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: they were afraid; the depths also were troubled. The clouds poured out water; the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad. The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook. Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known. Ps. 77. 16-19.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

What he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the Lord hath destroyed them unto this day. De. 11. 4.—By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned. He. 11. 29.

Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive. Ex. 1. 22.—With what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Mat. 7. 2.

Was the Lord displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation? Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Hab. 3. 8, 13.—The waters covered their enemies; there was not one of them left. Ps. 106. 11.

I have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered. So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. Am. 4. 6-12.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

He saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. He saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. Ps. 106. 8, 10.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his servant Moses.

Then believed they his words; they sang his praise. Ps. 106. 12. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Lu. 8. 13.—Then Simon himself believed also; and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. Ac. 8. 13.

CHAPTER XV.

THEN sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The Lord is my ¹ strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an ² habitation; my ³ father's God, and I will exalt him.

¹ He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved. In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Ps. 62. 6-8.

Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. Is. 12. 2.—Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. Is. 45. 17.

O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things: thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. Is. 25. 1.—Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy. Ps. 59. 17.

² I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids, until I find out a place for the Lord, a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob. Ps. 132. 4, 5.

But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? 1 K. 8. 27.—Thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. Is. 57. 15.—If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jno.

14. 23.—In whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 22.

³ The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Ex. 3. 15.—I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in thy generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Ge. 17. 7.

I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: for true and righteous are his judgments. Re. 19. 1, 2.

3 The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Ps. 24. 8.—Thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth. Ps. 83. 18.

I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. Re. 19. 11.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great mill-stone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. Re. 18. 21.

The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly. The right hand of the Lord is exalted: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly. Ps. 118. 15, 16.

7 And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky. De. 33. 26.—Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame. Is. 47. 14.

Behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. Mal. 4. 1.—Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire. Mat. 3. 12.

8 And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

The Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind. Ex. 14. 21.—By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed. Job 4. 9.

The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high. Hab. 3. 10.

Then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming. 2 Th. 2. 8.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. And behold at evening-tide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us. Is. 17. 13, 14.

11 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath. 1 Ki. 8. 23.—For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord? O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? Ps. 89. 6, 8.

Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works. Ps. 86. 8.—Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O Lord; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. Je. 10. 6.—Thou art great, O Lord God; for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 2 Sa. 7. 22.—Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people. Ps. 77. 14.

God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods. How long wilt ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Ps. 82. 1, 2.—Who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Je. 49. 19.

For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place. Is. 57. 17.—Ye shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am holy. Le. 19. 2.—Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Ps. 2. 11.

Woe is me! for I am undone; .. for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 5.—Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity. Hab. 1. 13.—The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. Ps. 145. 17.

But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared. Ps. 130. 4.—They sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy. Re. 15. 3, 4.—And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. Is. 6. 3.

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Ps. 73. 24.—He brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased. Ps. 78. 54.—Blessed be the Lord out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Ps. 135. 21.

14 The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

And [Rahab] said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon, and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. Jos. 2. 9, 10.—Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. Ps. 48. 6.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

And Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. Nu. 22. 3.—I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble. Hab. 3. 7.

And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the Lord had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. Jos. 5. 1.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased.

O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Is. 43. 1, 3.

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.

Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it. Ps. 80. 8.—Thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them. Ps. 44. 2.—His foundation is in the holy mountains. The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob. Ps. 87. 1, 2.

18 The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

Even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Ps. 146. 10.—Whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Da. 7. 27.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

The horse is prepared against the day of battle; but safety is of the Lord. Pr. 21. 31.

20 ¶ And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. Mi. 6. 4.

Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp. Ps. 149. 3.—And David and all the house of Israel played before the Lord on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. 2 Sa. 6. 5.—Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs. Ps. 150. 4.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

And they sang together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord. Ezra 3. 11.—And the women answered one another as they played. 1 Sa. 18. 7.

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

The angel of the Lord found [Hagar] by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. Ge. 16. 7.—Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria. Ge. 25. 18.

23 ¶ And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? Ex. 17. 3.

25 And he cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet; there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. Ps. 50. 15.—Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no. Ex. 16. 4.—That through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the Lord to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not. Ju. 2. 22.

Thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. Ps. 66. 10.—I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Ps. 81. 7.

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.

If ye hearken to these judgments, and keep and do them, ... the Lord thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers. And the Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. De. 7. 12, 15.

The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee. Ps. 41. 3, 4.—Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. Ps. 103. 3.—He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds. Ps. 147. 3.

And the Lord hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. 2 Ch. 30. 20.—Bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 1 Ti. 4. 8.—For [my words] are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh. Pr. 4. 22.

27 ¶ And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER XVI.

AND they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

Nu. 33. 10, 11.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

Murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord. Ps. 106. 25.

Neither murmur ye as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 1 Co. 10. 10.

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field. La. 4. 9.—The mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick. Nu. 11. 4, 5.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

Our fathers did eat manna in the desert: as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. Jno. 6. 31, 32.

The manna was as coriander seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of bdellium. And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil. Nu. 11. 7, 8.

Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end. De. 8. 2, 16.

And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. Ps. 78. 24, 25.—[They] did all eat the same spiritual meat. 1 Co. 10. 3.

Give us this day our daily bread. Mat. 6. 11.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

The LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. 1 Sam. 8. 7.

He that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Lu. 10. 16.—Whosoever resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. Ro. 13. 2.

9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

When the priests were come out of the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD. 1 Ki. 8. 10, 11.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

There went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth. Nu. 11. 31.—He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea: and he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations. Ps. 78. 27, 28.—The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven. Ps. 105. 40. And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it. Nu. 11. 9.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

He commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, and rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. Ps. 78. 23, 25.—He humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live. De. 8. 3.—They believed not in God; and trusted not in his salvation. Ps. 78. 22.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

My flesh is meat indeed. ... This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. Jno. 6. 55, 58.—Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 25.

To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna. Re. 2. 17.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah. Ex. 16. 36.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: as it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over, and he that had gathered little had no lack. 2 Co. 8. 13, 15.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver is cankered. Ja. 5. 2, 3.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (for after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. Mat. 6. 31, 32, 34.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. Ge. 2. 3.—Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the Lord: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. Ex. 31. 15.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Ex. 20. 8.—Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day. Ex. 35. 3.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates. Ex. 20. 9, 10.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

They would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the Lord their God. 2 Ki. 17. 14.—They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law: and forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them. They believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation: though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven. Ps. 78. 10, 11, 22, 23.

He saved them ... then believed they his words; they sang his praise. They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel: but lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert. Ps. 106. 10, 12—14.

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

The colour thereof as the colour of bdellium, ... and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil. Nu. 11. 7, 8.

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

The ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna. He. 9. 4.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony to be kept.

And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee. Ex. 25. 16, 21.—And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me. De. 10. 5.—And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you. And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels. Nu. 17. 4, 10.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

He maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Mat. 5. 45.—The manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. Jos. 5. 12.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more. Re. 7. 16.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched. Nu. 9. 18.

2 Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD?

The people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD. Nu. 20. 3.—They tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust. Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy. Ps. 78. 18, 19, 40—42.

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Ps. 95. 8, 9.

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

They said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. Ex. 14. 11, 12.—And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? Ex. 15. 24.

And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness: and the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. Ex. 16. 2, 3.

And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! And wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? Nu. 14. 2, 3.—And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread. Nu. 21. 5.

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me.

And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters; but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God. 1 Sa. 30. 6.

Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by. Jno. 8. 59.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand and go.

He lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. Ex. 7. 20.

6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice, and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. Nu. 20. 10, 11.—Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob; which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters. Ps. 114. 7, 8.

When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. Is. 41. 17, 18.—He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. Ps. 105. 41.—I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. Is. 43. 20.

They drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. 1 Co. 10. 4.

Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive. Jno. 7. 37–39.—Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters. Is. 55. 1.—Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. Jno. 4. 14.

Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Re. 22. 17.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them. Nu. 20. 13. I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Ps. 81. 7.

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness. He. 3. 8; Ps. 95. 8.

8 ¶ Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek. Ge. 36. 12.—Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever. Nu. 24. 20.

Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt; how he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God. Therefore it shall be, when the Lord thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it. De. 25. 17–19.

Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. 1 Sa. 15. 2.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

The captain of their salvation. He. 2. 10.—He ever liveth to make intercession. He. 7. 25.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.—When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me. Ps. 56. 9.—The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Mat. 26. 41.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt. 1 Sa. 15. 3, 7.

And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire. And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled. 1 Sa. 30. 1, 17.

The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot. Pr. 10. 7.—[Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek,] have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. Ps. 83. 7, 4.

These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them. Re. 17. 14.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi :

We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners. Ps. 20. 5.—Thou hast given a banner to them that feared thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Ps. 60. 4.

16 For he said, Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

Amalek was the first of the nations ; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever. Nu. 24. 20.—Thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven ; thou shalt not forget it. De. 25. 19.

CHAPTER XVIII.

WHEN Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt ;

2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

3 And her two sons ; of which the name of the one was Gershom ; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land :

Moses was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. Ac. 7. 29.

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer ; for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh :

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God :

And he said, Certainly I will be with thee ; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee. When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain. Ex. 3. 12.

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him ; and they asked each other of their welfare ; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the Lord had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the Lord delivered them.

Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him : talk ye of all his wondrous works. Ps. 105. 2.—All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord ; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power. Ps. 145. 10, 11.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the Lord had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the Lord, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice. Ro. 12. 15.—Blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. Ge. 14. 20.—Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king, 2 Sa. 18. 28.—Blessed be the Lord God of Israel ; for he hath visited and redeemed his people. Lu. 1. 68.

11 Now I know that the Lord is greater than all gods : for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them.

Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go ? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go. Ex. 5. 2.—And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel : and the children of Israel went out with a high hand. Ex. 14. 8.

The Lord is a great God, and a great king above all gods. Ps. 95. 3.—I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment : and those that walk in pride he is able to abase. Da. 4. 37.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God : and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before God.

Whether ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people : and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people ? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even ?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God :

And Moses brought their cause before the Lord. Nu. 27. 5.

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me ; and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates : then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the Lord thy God shall choose. De. 17. 8.—Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints ? 1 Co. 6. 1.

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee : for this thing is too heavy for thee ; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. Nu. 11. 14.—I am not able to bear you myself alone. How can I myself alone bear your eumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? De. 1. 9, 12.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God:

[Aaron] shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God. Ex. 4. 16.

And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. Ex. 20. 19. I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to shew you the word of the Lord: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount. De. 5. 5.

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

Hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them. De. 4. 1.—Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk. Psa. 143. 8.

21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

And [Jehoshaphat] set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city, and said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord, who is with you in the judgment. Wherefore now let the fear of the Lord be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the Lord our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts. Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the Lord, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the Lord, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. 2 Ch. 19. 5-10.

This do, and live; for I fear God. Ge. 42. 18.—Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. De. 16. 19.—He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil. Is. 33. 15.—He that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. Pr. 28. 16.

The former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. Nu. 5. 15; Mal. 10. 28.—The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. 2 Sa. 23. 3.

Look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. Ac. 6. 3.

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. Nu. 11. 16, 17.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you. And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do. De. 1. 13, 14.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the Lord said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel. And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. Nu. 10. 29, 30.

CHAPTER XIX.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the Lord, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. Ex. 17. 1, 8.

Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And [God] said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain. Ex. 3. 1, 12.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the Lord called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:

4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them on her wings: so the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him. De. 32. 11, 12.—In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. Is. 63. 9.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Mat. 23. 37.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. De. 5. 2.—Keep the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do. De. 29. 9.

The Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure. Ps. 135. 4.—Thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. De. 7. 6.

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Ps. 24. 1.—The world is mine, and the fulness thereof. Ps. 50. 12.

6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people. Ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. Le. 20. 24, 26.

And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the Lord. Is. 62. 12.—The temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Co. 3. 17.

The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in his hand: and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words. Moses commanded us a law, even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob. De. 33. 2, 4.—He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Ps. 148. 14.

I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. Le. 10. 3.—Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever. Ps. 93. 5.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people. 1 Pe. 2. 5, 9.

And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father. Re. 1. 6.—Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. Re. 5. 9, 10.—Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. Re. 20. 6.

7 ¶ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the Lord commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the Lord hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the Lord.

Go thou near, and hear all that the Lord our God shall say:

and speak thou unto us all that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it. De. 5. 27.—Thou hast avouched the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice. De. 26. 17.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the Lord.

Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount. And the glory of the Lord abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud. Ex. 24. 15, 16. He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies. At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire. Ps. 18. 11, 12.

A bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. Mat. 17. 5.

10 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes,

Ye shall be holy: for I the Lord your God am holy. Le. 19. 2. Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments. Ge. 35. 2.

Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the Lord will do wonders among you. Jos. 3. 5.—Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow. Jos. 7. 13.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.—Let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 28, 29.

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the Lord will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

They could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: and so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake. He. 12. 20, 21.—Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

Ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard, entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more. He. 12. 18, 19.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Joel 2. 16.—Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer. 1 Co. 7. 5.

16 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake. He. 12. 21.—Out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. Re. 4. 5.—And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. Re. 8. 5.—And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail. Re. 11. 19.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. De. 4. 11.—The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. De. 33. 2.

O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; the earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel. Ps. 68. 7, 8.—The sight of the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel. Ex. 24. 17.

God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. Hab. 3. 3.—The mountains melted from before the Lord, even that Sinai from before the Lord God of Israel. Ju. 5. 5.

Is not my word like a fire? saith the Lord: and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? Je. 23. 29.

And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces. Ge. 15. 17.

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house. And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever. 2 Ch. 7. 1. 3.—And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Is. 6. 4.—And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled. Re. 15. 8.

Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. He. 12. 26.

Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. Ps. 144. 5.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.

20 And the Lord came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

21 And the Lord said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the Lord to gaze, and many of them perish.

Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Ex. 3. 5.—He smote the men of Bethshemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord. 1 Sa. 6. 19.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the Lord, sanctify themselves, lest the Lord break forth upon them.

The anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God. 2 Sa. 6. 7.

23 And Moses said unto the Lord, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

There shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it. Jos. 3. 4.

24 And the Lord said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the Lord, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

CHAPTER XX.

AND God spake all these words, saying,

De. 5. 6. Ps. 81. 10.

These words the Lord spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. De. 5. 22.

2 I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour besides me. Ho. 13. 4.

3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

De. 5. 7.

Go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers. Je. 35. 15.—Go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands. Je. 25. 6.—Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you. De. 6. 14.

With [Israel] the Lord had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them. 2 Kz. 17. 35.—Of a truth, Lord, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. 2 Kz. 19. 17, 18.

Though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) but to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 1 Co. 8. 5, 6.—One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Eph. 4. 6.—Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God. Ja. 4. 4.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth :

De. 5. 8.

The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth. De. 4. 18.

Least ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female. De. 4. 16.

Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. De. 27. 15.—Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols : worship him, all ye gods. Ps. 97. 7.

Ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places. Nu. 33. 52.

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them : for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me ;

Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them. Ex. 23. 24.—Neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them. Jos. 23. 7.—Thou shalt worship no other god : for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. Ex. 34. 14. The Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God. De. 4. 24.—I will not give my glory unto another. Is. 48. 11.

Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the Lord : for he is a holy God ; he is a jealous God ; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. Jos. 24. 19.—Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the Lord, and with your children's children will I plead. Je. 2. 9.—By no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness. Nu. 14. 18, 33.—God layeth up his iniquity for his children. Job. 21. 19.—I will set my face against that man, and against his family. Is. 20. 5.

And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands ; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me ; and that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies ; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity : then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember ; and I will remember the land. Le. 26. 39, 42.—Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days : but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house. 1 Ki. 21. 29.

The seed of evil doers shall never be renowned. Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers. Is. 14. 20, 21.—Behold, it is written before me : I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the Lord. Is. 65. 6, 7.

O remember not against us former iniquities. Ps. 79. 8.

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Know that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations. De. 7. 9.—My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Ps. 89. 34.—He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me : and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. Jno. 14. 21.—As touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. Ro. 11. 28.—Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us ; he will subdue our iniquities ; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. Mt. 7. 13, 20.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain ; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

De. 5. 11. Ps. 15. 1, 5.

Put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. Ex. 23. 1.—Ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God : I am the Lord. Le. 19. 12.—He that blasphemeth the name of the Lord, he shall surely be put to death. Le. 24. 16.

Ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths : but I say unto you, Swear not at all ; neither by heaven ; for it is God's throne : nor by the earth ; for it is his footstool : neither by Jerusalem ; for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, Yea, yea ; Nay, nay : for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. Mat. 5. 33, 37.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Ge. 2. 3.

Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep : for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations ; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you. Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore ; for it is holy unto you : every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death : for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Ex. 31. 13, 14.—Keep my sabbaths : I am the Lord your God. Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary : I am the Lord. Le. 19. 3, 30.

Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee. De. 5. 12.—If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day ; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable ; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words. Is. 58. 13.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work :

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God : in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates :

11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day : wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest : that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. Ex. 23. 12.—Six days may work be done ; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the Lord : whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. Ex. 31. 15. Six days shall work be done : but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy convocation ; ye shall do no work therein : it is the sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings. Le. 23. 3.—Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in eaning time and in harvest thou shalt rest. Ex. 34. 21.

Six days ye shall gather [manna]; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none. Ex. 16. 26.

The ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work; in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. Lu. 13. 14.

In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground. Ge. 3. 19.—Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord. Ro. 12. 11.—Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 28.—Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. 2 Th. 3. 8, 10.

On the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. Ge. 2. 2, 3.—I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them. Eze. 20. 12.—Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep. Ex. 31. 13.

In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein. Le. 23. 7.—There dwelt men of Tyre therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. Ne. 13. 16, 17, 19.

12 ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. De. 5. 16.—God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. Mat. 15. 4; Mar. 7. 10.

Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise. Eph. 6. 2.—Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 3.

And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you: therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever. Je. 35. 18, 19.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

De. 5. 17.

Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. Ge. 9. 6.—The devil... was a murderer from the beginning. Jno. 8. 44.

Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Mat. 15. 19.

Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper? And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; when thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth. Ge. 4. 8, 12.

Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. 2 Sa. 12. 9.—Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness. Ps. 51. 14.

Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Mat. 5. 21, 22.—Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 1 Jno. 3. 15.

Without are dogs, and soreerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Re. 22. 15.

For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Ro. 13. 9.—Let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief. 1 Pe. 4. 15.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

De. 5. 18.

The sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. 2 Sa. 12. 10.—But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 28.

The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the Lord shall fall therein. Pr. 22. 14.—Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings. Pr. 31. 3.

When I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Je. 5. 7-9.

Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart. Ho. 4. 11.—Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. Mat. 19. 9.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19-21.—Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Eph. 4. 29.

Fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. Eph. 5. 3, 7.—Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence. Col. 3. 5.—Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: for God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 5, 7.

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. He. 13. 4.—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption. Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin. 2 Pe. 2. 9, 10, 12, 14.—Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Jude 7, 10.—But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Re. 21. 8.

This is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour. 1 Th. 4. 3, 4.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

Mat. 19. 18, etc.

Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Le. 19. 11, 13.—Neither shalt thou steal. De. 5. 19.

If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him. If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double. Ex. 22. 1-4.

Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate: for the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them. Pr. 22. 22, 23.—He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor. Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer. Pr. 28. 8, 24.

Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. Jos. 7. 24, 25.

Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul. Pr. 29. 24. Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me: lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. Pr. 30. 8, 9.

Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Co. 6. 10.—[Let] no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. 1 Th. 4. 6.—Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Eph. 4. 28.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. Ex. 23. 1.—Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour. De. 5. 20.—If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong; then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. De. 19. 16, 19. Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart. He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour. In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not. Ps. 15. 1-4.—Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off. Ps. 101. 5.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's. De. 5. 21.—Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. 5. 28.

Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. Pr. 6. 27-29.

Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil! Hab. 2. 9.

I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. Ro. 7. 7.

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. He. 13. 5.—Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Lu. 12. 15.

I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ac. 20. 33. Fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Eph. 5. 3, 5.

18 ¶ And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

Ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest. He. 12. 18, etc.

19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the Lord our God any more, then we shall die. Go thou near, and hear all that the Lord our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it. De. 5. 25, 27.

Wherefore then saith the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. Ga. 3. 19, 20.—There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Ti. 2. 5.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God. Is. 41. 10.

Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness; to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. De. 8. 2.

The Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. De. 10. 12.—That thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD. De. 28. 58.

Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself: and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. Is. 8. 13.—Fear the Lord, and depart from evil. Pr. 3. 7.—By the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. Pr. 16. 6.—So did not I, because of the fear of God. Ne. 5. 15.

Fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Mat. 10. 28.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

There were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount. And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire. Ex. 19. 16, 18.

(I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to shew you the word of the Lord: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount.) De. 5. 5.

22 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments. Ne. 9. 13.

See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. Ile. 12. 25, 26.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf; and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. Ex. 32. 1, 2, 4.

As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols. Eze. 20. 39.—Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Je. 7. 9, 10.

They feared the Lord, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence. 2 Kz. 17. 33.

They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. Thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified. Da. 5. 4, 23.

What communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? 2 Co. 6. 14-16.

24 ¶ An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

Unto the place which the Lord our God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come. There shall be a place which the Lord your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices. De. 12. 5, 11.—He will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee. De. 7. 13.

I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there. 2 Ch. 6. 6.—Now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. 2 Ch. 7. 16.—Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name. 1 Kz. 8. 43.—And the Lord said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. 1 Kz. 9. 3.

They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. Ps. 74. 7.—The hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. Jno. 4. 21-23.

Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Mat. 18. 20.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

Thou shalt build an altar unto the Lord thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them. De. 27. 5.—Joshua built an altar unto the Lord God of Israel in mount Ebal, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron. Jos. 8. 30, 31.

Not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. 1 Co. 1. 17.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

CHAPTER XXI.

NOW these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said will we do. And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord. Ex. 24. 3, 4.—The Lord commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it. De. 4. 14.—Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the Lord your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it. De. 6. 1.

2 If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

If thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bond-servant: but as a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee: and then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return. Le. 25. 39-41, etc.—And if thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. De. 15. 12.—At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother a Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee. Je. 34. 14.

Ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 20.—God be thanked, ... ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. Ro. 6. 17, 18.—Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free. Gal. 5. 1.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee; then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise. De. 15. 16, 17.

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. De. 16. 18. Lo, I come: I delight to do thy will, O my God. Ps. 40. 7, 8.—He sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not. Ps. 15. 4.—Mine ears hath thou opened. Ps. 40. 6.

7 ¶ And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

Lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already. Ne. 5. 5.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

The Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. Mal. 2. 14, 15.—And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her. De. 21. 14.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins. Ex. 22. 17.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. 1 Co. 7. 3, 5.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. Mat. 19. 8.

12 ¶ He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

Surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed:

for in the image of God made he man. Ge. 9. 5, 6.—He that killeth any man shall surely be put to death. Le. 24. 17.—Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death; but he shall be surely put to death. Nu. 35. 30, 31.

Put up again thy sword into his place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Mat. 26. 52.

13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

If he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait, or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm: then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments: and the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil. Nu. 35. 22, 25.

Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither. De. 19. 3.—When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan; then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at unawares. And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment. Nu. 35. 10, 12; Jos. 20. 2.

And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. David said to Saul, ... Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the Lord had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the Lord's anointed. And he said to David, ... Thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not. 1 Sa. 24. 4, 9, 10, 17, 18.

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Mat. 10. 29, 30.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

The soul that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Nu. 15. 30. If he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die. Nu. 35. 20.

If any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities: then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him unto the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. De. 19. 11, 12.—Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, ... to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him. 1 Ki. 2. 28, 32, 34.

If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins. He. 10. 26.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

The law ... is for ... the lawless and disobedient ... for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers. 1 Ti. 1. 9.

16 ¶ And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you. De. 24. 7.

There passed by Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt. Ge. 37. 28.

17 ¶ And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him. Le. 20. 9.—Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness. Pr. 20. 20.

God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. Mat. 15. 4; Mar. 7. 10.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money.

Of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession. And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever. Le. 25. 45, 46.

Ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. Eph. 6. 9.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him. Ex. 21. 30.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again. Le. 24. 20.—And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot. De. 19. 21.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth. Mat. 5. 38.

26 ¶ And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 ¶ If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

Surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man. Ge. 9. 5.—Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death. Nu. 35. 31.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with [Judas] for thirty pieces of silver. Mat. 26. 15.—They weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. Zec. 11. 12.—Who ... made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant. Phi. 2. 7.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER XXII.

IF a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

He shall restore the lamb fourfold. 2 Sa. 12. 6.—Zaccheus said, ... If I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. Lu. 19. 8.

2 ¶ If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; but if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. Pr. 6. 30, 31.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

If there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. De. 25. 1.—And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the Lord, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. 2 Ch. 19. 10.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the Lord, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? 1 Ki. 2. 43.—Men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. He. 6. 16.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

Of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. Ge. 31. 39.

13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 ¶ And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days. De. 22. 29.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife. Ge. 34. 12.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

Neither shall ye use enchantment. Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 26, 31.—A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them. Le. 20. 27.

There shall not be found among you ... an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. De. 18. 10, 11.—Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? 1 Sa. 28. 3, 9.

Works of the flesh, ... idolatry, witchcraft. Gal. 5. 19, 20.—Without are ... sorcerers. Re. 22. 15.

19 ¶ Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. Le. 18. 23.—And ye shall slay the beast. Le. 20. 15.

20 ¶ He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lord thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee. If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers; thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, ... Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known; then shalt thou enquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you; thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword. De. 13. 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 13-15.

If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha. 1 Co. 16. 22.

21 ¶ Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. Ex. 23. 9.—If a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him. Le. 19. 33.—If thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. Le. 25. 35.—Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. De. 10. 19.

If ye oppress not the stranger, then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever. Je. 7. 6, 7.—Oppress not the ... stranger. Zec. 7. 10.—I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 3. 5.

22 ¶ Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

[God] doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow. De. 10. 18.—Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's raiment to pledge. But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing. De. 24. 17, 18.—Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. De. 27. 19.

Judge the fatherless; plead for the widow. They judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. Is. 1. 17, 23.—That widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless. Is. 10. 2.

In [Jerusalem] have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. Eze. 22. 7.—They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The Lord shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it. Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise? He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see? He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know? Psa. 94. 6-10.

Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Ja. 1. 27.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

They cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted. Job 34. 28.—In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. Psa. 18. 6.—He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. Psa. 145. 19.

Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ja. 5. 4.—Shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? Lu. 18. 7.

God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him. Job 20. 23.—Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them. Psa. 69. 24.—Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow. Psa. 109. 9.—We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows. La. 5. 3.

25 ¶ If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

Take thou no usury of [thy brother], or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee. Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase. Le. 25. 36, 37.—Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury: unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury: but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine hand to in the land. De. 23. 19, 20.

Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. Ne. 5. 7.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved. Psa. 15. 5.—He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, ... he shall surely live. Eze. 18. 8, 9.

26 If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge. If the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge: in any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's raiment to pledge. De. 24. 6, 12, 13, 17.

The Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. Ex. 34. 6.—The Lord your God is gracious and merciful. 2 Ch. 30. 9.—Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. Psa. 86. 15.

28 ¶ Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the Most High. Psa. 82. 6.—Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? Jno. 10. 34.—It is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. Ac. 23. 5.

These filthy dreamers ... despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. Jude 8.

Curse not the king, no not in thy thought. Ec. 10. 20.—He is the minister of God, ... a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Ro. 13. 4.—Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates. Tit. 3. 1.

29 ¶ Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. Pr. 3. 9, 10.—And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Ex. 23. 16, 19.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. Mat. 3. 10.

Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine. Thou shalt set apart unto the Lord all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast: the males shall be the Lord's. Ex. 13. 2, 12.—All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male. Ex. 34. 19.

And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the Lord brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage: and it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the Lord slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the Lord all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. Ex. 13. 14, 15.

30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Le. 22. 27.—All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. De. 15. 19.

31 ¶ And ye shall be ¹ holy men unto me: neither shall ye ² eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

¹ Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. Ex. 19. 6.—Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am holy. Le. 19. 2.—Thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God. De. 14. 21.—Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever. Ps. 93. 5.

As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.—Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

² The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast. Eze. 44. 31.—That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the Lord. Le. 22. 8.—From my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Eze. 4. 14.

CHAPTER XXIII.

THOU shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Ex. 20. 16.—Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour. Le. 19. 16.—Keep thee far from a false matter. Ex. 23. 7.—Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off. Ps. 101. 5.

Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour. Ps. 15. 1, 3.—If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong: then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. De. 19. 16, 19.—A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish. Pr. 19. 9.

Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips. Pr. 24. 28.—He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool. Pr. 10. 18.

Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; but found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, and said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. Mat. 26. 59–61.—False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not. Ps. 35. 11.

There came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. 1 K. 21. 13.

They suborned men, which said, We have heard [Stephen] speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law. Ac. 6. 11, 13.

Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour; for we are members one of another. Eph. 4. 25.

2 ¶ Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path. Pr. 1. 10, 15.

Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. Pr. 4. 14, 15.—Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat. Mat. 7. 13.

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. Ex. 32. 1, 2.

Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door? Job 31. 34.—But Saul and the people spared Agag. 1 Sa. 15. 9.

I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. 1 K. 19. 10.—And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom you will serve; ... as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. Jos. 24. 15.

The Lord said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation. Ge. 7. 1.

When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it. Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Mat. 27. 24, 26.—Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, ... to be crucified. Mar. 15. 15.

After two years Porcius Festus came into Felix's room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound. Ac. 24. 27.

Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's. De. 1. 17.

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty; but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour. Le. 19. 15.

He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment. Ps. 72. 2.

4 ¶ If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth: lest the Lord see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. Pr. 24. 17, 18.—If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: for thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee. Pr. 25. 21, 22.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven; for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Mat. 5. 43–45.

Dearly beloved, endeavour not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him: if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Ro. 12. 19–21.—See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. 1 Th. 5. 15.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. De. 27. 19.—Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; to turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people. Is. 10. 1, 2.

If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth. Ecc. 5. 8.—I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right. Am. 5. 12.—I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 3. 5.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter: and the innocent and the righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. De. 27. 25.—Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. Le. 19. 11.—He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord. Pr. 17. 15.

They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge. And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off. Ps. 94. 21–23.

I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. Mat. 27. 4.—Speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Eph. 4. 25.

The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness. Ro. 1. 18.

8 ¶ And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

There is no iniquity with the Lord our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts. 2 Ch. 19. 7.—Thou shalt not wrest judgment: thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. De. 16. 19.—Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. 1 Sa. 12. 3.—And [Samuel's] sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment. 1 Sa. 8. 3.

He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live. Pr. 15. 27.—A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth. A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment. Pr. 27. 8, 23.—The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it. Pr. 29. 4.—[Jerusalem] have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God. Eze. 22. 12.—They afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right. Am. 5. 12.

[Felix] hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him. Ac. 24. 26.

9 ¶ Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. De. 27. 19.—Love ye the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. De. 10. 19.

10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof; but in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the Lord: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. Le. 25. 3, 4.

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard.

At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release. Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought, and he cry unto the Lord against thee, and it be sin unto thee. De. 15. 1, 9.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work. Ex. 20. 8, 9; De. 5. 13.—And He laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. Luk. 13. 13, 14.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons. De. 4. 9.—Take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the Lord charged you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. Jos. 22. 5.

I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me. Ps. 39. 1.—See that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Eph. 5. 15.—Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them. 1 Th. 4. 16.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips. Ps. 16. 4.—And ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place. De. 12. 3.

I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. Ho. 2. 17.—And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. Zec. 13. 2.

14 ¶ Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

Thrice in the year shall all your menchildren appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel. Ex. 34. 23.—These are the feasts of the Lord, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons. Le. 23. 4.—Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. De. 16. 16.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:)

Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Ex. 12. 15.—In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord's passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord; seven days ye must eat unleavened bread. Le. 23. 5, 6.—Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work therein. Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose; ... and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. De. 16. 8, 16.

16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

Thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end. Ex. 34. 22.—When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest. Le. 23. 10. Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine. De. 16. 13.

Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the Lord. The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord. Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths. Le. 23. 17, 34, 42.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

They shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread. Ex. 12. 8.—Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning. Ex. 34. 25.

No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the Lord, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the Lord made by fire. Le. 2. 11.—There shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning. De. 16. 4.

19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors. Ex. 22. 29.—Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year. De. 14. 22. All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee. And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the Lord, shall be thine. Nu. 18. 12, 13.

To bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the Lord. Ye. 10. 35.—When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest. Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the Lord. Le. 23. 10, 17.

Now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O Lord, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God. De. 26. 10.

20 ¶ Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

The God which fed me all my life long unto this day, the Angel which redeemed me from all evil. Ge. 48. 15, 16.

My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. Ex. 33. 14.—The angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them: and it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night. Ex. 14. 19, 20.—The angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. Is. 63. 9.—The angel which spake to him in the mount Sina. Ac. 7. 38.—Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted. 1 Co. 10. 9.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, ¹provoke him not; for he will not ²pardon your transgressions: for my ³name is in him.

1 Whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. De. 13. 19.—And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them? Nu. 14. 11.—I was grieved with that generation, ... they have not known my ways. For some, ... did provoke. He. 3. 10, 16.

How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! They tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies: but turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. Ps. 78. 40, 56, 57.

2 I the Lord have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. Nu. 14. 35.—There is a sin unto death. 1 Jno. 5. 16.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.

3 His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Is. 9. 6.—In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 6.

The Father is in me and I in him. I and my Father are one. Jno. 10. 38, 39.—Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me. Jno. 14. 10, 11.—That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee. Jno. 17. 21.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. Jos. 24. 8, 11.

24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. Ex. 20. 5.—After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances. Le. 18. 3.

Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God: for every abomination to the Lord, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. De. 12. 30, 31.

The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God. De. 7. 25.—But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: for thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. Ex. 34. 13, 14.

Ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places. Nu. 33. 52. [Moses] took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and straved it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it. Ex. 32. 20.—When [Josiah] had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem. 2 Ch. 34. 7.

25 And ye shall serve the Lord your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

Get thee hence, Satan; for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Mat. 4. 10.

And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul. De. 10. 12.—If ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. De. 11. 13, 14.

Take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the Lord charged you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. Jos. 22. 5.—Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve; ... but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the Lord. Jos. 24. 14, 15, 21.

If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee. Ex. 15. 26. The Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee. De. 7. 15.—Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you. 1 Sa. 12. 24.

If ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, the Lord thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers: and he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee. De. 7. 12, 13.—Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store. The Lord shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. De. 28. 5, 8.

Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 1 Th. 4. 8.—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33.

26 ¶ There shall nothing cast thy young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.

Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. De. 28. 4.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 3. 10, 11.

Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season. Job 5. 26.—Abraham died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years. Ge. 25. 8.—And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days. Ge. 35. 29.—Job died, being old and full of days. Job 42. 17.—David was old and full of days. 1 Ch. 23. 1.

Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days. Psa. 55. 23.—[Judas] purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst. Ac. 1. 18.

27 I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. Ge. 35. 5.—This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee. De. 2. 25.—There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the Lord your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you. De. 11. 25.—[Rahab] said, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the Lord your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath. Jos. 2. 9, 11.

28 And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. Jos. 24. 12.

29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

And the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand. Jos. 21. 44.

Judah went up; and the Lord delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men. Ju. 1. 4.—And the Lord God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people unto the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. Ju. 11. 21.—David smote also Hadadzezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. 2 Sa. 8. 3.—Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt. For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphseh even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him. 1 K. 4. 21, 24.

The Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates. Ge. 15. 18.—Then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the salt sea eastward. Nu. 34. 3.—From the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be. De. 11. 24.—From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. Jos. 1. 4.

HE shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth. Ps. 72. 8.

32 Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee. Ex. 34. 12.—They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the Lord commanded them: but were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. Ps. 106. 34, 38.—Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 2 Co. 6. 14, 15.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

They shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. Jos. 23. 13.—I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you. Ju. 2. 3.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

Take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. Ex. 28. 1.—Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord. Le. 10. 1, 2.—And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. Nu. 11. 16.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the Lord: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

Thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death. Ex. 19. 12.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said will we do.

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. Gal. 3. 19, 20.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the Lord.

Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto all the elders of Israel. De. 31. 9.—Let the priests, which come near to the Lord, sanctify themselves. Ex. 19. 22.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient.

For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. Ex. 12. 23. And the people said unto Joshua, The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey. Jos. 24. 24.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood. For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you. He. 9. 18-20. The God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant. He. 13. 20.—Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.

9 ¶ Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel :

10 And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live. I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen. Ex. 33. 20, 23.—No man hath seen God at any time. Jno. 1. 18; 1 Jno. 4. 12.—Whom no man hath seen, nor can see. 1 Th. 6. 16.—Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. Ex. 3. 6.

I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. 1 Ki. 22. 19.—I saw ... the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Woe is me! for I am undone; ... for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 1, 5.

Above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone. Eze. 1. 26.—There appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. Eze. 10. 1.—And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. Re. 4. 3.

Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face. Ge. 32. 30.—Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God. Ju. 13. 22.

[He] was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. Mat. 17. 2.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

And [Hagar] called the name of the Lord that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me? Ge. 16. 13.—Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? De. 4. 33.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

He gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God. Ex. 31. 18.—These words the Lord spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. De. 5. 22.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

And Moses alone shall come near the Lord: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him. Ex. 24. 2.—Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, ... and they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. Ex. 18. 25, 26.

Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. Ex. 17. 10.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

The Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount. Ex. 19. 9, 16.

While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. Mat. 17. 5.

16 And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

The Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. Ex. 3. 2.—Mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire. Ex. 19. 18.—Ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire. Our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 18, 29.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

He did neither eat bread, nor drink water. Ex. 34. 28.

CHAPTER XXV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. Who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Ch. 29. 9, 14.

The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself. Pr. 11. 25.—He that giveth, let him do it with simplicity. Ro. 12. 8.—If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. 2 Co. 8. 12.—Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree. Is. 41. 19.

6 Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

Thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always. Ex. 27. 20.—Of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels. Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense. Ex. 30. 23, 34.

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate.

These are the garments which they shall make; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a brodered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work. And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. Ex. 28. 4, 6, 15.

8 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them.

Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; but Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. He. 3. 5, 6.—Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. There was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary. He. 9. 1, 2.

I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. Ex. 29. 45.—I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.—Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Re. 21. 3.

Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself. Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building. He. 9. 24, 11.—A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. He. 8. 2.

9 According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

All this, said David, the Lord made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern. 1 Ch. 28. 19.

10 ¶ And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

And Bezaleel made the ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it: and he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about. Ex. 37. 1, 2.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

They drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without. 1 Ki. 8. 8.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

The Lord said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood. And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark. And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark, which I had made; and there they be, as the Lord commanded me. De. 10. 1, 2, 5.—Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. De. 31. 26.

There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb. 1 Ki. 8. 9; 2 Ch. 5. 10.

17 And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

And he made the mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof. Ex. 37. 6.—God be merciful to me a sinner. Lu. 18. 13. Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood. Ro. 3. 24, 25.—He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 Jo. 2. 2.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

Over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy seat. He. 9. 5.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Le. 16. 2.—The tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord; where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. Ex. 29. 42, 43.

Which things the angels desire to look into. 1 Pe. 1. 12.

When Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims. Nu. 7. 89.

Thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth. Ps. 80. 1.—O Lord God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. 2 Ki. 19. 15.

Let us ... come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 16.

23 ¶ Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood; two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about. Ex. 37. 10, 11.

Solomon made ... the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was. 1 Ki. 7. 48.—There was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary. He. 9. 2.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

Upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal. Nu. 4. 7.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me alway.

The continual bread shall be thereon. Nu. 4. 7.—Thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the Lord. Le. 24. 5, 6.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Ps. 23. 5.—Whether ... ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 31.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.

The candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left, before the oracle. 1 Ki. 7. 49.—There was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick. He. 9. 2.

And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks. Re. 1. 12.—There were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. Re. 4. 5.

The commandment is a lamp; and the law is light. Pr. 6. 23. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts. 2 Pe. 1. 19.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side:

And [the angel] said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof. Zec. 4. 2.—John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne. Re. 1. 4.

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always. In the tabernacle of the congregation without the vail, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the Lord. Ex. 27. 20, 21.—The candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening. 2 Ch. 13. 11.

And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep. 1 Sa. 3. 3.—When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick. Nu. 8. 2.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the pattern which the Lord had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick. Nu. 8. 4.

Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. Ac. 7. 44.—The example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, *See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. CHAPTER XXVI.

MOREOVER thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.

And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them. Ex. 36. 8.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 ¶ And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. Ex. 36. 14.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that. Ex. 36. 19.—By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Co. 12. 13.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

Grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ; from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Eph. 4. 15, 16.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount.

Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. Ac. 7. 44.—Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. He. 8. 5.

Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 19-22.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made:

And [Solomon] made the vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon. 2 Ch. 3. 14. After the second vail, the tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all. The priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing. He. 9. 3, 6-8.—For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. He. 10. 1.

The vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. Mat. 27. 51.—Jesus Christ ... hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 10.—Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh. He. 10. 19, 20.

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.—Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail. He. 6. 19.—We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image. 2 Co. 3. 18.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 ¶ And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the Lord commanded Moses. Ex. 40. 21.—The Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Le. 16. 2.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy seat. He. 9. 5.

35 And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the candlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

There was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary. He. 9. 2.

36 And thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND thou shalt make an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

And [Bezaleel] made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three cubits the height thereof. Ex. 38. 1.—And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and a hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar. Eze. 43. 13.

We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. He. 13. 10.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass.

Bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar. Ps. 118. 27.—The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar ... before the Lord; therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel. Nu. 16. 38.

The priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the Lord, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation. Le. 4. 7.—And [Aaron] shall go out unto the altar that is before the Lord, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. Le. 16. 18.—Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword. 1 Kz. 1. 51.

That we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us. He. 6. 18.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basons, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brasen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount. Ex. 25. 40.—And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount. Ex. 26. 30.

9 ¶ And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long for one side:

And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits. Ex. 38. 9.

10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 ¶ And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

13 And the breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 ¶ And for the gate of the court shall be an hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court shall be filleted with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass.

18 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

20 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always.

Ye have an unction from the Holy One. 1 Jno. 2. 20.—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Ps. 119. 105.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 16.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation without the vail, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

Thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made. And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy. Ex. 26. 31, 33.

I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed ... unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Ac. 20. 27, 28.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

Thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and within the vail; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. Nu. 18. 7.—Every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. He. 5. 1, 4.

2 And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory and for beauty.

Thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod: and thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre. And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them. Ex. 29. 5, 6, 29.—And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Le. 8. 30.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness. I will also clothe her priests with salvation. Ps. 132. 9, 16.—He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness. Is. 61. 10.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14.—Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners. He. 7. 26.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are wise hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

I have filled [Bezaleel] with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach: ... and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee. Ex. 31. 3, 6.—Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the Lord put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commanded. Ex. 36. 1.

To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues; but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 8-11.—Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle; and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

And [Moses] put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith. And he put the breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim. Le. 8. 7, 8.

David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod. Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, ... Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up. 1 Sa. 23. 9, 10, 12.

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

Samuel ministered before the Lord, being a child, girded with a linen ephod. 1 Sa. 2. 18.—Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod. 1 Sa. 22. 18.—David danced before the Lord with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. 2 Sa. 6. 14, 15.

7 It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

I saw ... in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. Re. 1. 12, 13.—Righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. Is. 11. 5.—Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness. Eph. 6. 14.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. 2 Ti. 2. 19.—Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. He. 7. 25; Is. 9. 6; Eph. 5. 27.

13 ¶ And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee. Is. 43. 4.—They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels. Mal. 3. 17.

22 ¶ And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm. Ca. 8. 6.—He shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom. Is. 40. 11.—Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. Is. 49. 16.

30 ¶ And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation. Nu. 27. 21.

When Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. 1 Sa. 28. 6.

And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim. Ezra 2. 63; Ne. 7. 65.

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. He. 1. 1, 2.—No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. Jno. 1. 18, 9.—When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. . . . He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Jno. 16. 13, 14.—Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Ps. 2. 11.

36 ¶ And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people: . . . for he is holy unto his God. Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy. Le. 21. 1, 7, 8.—I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. Le. 10. 4.

Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners. He. 7. 26.—Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? Le. 10. 17.—And the LORD said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. Nu. 18. 1.

He shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. Le. 1. 4.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. He. 9. 28.—Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree. 1 Pe. 2. 24.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 19.—Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. He. 4. 14, 16.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

39 ¶ And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.

40 ¶ And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

They made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, and a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen, and a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the Lord commanded Moses. Ex. 39. 27-29.

And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. Eze. 44. 17, 18.

Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Mat. 22. 12, 13.—Take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Eph. 6. 13.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. Le. 8. 12.

42 And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

If a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the Lord; though he wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. Le. 5. 17.—They shall keep mine ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it. Le. 22. 9.

CHAPTER XXIX.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

Ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the Lord. Cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen. Mal. 1. 13, 14.

2 And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the Lord in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night. In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baked, thou shalt bring it in: and the baked pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the Lord. And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the Lord; it shall be wholly burnt. Le. 6. 20-22.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water.

And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. Le. 8. 6, etc.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3. 5.—Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. 10. 22.

The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 3. 21.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod:

Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. Ro. 3. 22.

6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

God hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. Heb. 1. 9.—The anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 1 Jno. 2. 27.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them: and the priest's office shall be their's for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons.

The law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. Heb. 7. 28.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the Lord, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

He shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt-offering; and it shall be accepted for him, to make atonement for him. Le. 1. 4.—Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 4, 6.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it. Le. 8. 15.—With the finger of God. Lu. 11. 20.—By the Spirit of God. Mat. 12. 28.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sin offering.

The bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. He. 13. 11–13.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the Lord: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

The Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake. Ge. 8. 21.—Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. Le. 8. 22.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

Almost all things are by the law purged with blood. He. 9. 22. Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.

Thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be a holy anointing oil. Ex. 30. 25.

Ye ... are ... a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Re. 1. 5, 6.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration.

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the Lord:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the Lord.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the Lord: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the Lord: and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

The heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. The flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine. Nu. 18. 11, 18.—This shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. De. 18. 3.

28 And it shall be Aaron's, and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the Lord.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

Strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount. Nu. 20. 26, 28.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

The wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. Le. 10. 14.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.

Ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you. As he hath done this day, so the Lord hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you. Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the Lord, that ye die not: for so I am commanded. Le. 8. 33-35.

36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it.

Thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation and the ark of the testimony. And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot. And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy. Ex. 30. 26, 28, 29.—Every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. He. 10. 11.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually.

This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt offering. Nu. 28. 3.—The priests ... burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense. 2 Ch. 13. 10, 11.

John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things; ... but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.

This man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 24-27.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:

Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray. Ps. 55. 17.

40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering. 2 Ki. 16. 15.—The man Gabriel, ... touched me about the time of the evening oblation. Da. 9. 21.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel. Ex. 25. 22.—I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Le. 16. 2. It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord. Nu. 28. 6.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory.

A cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. Ex. 40. 34.

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. 2 Ch. 7. 1.—The priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God. 2 Ch. 5. 14.

The desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts. Hag. 2. 7, 9.—The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 3. 1.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

45 ¶ And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.

Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord. Zec. 2. 10.—The Spirit of truth; ... he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jno. 14. 17, 23.—Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.

I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Re. 21. 3.

46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. Jno. 1. 14.

CHAPTER XXX.

AND thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it.

Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Ps. 141. 2.—He ever liveth to make intercession. He. 7. 25.

Another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. Re. 8. 3.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 24.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. Lu. 1. 9.

8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

Thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always. In the tabernacle of the congregation without the vail, which is before the testimony. Ex. 27. 20, 21.

9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. Le. 10. 1, 2.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

He shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month. Le. 16. 18, 29.—Ye shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month a holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls: ye shall not do any work therein. Num. 29. 7.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them, when thou numberest them.

The silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. Ex. 38. 25.

Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Ti. 2. 6.—Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers: but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men. Ex. 38. 26.—We made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God. Ne. 10. 32.—They that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? Mat. 17. 24.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

[God] accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor; for they all are the work of his hands. Job 34. 19.—The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all. Pr. 22. 2.—Neither is there respect of persons with him. Eph. 6. 9.—Have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the LORD of glory, with respect of persons. Ja. 2. 1.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the lookinglasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Ex. 38. 8.

19 For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat:

I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O Lord. Ps. 26. 6.—Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD. Is. 52. 11.—Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. Jno. 13. 8-10.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Ja. 4. 8.—Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22. In many things we offend all. Ja. 3. 2.

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD:

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels,

24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin:

All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia. Ps. 45. 8.

25 And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oil.

Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth. Ca. 1. 3.—Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. He. 1. 9.—Ye have an unction from the Holy One. 1 Jno. 2. 20; Is. 61. 1, 3.

Now he which ... hath anointed us, is God; who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Co. 1. 21, 22.

26 And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony,

And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them. Le. 8. 10.

27 And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Le. 8. 12, 30.

31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations.

32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you.

33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

34 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:

35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy:

36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.

I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Le. 16. 2.

37 And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the LORD.

38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.

CHAPTER XXXI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, ... I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel. For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me. Is. 45. 1, 3, 4.

3 And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the Lord put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commanded. Ex. 36. 1.—Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work. Is. 54. 16.—Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights. Ja. 1. 17.—They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Ac. 2. 4.—All these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 11.

4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5 And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee;

7 The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle,

8 And the table and his furniture, and the pure candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense,

9 And the altar of burnt offering with all his furniture, and the laver and his foot,

10 And the cloths of service, and the holy garments of Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office,

11 And the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.

Nu. 4. 5, etc.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.

Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD. Le. 19. 30.—I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them. Hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God. Eze. 20. 12, 20.—The heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore. Eze. 37. 28.

14 Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy. Ex. 20. 8.—Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee. De. 5. 12.

Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death. Ex. 35. 2.—While the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. And the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. Nu. 15. 32, 35.

If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord. Is. 58. 13, 14.—Thus saith the Lord: Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day as I commanded your fathers. Je. 17. 21, 22.

15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

Six days shalt thou labour and do all thy work. Ex. 20. 9.—Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. Ge. 2. 1, 2.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.

17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

The Lord said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them. Ex. 24. 12.—The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 17.—I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts. Je. 31. 33.

If I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, [the finger of God. Lu. 11. 20.] then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Mat. 12. 28.—Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. 2 Co. 3. 3.

CHAPTER XXXII.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights. Ex. 24. 18.—To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us. Ac. 7. 39, 40.

If that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; ... the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder. Mat. 24. 48, 50, 51.—There shall come in the last day scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. 2 Pe. 3. 3, 4.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

They borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment. Ex. 12. 35.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold. Ex. 20. 23.—They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image. Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass. Ps. 106. 19, 20.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 1 Co. 10. 7.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou brought-est out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

All the people answered together and said, All that the Lord hath spoken we will do. Ex. 19. 8.—Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. Ex. 20. 3, 4.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

They refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, ... but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. Ne. 9. 16, 17.—I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass. Is. 48. 4.—Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Ac. 7. 51.

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

Then said the Lord unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. Je. 14. 11.—Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people. Je. 15. 1.—Pray one for another that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.

Think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Mat. 3. 9.

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

I fell down before the Lord, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. I prayed therefore unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm. De. 9. 18, 26, 29.—He said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. Ps. 106. 23.

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men: were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the Lord hath not done all this. De. 32. 26, 27.

O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed. Ps. 79. 8-10.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

The angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven. Ge. 22. 15-17.—When God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. He. 6. 13, 14.

Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin. De. 9. 27.

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

He remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Ps. 106. 45.—If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. Je. 18. 8.—Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; and the Lord will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. Je. 26. 13.—Rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Joel. 2. 13.—I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Jon. 4. 2.

15 ¶ And Moses turned and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

De. 9. 15.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

My covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord. Je. 31. 32.—He looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts. Mar. 3. 5.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount. De. 9. 21.—The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways. Pr. 14. 14.—As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. Ps. 109. 18.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me. Ex. 17. 4.—The Lord was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. De. 9. 20.—There is none righteous, no, not one. Ro. 3. 10.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies:)

I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? Ge. 3. 10, 11.—The Lord brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the Lord. 2 Ch. 28. 19.

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor. Nu. 25. 5.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy. Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: and he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. Nu. 25. 11-13.—If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers, ... thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shalt thou spare him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him: but thou shalt surely kill him. De. 13. 6, 8, 9.

He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Mat. 10. 37.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.

Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way. 1 Sa. 12. 20, 23.—For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great. Ps. 25. 11.

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. De. 9. 18.—Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold. Ex. 20. 23.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

They have made them a molten image. Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven. De. 9. 12, 14.

Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Lu. 10. 20. My fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life. Phi. 4. 3.

He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. Re. 3. 5.—Another book was opened, which is the book of life. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Re. 20. 12, 15.—If any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. Re. 22. 19.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. Jno. 10. 27, 28.

At that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. Da. 12. 1.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

The soul that sinneth, it shall die. Eze. 18. 4.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.

The angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them. Ex. 14. 19. Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Ex. 23. 20.—My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? ... And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. Ex. 33. 14-17.—When we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt. Nu. 20. 16.—Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Je. 5. 9.—After thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; who will render to every man according to his deeds. Ro. 2. 5, 6.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts. Je. 2. 19.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it:

2 And I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

Ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. Jos. 24. 1, 11.

3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way.

O LORD, let my LORD, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people. Ex. 34. 9.—Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. Ex. 23. 21.—Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity. Hab. 1. 13.

4 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

The tabernacle of the congregation without the veil, which is before the testimony. Ex. 27. 21.—At the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. Ex. 29. 42.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.

I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony. Ex. 25. 22.—He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar. Ps. 99. 7.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold. Nu. 12. 8.—There arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face. De. 34. 10.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

Go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee. Ex. 32. 34. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. Jno. 10. 14, 15.—The LORD knoweth them that are his. 2 Ti. 2. 19.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.

O LORD God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. De. 9. 26.

Teach me thy way, O LORD. Ps. 86. 11.—He made known his ways unto Moses. Ps. 103. 7.

Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Joel 2. 17.

14 And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night. Ex. 13. 21.—A cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. Ex. 40. 34.—And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers. Jos. 21. 44.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

They will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. Nu. 14. 14.—For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for? De. 4. 7.—What one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemest to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? 2 Sa. 7. 23.—Thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O LORD God. 1 Ki. 8. 53.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken. Ge. 19. 21.—The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.

The glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai. And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel. Ex. 24. 16, 17.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Co. 4. 6.—We shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.

19 And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin. Ex. 34. 6, 7.—I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. Ro. 9. 15, 16.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.

Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see. 1 Th. 6. 16.

We have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. De. 5. 24.—Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. Ge. 32. 30.

Woe is me! for I am undone; ... for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Is. 6. 5; Ju. 13. 22.

Now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. 1 Co. 13. 12.—Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 Jno. 3. 2.—The brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person. He. 1. 3.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. Is. 2. 21.—He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust. Ps. 91. 1, 4.

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen.

No man hath seen God at any time. Jno. 1. 18.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

At that time the Lord said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood. And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark. De. 10. 1, 2.—The tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables. Ex. 32. 16.

Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. 2 Co. 3. 3.

2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount.

3 And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

Thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: there shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live. Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the Lord to gaze, and many of them perish. Ex. 19. 12, 13, 21.

4 ¶ And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first: and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

As Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. Ex. 33. 9.

6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth.

The Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him. 2 Ch. 30. 9. Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness. Ne. 9. 17.—Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. Ps. 86. 15; 103. 8; 112. 4; 116. 5; 57. 10; 62. 12.

Render your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Joel 2. 13. Despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? Ro. 2. 4.

7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

Ex. 20. 6. De. 5. 10.

The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked. Na. 1. 3.—If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity. Job 10. 14. I will not justify the wicked. Ex. 23. 7.

There is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared. Ps. 130. 4.—Who forgiveth all thine iniquities. Ps. 103. 3.—As God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. 4. 32.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 9.

8 And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. Ps. 33. 12.—The Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. Ps. 94. 14.—The Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. De. 32. 9.—Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The Lord of hosts is his name. Je. 10. 16.

The Lord shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. Zec. 2. 12.

10 ¶ And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

What one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible? 2 Sa. 7. 23.—He hath not dealt so with any nation. Ps. 147. 20.—He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen. De. 10. 21.—By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea. Ps. 65. 5.

11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

Ye shall observe to do therefore as the Lord your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. De. 5. 32.—Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God. De. 12. 28.—And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth. De. 28. 1.

12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee:

If ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: know for a certainty that the Lord your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. Jos. 23. 12, 13.—They served their idols: which were a snare unto them. Ps. 106. 36.

13 But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves:

Ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place. De. 12. 3.

14 For thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God:

Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them. Ex. 20. 3, 5.—For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. Ex. 20. 5.—Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God. Ja. 4. 4.

15 Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice;

They went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them. Ja. 2. 17.—Thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee. Ps. 73. 27.—She defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. Je. 3. 9.

The things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. 1 Co. 10. 20. Re. 2. 20.

16 And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

The people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. Nu. 25. 1, 2.—They have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands. Ezra 9. 2.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 14, 16.

17 Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

18 ¶ The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib; for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Ex. 12. 15.

19 All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male.

As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord. Lu. 2. 23.

20 But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the first-born of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.

21 ¶ Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

Ge. 2. 3.

Keep the sabbath-day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee. Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work. De. 5. 12, 13.

22 ¶ And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end.

Ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete. Le. 23. 15.—Thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God, according as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee. Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine. De. 16. 10, 13.

23 ¶ Thrice in the year shall all your men-children appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel.

Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. De. 16. 16.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders : neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the Lord thy God thrice in the year.

He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. Ps. 78. 55.—Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt : thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it. Ps. 80. 8.

When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Pr. 16. 7.

25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven ; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning.

That which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire. Ex. 12. 10.

26 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his name there. And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O Lord, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God. De. 26. 2, 10.—Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase : so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. Pr. 3. 9, 10.

27 And the Lord said unto Moses, Write thou these words : for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

28 And he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights ; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God. Ex. 31. 18.—And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables. Ex. 32. 16.—And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto all the elders of Israel. De. 31. 9.—I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people. Is. 49. 8.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

The children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance. For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech : and not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished. But their minds were blinded : for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament ; which vail is done away in Christ. But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. Now the Lord is that Spirit : and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 2 Co. 3. 7, 9, 11–17.—For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Ro. 10. 4.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone ; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them ; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him : and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh : and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face.

Moses was very meek. Nu. 12. 3.

With many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. Mar. 4. 33.

I ... came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. 1 Co. 2. 1–3.—To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak. 1 Co. 9. 22.

34 But when Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone : and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Co. 3. 18.

CHAPTER XXXV.

AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the Lord hath commanded, that ye should do them.

2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the Lord : whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death.

Ge. 2. 3.

Six days shall work be done : but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation : ye shall do no work therein : it is the sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings. Le. 23. 3.—And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. And the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death : all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. Nu. 15. 32, 35.—Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee. De. 5. 12.

And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work : in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? Lu. 13. 14, 15.

3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

To-morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the Lord: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe. Ex. 16. 23.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from among you an offering unto the Lord: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the Lord; gold, and silver, and brass,

Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering. Ex. 25. 2.—For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. 2 Co. 8. 12.—Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

8 And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate.

10 And every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the Lord hath commanded;

In the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee. Ex. 31. 6. Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the Lord put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commanded. And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the Lord had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it. Ex. 36. 1, 2.

As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pe. 4. 10.

11 The tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 The ark, and the staves thereof, with the mercy seat, and the vail of the covering,

And they shall make an ark of shittim wood. And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them. The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it. And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof. And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat. And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof. And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee. Ex. 25. 10, 13–15, 17–19, 21.

13 The table, and his staves, and all his vessels, and the shewbread,

Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood. And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me alway. Ex. 25. 23, 30.—Thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the Lord. Le. 24. 5, 6.

14 The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light,

And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same. And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof; and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it. And the tongs thereof, and the snuffers thereof, shall be of pure gold. And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount. Ex. 25. 31, 37, 38, 40.

15 And the incense altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle,

Thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it. And the Lord said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight; and thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy. Ex. 30. 1, 34, 35.

16 The altar of burnt offering, with his brasen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

Thou shalt make an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits. Ex. 27. 1.

17 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

There shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long for one side. Ex. 27. 9.

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords,

19 The cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

When the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering vail, and cover the ark of testimony with it. Nu. 4. 5.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the Lord's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breastplate;

28 And spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

The people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Ch. 29. 9, 14.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah: and I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, to devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee. Ex. 31. 2-6.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

3 And they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. 1 Co. 3. 10.

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you: but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 1 Co. 1. 10.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2. 20-22. — Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

20 ¶ And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward;

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherbims made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needlework;

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

AND Bezaleel made the ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 ¶ And he made the mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood. Ro. 3. 25.

7 And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat;

8 One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

9 And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy seat-ward were the faces of the cherubims.

Which things the angels desire to look into. 1 Pe. 1. 12.

10 ¶ And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

Thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me alway. Ex. 25. 30.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a border of an handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table.

15 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.

16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold.

17 ¶ And he made the candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same:

That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. Jno. 1. 9.—The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things. Jno. 14. 26.

And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks. And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. Re. 1. 12, 13.

18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof;

19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers:

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snufflishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 ¶ And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.

Another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. Re. 8. 3, 4.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 ¶ And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, and of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive a hin: and thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be a holy anointing oil. Ex. 30. 23–25.—We are unto God a sweet savour of Christ. 2 Co. 2. 15.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

AND he made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, and the fleshhooks, and the firepans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brasen grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 ¶ And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the lookingglasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the ¹door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

¹ [Anna] departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. Lu. 2. 37.

9 ¶ And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long for one side. The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass. Ex. 27. 9, 18. — Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left. Is. 54. 2, 3.

11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters and their fillets of silver.

20 And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

He. 8. 2; 9. 11.

Thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof: and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle. The Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony. Nu. 1. 50-53.

22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold. And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without. 1 Ki. 6. 21, 22, 28, 30.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) a half shekel shall be the offering of the Lord. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the Lord, to make an atonement. Ex. 30. 13, 15.—All they that were numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. Nu. 1. 46.—The children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children. Ex. 12. 37.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

AND of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the Lord commanded Moses.

Every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them. Ex. 35. 23.

2 And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the Lord commanded Moses.

And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith. Le. 8. 7.—Samuel ministered before the Lord, being a child, girded with a linen ephod. 1 Sa. 2. 18.

6 ¶ And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

Thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel: six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth. Ex. 28. 9, 10.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the Lord commanded Moses.

And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a memorial. Ex. 28. 12.

8 ¶ And he made the breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

The breastplate of judgment. Ex. 28. 15, etc.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

Ex. 28. 18–21.

This man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Heb. 7. 24, 25.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the Lord commanded Moses.

He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. Is. 59. 17. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness. Eph. 6. 14.—Let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 1 Th. 5. 8.

22 ¶ And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was an hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the Lord commanded Moses.

27 ¶ And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons,

For Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty. Ex. 28. 40.—The fine linen is the righteousness of saints. Re. 19. 8.

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. Is. 61. 10.

28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen,

They ... shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. Eze. 44. 18.

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the Lord commanded Moses.

Righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. Is. 11. 5.

30 ¶ And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

Zec. 14. 20.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Co. 1. 30.—The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 11–14.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the Lord commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jno. 1. 14.—In him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. Col. 2. 9.—He that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. 1 Jno. 3. 24.—I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Re. 21. 3.

33 ¶ And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets,

34 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the vail of the covering,

35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy seat,

36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread,

37 The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light,

38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door,

39 The brasen altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation,

41 The cloths of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office.

42 According to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the Lord had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

The Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Nu. 6. 22–26.

CHAPTER XL.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail.

4 And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 11-14.

We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. He. 13. 10.

7 And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power. Ac. 10. 38.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

Behold, I give unto [Phinehas] my covenant of peace: and he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. Nu. 25. 13.—The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Ps. 110. 4.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me always. Ex. 25. 30.—He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Jno. 6. 56.

24 ¶ And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. Jno. 1. 9; Ps. 119. 105.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 ¶ And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail:

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 ¶ And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat :

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

I have glorified thee on the earth : I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. Jno. 17. 4.—Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus : who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; but Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. Heb. 3. 1-6; Jno. 4. 34.

34 ¶ Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Le. 16. 2.—On the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. Nu. 9. 15.

When the priests were come out of the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD. 1 Kg. 8. 10, 11.

I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts. Hag. 2. 7, 9.—I will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her. Zec. 2. 5.

The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. Re. 15. 8.

35 And Moses was not able ¹ to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the ² glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys :

On the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai. Nu. 10. 11, 12.

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

In the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. Whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed. Nu. 9. 17, 22.—My times are in thy hand. Psa. 31. 15.—Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Psa. 3. 5, 6.

38 For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night. Ex. 13. 21.—Thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Ne. 9. 19; Psa. 78. 14.—God is light. 1 Jno. 1. 5.—Our God is a consuming fire. Heb. 12. 29.

LEVITICUS.

CHAPTER I.

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

My servant Moses ... who is faithful in all mine house. With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently. Nu. 12. 7, 8; He. 3. 5.

A greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands. He. 9. 11.—For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. 2 Pe. 1. 17.

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

Then said I, Lo, I come ... I delight to do thy will, O my God. Ps. 40. 7, 8.—The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.—Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pe. 2. 22.—[He] was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.

Which of you convinceth me of sin? Jno. 8. 46.—The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. Jno. 14. 30.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 32.—No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. Jno. 10. 18.—The Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Ga. 2. 20.

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 7.

4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering: and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.

He hath made us accepted in the Beloved. Eph. 1. 6.—Ye, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.—The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Ps. 51. 17.—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight. Col. 1. 22.

Every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices. He. 10. 11.—Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and ... the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. He. 12. 22, 24.—Unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.

6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

The priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them. 2 Ch. 29. 34.

Of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, for to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. Ac. 4. 27, 28; Ps. 2. 2.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire:

Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order. Ge. 22. 9.

8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

The Lord smelled a sweet savour. Ge. 8. 21.

I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God. Phi. 4. 18.

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.

There are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. 1 Jno. 5. 8.

10 ¶ And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish.

He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter. Is. 53. 7.

Cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing. Mal. 1. 14.—Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. Jno. 6. 37.

God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering. Ge. 22. 8.—Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, He. 9. 14.

Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even. And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord. This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. Ex. 29. 38, 39, 42.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar.

Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd. Zec. 13. 7.—Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer. Lu. 24. 46.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

From within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts. Mar. 7. 21.—Purify your hearts. Ja. 4. 8.—Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter. Mat. 23. 26. I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean. Eze. 36. 25.—He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. Jno. 13. 10.

14 ¶ And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.

And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting. Jno. 2. 14.—And when the days of [Mary's] purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. Lu. 2. 22, 24.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:

Thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel. Ps. 22. 3.—The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all works. Ps. 115. 17.

As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. Ps. 22. 14.

And [Abram] took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not. Ge. 15. 10.

CHAPTER II.

AND when any will offer a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon:

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. Is. 61. 1.—Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia. Ps. 45. 7, 8.—They presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. Mat. 2. 11.

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. Ac. 10. 4.

3 And the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

And had given them of the corn of heaven. Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. Ps. 78. 24, 25.—I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Jno. 6. 51.—To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna. Re. 2. 17.—And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy: and ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded. Le. 10. 12, 13.

4 ¶ And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

Unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them. Ex. 29. 2.—Not my will, but thine be done. Lu. 22. 42.—And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the Lord, offer it at your own will. Le. 22. 29.

5 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat offering.

7 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in the fryingpan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the Lord: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Ec. 29. 18.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. Gal. 5. 9.—Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. Mat. 8. 15.—Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Lu. 12. 1.

Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Co. 5. 8.

12 ¶ As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors. Ec. 22. 29.—When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest. Le. 23. 10.—Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. Pr. 3. 9, 10.—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33.

13 And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

Neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Ac. 2. 27.—The Prince of life. Ac. 3. 15.—Every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. Mat. 9. 49.—Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt. Col. 4. 6.

14 And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears.

It became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. He. 2. 10.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 1 Co. 15. 20, 23.—If the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. Ro. 11. 16.—For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. He. 2. 11.—When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest: and he shall wave the sheaf before the Lord, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. Le. 23. 10, 11, 14.

15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. Jno. 1. 45.—This is the Christ. Jno. 7. 41.

CHAPTER III.

AND if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.

The Prince of peace. Is. 9. 6.—This man shall be the peace. Mt. 5. 5.—The thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil. Je. 29. 11.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Ro. 5. 1.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Lu. 2. 24.—Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest. Lu. 19. 38.

2 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

The chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed. Is. 53. 5; Ro. 5. 1, 2.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins. Ps. 7. 9.—He is our peace, having abolished in his flesh the enmity. Eph. 2. 14, 15.

5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

By him let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

6 ¶ And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD be of the flock ; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

Behold my servant, whom I uphold ; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth. Is. 42. 1.—King of Salem, ... King of peace. He. 7. 2.—The work of righteousness shall be peace ; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever. Is. 32. 17.

7 If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD.

8 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation : and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

Lo, in the midst of the throne ... stood a Lamb as it had been slain. Re. 5. 6.—The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.

9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD ; the fat thereof, and the whole rump, it shall he take off hard by the backbone ; and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar : it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

12 ¶ And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation : and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD ; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

16 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar : it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour : all the fat is the LORD's.

Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. For whosoever eateth of the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people. Le. 7. 23, 25.

17 It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed : but ye feed not the flock. Eze. 34. 3.—Ye shall not eat the blood ; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. De.

12. 16.—Flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. Ge. 9. 4.

And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground : and the people did eat them with the blood. Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed : roll a great stone unto me this day. 1 Sa. 14. 22, 33.

CHAPTER IV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them :

Then enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin. Job 10. 6.—How many are mine iniquities and sins ? make me to know my transgression and my sin. Job 13. 23.—Who can understand his errors ? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Ps. 19. 12.—I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord ; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Ps. 32. 5. Whatsoever is not of faith is sin. Ro. 14. 23.—The heavens are not clean in his sight. Job 15. 15.

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous ; and he is the propitiation for our sins : and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 Jo. 2. 1, 2.—His Son, ... the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, ... upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. He. 1. 2, 3.

3 If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people ; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD ; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy ; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Co. 3. 17. Jesus was made a surety of a better testament. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens ; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's : for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity ; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. He. 7. 22, 25—28.

Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father ; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Re. 1. 5, 6.

5 And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation :

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary.

By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh. He. 10. 20.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Ps. 32. 1.—There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Ti. 2. 5, 6.

11 And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung,

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

The bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. He. 13. 11, 12.—In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness. Zec. 13. 1.—And they took Jesus and led him away. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. Jno. 19. 16–18.

13 ¶ And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

If a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing. Le. 22. 14.—They told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day. 1 Sa. 14. 33.—Are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin: as it is written, There is none righteous, no not one: there is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Ro. 3. 9–12.—We ought to give the more earnest heed. He. 2. 1.

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

Christ hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pe. 3. 18.—The Son of man came ... to give his life a ransom for many. Mar. 10. 45.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 6. The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Co. 15. 56, 57.

16 And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 11–14.—Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Da. 9. 24.—We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. Every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God. He. 10. 10, 12.

If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.—He is the propitiation for our sins. 1 Jno. 2. 2.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler hath sinned and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or if his sin wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Ro. 4. 7, 8.—I have found a ransom. Job 33. 24.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

27 ¶ And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty;

28 Or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Pr. 20. 9.—Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. 1 Jno. 3. 4.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. 1 Jno. 1. 8, 10.—Almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.

32 And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar:

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father. Gal. 1. 4.—Now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. He. 9. 26–28.

CHAPTER V.

AND if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. Ps. 90. 8.—Stand in awe, and sin not. Ps. 4. 4.

If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house: then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness. 1 Ki. 8. 31, 32.—Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not. Pr. 29. 24.

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Mic. 6. 8.

2 Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean and guilty.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Ps. 19. 12.—Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank. Da. 1. 8.

Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. 1 Jno. 3. 4.—He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him. Nu. 19. 11, 13.

3 Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

Whoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. Nu. 19. 16.—Exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. He. 3. 13.

4 Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise. Pr. 10. 19.—Certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. Ac. 23. 12.—He promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask. Mat. 14. 7.

I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me. Ps. 39. 1.—Fools make a mock at sin. Pr. 14. 9.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest. Ps. 51. 4.—And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. Jos. 7. 19.—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 9.

7 And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord. Le. 1. 17.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God. He. 10. 12.

11 ¶ But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin offering.

And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.—Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Co. 8. 9.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it is a sin offering.

13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the priest's, as a meat offering.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

15 If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering:

Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin: neither say thou before the angel that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands? Ec. 5. 6.—The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. Pr. 24. 9.

I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. Ps. 89. 19.

And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives, ... and they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass. Ezra 10. 18, 19.—And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. Le. 27. 25.

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶ And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them. Le. 4. 2.—Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Ps. 19. 12.—He that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. Lu. 12. 48.—Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Ti. 1. 13.

18 And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a trespass offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land. Ezra 10. 2.—What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead. For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, and just, and good. Ro. 7. 7-12.

CHAPTER VI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 If a soul sin, and commit a trespass against the LORD, and lie unto his neighbour in that which was delivered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or hath deceived his neighbour;

3 Or have found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men but unto God. Ac. 5. 3, 4.

And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shall thou profane the name of thy God; I am the LORD. Le. 19. 12.—If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? 1 Jno. 4. 20.—Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds. Col. 3. 9.

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his trespass offering.

If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double. If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods. For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour. Ec. 22. 7-9.—Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed. Nu. 5. 7.

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest:

7 And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. 2 Co. 9. 15.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

I will go into thy house with burnt offerings; I will pay thee my vows, which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble. I will offer unto thee burnt-sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks with goats. Ps. 66. 13-15, etc.

10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach. Ex. 28. 42.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place.

Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. There laid they Jesus. Jno. 19. 41, 42.—He made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death. Is. 53. 9.—It is finished. Jno. 19. 30.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

Our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 29.—Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all. 2 Th. 3. 16.

13 The ¹ fire shall ever ² be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

1 Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. Is. 6. 6, 7.—And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. Re. 8. 5.

2 They rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Re. 4. 8.

14 ¶ And this is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD.

I will also clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. Ps. 132. 16.

16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute. Le. 24. 9.—And when [Jesus] had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. 1 Co. 11. 24.

17 It shall not be baken with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire. Le. 2. 11.—Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Co. 5. 6-8.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them shall be holy.

God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. Ps. 89. 7.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

The law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. He. 7. 19.—An omer is the tenth part of an ephah. Ex. 16. 36.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. Ex.

29. 25.—They truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death. He. 7. 23.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy.

26 The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Eph. 5. 32.—How can this man give us his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. Jno. 6. 52-57.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 13, 14.

29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

30 And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

The Lord reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubim; let the earth be moved. Ps. 99. 1.

The bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. He. 13. 11.—Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt. Le. 4. 12.—Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—In those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 3, 12-14.

What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple. Re. 7. 13-15.

CHAPTER VII.

LIKEWISE this is the law of the trespass offering: it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards.

And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar. Ex. 29. 13.

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of their's, every meat offering of their's, and every sin offering of their's, and every trespass offering of their's, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee. Nu. 18. 9, 10.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

The labourer is worthy of his hire. Lu. 10. 7.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward. 1 Ti. 5. 17, 18.—They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be their's. Eze. 44. 29.

9 And all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying-pan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the sure. Is. 33. 16.—And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Lu. 22. 35.

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Ps. 116. 17.—Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, and teach me thy judgments. Ps. 119. 108.—Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Col. 1. 2.—Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Jno. 14. 27.

By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the Lord, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, burnt offerings. 2 Ch. 29. 31.

Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High. Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God. Ps. 50. 14, 23.—Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. Ps. 107. 22.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings. Am. 4. 5.—And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever. And this is thine; the heave offering of thy gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the Lord unto thee, and to thy seed with thee. Nu. 18. 8, 11, 19.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

And did all eat the same spiritual meat. 1 Co. 10. 3.—Let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Col. 3. 15.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16. 10, 11.—He was buried, and rose again the third day according to the scriptures. 1 Co. 15. 4.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Jno. 18. 28.—Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. Hag. 2. 13.

Eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved. Ca. 5. 1.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness. Le. 15. 3; 22. 4. 9.—According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Eph. 1. 4. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. He. 12. 10.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations, throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood. Le. 3. 17; 17. 10, etc.

24 And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

Flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. Ge. 9. 4.

Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life. Jno. 6. 53. 54.—Render ... unto God the things that are God's. Mat. 22. 21.

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Lu. 22. 17. 20.

28 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons. Ex. 29. 24, 27.—And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: this is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine. Nu. 6. 20.

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. 2 Co. 8. 12.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

Accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6.

34 For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel; for it is a heave offering: and it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD. Ex. 29. 28.—And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. De. 18. 3.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings :

And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation ; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them ; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. 2 Co. 5. 18, 19.—For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. Ro. 5. 10, 11.—Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mat. 20. 28.

My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous ; and he is the propitiation for our sins ; and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 Jno. 2. 1, 2.

38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the Lord, in the wilderness of Sinai.

And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver ; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. Mal. 3. 3.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread ;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

The law maketh men high priests which have infirmity ; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. He. 7. 28.—Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 18.—Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me : in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure : then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God. He. 10. 5-7.

This is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office : Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish, and unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil ; of wheat flour shalt thou make them. And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams. Ex. 29. 1-3.

And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory and for beauty. And these are the garments which they shall make ; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle : and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. Ex. 28. 2, 4.

4 And Moses did as the Lord commanded him ; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water. Ex. 29. 4.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation,

This is the thing which the Lord commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.

Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Jno. 13. 8.

7 And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod. Ex. 29. 5.—And these are the garments which they shall make ; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle : and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. Ex. 28. 4.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness ; and let thy saints shout for joy. I will also clothe her priests with salvation ; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. Ps. 132. 9, 16.

And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel, to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me ? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel ? 1 Sa. 2. 28.

8 And he put the breastplate upon him : also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.

Thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim ; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the Lord : and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually. Ex. 28. 30.—I delight to do thy will, O my God ; yea, thy law is within my heart. Ps. 40. 8.

9 And he put the mitre upon his head ; also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown ; as the Lord commanded Moses.

Thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre ; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts ; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the Lord. Ex. 28. 36-38.—Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty. Re. 4. 8.—Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever. Ps. 93. 5.

The elect of God, holy and beloved. Col. 3. 12.

10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

Whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy. Ex. 30. 29.—All thy garments smell of myrrh. Ps. 45. 8.—And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes. Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God ; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him : I am the Lord. Le. 21. 10, 12.—Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him. Ex. 29. 7.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. Ex. 30. 30.—Like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments. Ps. 133. 2.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bounnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory and for beauty. And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty. Ex. 28. 2, 40.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. 1 Ch. 16. 29.—Sing unto the Lord, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. Ps. 30. 4.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Is. 63. 1.—And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. Is. 11. 5.

14 And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

Thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock. And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. Ex. 29. 10, 35, 36.—And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for a sin offering. Eze. 43. 19.—For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. He. 7. 28.

15 And he slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

Thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. Ex. 29. 36.—Thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it. Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. Eze. 43. 20, 26.

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 29. 14.

Innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me. Ps. 40. 12.—Mine iniquities are gone over mine head; as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. Ps. 38. 4.—O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee. Ps. 69. 5.

18 ¶ And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. Ex. 29. 15.

19 And he killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces. And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar. Le. 1. 6, 8.—And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the Lord: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Ex. 29. 18.

22 ¶ And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

Thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place. Ex. 29. 19, 31.

23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

Thou shalt kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. Ex. 29. 20.

But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 11, 12.—Wherefore Jesus, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. He. 13. 12.

These are they which ... have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple. Re. 7. 14, 15.

25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder :

Thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration. Ex. 29. 22.

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder :

And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the Lord. Ex. 29. 23.

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

Ex. 29. 24-28.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the Lord: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Ex. 29. 25.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name. He. 13. 15.—Moses verily was faithful in all his house. He. 3. 5.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

Thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Ex. 29. 21.—And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. Ex. 30. 30.

White robes were given unto every one of them. Re. 6. 11.—To her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. Re. 19. 8.—Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. Re. 3. 4.—Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. Re. 16. 15.

31 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

Thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Ex. 29. 32.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

If ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. Ex. 29. 34.

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place. And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. Ex. 29. 30, 35.—Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. Eze. 43. 25, 26.

And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. He. 7. 15, 16.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. Pr. 8. 34.—Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Psa. 84. 4.

They shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. Nu. 3. 7.—And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not. Nu. 9. 19.

Therefore thou shalt love the LORD thy God and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, alway. De. 11. 1.—Keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself. 1 Ki. 2. 3.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he. Ge. 6. 22.

By one offering [Jesus] hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He. 10. 14.

To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect. He. 12. 23.—If I am our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. 1 Jo. 4. 17.—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Mat. 5. 48.

CHAPTER IX.

AND it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord God. Eze. 43. 27.—He preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. Ac. 17. 18.—Being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. He. 5. 9.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Pe. 1. 3.

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, and offer them before the Lord.

This is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish. Ex. 29. 1.—Christ ... needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 24, 27.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

The children of Israel ... offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. Ezra 6. 16, 17.

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the Lord; and a meat offering mingled with oil: for to day the Lord will appear unto you.

There I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. Ex. 29. 43.—Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. Psa. 100. 4.

And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Re. 21. 22.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the Lord.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the Lord commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the Lord shall appear unto you.

I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. Ex. 33. 18.—Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land: and I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts; and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts. Hag. 2. 6, 9.

Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Lu. 2. 10, 14.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the Lord commanded.

Every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. And by reason that he himself is compassed with infirmity, he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. He. 5. 1-3.—Christ ... needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 24, 27.

Into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience. He. 9. 7-9.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the Lord commanded Moses.

Almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

Jesus ... suffered without the gate. He. 13. 12.—Pilate ... willing to release Jesus, spake again to them. But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Lu. 23. 20-26, 33.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. There are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and these three agree in one. 1 Jno. 5. 6, 8.—That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. 5. 26.—Thy word is very pure, therefore thy servant loveth it. Psa. 119. 140.

15 ¶ And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

When thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand. Is. 53. 10.—In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He. 2. 17.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the manner.

17 And he brought the meat offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. Ex. 29. 38.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.—When any will offer a meat offering unto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: and he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord: and the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire. Le. 2. 1, 3.

A meat offering mingled with oil. Le. 9. 4.—The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. Le. 6. 26.—I am the living bread which came down from heaven. Jno. 6. 51.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience: which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 9, 10.—But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. He. 8. 6-8.

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave offering before the Lord; as Moses commanded.

And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the Lord. And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the Lord: and it shall be thy part. Ex. 29. 24, 26.—Having therefore, brethren, . . . a high priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 19, 21, 22.

Let us draw near lither unto God. 1 Sa. 14. 36.—I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord. And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. Je. 30. 21, 22.—Accepted in the beloved. Eph. 1. 6.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Nu. 6. 23, 26.—And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the Lord. De. 21. 5.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the people.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ. Re. 1. 1.—Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell among them. Psa. 68. 18; Eph. 4. 8.—The congregation looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared. Nu. 16. 42.

24 And there came a fire out from before the Lord, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

The Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering. Ge. 4. 4.—The angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Ju. 6. 21.—The fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. 1 Ki. 18. 38.—When Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. 2 Ch. 7. 1, 3.—Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice. Psa. 20. 3.

CHAPTER X.

AND Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord.

See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. He. 12. 25.—And fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. Re. 20. 9.

They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the Lord do sanctify them. Le. 22. 9.—Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering. Ex. 30. 9.

There came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. Nu. 16. 35.—The anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God. 2 Sa. 6. 7.—If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. Is. 1. 19, 20.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

Let the priests also, which come near to the Lord, sanctify themselves, lest the Lord break forth upon them. Ex. 19. 22.—By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation. Ps. 65. 5.—According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. Ps. 48. 10.

When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Ps. 39. 11.

Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord. Is. 52. 11.—I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. Eze. 20. 41.—Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. Is. 49. 3.

I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it. Ps. 39. 2, 9.

Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. Ps. 46. 10.—Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly. Job 1. 22.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

The sons of Kohath by their families; Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel. The chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. Nu. 3. 19, 30.

And the young men arose, wound [Ananias] up, and carried him out, and buried him. Ac. 5. 6.—And devout men carried Stephen to his burial. Ac. 8. 2.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the Lord hath kindled.

Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down. Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. Eze. 24. 16, 17.

7 And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

Ye shall abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the Lord, that ye die not: for so I am commanded. Le. 8. 35.—Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the Lord. Le. 21. 12.

And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Le. 8. 30.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:

Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. Eze. 44. 21.—He shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. Lu. 1. 15. A bishop ... must be blameless, ... not given to wine. 1 Ti. 3. 2, 3; Tit. 1. 7.—Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit. Eph. 5. 18; Je. 35. 5, 6, 12–14.

10 And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

To make a difference between the unclean and the clean. Le. 11. 47; 20. 25.—If thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth. Je. 15. 19.

Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things; they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean. Eze. 22. 26.—They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. Eze. 44. 23; 2 Co. 6. 14–18.

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the Lord, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. 2 Ch. 19. 10.—Observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. De. 24. 8.—And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. Ne. 8. 2, 8.

The priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. 2. 7.

All these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Co. 10. 11–13.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy:

Unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheat flour shalt thou make them. Ex. 29. 2.—This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. Jno. 6. 53.

This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: ... every meat offering of their's ... shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee. Nu. 18. 9, 10. He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. Le. 21. 22.

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 7-14.

14 And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

And this is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. Nu. 18. 11.

Who shall ascend unto the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart. Ps. 24. 3, 4.

Thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. Ps. 89. 19.—Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder. Is. 9. 6.

15 The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel. Le. 7. 34.—And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the Lord. Ex. 29. 24.

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. Le. 6. 26.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 6.—Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple. Ps. 65. 4.

The word of the Lord came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the Lord was there upon him. Eze. 1. 3.—Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity. For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. And when thou hast accomplished them, he again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year. Eze. 4. 4-6.

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

Moses was faithful in all his house. He. 3. 2.—All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy. Le. 6. 29.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?

He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. 1 Co. 11. 29.—They shall not offer wine offerings to the Lord, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the Lord. Ho. 9. 4.

If perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise. He. 7. 11.—For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. He. 5. 1, 2.

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. Jno. 4. 24.—Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound. Ro. 5. 20.—Ye are not under the law, but under grace. Ro. 6. 14.—Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. Tit. 2. 12.

CHAPTER XI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean. Ac. 10. 12-14.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

De. xiv.

And the Lord said unto Noah, Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female. Ge. 7. 1, 2.—Touch no unclean thing. Is. 52. 11.—Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Th. 5. 22.

5 And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you.

Which eat swine's flesh. Is. 65. 4.—He that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood. Eating swine's flesh, and the abomination. Is. 66. 3, 17.

I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Ro. 14. 14, 17.—Meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. 1 Co. 8. 8. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.—A figure for the time then present; which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. He. 9. 9, 10.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you:

It shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity. Le. 7. 18.—Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing. De. 14. 3.

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

Sin is the transgression of the law. 1 Jno. 3. 4.—If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. 1 Co. 8. 13.

13 ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind;

15 Every raven after his kind;

16 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats. Is. 2. 20.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

His meat was locusts and wild honey. Mat. 3. 4; Mar. 1. 6. They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the Lord. Is. 66. 17.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

He that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water that he may be clean. Le. 14. 8.—Whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. Le. 15. 5.—He that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. Nu. 19. 10.—Ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp. Nu. 31. 24.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even : they are unclean unto you.

The night is far spent, the day is at hand : let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Ro. 13. 12.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth ; the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind,

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep : whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean ; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even ; so it shall be cleansed.

Every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water. Le. 15. 12.

33 And every earthen vessel, wherinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean : and ye shall break it.

But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken. Le. 6. 28.—And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken. Le. 15. 12.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean : and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean ; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down : for they are unclean and shall be unclean unto you.

Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity : therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. Je. 48. 11.

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron ; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Ps. 2. 9.

36 Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean : but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.

What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. Ac. 11. 9.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die ; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even.

The fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use : but ye shall in no wise eat of it. Le. 7. 24.

40 And he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even : he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even : then shall he be clean. But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh ; then he shall bear his iniquity. Le. 17. 15, 16.—That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith : I am the Lord. Le. 22. 8.—Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself : thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it ; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien : for thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God. De. 14. 21.

From my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces ; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Eze. 4. 14.—The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast. Eze. 44. 31.

The soul that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the Lord ; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Nu. 15. 30.

41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination ; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat ; for they are an abomination.

43 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field : upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life : and I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed ; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Ge. 3. 14, 15.

Ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. Le. 20. 25. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God ; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee ; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity. Eze. 5. 11.

The creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope ; because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. Ro. 8. 20, 21.

44 For I am the LORD your God : ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy ; for I am holy : neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people : for all the earth is mine : and ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. Ez. 19. 5, 6.—Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy :

for I the Lord your God am holy. Le. 19. 2.—Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the Lord your God. Ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. Le. 20. 7, 26.—God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.

Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Eze. 4. 14.

45 For I am the Lord that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. Ex. 6. 7.—For I am the Lord your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy. Le. 11. 44.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: but that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. Ac. 15. 10, 18, 20.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holiday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Col. 2. 16, 17.

Whosoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Co. 10. 25, 26, 31.

Whosoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught: but those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. Mat. 15. 17, 18.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Mat. 23. 23, 26.

CHAPTER XII.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living. Ge. 3. 16, 20.—Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me. Is. 43. 27.

When the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished. Lu. 2. 22.

3 And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

He that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations. Ge. 17. 12.—On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child. Lu. 1. 59.—When eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS. Lu. 2. 21.

Ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? Jno. 7. 22, 23.

We through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ga. 5. 5, 6.

We are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Ye doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Phi. 3. 3, 7, 11.

In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. Ga. 6. 15, 16.—Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. 1 Co. 7. 19.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety. 1 Ti. 2. 13, 15.—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Ga. 3. 28.

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

They brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. Lu. 2. 22, 24.

7 Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Ro. 3. 23.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness. I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh. Ps. 38. 5-7.—Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Is. 1. 5, 6.

The Lord will smite thee with ... the scab. De. 28. 27.—The Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion. Is. 3. 17.

Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. De. 24. 8.—He said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. Lu. 17. 14.

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon [Uzziah] and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence. 2 Ch. 26. 20.

The leprosy of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow. 2 Ki. 5. 27.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one. Gal. 6. 1.—Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. Ja. 5. 19, 20.

Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. 2 Co. 2. 6, 7.—If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. Jno. 15. 6.

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Is. 1. 16-18.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;

10 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising;

And, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. Nu. 12. 10.

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the boil, there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest ;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white ; the priest shall pronounce him unclean : it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark ; then the priest shall shut him up seven days :

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean : it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil ; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 ¶ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white ;

25 Then the priest shall look upon it : and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin ; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning : wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean : it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark ; then the priest shall shut him up seven days :

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day : and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean : it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark ; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean : for it is an inflammation of the burning.

There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger ; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin. For mine iniquities are gone over mine head : as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness. I am troubled ; I am bowed down greatly ; I go mourning all the day long. For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease ; and there is no soundness in my flesh. My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore ; and my kinsmen stand afar off. Ps. 38. 3-7, 11.

Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord ; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you : for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the Lord. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord ; for I am married unto you. Je. 3. 12-14.

Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord ;

Shall they fall, and not arise ? shall he turn away, and not return ? Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding ? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright : no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done ? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle. Je. 8. 4-6.

Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works ; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. Re. 2. 5.

29 ¶ If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard ;

30 Then the priest shall see the plague : and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin ; and there be in it a yellow thin hair ; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean : it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake : for our backslidings are many ; we have sinned against thee. O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night ? Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save ? yet thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name ; leave us not. Je. 14. 7-9.

My people are bent to backsliding from me : though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim ? how shall I deliver thee, Israel ? How shall I make thee as Admah ? how shall I set thee as Zeboim ? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. Ho. 11. 7, 8.

I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely : for mine anger is turned away from him. Ho. 14. 4.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it ; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days :

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague : and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin ;

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave ; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more :

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall : and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin ; then the priest shall pronounce him clean : and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing ;

36 Then the priest shall look on him : and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair, he is unclean.

37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein ; the scall is healed, he is clean : and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son. Jno. 5. 22.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots :

39 Then the priest shall look : and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white ; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin ; he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald ; yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald : yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore ; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it : and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh ;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean : the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean ; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled ; he is unclean : he shall dwell alone ; without the camp shall his habitation be.

Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the Lord had given deliverance unto Syria : he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper. 2 Ki. 5. 1.—Let [Miriam] not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb. Nu. 12. 12.—There were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate : and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die? 2 Ki. 7. 3.—Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. And ye shall do as I have done : ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. Eze. 24. 17, 22.—They shall all cover their lips ; for there is no answer of God. Mi. 3. 7.—They cried unto them, Depart ye ; it is unclean ; depart, depart, touch not. La. 4. 15.—Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing ; go ye out of the midst of her ; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord. Is. 52. 11.

Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper. Nu. 5. 2.—Let [Miriam] be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again. Nu. 12. 14.

The Lord smote [Azariah], so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house. 2 Ki. 15. 5.—And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper ; for he was cut off from the house of the Lord, 2 Ch. 26. 21.—Ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off. Lu. 17. 12.

47 ¶ The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment ;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof ; of linen, or of woollen ; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin ;

Hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 23.—Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments ; and they shall walk with me in white : for they are worthy. Re. 3. 4.—Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day. De. 8. 11.

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin ; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest :

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days :

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day : if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin ; the plague is a fretting leprosy ; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is : for it is a fretting leprosy ; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin ;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more :

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed : and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread ; it is unclean ; thou shalt burn it in the fire ; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it ; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof :

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin ; it is a spreading plague : thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 1 Co. 5. 3. 5.—To [the bride, the Lamb's wife,] was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. Re. 19. 8.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought unto the priest:

Behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. Mat. 8. 2, 4.—Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. Lu. 17. 14.

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:

Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar; and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. Jno. 19. 29, 30.

The priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. Nu. 19. 6.—Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Psa. 51. 7.

When Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people. He. 9. 19.

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water:

This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. 1 Jno. 5. 6.

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Co. 4. 7.—He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

One of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water. Jno. 19. 34.

There are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood. 1 Jno. 5. 8.—In that day there shall be a fountain opened ... for sin and for uncleanness. Zec. 13. 1.—Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow. Is. 1. 18.—The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing. Zeph. 3. 17.

If the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 13, 14.

Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean. ... Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. 2 Ki. 5. 10, 14.

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Ro. 6. 3, 4.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. The creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. Ro. 8. 1, 2, 21.

If the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 36.—Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh. Gal. 5. 1, 13.

So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? 1 Co. 15. 42-44, 54, 55.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

If any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. Nu. 6. 9.

Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped. Job 1. 20.—Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee. And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb. Ex. 33. 5, 6.

Every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. Je. 48. 37.—Thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed. Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. Psa. 89. 38, 39.—Strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins. Is. 32. 11.

He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. Job 19. 9.—His visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men. Is. 52. 14.—I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. Is. 50. 6.

I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. Is. 44. 22.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil.

And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away; for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. Mar. 16. 2-6.

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. Jno. 11. 25-27.—They taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. Ac. 4. 2.

11 And the priest that maketh him clean shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation :

Go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. Mat. 8. 4; Mar. 1. 44; Lu. 5. 14.—And the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. Le. 13. 3.

12 And the priest shall take one he lamb, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD :

And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. Ex. 29. 24.

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering: it is most holy :

Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy. Le. 7. 6.—He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. Le. 21. 22.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot :

Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. Ex. 29. 20.

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand :

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD :

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering :

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD.

19 And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 And if he be poor, and cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering, and a log of oil;

If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: as it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. 2 Co. 8. 12-15.

22 And two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD.

24 And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD :

25 And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot :

26 And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand :

27 And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD :

28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering :

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 And he shall offer the one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get;

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the Lord.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? Shall there be evil in the city, and the Lord hath not done it? Am. 3. 6.—I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things. Is. 45. 7.

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord. Ps. 32. 5.

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

The curse of the Lord is in the house of the wicked. Pr. 3. 33.—This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. Zec. 5. 3, 4.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut¹ up the house seven days:

¹ The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness? 2 Pe. 3. 9-11.

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city:

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. Lu. 13. 6-9.

We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. 2 Co. 5. 1-4.—For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 1 Co. 15. 53.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. Jno. 14. 2.—I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. Job 19. 23-27.—The destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved. 1 Co. 5. 5.

46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that cateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

The plague is a fretting leprosy. Le. 13. 51.—It shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. Zec. 5. 4.—Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. Pr. 4. 14, 15.—Evil communications corrupt good manners. 1 Co. 15. 33.

48 And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered:

then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:

51 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city unto the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.

[Moses] took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people. He. 9. 19.—Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou dost let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee. And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him. And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear. And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window. Jos. 2. 18-21.

Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped. Ps. 124. 7.—Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way. Jno. 18. 8.

To preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. Lu. 4. 18.

And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucify him. Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band. And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, and began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. Mar. 15. 12-20.—That through death he might destroy him that had the power of death. He. 2. 14.

Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. Ro. 6. 18.

I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest. Ps. 55. 6.—Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 2 Co. 3. 17.—The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Is. 35. 10.—The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly. Ps. 118. 15.

54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall,

55 And for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house,

56 And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot:

57 To teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.

Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. De. 24. 8.—And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. Eze. 44. 23.—I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. Jno. 17. 15.

CHAPTER XV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he be clean. Le. 22. 4.—Put out of the camp . . . every one that hath an issue. Nu. 5. 2.—A woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment. Mat. 9. 20; Lu. 8. 43.—And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up: and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. Mar. 5. 29.

4 Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5 And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8 And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11 And whosoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness? 2 Pe. 3. 11.

13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:

15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom. Ps. 51. 6.

16 And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

If there be among you any man, that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceeth him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp: but it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again. De. 23. 10, 11.

17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.

Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.—And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. 1 Sa. 21. 4.

19 ¶ And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.

If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child; then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean. Le. 12. 2.

20 And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean.

21 And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

23 And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.

24 And if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.

Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead. Nu. 5. 2.

25 And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean.

And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment. Mat. 9. 20; Mar. 5. 25.—Which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stancheth. Lu. 8. 43, 44.

26 Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

27 And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. Ps. 103. 3.

They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. Eze. 44. 23.

31 Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith;

33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. Ite. 12. 28.

In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. Zec. 13. 1.—When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. Is. 4. 4.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25, 27.—The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Ite. 9. 8, 14.

And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. Re. 14. 1, 5.

In Adam all die. 1 Co. 15. 22.—Thy first father hath sinned. Is. 43. 27.—The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. 1 Co. 15. 47.—Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments. Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way. Ps. 119. 1, 2, 18, 73, 123.—Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. Tit. 1. 15.—Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. Ps. 119. 140.—Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Mat. 5. 8.

CHAPTER XVI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died;

Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them; and they died before the Lord. Le. 10. 1, 2.

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.

Into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people. Ite. 9. 7.—And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord. Then spake Solomon, The Lord said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 1 Kz. 8. 10, 12.—There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel. Ex. 25. 22.—Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus. Ite. 10. 19.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the Lord for a sin offering. Le. 4. 3.

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

Having our bodies washed with pure water. Ite. 10. 22.—The fine linen is the righteousness of saints. Re. 19. 8.

Thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework. And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness: from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach: and they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him. Ex. 28. 39, 42, 43.

And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. Eze. 44. 17, 18.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. Ite. 7. 26, 28.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself. Le. 9. 7.—He himself also is compassed with infirmity. Ite. 5. 2.—Into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people. Ite. 9. 7.

Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. He. 7. 27, 28.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness.

And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. E. r. 30. 30.—He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 Jno. 2. 2.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself:

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the vail;

And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense. Nu. 16. 46.—And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar. Re. 8. 3, 5; Js. 6. 6, 7.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight. Ex. 30. 34.

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not:

Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the Lord throughout your generations. Ex. 30. 7, 8.

14 And he shall take the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

The priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation. Le. 4. 5.—As the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others. He. 9. 25.—It is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. He. 10. 4.

And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the Lord, before the vail of the sanctuary. Le. 4. 6.—Without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.—For it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. Le. 17. 11.—The blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. He. 12. 24.—The blood of the everlasting covenant. He. 13. 20.

15 ¶ Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat:

In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He. 2. 17.—Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. He. 5. 2.—So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. He. 9. 28.—Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail; whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest for ever. He. 6. 19, 20.

16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary. Eze. 45. 18.—And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. He. 9. 22, 23.

17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. Lu. 1. 10.—I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me. Is. 63. 3.—I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no saviour. Is. 43. 11.—There is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me. Is. 45. 21.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it, and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 12-14.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

Thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about : thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it. Eze. 43. 20.—Whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? Mat. 23. 19.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat :

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness :

All we like sheep have gone astray ; we have turned every one by his own way ; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 6.

22 And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited : and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

He shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong ; because he hath poured out his soul unto death : and he was numbered with the transgressors ; and he bare the sin of many. Is. 53. 11, 12.—John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. He. 9. 28.—Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree. 1 Pe. 2. 24.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there :

When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister ; for they are holy ; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people. Eze. 42. 14.—And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments ; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments. Eze. 44. 19.

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

He shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering ; as it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings ; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering. Le. 4. 8, 10.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. He. 13. 11.

27 And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp ; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire : where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt. And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock : it is a sin offering for the congregation. Le. 4. 12, 21.—And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten : it shall be burnt in the fire. Le. 6. 30.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you : that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you :

Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement : it shall be a holy convocation unto you ; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Le. 23. 27.

Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death : tarry ye here, and watch with me. And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me : nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. Mat. 26. 36, 39.

I have a baptism to be baptized with ; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished ! Lu. 12. 50.

Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared ; though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered. He. 5. 7, 8.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus : who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God : but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men : and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Phi. 2. 5-8.

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the Lord.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. Psa. 51. 2.—I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me. Je. 33. 8.—That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. 5. 26.

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it ; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 27, 28.—The blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God. He. 9. 14.

I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures. 1 Co. 15. 3.—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 7, 9.

Her sins, which are many, are forgiven. He said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee ; go in peace. Lu. 7. 47, 50.

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness : by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Pe. 2. 24.—Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pe. 3. 18.

31 It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.

Le. 23. 26-32.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. He. 4. 10, 11.

32 And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments :

The holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them. And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place. Ex. 29. 29, 30.—Strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son : and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son ; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount : and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount. Nu. 20. 26, 28.

No man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest ; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. He. 5. 4-6.—They truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death. He. 7. 23.

33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. He. 5. 3.—Christ, who through the eternal Spirit, offered himself without spot to God. He. 9. 14.—The precious blood of Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 19.

34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever. Ex. 12. 14.—Ye shall do no manner of work ; it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, in all your dwellings. Le. 23. 31.—Although my house be not so with God ; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure : for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow. 2 Sa. 23. 5.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them ; This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD ; blood shall be imputed unto that man ;

he hath shed blood ; and that man shall be cut off from among his people :

He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man. Is. 66. 3.—To him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. Ja. 4. 17.

Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest : but in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee. De. 12. 13, 14.—Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. He. 3. 12.

Sin is not imputed when there is no law. Ro. 5. 13.

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD.

Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. Ge. 21. 33.—Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah ; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of. Ge. 22. 2.

Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree. De. 12. 2. Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god : their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips. Ps. 16. 4.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations, throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood. Le. 3. 17.—It is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. Ex. 29. 18.—He shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings ; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD. Le. 4. 31.—And shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD. Nu. 18. 17.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

They sacrificed unto devils, not to God ; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. De. 32. 17.—He ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made. 2 Ch. 11. 15.—Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. Ps. 106. 37, 39.

The things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God : and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. 1 Co. 10. 20.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD ; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

If any man of you bring an offering unto the Lord, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. Le. 1. 2.

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

Flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. Ge. 9. 4.—Ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. Be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh. De. 12. 16, 23.

Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. 1 Sa. 14. 33.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.—Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. Re. 1. 5.—Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Jno. 6. 53.

Without shedding of blood is no remission. He. 9. 22.—One of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. Jno. 19. 34.—For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Mat. 26. 28; Mar. 14. 24.

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood. Ro. 3. 25.—Justified by his blood. Ro. 5. 9.—In whom we have redemption through his blood. Eph. 1. 7; Col. 1. 14.—Peace through the blood of his cross. Col. 1. 20.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. 1 Ch. 11. 19.

Her blood is in the midst of her: she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; that it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. Eze. 24. 7, 8.

Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. Ge. 9. 3, 4.

15 And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity.

We write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. Ac. 15. 20.—If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Jno. 13. 8.

Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy. Re. 3. 4.—These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire. Re. 2. 18.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the LORD your God.

3 After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.

4 Ye shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the LORD.

[They] changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, etc. Ro. 1. 23, 29.

If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? Ge. 4. 7.—I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. They walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. Eze. 20. 11, 13.—This do and thou shalt live. Lu. 10. 28.—The man which doeth those things shall live by them. Ro. 10. 5.—The law is not of faith, but the man that doeth them shall live in them. Gal. 3. 12.—Which if a man do he shall live in them. Ne. 9. 29.

Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2 Pe. 1. 4.

Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 17, 18.—Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God: for every abomination to the Lord, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. De. 12. 30, 31.

6 ¶ None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the Lord.

Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Ex. 3. 5.—It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. 1 Co. 5. 1.—Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. 1 Co. 6. 9, 10, 13.

Hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes, and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you. De. 4. 1, 2.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness; idolatry, witchcraft, hate, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like. Gal. 5. 19–21.—For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. Mat. 7. 21, 22.

But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. Eph. 5. 3–7.

7 The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness.

Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him. Ge. 19. 32.—It came to pass when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine. Ge. 35. 22.—The man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. Le. 20. 11.—It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. 1 Co. 5. 1.—Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 1 Co. 7. 2.

9 The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for their's is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly. 2 Sam. 13. 12.—Another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. Eze. 22. 11.

12 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

14 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt.

If a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless. Le. 20. 20.

15 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

And [Judah] said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more. Ge. 38. 18, 26.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Psa. 19. 12, 13.—Another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law. Eze. 22. 11.

16 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother unto her. And it shall be that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her; then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house. And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed. De. 25. 5–10. The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother: likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. Mat. 22. 23–26.—And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless. Le. 20. 21.—Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. Mat. 14. 3, 4.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time.

Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. Mat. 19. 8.—Her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the Lord had shut up her womb. Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons? 1 Sa. 1. 6, 8.—And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her. And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast. And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her. And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid for a handmaid. And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me? And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years. And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also. And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid. And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years. Ge. 29. 21-30.—By the law is the knowledge of sin. Ro. 3. 20.

19 Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness.

20 Moreover thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

Thou shalt not commit adultery. Er. 20. 14; De. 5. 18.—If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel. De. 22. 22.—So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. Pr. 6. 29, 32.—And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness ... against the adulterers. Mat. 3. 5.

Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery. But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: but I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. Mat. 5. 27-32.

Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, ... shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Co. 6. 9, 10.—Whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. He. 13. 4.

For is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. If therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit. 1 Th. 4. 3-8.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones. Le. 20. 2.—[Ahaz] walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before the children of Israel. 2 Kz. 16. 3; 21. 6; 23. 10.

When ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols. Eze. 20. 31.—When they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house. Eze. 23. 39.

Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. 1 Kz. 11. 7.—Ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, Ac. 7. 43.—But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves. Am. 5. 26.—For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. Ro. 2. 24.

22 Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

Ro. 1. 27.

Both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. Le. 20. 13.—Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, ... shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 9-11; 1 Th. 1. 9, 10.

23 Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Je. 17. 9, 10.

Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. Eph. 5. 11-14.

24 Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you:

If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Co. 3. 17.—Ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. Le. 20. 23.—All that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord; and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee. De. 18. 12.—Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts. Ps. 139. 23.

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants.

Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Likewise also these fifth dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. Jude 7, 8.

Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: in the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Sycilian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Col. 3. 5-11.

26 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you.

I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators: yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world. But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat. For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. 1 Co. 5. 9-13.

27 (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;)

28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out. Je. 9. 19.—Thus saith the Lord God; ... Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman. Eze. 36. 13, 17.

I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Re. 2. 20, 21.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God.

They provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them. Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore. Ps. 106. 29-31.—Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. Eze. 16. 49.

O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee. Ps. 69. 5.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect. Ge. 17. 1.—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Mat. 5. 48.—Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 16.

Job ... was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil. Job 1. 1.—Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright. Ps. 37. 37.

Enoch walked with God. Ge. 5. 24.—Can two walk together, except they be agreed? Am. 3. 3.—The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide. Ps. 37. 31.—Perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. 1. 28.

Our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phi. 3. 20, 21.

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25.

3 ¶ Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Ex. 20. 12; De. 5. 16; Eph. 6. 1-3.

And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. Lu. 2. 51.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Ex. 20. 8.—Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you. Ex. 31. 13.

The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. Mar. 2. 27, 28.

4 ¶ Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them. Ex. 20. 4, 5.—Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the Lord your God. Le. 26. 1.—Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. 1 Co. 10. 14.—Little children, keep yourselves from idols. 1 Jno. 5. 21.

5 ¶ And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

Thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. Lu. 24. 46.—He is our peace. Eph. 2. 14.—Justified by faith. Ro. 5. 1.

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 1 Co. 11. 26-28.

9 ¶ And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands. When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. De. 24. 19-21.—Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not: and let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. Ru. 2. 15, 16.

Ye have the poor always with you. Mat. 26. 11.—We should remember the poor. Gal. 2. 10.

The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it. Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble. Ps. 10. 2, 11, 12.

11 ¶ Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another.

12 ¶ And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

Thou shalt not steal. Ex. 20. 15; De. 5. 19.—The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again. Ps. 37. 21.

Putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Eph. 4. 25.—Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds. Col. 3. 9.—All liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Re. 21. 8.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Ex. 20. 7; De. 5. 11.—Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths. Mat. 5. 33.

Above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. Ja. 5. 12.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ja. 5. 4.—Defraud not. Mar. 10. 19.—That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such. 1 Th. 4. 6.

Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates: at his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the Lord, and he be sin unto thee. De. 24. 14, 15.—I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against ... those that oppress the hireling in his wages. Mal. 3. 5.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD.

15 ¶ Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever. Ps. 37. 28.—My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. If ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. Ja. 2. 1, 9, 10.—Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way. De. 27. 18.—Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Ro. 14. 13.—Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. 1 Pe. 2. 17.

God standeth in the congregation of the mighty: he judgeth among the gods. How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked. Ps. 82. 1-4.

16 ¶ Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.

He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour. Ps. 15. 3.—A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter. Pr. 11. 13; 20. 19.

In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood. Eze. 22. 9.—Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked. Ex. 23. 7.

The tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. Ja. 3. 6.—And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 1 Th. 5. 13.

Yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, and said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. Mat. 26. 60, 61.—I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. Mat. 27. 4.

17 ¶ Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

Mat. 5. 43; 19. 19; 22. 39.

Let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil doer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. 1 Pe. 4. 15.—For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Gal. 5. 14.—The royal law. Ja. 2. 8.

Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Pe. 1. 22.—Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. 1 Pe. 3. 8-12.

In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 1 Jno. 3. 10-18.

As touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more. 1 Th. 4. 9.

He that saith he is in the light and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. He that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes. 1 Jno. 2. 9. 11.

If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. Mat. 18. 15.—Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. Lu. 17. 3.—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Gal. 6. 1.

Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5. 11.—Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. 1 Ti. 5. 20.—Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Ti. 4. 2.

Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. He. 10. 24, 25.—Am I become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? Gal. 4. 16.—Whom the Lord loveth he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. Pr. 3. 12.

Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the Lord, and he shall save thee. Pr. 20. 22.—Recompense to no man evil for evil. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath; for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Ro. 12. 17, 19.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. Eph. 4. 31. Laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings. 1 Pe. 2. 1.—Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door. Ja. 5. 9.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Mat. 5. 43-45.

If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well. Ja. 2. 8.

19 ¶ Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee.

If thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. No man can serve two masters. ... Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Mat. 6. 22, 24.

Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Gal. 4. 21-23.

But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles; but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid. For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. Gal. 2. 11-18.

20 ¶ And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, that is a bondmaid, betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; she shall be scourged; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

De. 22. 23-25.

The law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did. He. 7. 19.

21 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the Lord, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass offering.

22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the Lord for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, for whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 1 Ti. 1. 8-11.

23 ¶ And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to praise the Lord withal.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I am the Lord your God.

And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise unto the house of the Lord. Je. 17. 26.—Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion; and unto thee shall the vow be performed. Psa. 65. 1.—Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me; and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God. Ps. 50. 23.

At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates. De. 14. 28.

26 ¶ Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood: neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times.

27 Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

They told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day. 1 Sa. 14. 33.—Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. Le. 17. 10, 11; De. 12. 23.

There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For these nations, which thou shalt possess hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so to do. De. 18. 10, 11, 14.

Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft. 1 Sa. 15. 23.

Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. 1 Co. 11. 4.

The head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. 1 Co. 11. 3.—And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell. Col. 1. 18, 19.—And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 22, 23.

They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard. Le. 21. 5.—Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, [Heb. cut off into corners, or, having the corners of their hair polled.] that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart. Je. 9. 26.—Every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped. Je. 48. 37.—On all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off. Is. 15. 2.

Ye are the children of the Lord your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. De. 14. 1.—And they cried aloud, and cut themselves, after their manner, with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them. 1 Ki. 18. 28.

29 ¶ Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel. De. 23. 17. And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him, and said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly. Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. Ge. 19. 6, 8.—And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know. Ge. 18. 20, 21.

30 ¶ Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord.

Ye shall ... keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 3; 26. 2.

On the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. Ge. 2. 2, 3.

We which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. He that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest. He. 4. 3, 10, 11.

Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Ec. 5. 1.—And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I knew it not. And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven. Ge. 28. 16, 17.

God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. Ps. 89. 7. If I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 1 Ti. 3. 15.

31 ¶ Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God.

The fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, ... and sorcerers, ... shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Re. 21. 8.—Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live. Ex. 22. 18; De. 18. 10.

Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor. 1 Sa. 28. 7.—Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the Lord, even against the word of the Lord, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it. 1 Ch. 10. 13.

And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead! Is. 8. 19.

As we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. Ac. 16. 16.

Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds. Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. Ac. 19. 13-20.

32 ¶ Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord.

And [Rachel] said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee. Ge. 31. 35.—The beauty of old men is the grey head. Pr. 20. 29.—Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Pi. 31. 28.—Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father. 1 Ti. 5. 1.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and thy mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Eph. 6. 1-3.—Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. Pr. 23. 22.

33 ¶ And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him.

34 But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. Ex. 22. 21.—Thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger. Ex. 23. 9.—When a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the Lord, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you. Ex. 12. 48, 49.—Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. De. 10. 19.

Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour. There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. Jno. 4. 6, 7, 9.

Who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves. Which now ... thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go and do thou likewise. Lu. 10. 29, 30, 36, 37.

35 ¶ Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure.

36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit? Am. 8. 5.—Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have: that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. De. 25. 13, 15.—A false balance is abomination to the Lord: but a just weight is his delight. Pr. 11. 1.—A just weight and balance are the Lord's: all the weights of the bag are his work. Pr. 16. 11.—Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the Lord. Pr. 20. 10.

Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable? Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights? Mt. 6. 10, 11.

37 Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; ... beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 1 Co. 13. 4, 7.—Love is the fulfilling of the law. Ro. 13. 10.—Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them. De. 5. 1.—And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us. De. 6. 25.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. Mat. 5. 17–19.—And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: and lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Mat. 3. 16, 17.

CHAPTER XX.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little. The word of the Lord was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little. Is. 28. 10, 13.

They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire. 2 Ki. 17. 17.—[Josiah] defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. 2 Ki. 23. 10.

And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the Lord. For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you. Eze. 20. 26, 31.

3 And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.

Wherefore as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity. Eze. 5. 11.—He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Pr. 29. 1.

And Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, and went not fully after the Lord, as did David his father. Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods. And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the Lord God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice, and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the Lord commanded. Wherefore the Lord said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen. 1 Ki. 11. 6–13.

Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Is. 1. 2–4.

4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not :

5 Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his covenant, ... then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die. De. 17. 2, 5.—My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him : and they shall be wanderers among the nations. Ho. 9. 17.—Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem ; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the Lord which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. Mat. 2. 11.

I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. Ex. 20. 5.

6 ¶ And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination : he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths : but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. Therefore thus saith the Lord God : Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear ; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand. Eze. 21. 21-24.—God is not a man that he should lie ; neither the son of man, that he should repent : hath he said, and shall he not do it ? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good ? Nu. 23. 19.

7 ¶ Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy : for I am the Lord your God.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 19.—I am the Lord your God : ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy ; for I am holy. Le. 11. 44.—Ye shall be holy : for I the Lord your God am holy. Le. 19. 2.—Be ye holy ; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 16.

8 And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them : I am the Lord which sanctify you.

Sanctify them through thy truth : thy word is truth. Jno. 17. 17.—Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it ; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing ; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 25-27.—The very God of peace sanctify you wholly. 1 Th. 5. 23.—Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. He. 13. 12.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you ; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Mat. 28. 20.

The heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore. Eze. 37. 28.

9 For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death : he hath cursed his father or his mother ; his blood shall be upon him.

His blood be upon us and our children. Mat. 27. 25.—Ye intend to bring this man's blood upon us. Ac. 5. 28.—Your blood be upon your own heads ; I am clean. Ac. 18. 6.

He that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death. Ex. 21. 17.—Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. De. 27. 16.—Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness. Pr. 20. 20.

God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother : and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me ; and honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Mat. 15. 4, 6.

Children, obey your parents in all things : for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Col. 3. 20.

10 And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

De. 22. 22. Le. 18. 20, etc.

Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned : but what sayest thou ? He said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last : and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. Jno. 8. 4, 5, 7, 9.

11 And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness : both of them shall surely be put to death ; their blood shall be upon them.

De. 27. 20.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. 1 Co. 5. 1, 2.

12 And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death : they have wrought confusion ; their blood shall be upon them.

And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot ; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt. When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child : and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff. And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I ; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more. Ge. 38. 24-26.

13 If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination : they shall surely be put to death ; their blood shall be upon them.

There shall be no ... sodomite of the sons of Israel. De. 23. 17.

14 And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness : they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they ; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; how that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. Jude 17-19.

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing? And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake. And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. Ge. 20, 2, 10-12.—For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Ro. 5, 13.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

Le. 18, 19.

19 And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out.

23 And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. De. 9, 5.

This is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4, 3-7.

For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Tit. 3, 3-6.

24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people.

When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt. As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them. Ho. 11, 1-3.

But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. He. 11, 16.

And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. Ex. 3, 17.

And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground. And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped. 1 Sa. 14, 25, 26.—And [Samson] turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion. Ju. 14, 8.

He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock; butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape. De. 32, 13, 14.

But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways! I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries. The haters of the Lord should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever. He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee. Ps. 81, 11-16.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Jno. 14, 2.—Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. 1 Co. 2, 9.—In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. Re. 22, 2.—Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16, 11.

Thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God. 1 Kz. 8, 53.

25 Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: and he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, and saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven. Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate. Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. Ac. 10. 9-17, 34, 35.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

We have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. He. 12. 9, 10, 14.

Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. Amos 3. 2.—Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 16.—Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Tit. 2. 14.

I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Is. 6. 1-4.

27 ¶ A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them.

Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 31.—Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live. Ex. 22. 18.—Saul said unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said unto him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor. And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. 1 Sa. 28. 7, 8.—So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the Lord, even against the word of the Lord, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it; and enquired not of the Lord: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse. 1 Ch. 10. 13, 14.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.

4 But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down. Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at even my wife died: and I did in the morning as I was commanded. Eze. 24. 16-18.

5 They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

De. 14. 1.

Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. Eze. 44. 20.—That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Lord. Je. 41. 5.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 5.—And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Re. 1. 6.

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ. Re. 20. 6.—Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy. I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. Ps. 132. 9, 16.

7 They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour. 1 Ti. 3. 2.—Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 1 Ti. 3. 8, 9, 11, 12.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 17, 19.

9 ¶ And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

Ge. 38. 24.

One wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly. Tit. 1. 6.

10 And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes;

And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people. Le. 10. 6.

Holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus. He. 3. 1. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens. He. 7. 26.—Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 14.—In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He. 2. 17.

11 Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. Nu. 19. 14.

12 Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the Lord.

He put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forehead, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the Lord commanded Moses. Le. 8. 9.

13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife.

Eze. 44. 22.

I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2 Co. 11. 2.—My dove, my undefiled is but one: she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her: the daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her. Ca. 6. 9.—That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 27.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the Lord do sanctify him.

Did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. Mat. 2. 15.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 14–18.

16 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God.

I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. Le. 10. 3.—Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts. Ps. 65. 4.—Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Ti. 4. 12.

Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Pe. 5. 3.

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing superfluous,

A bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. Le. 22. 23.

19 Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded,

20 Or crookbackt, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken;

De. 23. 1.

21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the Lord made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Jno. 6. 51.—Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 27.

And this also we wish, even your perfection. 2 Co. 13. 9.—Perfect in Christ Jesus. Col. 1. 28.—The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. Lu. 6. 40.

The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered awhile, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.—That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Ti. 3. 17.

But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. Ja. 1. 4.—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Mat. 5. 48.—For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man. Ja. 3. 2.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy.

All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy. Le. 6. 29.—There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing; a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. But if the priest buy any soul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat. If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. Le. 22. 10, 12.—All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever. Nu. 18. 19.

23 Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the Lord do sanctify them.

As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. He. 3. 2.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in those things which they hallow unto me: I am the Lord.

Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. Eze. 44. 21.—Neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die. Nu. 18. 32.

Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not the Lord. And the priest's custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand; and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Lord. 1 Sa. 2. 12-17.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the Lord, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the Lord.

The soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the Lord, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. Le. 7. 20.—God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. Ps. 89. 7.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him;

This is the will of God, even your sanctification, ... that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 3, 4, 7.—Hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 23.

5 Or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you. And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even. Le. 11. 23, 24.

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.—Such a high priest became us, who is holy, ... undefiled, separate from sinners. He. 7. 26.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because it is his food.

This is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the Lord, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it. Nu. 18. 11, 13.—If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth. 1 Jo. 1. 6.

8 That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the Lord.

The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast. Eze. 44. 31.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the Lord do sanctify them.

Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Eze. 22. 26.—The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. Mt. 3. 11, 12. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her, they have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments. La. 4. 13, 14.—Her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. Zep. 3. 4.

10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him; how he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple. Mat. 12. 3-6; 1 Sa. 21. 6.

Now ... ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. 2. 19.

11 But if the priest buy any soul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat.

I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 18.—Our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named. Eph. 3. 14, 15.—Them who are of the household of faith. Ga. 6. 10.

What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.

Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 13, 14.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house. Ge. 38. 11.

14 ¶ And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Ps. 19. 12.—Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Ps. 139. 23, 24.

15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

Neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die. Nu. 18. 32.

16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

1 Sa. 2. 12-17.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering;

19 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

If a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord; as ye do, so he shall do. Nu. 15. 14.

20 But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

If there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the Lord thy God. De. 15. 21.—If ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? Cursed be the deceiver which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen. Mal. 1. 8, 14.

I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Ro. 12. 1, 2.

Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 27.—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 14.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the Lord. One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you. Nu. 15. 15, 16.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And whether it be cow or ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young both in one day.

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. Ps. 145. 8, 9.—Great are thy tender mercies, O Lord. Ps. 119. 156.—The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. Ja. 5. 11.

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. Is. 66. 13.—Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Is. 49. 15.—O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Mat. 23. 37.—God is love. 1 Jno. 4. 16.

If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young. De. 22. 6.

29 And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. Ps. 107. 22.—My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him. Ps. 22. 25.—I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. Ps. 116. 17.—Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God. Am. 4. 5.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD.

Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance. Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Ac. 2. 27-32.

31 Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Ps. 19. 7-11.—Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart. They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches. I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways. I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word. Ps. 119. 1-4, 9, 14, 16.

32 Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the LORD which hallow you,

O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! Ps. 8. 9.—And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. Ps. 9. 10.—For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great. Ps. 25. 11.

Thy name is as ointment poured forth. Ca. 1. 3.
Hallowed be thy name. Mat. 6. 9; Lk. 11. 2.

Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. Ps. 115. 1.—The desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee. Is. 26. 8.

Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. Jno. 17. 11.

And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy. Re. 15. 3, 4.

33 That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee. Je. 10. 7.—I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. Ex. 6. 7.

Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it. Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land. The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars. She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river. Ps. 80. 8-11.

I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. Ps. 81. 10.

God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows. He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion; who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee. Nu. 24. 8, 9.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

The general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 23.—Lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb. Re. 7. 9.—Unto [Shiloh] shall the gathering of the people be. Ge. 49. 10.

3 Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work. Ex. 20. 8, 10.—Ye shall ... keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 3.—In caring time and in harvest thou shalt rest. Ex. 34. 21.

Blessed is the man ... that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Is. 56. 2.—If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words; then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. Is. 58. 13, 14; Ne. 13. 15-22.

We which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. He. 4. 3-5, 9.

4 ¶ These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof: but every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat thereof. In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof. All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you. Ex. 12. 27, 43-49.

Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters. And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt. Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year. Ex. 13. 6-10.

The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib thou earnest out from Egypt. Ex. 34. 18; De. 16. 1-8.

After two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. And they made ready the passover. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. Mat. 26. 2, 19, 26-29.

Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Co. 5. 7, 8.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. Jno. 12. 24.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 1 Co. 15. 20.—Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. Col. 1. 15, 18.—If the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy. Ro. 11. 16.—Your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 3, 4.—These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. Re. 14. 4.—The angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Mat. 28. 5, 6. Jesus saith unto [Mary], Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jno. 20. 17.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

Christ ... by his own blood ... entered ... into the holy place. Who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. He. 9. 11, 12, 14, 24.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain. Re. 5. 6.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Ro. 6. 9, 10.

13 And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

Thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears. And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat offering. And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. Le. 2. 14-16.

Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Jno. 4. 34.—I am the living bread which came down from heaven. Jno. 6. 51.—I am the true vine. Jno. 15. 1.—Wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart. Psa. 104. 15.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Ex. 23. 19.—My soul desired the firstripe fruit. Mt. 7. 1.—Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors. Ex. 22. 29.

Thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there. De. 26. 2.—I am the LORD, I change not. Mal. 3. 6.

15 ¶ And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD.

And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end. Ec. 34. 22.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn. De. 16. 9.—The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the Lord thy God. Ec. 34. 26.—When ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up a heave offering unto the Lord. Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering: as ye do the heave offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it. Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the Lord a heave offering in your generations. Nu. 15. 19. 21.—In the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the Lord, after your weeks be out, ye shall have a holy convocation. Nu. 28. 26.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Ac. 2. 1. 4. 41.

And I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder; and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. Re. 14. 1. 4.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

Vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. Ge. 4. 15.—And render sevenfold to their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord. Ps. 79. 12.—But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold. Pr. 6. 31.

And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour. Ge. 8. 20. 21.

And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.

One kid of the goats to make an atonement for you. Nu. 28. 30.—God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 19. 21.

If his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the Lord. Le. 3. 1.—Now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace. And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 13, 14, 17, 18.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

Thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the Lord. Ec. 29. 24.—All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee. Nu. 18. 12.—The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him. De. 18. 4.—He that catcheth me, even he shall live by me. Jno. 6. 57.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. He. 10. 25.

22 ¶ And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

When thou entest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands. De. 24. 19.—The poor always ye have with you. Jno. 12. 8.—Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Ja. 1. 27.

Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Co. 8. 9.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

When the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations. Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings, that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God. Nu. 10. 7, 8, 10.—Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. Ps. 81. 3.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Is. 27. 13.—Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance. Ps. 89. 15.—See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. Ile. 12. 25.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

Le. 16. 29-34.

And ye shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month a holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls: ye shall not do any work therein. Nu. 29. 7.

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2. 20.—That I may know him, ... and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death. Phi. 3. 10.—They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Gal. 5. 24.—Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. 1 Pe. 4. 13.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

If by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. Ro. 11. 6.—Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Ro. 4. 4, 5.—That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2. 7-9.

If [Joshua] had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day. There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest. Ile. 4. 8-11.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:

38 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

I have not dwelt in any house, since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. 2 Sa. 7. 6.—They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required. Ezra 3. 4.

When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. 4. 4.—The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.—God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1 Th. 3. 16.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

De. 16. 13.

The feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. Ex. 23. 16.

Every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 1 Co. 15. 23.—The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee, Zec. 14. 5.—Then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Mar. 13. 26, 27; Mat. 13. 24-30, 34-39; 24. 31.—For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. 1 Th. 4. 16-18.

They that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Mat. 25. 10.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Re. 21. 3.—They shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Mat. 1. 23.—And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Re. 21. 4; 7. 9-17.—Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. 1 Co. 2. 9, 10.

40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days.

1 Kz. 8. 1, 2, 65, 66. 2 Ch. 5. 13, 14.

Thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates. Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall choose: because the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice. De. 16. 14, 15.—Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength. Ne. 8. 10.

Not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. Jno. 11. 52.—The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God. Is. 35. 1, 2.—Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth. Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein; then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth. Ps. 96. 7, 13.

There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth. His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory: Amen, and Amen. Ps. 72. 16, 19.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the Lord seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:

Ne. 8. 14, 17.

Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come. Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) Jno. 7. 2, 3, 6, 14, 37, 39.

It shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. Zec. 14. 16.

43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

De. 8. 2, 9, 11, 16.

He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: that the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children. Ps. 78. 5, 6.

No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. He. 12. 11.—The God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pe. 5. 10.

Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Co. 4. 17, 18.—They that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a country. He. 11. 14.

The whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 22, 23.—I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Ti. 1. 12.

44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the Lord continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the Lord continually.

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. Ps. 119. 140.—The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple. Ps. 119. 130.—Thy word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path. Ps. 119. 105.—A light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts. 2 Pe. 1. 19.

When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak; and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Jno. 16. 13, 15.

If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 1 Jno. 1. 6, 7, 5.

Pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always. Ex. 27. 20.—Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5. 39.—These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed. Ac. 17. 11, 12.

The anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you; but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 1 Jno. 2. 27.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. Mat. 25. 1-4.

In the tabernacle of the congregation without the veil, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the Lord. Ex. 27. 21.—There was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which is called the sanctuary. He. 9. 2; Zec. 4. 2, 3, 10, 14.—The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light. Ex. 39. 37.

And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. Re. 4. 5.—I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; and in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire. Re. 1. 12-14.—The Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire. Re. 2. 18.—In him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. Col. 2. 9.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the Lord.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the Lord continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute.

Which was a figure for the time then present. The patterns of things in the heavens. He. 9. 9, 23.

Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man! Jno. 19. 5.—This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. Mat. 17. 5.—The Son of God was manifested. 1 Jno. 3. 8.—For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Jno. 6. 33, 51. So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. 1 Sa. 21. 6. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungry, and they that were with him; how he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple. Mat. 12. 3-6.

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name of the Lord, and cursed. And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:)

12 And they put him in ward, that the mind of the Lord might be shewed them.

13 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin.

16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the Lord, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the Lord, shall be put to death.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Ex. 20. 7.—Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. Ex. 23. 20, 21.

Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Ac. 7. 51.—All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Mat. 12. 31, 32.—Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.—Quench not the Spirit. 1 Th. 5. 19.

17 ¶ And he that killeth any man shall surely be put to death.

He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death. Ex. 21. 12.—Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. Ge. 9. 6.—Ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death. Nu. 35. 31.—If any man hate his neighbour, and he in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and flee into one of these cities: then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. De. 19. 11, 12.—Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. Jno. 8. 44.

18 And he that killeth a beast shall make it good; beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Mat. 7. 1, 2.—Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth; but I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. Mat. 5. 38, 39.

Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Mat. 5. 18.

Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Ro. 13. 10.—God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Ro. 5. 8.—And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. 1 Jno. 4. 16.

This is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. Because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. 1 Pe. 2. 19, 21, 22.

22 Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the Lord your God.

One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you. Ex. 12. 49; Nu. 15. 16.—The stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 34.

23 ¶ And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses.

He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. He. 10. 28-31.

CHAPTER XXV.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the Lord.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the Lord: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

Ex. 23. 10, 11.

But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. Ex. 20. 10, 11.

He that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest. He. 4. 10, 11.

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the faling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed: their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. Is. 11. 6-10.—The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord. Is. 65. 25.—Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice. Ps. 96. 11, 12.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

Nu. 10. 1-3, 7, 8, 10.

The year of my redeemed is come. Is. 63. 4.—The acceptable year of the Lord. Is. 61. 2.

The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it. Ps. 68. 11.—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.—I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 2 Co. 6. 2.

On the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be a holy convocation unto you. Le. 23. 27.—And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem. Is. 27. 13.

Is. 35. 1-10. Rev. 7. 13-17.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. Pr. 28. 15, 16.—Thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness. Ex. 18. 21.—[Josiah] judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the Lord. But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. Je. 22. 16, 17.—A heart they have, exercised with covetous practices; cursed children. 2 Pe. 2. 14.

Beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Lu. 12. 15.—Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. He. 13. 5.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

Thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety. Ps. 4. 8.—Whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil. Pr. 1. 33.—At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth. For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee. And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin. Job. 5. 22-24.

In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Je. 23. 6.

If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Ro. 8. 31, 32.—All things are your's; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. 1 Co. 3. 21-23.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33.

Prove me now ... saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. Mal. 3. 10.

The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing. Ps. 34. 10.—Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 6, 7.—Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. 1 Pe. 5. 7.—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. He. 11. 1.

23 ¶ The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me.

Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Joel 2. 18.—Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah: for the Lord delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married. Is. 62. 4.

We are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. 1 Ch. 29. 15.—I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. Ps. 39. 12.—These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. He. 11. 13.

Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pe. 2. 11.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 ¶ If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

Ruth ii, iii, iv. Je. 32. 6-11.

Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless: for their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee. Pr. 23. 10, 11.—As for our redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. Is. 47. 4.—I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. Job. 19. 25.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pe. 1. 3-5.

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; ... in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Eph. 1. 7, 13, 14.—And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Eph. 4. 30.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.

32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

The gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.

Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them. And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. Le. 25. 2, 5.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Jno. 14. 2.—Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. He. 6. 20.

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Co. 5. 1.

And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. Ac. 4. 36, 37.

35 ¶ And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

Thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother: but thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. De. 15. 7, 8.—Freely ye have received, freely give. Mat. 10. 8.—Do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again. Lu. 6. 35.

The disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea: which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Ac. 11. 29, 30.

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 Jno. 3. 17.—If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Ja. 2. 15, 16.

36 Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor leud him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor. Pr. 23. 8.—I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. Ne. 5. 7.

39 ¶ And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bond-servant:

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God.

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. Col. 4. 1.—Forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. Eph. 6. 9.

Of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen. 1 Ki. 9. 22.

Ye are not your own; for ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20.—The Lord's freeman. 1 Co. 7. 22.—Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Gal. 5. 1.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen, and your vine dressers. Is. 61. 5.—The house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the Lord for servants and handmaids. Is. 14. 2.—Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Understand therefore, that the Lord thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people. De. 9. 5, 6.

47 ¶ And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.

They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him: (for the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever.) Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Ps. 49. 6-8, 14, 15.

Thus saith the Lord of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. Their Redeemer is strong; the Lord of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. Je. 50. 33, 34.—Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But thus saith the Lord, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. And all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. Is. 49. 24, 26.—And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord. Is. 59. 20.—For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Is. 41. 13, 14.

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 36.—The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ. Waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Ro. 8. 16, 17, 23.—For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. Eph. 5. 30.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubile, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubile, both he, and his children with him.

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. The meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. Ps. 37. 7, 11.—Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength. Is. 26. 3, 4.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart as unto Christ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6. 5-8.

CHAPTER XXVI.

YE shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the Lord your God.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them. Ex. 20. 4, 5. Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. De. 27. 15.—Confound be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols. Ps. 97. 7.

It came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of David his father. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Molech the abomination of the Ammonites. 1 K. 11. 4, 5.—Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: they have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: they have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them. Ps. 115. 4-8.

I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me. Is. 45. 5.

2 ¶ Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord.

For thus saith the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; even them will

I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people. Is. 56. 4-7.

3 ¶ If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;

4 Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

If thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God. De. 28. 1, 2.

And I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. Eze. 34. 26.—Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us. Ps. 67. 6.—The ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew. Zec. 8. 12.

Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. Is. 48. 17-19.

6 And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

His name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. 1 Ch. 22. 9.—The Lord will bless his people with peace. Ps. 29. 11.—Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid. Job 11. 19.—I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety. Ps. 4. 8.

And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. 1 Ki. 4. 25.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

There is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few. 1 Sa. 14. 6.—One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. Jos. 23. 10.

And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the Lord set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled. Ju. 7. 22; 2 Ch. 20. 5-7, 12, 14-17.

In that day shall the Lord defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the Lord before them. Zec. 12. 8.

9 For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new.

God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them. Ex. 2. 25.—The Lord was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 2 Ki. 13. 23.—Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. Nu. 9. 23.

11 And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you.

12 And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

Let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. Ex. 25. 8.—I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. Ex. 29. 45.—I ... will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Eze. 37. 26, 27.

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. Jno. 1. 14.—They shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Mat. 1. 23.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Re. 21. 3.

Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.

13 I am the Lord your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

Of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands. Je. 2. 20.—And they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them. Eze. 34. 27.

If the Son ... shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. Jno. 8. 36.—The glorious liberty of the children of God. Ro. 8. 21.

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Gal. 5. 1.

14 ¶ But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant;

16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them. 2 Ki. 17. 15.—Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. Can two walk together, except they be agreed? Am. 3. 1-3.

Among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind, and thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life: in the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. De. 28. 65-67.

Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. Mt. 6. 15.

And the anger of the Lord was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Ju. 2. 14.—The Lord hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries. La. 2. 17.

He that being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Pr. 29. 1.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

He bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust. Is. 26. 5.—I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be despoiled. Eze. 7. 24.

Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; and then the Lord's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit. De. 11. 16, 17.

For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness. Ho. 2. 8, 9.

Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: and he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein; and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: and I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. Is. 5. 1-7.

21 ¶ And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate.

I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust. De. 32. 24.—They feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slew some of them. 2 Kt. 17. 25; 1 Kt. 20. 35, 36; 13. 21-24; 2 Kt. 2. 24.

So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee. Eze. 5. 17.—For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the Lord. Je. 8. 17.—The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant. Je. 2. 15.

When he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth. Re. 6. 7, 8.

23 And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction. Je. 2. 30.—O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. Je. 5. 3; Am. 3. 6-12.

24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Mal. 2. 2.—With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward. Ps. 18. 26.

When he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, etc., etc. Re. vii.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it. Eze. 5. 17; 6. 3.—The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs. De. 32. 25.

Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen. Je. 34. 13.—I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou beamest mine. Eze. 16. 8.—He will ever be mindful of his covenant. Ps. 111. 5.

And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. Re. 6. 3, 4.—Thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. Eze. 17. 19.

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah; not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the Lord: but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. Je. 31. 31-33.

26 And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it. Eze. 14. 13.—Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment. Eze. 4. 16; Is. 3. 1.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them. Eze. 8. 18.—According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies. Is. 59. 18.—I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. Je. 21. 5.—Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. Eze. 5. 13.

I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments. Ex. 20. 5, 6. The Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God. De. 4. 24.

And I saw another sign in heaven great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. Re. 15. 1.

29 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. He. 10. 31.

Thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee. De. 28. 53.—So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hid her son. 2 Kz. 6. 29.

The fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds. Eze. 5. 10.—The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people. La. 4. 10.

Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Is. 49. 15.

30 And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

When he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. Is. 27. 9.—Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars. Eze. 6. 3-5, 13.

When the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters. De. 32. 19.—They committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. Le. 20. 23. When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel. Ps. 78. 59.

31 And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

He is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. Je. 4. 7. In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste. Eze. 6. 6. They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. Ps. 74. 7.—She hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary. La. 1. 10.

I hate, I despise your fast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. Amos 5. 21.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold your house is left unto you desolate. Mat. 23. 37, 38.

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. Je. 9. 11.—And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. Je. 25. 11.

Thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee. De. 28. 37. And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto the land, and to this house? 1 Kz. 9. 8.

The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem. La. 4. 12.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

The Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you. De. 4. 27; 28. 64; Je. 9. 16.—Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen. Ps. 44. 11.

They shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries. Eze. 12. 15.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years. 2 Ch. 36. 21.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

For thus saith the Lord God; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which went forth by a hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel. Amos 5. 3.—Every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God. Eze. 21. 7.—The wicked flee when no man pursueth. Pr. 28. 1.

37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Is. 10. 4.

The children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed. Thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you. Jos. 7. 12, 13.—And the anger of the Lord was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Ju. 2. 14.

38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

The Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you. De. 4. 27.—And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind. De. 28. 65.—Ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another. Eze. 24. 23.

They mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy. 2 Ch. 36. 16.—Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry? Ps. 76. 7.

40 If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me:

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early. Ho. 5. 15.—They shall remember me in far countries, Zec. 10. 9.—And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. Eze. 20. 43.—Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. Je. 29. 12, 13.

If they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent; and so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies; then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them. 1 Ki. 8. 47–50.

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee. Lu. 15. 18.—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins. 1 Jno. 1. 9.

Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days. 1 Ki. 21. 29.

If ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. Ne. 1. 9. Ps. 79. 1–5; 80. 1–7; 85. 4–7. Ezra. 9. 4–9.

In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: and I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God; yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. Dn. 9. 2–4, 19–25.

42 Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.

And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them. Ex. 2. 24, 25.—He remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Ps. 106. 45.—Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 23.

How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city. Ho. 11. 8, 9.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. Je. 25. 11.—They burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: to fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years. 2 Ch. 36. 19–21.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God.

45 But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. Amos 9. 9.—He will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them. De. 4. 31.—The Lord was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet. 2 K. 13. 23.

Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Ro. 11. 2.—As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes; but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 28, 29.—The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen. Ps. 98. 2.

In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the Lord that doeth this. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God. Amos 9. 11-15.

46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. De. 33. 2.—The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. Jno. 1. 17.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thy estimation.

3 And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

And [Hannah] vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head. And the Lord remembered her. And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli. And she said, Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the Lord. For this child I prayed; and the Lord hath given me my petition which I asked of him: therefore also I have lent him to the Lord; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord. 1 Sa. 2. 11, 19, 25-28.

I beseech you... brethren, by the mereies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.—Know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the Lord will hear when I call unto him. Ps. 4. 3.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people. Ps. 116. 12-14.

4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels.

If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned. Ex. 21. 32.

And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the Lord said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was priced at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lord. Zec. 11. 12, 13.

Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, and said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him. Mat. 26. 14-16.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant. Phi. 2. 5-7.

5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God. Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He. 10. 5-9.—Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 2 Co. 8. 9.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

Cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen. Nat. 1. 14.—Vow, and pay unto the Lord your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared. Ps. 76. 11.—I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble. I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Ps. 66. 13-15.—I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving: I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord. Jon. 2. 9.

14 ¶ And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad; as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

When thou rowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. Ec. 5. 4, 5.—When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee. But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee. That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform; even a freewill offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the Lord thy God, which thou hast promised with thy mouth. De. 23. 21-23.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

Having obtained eternal redemption for us. He. 9. 12.—Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine. Nat. 18. 14.—They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be their's. Eze. 44. 29.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubile: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.

24 In the year of the jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

The Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. 1 Sa. 2. 3.—A just weight and balance are the Lord's: all the weights of the bag are his work. Pr. 16. 11.—The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just. Is. 26. 7.

Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. Ac. 4. 34, 37.—But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? While it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. Ac. 5. 1-5.

26 ¶ Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's.

All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. De. 15. 19.

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.

Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the Lord was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that

David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God. 2 Ch. 5. 1; 1 Ch. 29. 1-9.

29 None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

And Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. And the Lord hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah. Nu. 21. 2, 3.

The Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and release it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi: for he said, Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. Ex. 17. 14-16.—But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly. And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal. 1 Sa. 15. 9, 26, 33.

And he said unto [Ahab], Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. 1 Ki. 20. 42.

[Jericho] shall be accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the Lord: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the Lord: they shall come into the treasury of the Lord. Jos. 6. 17-19.

Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. 1 Co. 10. 11.

30 And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's: it is holy unto the Lord.

31 And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof.

And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth: and blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all. Ge. 14. 18-20.

Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God: and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee. Ge. 28. 20-22.

Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee. Psa. 56. 12.

And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the Lord their God, and laid them by heaps. And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next. 2 Ch. 31. 5, 6, 12.—Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasures. Nu. 13. 12.

Ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Mal. 3. 8.

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord.

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. Nu. 18. 21. And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the Lord. And the Lord's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen. And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the Lord's tribute was threescore and twelve. And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the Lord's tribute was threescore and one. And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the Lord's tribute was thirty and two persons. And Moses gave the tribute, which was the Lord's heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as the Lord commanded Moses. Nu. 31. 30, 37-41.

34 These are the commandments, which the Lord commanded Moses for the children of Israel in mount Sinai.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron. Psa. 77. 20.

N U M B E R S .

CHAPTER I.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai. Ex. 19. 1.—The mount of God. Ex. 18. 5.—The wilderness of mount Sina. Ac. 7. 30.—The mount of the Lord. Nu. 10. 33.—Mount Sinai in Arabia. Ga. 4. 25.—The mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire. He. 12. 18.

2 Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls;

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

The Lord did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies. Ex. 12. 51.—The children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt. Ex. 13. 18.—He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes. Ps. 105. 37.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. Ex. 18. 25, 26.

5 And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zuri-shaddai.

7 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli, ... which was the son of Jesse, which was the son of Obed, which was the son of Booz, which was the son of Salmon, which was the son of Naasson. Lut. 3. 23, 32.

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manassch, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni.

12 Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammi-shaddai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

Thou shalt provide ... able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness: and place such over them. Ex. 18. 21.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names:

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. Is. 43. 1. He calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. Jno. 10. 3.—I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. Re. 7. 4.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the Lord hath looked upon my affliction. Ge. 29. 32.—These are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. Ge. 46. 8, 9.

22 ¶ Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

And [Leah] conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the Lord hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simcon. Ge. 29. 33.—And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanish woman. Ge. 46. 10.

24 ¶ Of the children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son. And Leah said, A troop cometh: and she called his name Gad. Ge. 30. 10, 11.—The sons of Gad; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arod, and Arel. Ge. 46. 16.

26 ¶ Of the children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

And [Leah] conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the Lord: therefore she called his name Judah. Ge. 29. 35.—The sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. Ge. 46. 12.

28 ¶ Of the children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son. And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar. Ge. 30. 17, 18.—The sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phurash, and Job, and Shimron. Ge. 46. 13.

30 ¶ Of the children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

31 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son. And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun. And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah. Ge. 30. 19, 21.—The sons of Zebulun; Sereel, and Elon, and Jahleel. These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three. Ge. 46. 14, 15.

32 ¶ Of the children of Joseph, namely, of the children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

33 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred.

And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb. And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away my reproach: and she called his name Joseph; and said, The Lord shall add to me another son. Ge. 30. 22, 24.—And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them. Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed. And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him. And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn. And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. Ge. 48. 8, 14, 20.

34 ¶ Of the children of Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

35 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, and said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession. And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow. Ge. 48. 3, 5, 22.

36 ¶ Of the children of Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

37 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also. And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin. And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem. And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day. Ge. 35. 16-20.—The sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Eli, and Rosh, Muphim, and Huphim, and Ard. These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen. Ge. 46. 21, 22.

38 ¶ Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

39 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son. And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan. Ge. 30. 5, 6.—The sons of Dan; Hushim. Ge. 46. 23.

40 ¶ Of the children of Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

41 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son. And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher. Ge. 30. 12, 13.—The sons of Asher; Jimna, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel. These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter: and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls. Ge. 46. 17, 18.

42 ¶ Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son. And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali. Ge. 30. 7, 8.—The sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shilem. These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob: all the souls were seven. All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six; and the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two souls: all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threescore and ten. Ge. 46. 24-27.

44 These are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

46 Even all they that were numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

The children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, besides children. Ex. 12. 37.

47 ¶ But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

[Leah] conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi. Ge. 29. 34. The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Ge. 46. 11.

48 For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. Ex. 38. 21.

51 And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. The ground clave asunder that was under them: and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. Num. 16. 23, 24, 31-33, 35.—And he smote the men of Beth-she-mesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men. And the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. 1 Sa. 6. 19.—And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it: for the oxen shook it. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah, and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God. 2 Sa. 6. 6, 7.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel! As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of figs aloes which the Lord hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters. Nu. 24. 5, 6.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

Nu. 8. 19; 18. 5. 1 Ch. 23. 32.

The priests, which minister unto the Lord, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business: and they burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the Lord our God. 2 Ch. 13. 10, 11.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Psa. 19. 8, 11.

CHAPTER II.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

When ye see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it. Jos. 3. 3, 4.—Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah; comely as Jerusalem; terrible as an army with banners. Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? Ca. 6. 4, 10.

And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting. Re. 4. 4.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

Amminadab begat Nahshon, prince of the children of Judah. 1 Ch. 2. 10.—Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Ge. 49. 8, 10.

And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. Re. 5. 5.—

I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. Re. 22. 16.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

Issachar is a strong ass couching down between two burdens. Ge. 49. 14.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

8 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were an hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. These shall first set forth.

Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for a haven of ships; and his border shall be unto Zidon. Ge. 49. 13.

10 ¶ On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch. Ge. 49. 3, 4.—Reuben ... was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's. 1 Ch. 5. 1, 2.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations. I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel. Ge. 49. 5, 7.

14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last. Ge. 49. 19.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall set forth in the second rank.

17 ¶ Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.

Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in? Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. 2 Sa. 7. 5, 6.—And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Re. 21. 3.—He spake of the temple of his body. Jno. 2. 21.

18 ¶ On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammilud.

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

21 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall. Ge. 49. 22.

22 Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni.

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

Benjamin shall ravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil. Ge. 49. 27.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the third rank.

And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head. And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. He set Ephraim before Manasseh. Ge. 48. 17-19, 20.

25 ¶ The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan shall be Ahiczer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel. Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward. Ge. 49. 16, 17.

27 And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.

28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties. Ge. 49. 20.

29 ¶ Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.

30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall go hindmost with their standards.

Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words. Ge. 49. 21.—Dan was the rereward of all the camps throughout their hosts. Nu. 10. 25.

32 ¶ These are those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as the Lord commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

They waited on their office according to their order. 1 Ch. 6. 32.—Though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order. Col. 2. 5.—Let all things be done decently and in order. 1 Co. 14. 40.

CHAPTER III.

THESE also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. Ex. 6. 23.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office.

Thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. Ex. 28. 41.

4 And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.

And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord. Le. 10. 1, 2.—But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. 1 Ch. 24. 2.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel.

Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the Lord's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. And he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. Ex. 32. 26-28.—Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him. Is. 42. 1.—All are thy servants. Ps. 119. 91.—If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Jo. 12. 26.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. He. 5. 4; Ps. 105. 26.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine;

13 Because all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the LORD.

Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine. The males shall be the Lord's. And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the Lord slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the Lord all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. Ex. 13. 2, 12, 15.—And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham. Ps. 78. 51; 105. 36.

It is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord. Lu. 2. 23.—I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. Ps. 89. 27.—Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead. Re. 1. 5.—His dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. Col. 1. 13-15.

Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Ja. 1. 18.—The general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 23.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families; Libni, and Shimci.

19 And the sons of Kohath by their families; Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari by their families; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. De. 32. 8, 9.—He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names. Ps. 147. 4.—Even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Lu. 12. 7.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it for all the service thereof.

There are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. 1 Co. 12. 6.

Thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet; with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them. Thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair, to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make. Thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins. Thou shalt make a hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework. Ex. 26. 1, 7, 14, 36.

For the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long for one side. For the gate of the court shall be a hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four. Ex. 27. 9, 16.—The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords. Ex. 35. 18.

27 ¶ And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izecharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Eliasaph the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

Now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. And if they were all one member, where were the body? But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 1 Co. 12. 18–21.

They shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. Thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold; of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same. Ex. 25. 10, 23, 31.

And thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon; of shittim wood shalt thou make it. Ex. 30. 1.

Thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made; and thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver. And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches. Ex. 26. 31–33.

33 ¶ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto.

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

All these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 1 Co. 12. 11.—For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. 1 Co. 14. 33.

Thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up. And thou shalt make sockets of silver under the boards. And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward. And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold. And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them. Ex. 26. 15, 19, 26–29, 37.

And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. Nu. 7. 8.

38 ¶ But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever. Ps. 93. 5.

39 All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the Lord, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel. Je. 18. 1-6.—Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? Ro. 9. 21.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel is twenty gerahs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

If it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver. Twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. Le. 27. 6, 25.

Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1. 4-7.

CHAPTER IV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers,

3 From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things:

5 ¶ And when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering vail, and cover the ark of testimony with it:

6 And shall put thereon the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the staves thereof.

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; ... let us draw near with a true heart. He. 10. 19, 20, 22.

7 And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon:

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

10 And they shall put it and all the vessels thereof within a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

11 And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put to the staves thereof:

12 And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar:

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee. Eze. 27. 7.

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put to the staves of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

The Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came. Nu. 10. 21.—The priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord. De. 31. 9.

Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the Lord chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever. And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites: of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twenty: and said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it. For because ye did it not at the first, the Lord our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order. So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel. And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the Lord. 1 Ch. 15. 2, 4, 5, 12-15. Jos. 3. 9, 11-13; 1 Ch. 13. 6-10.

Our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 29.

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense. Ex. 25. 6. Le. 24. 2.—Sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices, with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight. Principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, and of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive a hin: and thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be a holy anointing oil. Ex. 30. 34, 23-25.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

18 Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden:

20 But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

The Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod. When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the Lord. But the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people. So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. 1 Sa. 5. 1-3, 6, 10, 11.

The Lord said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the Lord to gaze, and many of them perish. Ex. 19. 21.—And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. 1 Sa. 6. 19.

21 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families;

23 From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt thou number them; all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens:

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

The kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. Mat. 25. 14, 15.—A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. Lu. 19. 12, 13.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

29 ¶ As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers;

30 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation; the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and sockets thereof,

32 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

34 ¶ And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

35 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

36 And those that were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

38 And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers,

39 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord.

42 ¶ And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers,

43 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

44 Even those that were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

47 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation,

48 Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

By the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above: because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the Lord, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God; both for the shewbread, and for the fine flour for meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size: and to stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord, and likewise at even; and to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the Lord in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and in the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the Lord: and that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the Lord. 1 Ch. 23. 27-32. Nu. 4. 3.

Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Ro. 12. 6-8.

There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. 1 Co. 12. 4-6.—Gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will. He. 2. 4.—As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 1 Pe. 4. 10.

49 According to the commandment of the Lord they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the Lord commanded Moses.

Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure. Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul. Ps. 103. 21, 22.

CHAPTER V.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead:

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be. Le. 13. 45, 46.—The anger of the Lord was kindled ... and he departed. And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow. And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee. And the Lord said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again. Nu. 12. 9, 10, 13, 14.

Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the Lord. 2 Ch. 26. 21. 2 Ki. 7. 3.

There came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean. And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. Mar. 1. 40-42.—And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. Lu. 17. 12-14.

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean. Le. 15. 2.

He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Nu. 19. 11, 13.—Whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives. Nu. 31. 19.

Let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. Ex. 25. 8.—And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I am dwell among them: I am the Lord their God. Ex. 29. 45, 46.—Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2 Co. 6. 16.—Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. Jos. 7. 19.—He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Pr. 28. 13.—I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Ps. 32. 5.—I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession. Da. 9. 4.

Then went out to [John] Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan, and were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins. Mat. 3. 5, 6.—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Jno. 1. 9.

He shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his trespass offering. Le. 6. 5.—Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. Lu. 19. 8.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

He shall bring his trespass offering unto the Lord, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest. Le. 6. 6.

9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

Ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded. Le. 10. 13.—As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it. And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it. And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another. And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for a heave offering unto the Lord, and it shall be the priest's that sprinklETH the blood of the peace offerings. Le. 7. 7, 9, 10, 14.

Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. 1 Co. 9. 13, 14.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

You therefore which believe ... are ... a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people. 1 Pe. 2. 7, 5, 9.—For all things are your's; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. 1 Co. 3. 21-23.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

Thou shalt not commit adultery. Ex. 20. 14.—Thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her. Le. 18. 20. Pr. 7. 6–20.

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

The adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; but if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away. For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts. Pr. 6. 26–35.

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

She said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? 1 Ki. 17. 18.—In those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. He. 10. 3.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the Lord:

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

A man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin. And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel. Nu. 19. 9, 17.

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee beside thine husband:

21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The Lord make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the Lord doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. He. 13. 4.—Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 14, 15.

And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. Jos. 6. 26.—And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. 1 Sa. 14. 24.

As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. Psa. 109. 18.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3. 13.—For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the Lord and offer it upon the altar:

26 And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

He put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the Lord. Le. 8. 27.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. Je. 24. 9.—For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2 Co. 11. 2.—Thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. Ex. 34. 14.

CHAPTER VI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD:

3 He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk.

Beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing: for, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb. Ju. 13. 4, 5.—He shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. Lu. 1. 15.—Ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink. Am. 2. 12.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb. Ju. 16. 17.—I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head. 1 Sa. 1. 11.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD he shall come at no dead body.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head.

He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. Nu. 19. 11, 16.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God. Ro. 1. 1.

I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. Jno. 17. 15-19.

Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Co. 6. 17, 18.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Co. 7. 1.—Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord. Is. 52. 11.—I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Re. 18. 4.

13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the Lord, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord. Le. 1. 2, 3.

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings,

And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the Lord: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar. And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar: but he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord. Le. 1. 4, 10-13.

And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. Le. 4. 32, 33.

And if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the Lord. Le. 3. 1.

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings.

16 And the priest shall bring them before the Lord, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the Lord, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering, and his drink offering.

When any will offer a meat offering unto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: and he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord. Le. 2. 1, 2.—And the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb. Num. 15. 5.

18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings.

Having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. Ac. 18. 18.—We have four men which have a vow on them. They take, and purify themselves, with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them. Ac. 21. 23, 24, 26.

19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the Lord: this is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the Lord for his separation, beside that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration: and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the Lord: and thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the Lord. And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: and it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is a heave offering; and it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the Lord. Ex. 29. 22-24, 27, 28.

22 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the Lord, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever. 1 Ch. 23. 13.—Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them. Le. 9. 22.

24 The Lord bless thee, and keep thee:

Thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield. Ps. 5. 12.—The Lord hath been mindful of us; he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel, he will bless the house of Aaron. Ps. 115. 12.—The Lord that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion. Ps. 134. 3.—The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. Pr. 10. 22.—As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. Ps. 133. 3.

He that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore. Ps. 121. 3-5, 7, 8.

Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. John. 17. 11.

25 The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. Da. 9. 17.—Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake. Psa. 31. 16.—And teach me thy statutes. Psa. 119. 135.

Lord, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled. Ps. 30. 7. The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Co. 4. 4.

The Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty. Ex. 34. 6, 7.—God be merciful to me a sinner. Luk. 18. 13.—The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen. 2 Co. 13. 14.

26 The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance. Ps. 89. 15.—O Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us. Ps. 4. 6.—Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Ps. 16. 11.

The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace. Ps. 29. 11.—Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Is. 26. 3.—Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. John. 14. 27.—The Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. 2 Th. 3. 16.

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phi. 4. 6, 7.

27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

All people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the Lord. De. 28. 10.—O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive;

O Lord, hearken, and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God; for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. Da. 9. 19.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. Eph. 1. 3-5.—That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Gal. 3. 14.—Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. 2. 19.

CHAPTER VII.

AND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them;

On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. Ex. 40. 2.—And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them. And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them. Le. 8. 10, 11.—There was a tabernacle made, the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary. He. 9. 2.

2 That the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered, offered:

Nu. 1. 4-16.

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

[The Gershonites] shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Nu. 4. 25.

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

This is the charge of [the Merarites'] burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation; the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and sockets thereof, and the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service. Nu. 4. 31, 32.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

When Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation. Nu. 4. 15.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

1 Ch. 29. 6-10, 13-16.

12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah:

13 And his offering was one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

The shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs). Ex. 30. 13.

When any will offer a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon. Le. 2. 1.

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense:

Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight: and thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy. Ex. 30. 34, 35.

15 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. Le. 1. 2.

16 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

If his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. Le. 4. 23.

17 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

If his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. Le. 3. 1.

18 ¶ On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, did offer:

19 He offered for his offering one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

20 One spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense:

21 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

22 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

23 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

Freely ye have received, freely give. Mat. 10. 8.

24 ¶ On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun, did offer:

25 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

26 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

27 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

28 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

29 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

The liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand. Is. 32. 8.—Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood. All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. 2 Sa. 24. 22, 23.

30 ¶ On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the children of Reuben, did offer:

31 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

32 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

33 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

34 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

35 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20. 35.

36 ¶ On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the children of Simeon, did offer:

37 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

38 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

39 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

40 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

41 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

That the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 5-7.

42 ¶ On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, prince of the children of Gad, offered:

43 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

44 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

46 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

47 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the Lord, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the Lord had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses. Ex. 35. 29.

48 ¶ On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, prince of the children of Ephraim, offered:

49 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

50 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

51 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering :

52 One kid of the goats for a sin offering :

53 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the Lord's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments. And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold : and every man that offered offered an offering of gold unto the Lord. And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them. Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the Lord's offering : and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it. Ex. 35. 20-24.

54 ¶ On the eighth day offered Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of Manasseh :

55 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering :

56 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense :

57 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering :

58 One kid of the goats for a sin offering :

59 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the Lord. And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the Lord the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness. And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. 2 Ch. 24. 8-11.

60 ¶ On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gidconi, prince of the children of Benjamin, offered :

61 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering :

62 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense :

63 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering :

64 One kid of the goats for a sin offering :

65 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni

Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury : and many that were rich cast in much. And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury : for all they did cast in of their abundance ; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living. Mar. 12. 41-44.

66 ¶ On the tenth day Ahiczer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan, offered :

67 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering :

68 One golden spoon of ten shekels full of incense :

69 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering :

70 One kid of the goats for a sin offering :

71 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Ahiczer the son of Ammishaddai.

Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia ; how that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves ; praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 2 Co. 8. 1-4.

72 ¶ On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher, offered :

73 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering :

74 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense :

75 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering :

76 One kid of the goats for a sin offering :

77 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

An odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. Phi. 4. 18.

78 ¶ On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali, offered:

79 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

80 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

81 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

82 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

83 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

Who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. Ro. 11. 35, 36.

84 This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

85 Each charger of silver weighing an hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy: all the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

86 The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary: all the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87 All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their meat offering: and the kids of the goats for sin offering twelve.

88 And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty and four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after that it was anointed.

King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. 2 Ch. 7. 5, 9.

The children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. Ezra 6. 16.—At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. Neh. 12. 27.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims: and he spake unto him.

My servant Moses ... who is faithful in all mine house. With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the Lord shall he behold. Num. 12. 7, 8.—As Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. The Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. Ex. 33. 9, 11.—There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel. Ex. 25. 22.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. John. 1. 6, 9.—A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. Lu. 2. 32.—And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. John. 3. 19.

God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 1 John. 1. 5.—Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. John. 8. 12.—As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. John. 9. 5.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. 4. 6.—Ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. Eph. 5. 8.—Ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Pe. 2. 9.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Mat. 5. 14, 16.

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; but Christ as a son over his own house. Heb. 3. 1, 6.—When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. John. 8. 28, 29.—Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. Psa. 40. 7, 8.

4 And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: and two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth. Zec. 4. 2, 3, 11-14.—And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunders and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. Re. 4. 5.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

For an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel: and a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it ... upon the persons. Nu. 19. 17, 18.

So shall he sprinkle many nations. Is. 52. 15.—Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. Eze. 36. 25.

And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Tit. 3. 5, 6.

That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph. 5. 26, 27.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Heb. 10. 22.—For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Heb. 9. 13, 14.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish. Le. 1. 3.—When any will offer a meat offering unto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon. Le. 2. 1. And if the whole congregation of Israel sin, ... then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation. Le. 4. 13, 14.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD.

For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above: because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God; both for the shewbread, and for the fine flour for meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size; and to stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord, and likewise at even; and to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the Lord in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the Lord; and that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the Lord. 1 Ch. 23. 27-32.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites.

He shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. Le. 1. 4.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi: seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? Nu. 16. 8, 9.

Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine. Thou shalt set apart unto the Lord all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the Lord's. And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem. And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the Lord slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the Lord all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. Ex. 13. 2, 12, 13, 15.

Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: and knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS. Mat. 1. 23-25.

It is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord. Le. 2. 23.

19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

Do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Gal. 1. 10.—For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. 1 Co. 9. 19.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth. Is. 42. 1.—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant. Phi. 2. 5-7.

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day. 2 Ti. 4. 7, 8.

CHAPTER IX.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

The Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you. Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a house; and if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats: and ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it. And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof. And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire. And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste. Ex. 12. 1-11.—In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord's passover. Le. 23. 5.—Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God. De. 16. 1.—And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho. Jos. 5. 10.

6 ¶ And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. Nu. 19. 11, 16.—And they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Jno. 18. 28.

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

Moses said unto his father in law, ... the people come unto me to enquire of God: when they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws. Ex. 18. 15, 16.—I will hear what God the Lord will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly. Ps. 85. 8.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Ro. 5. 8.—God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved.) Eph. 2. 4, 5.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Co. 5. 6, 8.—They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. Ps. 69. 21.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

Therefore [David] being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn unto him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. Ac. 2. 30, 31.

The soldiers, ... brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs. These things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. Jno. 19. 32, 33, 36.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin.

If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. He. 10. 26, 31.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do:

ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Re. 22. 17.—One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you. Ex. 12. 49.—Peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. Eph. 2. 17, 19.

15 ¶ And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

So Moses finished the work. Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys: but if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up. The cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys. Ex. 40. 33, 38.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth. Ps. 80. 1.—My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. Ex. 33. 14.

The angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them: and it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night. Ex. 14. 19, 20.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

It came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door. Ex. 33. 9, 10.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

All our fathers were under the cloud. 1 Co. 10. 1.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

Thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way wherein they should go. Ne. 9. 12, 19.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

In the day time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. Ps. 78. 14.—The Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: he took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people. Ex. 13. 21, 22.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron. Ps. 77. 20.

CHAPTER X.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

The calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Is. 1. 13.—Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves. Je. 4. 5.—Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly. Joel 2. 15.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

Thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. Ex. 18. 21.—These were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel. Nu. 1. 16.—The princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered. Nu. 7. 2.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

On the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies. Nu. 2. 3.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies. Nu. 2. 10.—Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain. Joel 2. 1.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.

Thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years. Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land. Le. 25. 8, 9.—It shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem. Is. 27. 13.

From you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. 1 Th. 1. 8.

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 1 Co. 15. 51.—The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. 1 Th. 4. 16.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresses you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. Nu. 31. 6.—Seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout: and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him. Jos. 6. 4, 5.

Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands. And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon. And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled. And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the Lord set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled. Ju. 7. 19, 22.

Behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. When Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the Lord, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. 2 Ch. 13. 12, 14.

Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? Am. 3. 6.—For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. Ne. 4. 18-20.

If the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? 1 Co. 14. 8.

10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. Le. 23. 24.—Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Anasai, and Zachariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. 1 Ch. 15. 24.—The Levites which were the singers, ... being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets. 2 Ch. 5. 12.—Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. Ps. 81. 3.

I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. Re. 8. 2, 6.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

When the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys. Ex. 40. 36.

12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai. Ex. 19. 1.—Afterward the people removed from Hazereth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran. Nu. 12. 16.

God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran. Ge. 21. 20, 21.

13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers. Nu. 2. 34.—At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. Nu. 9. 23.

14 ¶ In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

On the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah, pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah. Those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar. Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun. All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were a hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. These shall first set forth. Nu. 2. 3, 5, 7, 9.

17 And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle.

When the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. Nu. 1. 51.—Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites. Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service: and four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. Nu. 7. 6-8.

18 ¶ And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur. Those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Deuel. All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were a hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall set forth in the second rank. Nu. 2. 10, 12, 14, 16.

21 And the Kohathites set forward bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

Nu. 4. 5-15.

But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon their shoulders. Nu. 7. 9.

22 ¶ And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud. And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni. All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were a hundred thousand and eight thousand and a hundred, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the third rank. Nu. 2. 18, 20, 22, 24.

25 ¶ And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the reeward of all the camps throughout their hosts:

and over his host was Abiezzer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Euan.

The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan shall be Abiezzer the son of Ammishaddai. And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran. Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Euan. All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were a hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall go hindmost with their standards. Nu. 2. 25, 27, 29, 31.—And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rereward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. Jos. 6. 9.

28 Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

The children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers. Nu. 2. 34.—Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? Ca. 6. 10.

29 ¶ And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. Mat. 21. 28, 29.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

The Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him. Ge. 12. 7.—Thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. Ge. 32. 12.

I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Ex. 3. 8.—And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for a heritage: I am the Lord. Ex. 6. 7, 8.

The children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. Ju. 1. 16.—Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab, the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaïm, which is by Kedesb. Ju. 4. 11.—Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 1 Sa. 15. 6.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mar. 16. 15.—Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season. 2 Ti. 4. 2.

33 ¶ And they departed from the mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day. De. 1. 33.—When ye see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore. And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people. Jos. 3. 3, 4, 6.

34 And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

The Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way. Ex. 13. 21.—Thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar. Thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way. Ne. 9. 12, 19.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. Ps. 68. 1.—Arise, O Lord, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength. Ps. 132. 8.

When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language; Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion. The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back. The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs. What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back? ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs? Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob; which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters. Ps. 114. 1, 8.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.

I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the Lord their God. Ex. 29. 45, 46.—He said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. Ex. 33. 14, 16.

Surely they are my people, children that will not lie; so he was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. Is. 63. 8, 9.—The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. De. 1. 10.

CHAPTER XI.

AND when the people complained, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath. De. 9. 22.—They sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness. And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust. Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? Therefore the Lord heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel. Ps. 78. 17-21; 106. 18.—How long, Lord? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire? Ps. 79. 5.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire was quenched.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.—Samuel cried unto the Lord for Israel; and the Lord heard him. 1 Sa. 7. 9.

Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people. Je. 15. 1.

3 And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.

Our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 29.

When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. Is. 4. 4.—Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy; his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire. Is. 30. 27.—The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? Is. 33. 14.

4 ¶ And the mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?

A mixed multitude went up also with them. Ex. 12. 38.—[They] lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert. And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. Ps. 106. 14, 15.—Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 1 Co. 10. 6.

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man; but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 13-15.

Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience. Col. 3. 5, 6.

Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. Eph. 5. 6, 7.—For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. Ro. 1. 18.

5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes.

The children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. Ex. 16. 3.—The people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread. Nu. 21. 5.

They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt; wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea. But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord. Ps. 106. 21, 22, 25.

I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways! Ps. 81. 10-13.

What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. There is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Ro. 3. 9, 10, 22, 23.—Death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.

7 And the manna was as coriander seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. Ex. 16. 14, 31.—The gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone. Ge. 2. 12.

9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

In the morning the dew lay round about the host. And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground. Ex. 16. 13, 14.—I will be as the dew unto Israel. Ho. 14. 5.—God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine. Ge. 27. 28.—As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. Ps. 133. 3.

Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Jno. 6. 32-35, 48-51.

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the Lord was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: unto whom

I swear in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest. Ps. 95. 8-11.

Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth. Nu. 12. 3.

11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers?

Behold your God! He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. Is. 40. 9, 11.

13 Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.

To which of the saints wilt thou turn? Job 5. 1.—[Elijah] requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. 1 Kz. 19. 4.—Now, O Lord, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. Jon. 4. 3.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

Lu. 10. 1-20.

Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens: and let them judge the people at all seasons. Ex. 18. 21, 22.—Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off. Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. Ex. 24. 1, 9.

17 And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them. Nu. 9. 20.—The Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee. 1 Sa. 10. 6.—Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. De. 16. 18.

And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. Ac. 6. 1-6.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

And the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes. Ex. 19. 10.—And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the Lord; for that he heareth your murmurings against the Lord. Ex. 16. 7.—They did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire. Ps. 78. 29.—And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. Ps. 106. 15.—To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt. Ac. 7. 39.

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

The children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children. Ex. 12. 37.

Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude? Mat. 15. 33. Mar. 8. 4.

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

Every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine. If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof. Ps. 50. 10-12.—Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Is. 50. 2.—Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save. Is. 59. 1.—Hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—Is any thing too hard for the Lord? Ge. 18. 14.

Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord, To-morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the Lord would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. 2 Kz. 7. 1, 2.

I am the Lord: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged. Eze. 12. 25; 24. 14.—Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Mat. 24. 35.

My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. Is. 55. 8-11.

Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me? Ah Lord God, behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee: thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the Lord of hosts, is his name, great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day; and hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror. Je. 32. 27, 17-21.

For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants. Ps. 119. 89-91.

24 ¶ And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. 2 Ki. 2. 15.—The Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy ... and shalt be turned into another man. 1 Sa. 10. 6.

On my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. Ac. 2. 18.—Desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. Ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace. 1 Co. 14. 1, 3, 31-33.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord. Je. 23. 24.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. Jno. 3. 26.—Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us. And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us. Lu. 9. 49, 50.

29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied. 1 Co. 14. 5.

31 ¶ And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

At even the quails came up, and covered the camp. Ex. 16. 13.—He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven; and by his power he brought in the south wind. He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea; and he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations. Ps. 78. 26-28; 105. 40.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer. Eze. 45. 11.

33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

They were not estranged from their lust: but while their meat was yet in their mouths, the wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel. Ps. 78. 30, 31.

I gave thee a king in mine anger. Ho. 13. 11.
With whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. He. 3. 17-19.

The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Ro. 6. 23.

34 And he called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

35 And the people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and abode at Hazeroth.

And they departed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and encamped at Hazeroth. Nu. 33. 17.—At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath. De. 9. 22.

CHAPTER XII.

AND Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the Lord heard it.

Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron. Ex. 15. 20.—I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. Mi. 6. 4.

It may be the Lord thy God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard. 2 Kt. 19. 4.—Thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies. ... Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them. Eze. 35. 12, 13.—He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see? Ps. 94. 9.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the Lord spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry? Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still, when God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Ps. 76. 7-9.

5 And the Lord came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the congregation. Num. 16. 19.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

The word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision. Ge. 15. 1.—God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night. Ge. 46. 2.—In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed. Job. 33. 15. Eze. 1. 1. Da. viii. x. Lu. 1. 11, etc. Ac. 10. 11, etc.; 22. 17.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

He sent Moses his servant. Ps. 105. 26.—Moses was faithful in all his house. Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after. He. 3. 2, 5.—The house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 1 Ti. 3. 15.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the Lord shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

The Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. Ex. 33. 11.—There arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. De. 34. 10.—Now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face. 1 Co. 13. 12.

9 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them; and he departed.

God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious; the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked; the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him. Na. 1. 2, 3, 5, 6.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

Remember what the Lord thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt. De. 24. 9. 2 Ki. 5. 27; 15. 5. 2 Ch. 26. 19, 20.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

David said unto the Lord, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O Lord, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. 2 Sa. 24. 10.—O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee. Ps. 69. 5.—The thought of foolishness is sin. Pr. 24. 9.

O Lord, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore. There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin. For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness. I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh. Ps. 38. 1-7.

A leprous man is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean. He shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be. Le. 13. 44, 46.

13 And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 15, 16.

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and who-soever is defiled by the dead: both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell. Num. 5. 2, 3.

If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days: and the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more: and the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. Le. 13. 4-6.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. Ps. 103, 2-4, 8-14.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

If a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. Gal. 6, 1, 2.—Who is weak, and I am not weak? 2 Co. 11, 29.

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Ro. 15, 1-4.

16 And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

God was with [Ishmael]; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt. Ge. 21, 20, 21.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

When we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. Ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. De. 1, 19, 22.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

Afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran. Nu. 12, 16.—Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea. Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart. And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the Lord God of Israel. Jos. 14, 6, 7, 13, 14.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua.

If [Joshua] had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day. He. 4, 8.

17 ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.

Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. 1 Co. 2, 9, 10.—Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. Is. 64, 4.

21 ¶ So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

Then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the salt sea eastward. This shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall point out for you mount Hor: from mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the entrance of Hamath. Nu. 34, 3, 7, 8.

Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. 1 K^g. 8. 65.—[Jeroboam II.] restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain. 2 K^g. 14. 25.

This shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; Hamath, Berthlah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath. Eze. 47. 15, 16.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. Ge. 23. 2.—Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned. Ge. 35. 27.—[Jacob] sent [Joseph] out of the vale of Hebron. Ge. 37. 14.

And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained. Jos. 11. 21, 22.

Unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the Lord to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron. And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak. Jos. 15. 13, 14.—The city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah. Jos. 21. 11.

David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah ... seven years and six months. 2 Sa. 2. 11.

To the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely, Hebron the city of refuge. 1 Ch. 6. 57.

Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. Ps. 78. 12.

23 And they came unto the brook of Esheol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Esheol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

The king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself. And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the Lord, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth, that I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich: save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Esheol, and Mamre; let them take their portion. Ge. 14. 21-24.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

When we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. De. 1. 19.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Ex. 3. 8.—It is a good land which the Lord our God doth give us. De. 1. 25.

Thus saith the Lord God of Israel; Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant, which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God: that I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O Lord. Je. 11. 3-5.—A land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. Eze. 20. 6.

28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. Pr. 26. 13.—Hear, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven; a people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak! De. 9. 1, 2.

David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt. 1 Sa. 27. 8.

30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea. Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espie out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart. Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the Lord my God. And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God. And now, behold, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the Lord spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old. As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the Lord spake in that day; for thou hearest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said. And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the Lord God of Israel. And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. Jos. 14. 6-15.

31 But the men that went up with him said,

We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

Who can stand before the children of Anak! De. 9. 2.—The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims. De. 2. 10.—Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars. Am. 2. 9.

It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers. Is. 40. 22.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.

Ex. 16. 2; 17. 3.

They despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word; but murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD. Ps. 106. 24, 25.—And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. Ne. 9. 17.—To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt. Ac. 7. 39.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen. Ps. 105. 26.—When Moses heard it, he fell upon his face. They fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? Nu. 16. 4, 22.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. Ge. 48. 21.—Wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? Ex. 33. 16.—Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the Lord loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice. 1 Ki. 10. 9.

Behold, God himself is with us for our captain. 2 Ch. 13. 12.—With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God to help us, and to fight our battles. 2 Ch. 32. 8.—The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Ps. 46. 7.

Blessed be the Lord my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight: my goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust. Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord. Ps. 144. 1, 2, 15.—Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God. Ps. 146. 5.—Whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he. Pr. 16. 20.

10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me. Ex. 17. 4.

They looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. Ex. 16. 10.—And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation. Nu. 16. 19.—And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them. Nu. 20. 6.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord. Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to wrath, so that the Lord was angry with you to have destroyed you. And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath. Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you: then ye rebelled against the commandment of the Lord your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. De. 9. 7, 8, 22, 23.

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness. To whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? He. 3. 8, 18.

Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. Ps. 106. 43.—Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation. They sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works. For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. Ps. 78. 22, 32, 37, 41.—Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word: but murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord. Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness: to overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. Ps. 106. 24-27.

Though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him. Jno. 12. 37.

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

Let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of thee a great nation. Ex. 32. 10.—It shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; the Lord shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly. The Lord shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it. De. 28. 15, 20, 21.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. Ex. 32. 12.—He said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. Ps. 106. 23.—O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. De. 9. 26-28.

Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the Lord hath not done all this. De. 32. 27.—I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments: ... then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. Nevertheless mine eyes spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness. Eze. 20. 9, 13, 15, 17.

The Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night. Ex. 13. 21; 40. 38.—Thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. Ne. 9. 12.—In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. Ps. 78. 14.—He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night. Ps. 105. 39.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

De. 9. 28.

For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name? Jos. 7. 9.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. Ex. 34. 6, 7. Merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. Ps. 103. 8.—Gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. Ps. 145. 8.—A gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Jon. 4. 2.

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Co. 5. 21.

19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

Pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance. Ex. 34. 9.—O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. Da. 9. 16, 19.

The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands. Ps. 138. 8.

20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word:

He remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Ps. 106. 45.

Their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy: how he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan. Ps. 78. 37, 43.

I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. Is. 43. 25, 26.—For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another. Is. 48. 9, 11.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Ja. 5. 16.—This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that he have the petitions that we desired of him. 1 Jno. 5. 14, 15.

21 But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. Hab. 2. 14.—Blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Psa. 72. 19.

22 Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 Surely they shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swear to give unto your fathers. De. 1. 35.—Unto whom I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest. Psa. 95. 11.—That I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. Eze. 20. 15. Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness. Psa. 106. 26.

With whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? He. 3. 17, 18.—Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: said them out of my sight, and let them go forth. Je. 15. 1.

24 But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the Lord. De. 1. 36; Jos. 14. 6, 8, 9, 14.

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Ex. 16. 28, 12.—O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Mat. 17. 17.

28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me: save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the Lord. Nu. 32. 11, 12; De. 1. 35, 36.

These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho. But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. For the Lord had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. Nu. 26. 63, 65.

I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. Jude 5.

31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised.

32 But as for you, your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

De. 1. 39.

They despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word. Psa. 106. 24.—They were overthrown in the wilderness. 1 Co. 10. 5.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

Visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children. Ex. 34. 7.—Until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the Lord, was consumed. Nu. 32. 13.—He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way. Psa. 107. 40.—Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. Eze. 23. 35.

34 After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise.

They returned from searching of the land after forty days. Nu. 13. 25.—Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways. Psa. 95. 10.

Thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year. Eze. 4. 6.—Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. He. 4. 1.

35 I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Nu. 23. 19.—When God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself. He. 6. 13.

36 And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, 37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

There was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. Nu. 26. 65.

Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 1 Co. 10. 10; Mal. 3. 18.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly.

40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

And no man did put on him his ornaments. Ex. 33. 4.—We have sinned against the Lord, we will go up and fight, according to all that the Lord our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill. De. 1. 41.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

The Lord said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies. De. 1. 42.—The Lord is with you, while ye be with him: ... but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. 2 Ch. 15. 2.

Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you. 2 Ch. 24. 20.

44 But they presumed to go up unto the hill top; nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah.

I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord, and went presumptuously up into the hill. And the Amorites, which dwell in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah. De. 1. 43, 44.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pe. 2. 9.—Keep back thy servant ... from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Psa. 19. 13.

CHAPTER XV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you,

I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. Ex. 3. 17.—The Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey; a land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass. De. 8. 7-9.

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock:

If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord. Le. 1. 3.—Ye shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the Lord. Nu. 28. 27.

Noah builded an altar unto the Lord; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour. Ge. 8. 20, 21.

Walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.—We are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish. 2 Co. 2. 15.

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oil.

When any will offer a meat offering unto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon. Le. 2. 1.—This is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the Lord, before the altar. And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the Lord. Le. 6. 14, 15.

My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Jno. 4. 34.—Lo, I come ... to do thy will, O God. He. 10. 7.

If thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? Ro. 11. 24.

5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb.

Wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart. Psa. 104. 15.—I am the true vine, Jno. 15. 1.—Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength. Ne. 8. 10; Ge. 49. 11, 12.

Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Psa. 100. 2.—The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Is. 35. 10.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. Ps. 45. 7.—Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart. Ca. 3. 11.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the LORD:

Whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. Le. 22. 21.

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number.

The kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability. Mat. 25. 14, 15.

If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want; that there may be equality: as it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. 2 Co. 8. 12–15.

According to your faith be it unto you. Mat. 9. 29.—He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Co. 9. 6, 7.

13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you. Ec. 12. 49.—If a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. Nu. 9. 14.—Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Ro. 3. 29, 30.

Remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; that at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now, in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby; and came and preached peace to you which were afar off and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 11–18. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Ti. 2. 3, 4.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for an heave offering: as ye do the heave offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave offering in your generations.

They did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the self-same day. The manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. Jos. 5. 11, 12.

Thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his name there. Behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O Lord, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God. De. 26. 2, 10.

Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. Pr. 3. 9, 10.—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Mat. 6. 33.

22 ¶ And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

If the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somehow against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty; when the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin. And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. Le. 4. 13, 14, 20.

Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Lu. 23. 34.—These things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. Jno. 16. 3.—Brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. Ac. 3. 17-19.

Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 1 Co. 2. 8.

Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Ac. 2. 36-39.

27 ¶ And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

If any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somehow against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. Le. 4. 27, 28.

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. 1 Ti. 1. 12-16.

29 Ye shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office. Ro. 11. 13.

30 ¶ But the soul that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

The man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously. De. 17. 12, 13. Keep back thy servant ... from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Ps. 19. 13.

If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins. He. 10. 26.—Them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government: presumptuous are they, self-willed. 2 Pe. 2. 10.

31 Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.

Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed. Pr. 13. 13.—For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. He. 4. 12, 13.—He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Jno. 12. 48.

And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. Re. 19. 11-16.

He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. He. 10. 28-31.

32 ¶ And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation.

34 And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him.

Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the Lord: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. Ex. 31. 14, 15.—Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death. Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day. Ex. 35. 2, 3.

Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God. Ex. 18. 19.

35 And the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.

36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the Lord commanded Moses.

Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. Le. 24. 14.—And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. 1 Kz. 21. 13.

37 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribband of blue:

39 And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a whoring:

40 That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

Thou shalt make three fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself. De. 22. 12.—All their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments. Mat. 23. 5.

I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart. De. 29. 19; Je. 9. 14.

The man Micah had a house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes. Ju. 17. 5, 6.

I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols. Eze. 6. 9.—Lo, they that are far from thee shall perish; thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee. Ps.

73. 27; 106. 39.—Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Ja. 4. 4.

41 I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord your God.

I am the Lord your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy. I am the Lord that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy. Le. 11. 44, 45.—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Ro. 12. 1.—God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. 1 Th. 4. 7.—As he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. 1 Pe. 1. 15, 16.

CHAPTER XVI.

NOW Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men:

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown:

The sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. The sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zithri. Ex. 6. 18, 21.—The sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, which were famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the Lord. Nu. 26. 9.

3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the Lord?

They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the Lord. Ps. 106. 16.

4 And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face:

Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. Nu. 14. 5.—And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto them. Nu. 20. 6.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. 2 Pe. 2. 9, 10.

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the Lord will shew who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him.

6 This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company.

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow; and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

Take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. Ex. 28. 1.—The crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him. Le. 21. 12.—Did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel? 1 Sa. 2. 28.—He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen. Ps. 105. 26. The Lord knoweth them that are his. 2 Ti. 2. 19.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine. Nu. 8. 14.—At that time the Lord separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day. De. 10. 8.

Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law? 1 Sa. 18. 23.

According to the commandment of the Lord, they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the Lord commanded Moses. And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites: but thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden: but they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die. Nu. 4. 49, 17, 20.

Thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. Nu. 3. 10, 38.

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

Moses said, ... What are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the Lord. Ex. 16. 8.

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 1 Co. 3. 5.

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up:

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us?

Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? Ex. 2. 14.—This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. Ac. 7. 35.

14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. 2 Pe. 2. 21, 22.—There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness. 2 Pe. 3. 3, 4, 9.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

The Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering: but unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. Ge. 4. 4, 5.

Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. 1 Sa. 12. 3.—I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ac. 20. 33.—We have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. 2 Co. 7. 2.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer: and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. Re. 8. 3, 5.—Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. 1 Co. 3. 13.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.

In the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the Lord; for that he heareth your murmurings against the Lord. Ex. 16. 7.—This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. Eze. 1. 28.—And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. For they are impudent children and stiff-hearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. Eze. 2. 1. 5.

Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them. Ex. 32. 10.—I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee. Ex. 33. 5.—Let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming fire. He. 12. 28, 29.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; and hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation. Ac. 17. 24. 26.—In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. Job 12. 10.—The Father of spirits. He. 12. 9.

23 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

Up, get you out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city. Ge. 19. 14.—Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her. Is. 52. 11.—Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing. 2 Co. 6. 17.—Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul; be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence. Je. 51. 6.—Save yourselves from this untoward generation. Ac. 2. 40.—Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Re. 18. 4.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the Lord's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. And he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. Ex. 32. 26. 28.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the Lord hath not sent me.

30 But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord.

When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him. De. 18. 22.—I cannot go beyond the commandment of the Lord, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the Lord saith, that will I speak. Nu. 24. 13.

Behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me. Zec. 2. 9.—The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto you. Zec. 4. 9.—If ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be against you, as it was against your fathers. Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which the Lord will do before your eyes. Is it not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord, in asking you a king. So Samuel called unto the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel. 1 Sa. 12. 15. 18.

The works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. Jno. 5. 36.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity? Job 31. 3.—The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram. Ps. 106. 17.—The Lord shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act. Is. 28. 21.—Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings and among them. Ps. 55. 15.—Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. Jude 11.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. He. 11. 7.

35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

A fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked. Ps. 106. 18.—Now will I rise, saith the Lord; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself. Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you. And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire. Is. 33. 10-12. Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same. By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed. Job 4. 8, 9.—The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? Is. 33. 14.

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

Every devoted thing is most holy unto the Lord. Le. 27. 28.—Whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul. Pr. 20. 2.—He that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death. Pr. 8. 36.—Thou hast sinned against thy soul. Hab. 2. 10.—I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb. Eze. 14. 8.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

Thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. Nu. 3. 10.—But when [Uzziah] was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense. And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, that were valiant men: and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shalt it be for thine honour from the Lord God. Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, from beside the incense altar. And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hastened also to go out, because the Lord had smitten him. 2 Ch. 26. 16-20.

41 ¶ But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

Murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord. Ps. 106. 25.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto them. Nu. 20. 6.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord; and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Je. 5. 9.—I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children. Ex. 20. 5.—In the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them. Ex. 32. 34.

Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way: only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you. But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king. 1 Sa. 12. 23-25.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel. Ps. 103. 7.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: but this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners. He. 7. 22-26.—He bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Is. 53. 12.

49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died about the matter of Korah.

They provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them. Ps. 106. 29. 1 Ch. 27. 24.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also; that the Lord God might dwell among them. Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death. Ps. 68. 18-20.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

With you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers. Nu. 1. 4.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ. 1 Co. 11. 3.—The head, even Christ. Eph. 4. 15.—He is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. Col. 1. 17, 18.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you.

There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel. Ex. 25. 22.—And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. Ex. 29. 43.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Is. 11. 1.—Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth. Is. 42. 1.—Behold the man whose name is The Branch; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord: even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. Zec. 6. 12, 13.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

The patterns of things in the heavens. He. 9. 23.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

Jesus Christ our Lord, ... declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. Ro. 1. 3, 4.—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 1 Co. 15. 20, 21.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Ro. 6. 9, 10. Who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Ti. 1. 10.

That ye may know what is ... the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. Eph. 1. 18, 23.

Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. Jno. 12. 24.

Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3. 3, 4.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

The times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Ac. 17. 30, 31.

11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

After the second veil, the tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all; which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant. He. 9. 3, 4.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. Job 14. 1, 2.—What is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Ja. 4. 14.—We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. Is. 64. 6.

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Ja. 1. 13-15.—The wages of sin is death. Ro. 6. 23.—As by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.

13 Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?

Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. Ex. 23. 20, 21.—The Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. Ex. 34. 14.

In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the Angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Is. 63. 9, 10.—Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations? Ps. 85. 5.—I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace. Le. 10. 3.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND the Lord said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

Thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre, upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the Lord. Ex. 28. 36, 38.—Thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. Ps. 89. 19.—Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. Job 33. 24.—By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. And he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Is. 53. 11, 12.

David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. To him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead: who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Ro. 4. 6-8, 5, 25-25.

We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. He. 8. 1, 2.—Such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. He. 7. 26-28.

2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness.

Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons; therefore was his name called Levi. Ge. 29. 34.—Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him. And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. Nu. 3. 6, 7, 10.

3 And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die.

The charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [The Kohathites'] charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof. And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto. Nu. 3. 25, 31, 36.—And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites: but thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden: but they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die. Nu. 4. 15, 17-20.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel.

Thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon; of shittim wood shalt thou make it. And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. Ex. 30. 1, 7.—And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord; the plague is begun. Nu. 16. 46.

6 And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are given as a gift for the Lord, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and within the vail; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

When these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. He. 9. 6.—I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary. Nu. 8. 19.—Thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel. And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine. Nu. 3. 9, 12.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts; we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple. Ps. 65. 4.

There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. 1 Co. 12. 4-6.—The gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.

Every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. 1 Co. 7. 7.—Gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will. Ite. 2. 4.—Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Eph. 4. 7, 8, 11, 12.

Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts. Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. 1 Co. 14. 1, 12.—Stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 2 Ti. 1. 6.—Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 1 Ti. 4. 14.

Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 16, 17.—As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Pe. 4. 10, 11.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for a heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. Le. 7. 32.—Thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: and it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel; for it is a heave offering: and it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the Lord. Ex. 29. 27, 28.

And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. Ex. 40. 13, 15.

They truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: but this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Heb. 7. 23, 24.—For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. Heb. 5. 1-6.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of their's, every meat offering of their's, and every sin offering of their's, and every trespass offering of their's, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

Every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices. ... Priests that offer gifts according to the law: who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things. Ite. 8. 3-5.—Every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his. Nu. 5. 9.—The remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire. Le. 2. 3.

And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy: and ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire; for so I am commanded. Le. 10. 12, 13.—The remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. Le. 6. 16, 18, 25, 26, 29.

He shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering: it is most holy. Le. 14. 13.—As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it. Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy. Le. 7. 7, 6.

11 And this is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

The priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for a heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. Le. 7. 31, 32.—His own hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the Lord. The wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel. Le. 7. 30, 34; 10. 14; De. 18. 3.

As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 2. 2-5.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the Lord, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

Jno. 6. 48-58.

The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Ex. 23. 19.—My soul desired the first-ripe fruit. Mt. 7. 1.—The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him. De. 18. 4; Ne. 10. 35-38.—Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase. Pr. 3. 9.

I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved. Ca. 5. 1.

14 Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine.

Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the Lord of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the Lord. Le. 27. 28.

In the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. Le. 10. 7.—Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Loth God take care for oxen? or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? 1 Co. 9. 7, 11.

15 Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the Lord, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

Sacrifice unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine. Le. 12. 2.—The firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me. Le. 22. 28.—Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the Lord's firstling, no man shall sacrifice it: whether it be ox, or sheep, it is the Lord's. Le. 27. 26. All the firstborn are named for on the day that I brought all the firstborn in the land of Egypt: I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be. I am the Lord. Num. 3. 13.

And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem. Le. 12. 13.—Thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and thou take them: (one shekel is twenty gerahs.) Num. 3. 47. And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. Le. 27. 25.

Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers: but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sacrifice unto the Lord thy God. Thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. Le. 15. 18. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the word that is on the law: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord. Le. 22. 5.

What is love as Christ's love? he loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour. Eph. 5. 2.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the Lord unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

Every oblation of thy meat-offering shalt thou season with salt: neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt. Le. 2. 13.—Ought ye not to know that the Lord God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? 2 Ch. 13. 5.

20 And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the Lord is his inheritance, according as the Lord thy God promised him. De. 10. 9.—The Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee. De. 14. 27.—The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and his inheritance. Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the Lord is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them. De. 18. 1, 2.

The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot. Ps. 16. 5. The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. Le. 3. 24.—Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. Ps. 73. 25, 26.

21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave offering unto the Lord, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

All the tithes of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's: it is holy unto the Lord. And concerning the tithes of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the yoke, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord. Le. 27. 30, 32.

Verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham. He. 7. 5.—Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Ro. 13. 7.—Render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. Mat. 22. 21.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Mat. 23. 23.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe.

27 And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

28 Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel: and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress.

31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD. Le. 31. 14.—The labourer is worthy of his hire, Lu. 10. 7.—Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? 1 Co. 9. 13.—The scripture saith, The labourer is worthy of his reward. 1 Ti. 5. 18.

32 And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

Mal. 1. 6-13. Mat. 21. 33-41.

Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in those things which they hallow unto me: I am the LORD. And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD. Le. 22. 2, 13.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke:

Fairer than the children of men. Ps. 45. 2.—There is no spot in thee, Ch. 4. 7.—It is a blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifying to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? He. 9. 13, 14.—The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.—An heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke. De. 21. 3.—No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. Jo. 10. 18.

What thinkest thou, Son of man, do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free. Mat. 17. 25, 26.

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. Le. 24. 14.—The bodies of these beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. When ye Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. He. 13. 11, 12.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times:

Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. He. 12. 24.—Elevet according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. 1 Pe. 1. 2.

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight: her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt. Le. 4. 12; Ex. 29. 14.

6 And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. Le. 14. 6, 49.

For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people. He. 9. 19.

Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Is. 1. 18.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. He. 10. 22.—The answer of a good conscience toward God. 1 Pe. 3. 21.—Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. Jno. 13. 3-10.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness. Zec. 13. 1.—One of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. Jno. 19. 34.—The blood of Jesus Christ ... cleanseth us from all sin. 1 Jno. 1. 7.

As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: so shall he sprinkle many nations. Is. 52. 14, 15.—I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me. Je. 33. 8.—All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Is. 53. 6.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord. Is. 52. 11.—Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. Re. 3. 4.—Hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 23.—Neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 1 Ti. 5. 22.

11 ¶ He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people. Le. 21. 1.—Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp ... whosoever is defiled by the dead. Nu. 5. 2.—There were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day. Nu. 9. 6.

Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. Hag. 2. 13.

12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

Whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day. Nu. 31. 19.—Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil. Is. 1. 16.—I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Ac. 24. 16.—Our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world. 2 Co. 1. 12.

For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour. 1 Th. 4. 3, 4; 1 Jno. 3. 3.—Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 1 Ti. 3. 9; Ja. 1. 27.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them. Le. 15. 31.—What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Co. 6. 19, 20. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Co. 3. 16, 17.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight. How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water? Job 15. 14-16.—Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity. Hab. 1. 13.

16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

And David's place was empty. Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean. 1 Sa. 20. 25, 26.

17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:

Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. Ge. 26. 19.

If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. Jno. 4. 10.—Rivers of living water. This spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified. Jno. 7. 38, 39.—He shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. Re. 22. 1.

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.

Purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood. Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water. Nu. 31. 20, 23.—Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Ps. 51. 7.—Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. Eze. 36. 25.—Such were some of you; but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Co. 6. 11.

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the Lord: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them. And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean. Nu. 8. 5-7.

Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck. 1 Ti. 1. 5, 19.

21 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even.

The Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.

22 And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. Tit. 1. 15.—The wisdom that is from above is ... pure. Ja. 3. 17.—Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. Ps. 119. 140.—The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Ps. 19. 7-11.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Phi. 4. 8.

CHAPTER XX.

THEN came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month: and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

They removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh. Nu. 33. 36.

The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. Nu. 26. 59.—Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron. Ex. 15. 20.

[Moses's] sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him. Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee? And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother. Ex. 2. 4, 7, 8.

2 And there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the Lord!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the Lord into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the Lord, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord? And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? Ex. 17. 1-3.

All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! Nu. 14. 2.—And when the people complained, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp. And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with a very great plague. Nu. 11. 1, 33.—Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the Lord. Nu. 14. 37.

And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. The congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron. Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died about the matter of Korah. Nu. 16. 32, 35, 42, 49.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto them.

Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. And the glory of the Lord appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel. Nu. 14. 5, 10.—When Moses heard it, he fell upon his face. They fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? Nu. 16. 4, 22.

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you: if ye ... being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Lu. 11. 9, 13.

[Thou] broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst. Ne. 9. 15.—He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. Ps. 78. 15, 16.—He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. Ps. 105. 41. Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters. Ps. 114. 8.—I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. Is. 43. 20.—And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out. Is. 48. 21.

9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels. Nu. 17. 10.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?

They provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips. Ps. 106. 33.

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. Ec. 17. 6.

Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drouth, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint. De. 8. 15.—They ... did all drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. 1 Co. 10. 4.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief. For the transgression of my people was he stricken. Is. 53. 4, 5, 10, 8.—Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. Ac. 2. 23.

The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. Is. 50. 5, 6.—Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you. Ga. 3. 1.

In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. Jno. 7. 37.—If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. Jno. 4. 10.—Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters. Is. 55. 1.

The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Re. 22. 17. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Mat. 28. 20.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

Ye rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin. Nu. 27. 14.—The Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither. De. 1. 37. And I besought the Lord at that time, saying, O Lord God, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might? I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. But the Lord was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the Lord said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter. De. 3. 23, 26.

And the Lord spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying, Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession; and die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Horeb, and was gathered unto his people: because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel. De. 32. 48, 51.

I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. Le. 10. 3.—Thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions. Ps. 99. 8.

I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. Eze. 20. 41.—I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. Eze. 36. 23.

Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. 1 Pe. 3. 15.

13 This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness. Ps. 95. 8.—I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Ps. 81. 7; De. 33. 8.

They angered him ... at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips. Ps. 106. 32, 33.—Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy. Ps. 99. 5.

14 ¶ And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travel that hath befallen us:

And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint: and Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage: for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom. And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me? And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he swore unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright. Ge. 25. 29, 34.

And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom. And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now: and I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight. And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him. Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. Ge. 32. 3-7.

And these are the names of the dukes that came of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names; duke Timnah, duke Alvah, duke Jetheth, duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon, duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar, duke Magdiel, duke Iram: these be the dukes of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession: he is Esau the father of the Edomites. Ge. 36. 40-43.

Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother. De. 23. 7.

15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him. Ge. 46. 6.—Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers. Ac. 7. 15.—The sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. Ex. 12. 40.

They did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses. But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel. And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour: and they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour. And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives; When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. Ex. 1. 11-16.—The Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage. De. 26. 6.—The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. Ac. 7. 19.

16 And when we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. Ex. 2. 23.—The angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows. Ex. 3. 2, 7.—The angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them. Ex. 14. 19.—Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Ex. 23. 20.—I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. Ex. 33. 2.

In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them: and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. Is. 63. 9.

17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

Command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore: meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession. Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink. Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left. Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet. De. 2. 4-6, 27, 28.

20 And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

When Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came to Kadesh; then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh. Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab. Ju. 11. 16-18.

For thy violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. But thou shouldst not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldst thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldst thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress. Ob. 10, 12.—The Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village. Lu. 9. 56.

22 ¶ And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto mount Hor.

They removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom. Nu. 33. 37.

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah.

When thou hast seen [the land], thou also shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered. Nu. 27. 13. And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people. De. 32. 50.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor :

26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son : and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded : and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son ; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount : and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them. And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place. Ex. 29. 29, 30.—The children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera : there Aaron died, and there he was buried ; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead. De. 10. 6.—They truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death. He. 7. 23.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel ? 2 Sa. 3. 33.—The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. De. 34. 8.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND when king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies ; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners.

They went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath. Nu. 13. 21. Ju. 1. 16.

2 And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites ; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities : and he called the name of the place Hormah.

And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the Lord hath promised : for we have sinned. And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the Lord ? but it shall not prosper. Go not up, for the Lord is not among you ; that ye be not smitten before your enemies. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword : because ye are turned away from the Lord, therefore the Lord will not be with you. But they presumed to go up unto the hill top : nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and Moses, departed not out of the camp. Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah. Nu. 14. 40, 45. Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah. Ju. 1. 17.

4 ¶ And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom : and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way ; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. Ps. 107. 4-7.

Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith ; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him : for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons ; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not ? He. 12. 1-7.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness ? for there is no bread, neither is there any water ; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

Yea, they spake against God : they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness ? Ps. 78. 19.—Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full ; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. Ex. 16. 3 ; 17. 3.—Our soul is dried away : there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes. Nu. 11. 6.

The full soul loatheth a honeycomb. Pr. 27. 7.

6 And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people ; and much people of Israel died.

Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. 1 Co. 10. 9.—That great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions. De. 8. 15.

7 ¶ Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee ; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

When he slew them, then they sought him ; and they returned and inquired early after God. Ps. 78. 34.—All the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not. 1 Sa. 12. 19.—[Saul] said, I have sinned : yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God. So Samuel turned again after Saul ; and Saul worshipped the Lord. 1 Sa. 13. 30, 31.—Simon said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me. Ac. 8. 24.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole : and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

Ge. 3. 1-5.

As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up : that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. Jno. 3. 14, 15.—I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. Jno. 12. 32.—When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he. Jno. 8. 28.—Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. Jno. 12. 31.

The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. Re. 12. 9.

He that committeth sin, is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 1 Jno. 3. 8.

[Hezekiah] removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. 2 Kz. 18. 4.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Ije-abarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising.

12 ¶ From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared.

Now rise up, ... and get you over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered. De. 2. 13.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

They went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab. Ju. 11. 18.—When Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast. Nu. 22. 36.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, What he did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Arnon, 15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab.

But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him. And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches. For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts. And this is but a light thing in the sight of the Lord: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border. And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood: and they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country. And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not. Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land. 2 Kz. 3. 15-27.

16 And from thence they went to Beer: that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother. Ju. 9. 21.

17 ¶ Then Israel sang this song, Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it:

Then believed they his words; they sang his praise. Ps. 106. 12.—Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works. Ps. 105. 2.

18 The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah:

The LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us. Is. 33. 22.

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth:

20 And from Bamoth in the valley that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jeshimon.

Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon. Nu. 23. 28.

21 ¶ And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left. De. 2. 26, 27.—Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place. Ju. 11. 19.

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people. De. 2. 32, 33.—Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. Ju. 11. 20.

These are the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east: Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon. Jos. 12. 1, 2.—I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. Jos. 24. 8.

Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Am. 2. 9.

24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared:

28 For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

29 Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

Chemosh, the abomination of Moab. Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon. 1 Kz. 11. 7, 33.—Wilt not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the Lord our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess. Ju. 11. 24.—Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence. Je. 48. 7, 13.

30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto Medeba.

Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strongholds. Upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim. They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives. Je. 48. 18, 22, 45, 46.

The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; he is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off. Is. 15. 1, 2.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and ... they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle. Nu. 32. 1.—O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage. Je. 48. 32.

33 ¶ And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And the Lord said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

When ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them. De. 29. 7.—All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out. Jos. 13. 12.—We turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. And the Lord said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. So the Lord our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining. And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a great many. And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city. But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves. And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon; (which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;) all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salehah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man. And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites. And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants. De. 3. 1, 13.

Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings; Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan. Ps. 135. 10, 11.—To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever: and slew famous kings: for his mercy endureth for ever: Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever: and Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever. Ps. 136. 17-20.—Thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, king of Bashan. Ne. 9. 22.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan, by Jericho.

2 ¶ And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away. Ex. 15. 15.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus? And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir. And, behold, the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir. And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. Ge. 15. 2-5.—And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year. Ge. 17. 19-21.

Again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah. And she bare him ... Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. Ge. 25. 1, 2.

Art thou any thing better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Ju. 11. 25.

5 He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. Jos. 24. 9.—An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the Lord for ever: because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse thee. De. 23. 3, 4.—In the book of Moses ... was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them; howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. Ne. 13. 1, 2.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the Lord. Mt. 6. 5.—Thus saith the Lord; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord. Je. 17. 5.

7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the Lord shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

When thou art come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee. Thou shalt be perfect with the Lord thy God. For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so to do. De. 18. 9-14.—The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the Lord? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place. 1 Sa. 6. 2.

Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the Lord. Je. 29. 8, 9.—The heads ... judge for reward, and the priests ... teach for hire, and the prophets ... divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us. Mi. 3. 11.—Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. Je. 27. 9, 10.

So it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, and walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made. And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the Lord their God. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. 2 Ki. 17. 7-9, 17, 18.

Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness. 2 Pe. 2. 15.—Woe unto them! for they ... ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward. Jude 11.—I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. Re. 2. 14.

9 And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed.

Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it. Nu. 23. 20.—That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. Ge. 22. 17.—The gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty. Ps. 29. 4.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoc edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. He. 4. 12, 13.—All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? Da. 4. 35.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God. The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you. Je. 42. 4-6, 19-21.

20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Is. 46. 9-11.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

The LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. 1 Sa. 2. 3.—The LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart. 1 Sa. 16. 7.

Thus saith the LORD God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: and I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws. Eze. 38. 3, 4.—I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. Is. 37. 28, 29.

23 And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

When the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. 2 Ki. 6. 15-17.—I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision. Da. 10. 7.—They that were with me, saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. Ac. 22. 9.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast. Pr. 12. 10.—A heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; but was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet. 2 Pe. 2. 14–16.

31 Then the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the Lord standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

The angel of the Lord stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. 1 Ch. 21. 15, 16, 20.

32 And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. Re. 19. 11–15.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the Lord, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again.

Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the Lord is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. Ex. 9. 27.—Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: when I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it. Jos. 7. 20, 21.—Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord. 1 Sa. 15. 24.

Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more: that which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more. Job 34. 31, 32.

What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men.) 1 Ki. 8. 33, 39.

The hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. Mat. 15. 7, 8.—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Je. 17. 9, 10.—Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins. Ps. 7. 9.—The Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. 1 Ch. 28. 9.

35 And the angel of the Lord said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

He gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. Ps. 106. 15.—The scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction. Ro. 9. 17–22.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. Nu. 21. 13.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

Micaiah said, As the Lord liveth, what the Lord saith unto me, that will I speak. 1 Ki. 22. 14.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto Kirjath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. Eze. 21. 21–23.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree. De. 12. 2.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

Unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth? Seeing thou hastest instruction, and castest my words behind thee. Ps. 50. 16, 17.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went to an high place.

4 And God met Balaam: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes. Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. Ps. 50. 21, 22.

5 And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.

Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. Je. 1. 9.

6 And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and come, defy Israel.

8 How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied?

I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old. Ps. 78. 2.—Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel. Eze. 17. 2.—In that day one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation. Mt. 2. 4.—Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him? Hab. 2. 6.

Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail. Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. Is. 47. 12, 13.

When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only. Job 34. 29.

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: but ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; and thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods. Ex. 34. 12, 13, 15, 16.

And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth. And I will put a division between my people and thy people. Ex. 8. 22, 23.—Israel then shall dwell in safety alone. De. 33. 28.—So shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. Ex. 33. 16; Est. 3. 8.

10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Pk. 116. 15.—Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. Re. 14. 13.

When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish; and the hope of unjust men perisheth. Pr. 11. 7.—Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword. Nu. 31. 8.

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee. I... have blessed him; yea, and he shall be blessed. Ge. 27. 29, 33.

12 And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?

Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above. Jno. 19. 11.

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.

Micah had a house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest. Ju. 17. 5, 13.

14 ¶ And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. De. 34. 1.—Get thee up into the top of Pisgah. De. 3. 27.

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder.

16 And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken?

The Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. Je. 1. 9.—Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. Ju. 3. 20.

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor:

19 God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it.

And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing. Ge. 12. 2.—In blessing I will bless thee. Ge. 22. 17.—The Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. 1 Sa. 15. 29.—I am the Lord, I change not. Mal. 3. 6.—He is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth. Job. 23. 13.—The gifts and calling of God are without repentance. Ro. 11. 29.—Which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began. Tit. 1. 2.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ja. 1. 17.

The Lord hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. Pr. 16. 4.—And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that thy name may be declared throughout all the earth. Ec. 9. 16.

21 He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn.

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Ro. 4. 7, 8.

The Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light. Ex. 13. 21.—I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the Lord their God. Ex. 29. 45, 46.—My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. Ex. 33. 14.

His horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh. De. 33. 17.—Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee? Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him? Job. 39. 10, 11.

23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought!

Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the soothsayers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. Ex. 7. 10-12.—The Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast. Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. Ex. 8. 16-19.

For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths; but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. Eze. 21. 21, 23.

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing; then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them. The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad. Ps. 126. 1-3.—Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! Ps. 31. 19.—We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. Ps. 44. 1.

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

The men of the city said unto [Samson], ... What is stronger than a lion? Ju. 14. 18.—There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going: a lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any. Pr. 30. 29, 30.—The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion. Pr. 28. 1.—Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? Ge. 49. 9.

Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals. Re. 5. 5.—The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Therefore hear ye the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them. At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations. Je. 50. 43-46.

25 ¶ And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do?

Behold, in those days, and in that time, ... I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem. Joel 3. 1.—Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all? Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it? Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy? Am. 3. 4, 8.

27 ¶ And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Pr. 29. 1.—There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. Pr. 16. 25.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel. Na. 23. 23.—Thus saith the Lord, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the Lord that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself; that frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish; that confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers. Is. 44. 24, 26.

It came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: the same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. Ac. 16. 16, 18.

Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life: therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the Lord. Eze. 13. 22, 23.

This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning him; The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. 2 K. 19. 21, 22.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

The Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch. And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah. And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: etc. Na. 2. 1, etc.—Those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. Na. 3. 38.

It came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease. Na. 11. 25.—And the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. 1 Sa. 10. 10.—Saul sent messengers to take David; and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. He went thither to Natioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Natioth in Ramah. And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets? 1 Sa. 19. 20, 23, 24.—The Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded. 2 Ch. 15. 1.

3 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, a horror of great darkness fell upon him. Ge. 15. 12.—As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. Eze. 1. 28.—As he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground. Da. 8. 18.—When he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb. And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. Da. 10. 15, 16.

I knew a man in Christ about fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such a one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) how that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 2 Co. 12. 2, 4.—I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last. Re. 1. 10, 17.

Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: and he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance. Ac. 10. 9, 10.

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the Lord hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters.

He came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the Lord hath blessed. Ge. 27. 27.—He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. Is. 1. 3.—He shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. Je. 17. 8.—The trees of the Lord are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted; where the birds make their nests. Ps. 104. 16, 17.

7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram; but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God. And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be. And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her; yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her. And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. Ge. 17. 4-8, 15, 16, 19, 20.

Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal. 1 Sa. 15. 32, 33.

David perceived that the Lord had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake. 2 Sa. 5. 12.—David perceived that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel; for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel. 1 Ch. 14. 2.

And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Da. 2. 44.—Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. Is. 9. 6, 7.

Behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Lu. 1. 31-33.—The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Ac. 5. 30, 31.

8 God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows.

Neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the Lord is with us: fear them not. Nu. 14. 9.—He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure. Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him. Ps. 2. 4-12.—The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies. Ps. 110. 2.—Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee. Ps. 45. 5.—He must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 1 Co. 15. 25.

9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? Ge. 49. 9.—Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain. Nu. 23. 24.

One of the elders saith unto me, Weep not; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. Re. 5. 5.

I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee. Ge. 12. 3.—God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee; and blessed be he that blesseth thee. Ge. 27. 28, 29.—In blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of thy enemies; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. Ge. 22. 17, 18.

10 ¶ And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together. I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the Lord have said it. Eze. 21. 14, 17.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the Lord hath kept thee back from honour.

They hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse thee. Nevertheless the Lord thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the Lord thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the Lord thy God loved thee. De. 23. 4, 5.—Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: but I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand. Jos. 24. 9, 10.—They ... hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them; howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. Nu. 13. 2.

12 And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the Lord, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the Lord saith, that will I speak?

Behold, I have told you before. Mat. 24. 25.

Balaam answered ... the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the Lord my God, to do less or more. Num. 22. 18.—Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. Jude 11.

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

There is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these. Da. 2. 28.—I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days. Da. 10. 14.

15 ¶ And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

This spake [Caiaphas] not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation. Jno. 11. 51.

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. Job 19. 25-27.—Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him. Re. 1. 7.

The Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Mat. 16. 27.—Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Mat. 26. 64.—Then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. Mat. 24. 30.—The stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. Mar. 13. 25, 26.

The stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Re. 6. 13-17.

Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. Mat. 2. 2.—I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. Re. 22. 16.

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Ge. 49. 10.—And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. Luk. 24. 27.

Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh. Num. 21. 29.—The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence. Is. 15. 1.

My bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresch. And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail. This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning Moab since that time. But now the Lord hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble. Is. 16. 11-14.

18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Israel shall do valiantly.

He put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons: and all they of Edom became David's servants. 2 Sa. 8. 14.—Moreover Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, slew of the Edomites in the valley of Sait eighteen thousand. And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went. 1 Ch. 18. 12, 13.

Moab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me. Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom? Will not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies? Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man. Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies. Psa. 60. 8-12.

Thus saith the Lord God; Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them; therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword. And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God. Eze. 25. 12-14.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat? I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. Is. 63. 1-4.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Da. 7. 13, 14.

20 ¶ And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever.

The Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi: for he said, Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. Ex. 17. 14-16.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling-place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless the Kenite shall be wasted, until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.

The Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates: the Kenites, and the Kenizites, and the Kadmonites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites. Ge. 15. 18-21.—The children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. Ju. 1. 16.—Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 1 Sa. 15. 6.

The families of the scribes which dwelt at Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab. 1 Ch. 2. 55.—I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers. Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem. Je. 35. 5-11.

He brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia. 2 Ch. 36. 17-20.

23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this!

Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! Je. 9. 1.—The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress. For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed. La. 1. 15, 16.

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever.

The sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. Ge. 10. 4.—The ships of Chittim shall come against him. Da. 11. 30.—Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born. Unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. Ge. 10. 21, 25.

It shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. Is. 10. 12.

25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

CHAPTER XXV.

AND Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

They pitched by Jordan, from Beth-jesimoth even unto Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab. Nu. 33. 49.—Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. Jos. 2. 1.

2 And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips. Ps. 16. 4.

3 And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor: and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel.

The things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God. 1 Co. 10. 20.—Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them. Ex. 20. 5.

Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jerusalem. Nu. 23. 28.

They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them. Ps. 106. 28, 29.—Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the Lord? Jos. 22. 17.—They went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved. Ho. 9. 10.

4 And the Lord said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the Lord against the sun, that the fierce anger of the Lord may be turned away from Israel.

If a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree: his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. De. 21. 22, 23.—There shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to thine hand; that the Lord may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers. De. 13. 17.

5 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor.

Thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. Ex. 18. 21, 25.—Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. Ex. 32. 27.

If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers; thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known; thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword. De. 13. 6, 9, 13, 15.—He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Mat. 10. 37.

6 ¶ And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Joel 2. 17.

7 And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

9 And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. Ps. 106. 30.—The name of the Israelite that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites. Nu. 25. 14.

Your eyes have seen what the Lord did because of Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the Lord thy God hath destroyed them from among you. De. 4. 3.—Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Lord in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord. Nu. 31. 16.

Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 1 Co. 10. 8.

10 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy.

And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore. Ps. 106. 31.—Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God. Ex. 20. 5.

They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God: they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. De. 32. 16, 21.

Thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; and thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods. Ex. 34. 14–16.

They provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed. 1 Ki. 14. 22.—They provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. Ps. 78. 58.

12 Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace:

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel.

The Lord said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. Nu. 18. 1.—Thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. Ex. 40. 15.

Eleazar begat Phinehas, Phinehas begat Abishua, and Abishua begat Bukki, and Bukki begat Uzzi, and Uzzi begat Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begat Meraioth, Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub, and Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Ahimaaz, and Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Johanan, and Johanan begat Azariah, (he it is that executed the priest's office in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem,) and Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub, and Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum, and Shallum begat Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Seraiah, and Seraiah begat Jehozadak, and Jehozadak went into captivity, when the Lord carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar. 1 Ch. 6. 4–15.

My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. Mal. 2. 5–7.

Christ Jesus ... is our peace. Eph. 2. 13, 14.—By whom we have now received the atonement. Ro. 5. 11.—In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He. 2. 17.

14 Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.

They slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian. Nu. 31. 8.—Whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. Jos. 13. 21.

16 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Vex the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they vex you with their wives, wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake.

I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. Re. 2. 14.

CHAPTER XXVI.

AND it came to pass after the plague, that the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

2 Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel.

3 And Moses and Eleazar the priest spake with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

4 Take the sum of the people, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt.

The LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls; from twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies. Nu. 1. 1-3.

When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them, when thou numberest them. This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) a half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls. Ex. 30. 12-16.

5 ¶ Reuben, the eldest son of Israel: the children of Reuben; Hanoch, of whom cometh the family of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Palluites:

6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they that were numbered of them were forty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty.

8 And the sons of Pallu; Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, which were famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the LORD:

10 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, what time the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men: and they became a sign.

These are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Pallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. Ge. 46. 8, 9.—The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's;) the sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. 1 Ch. 5. 1-3.

Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men: and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown. And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD? And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be consumed in all their sins. So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children. And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind. If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath sent me. But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD. And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them: and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. Nu. 16. 1-3, 25-32, 35.—Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. Jude 11.

11 Notwithstanding the children of Korah died not.

The sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph. Ex. 6. 24.—Korah his son, Assir his son. 1 Ch. 6. 22.

12 ¶ The sons of Simeon after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites:

14 These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty and two thousand and two hundred.

And the sons of Mishma; Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son. And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brethren had not many children, neither did all their family multiply, like to the children of Judah. And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. And they smote the rest of the Amalekites that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day. 1 Ch. 4. 24-27, 42, 43.

And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders. All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel. 1 Ch. 5. 11–17.

52 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 To many thou shalt give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt give the less inheritance: to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of him.

When they did mete [the manna] with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating. Ex. 16. 18.—Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Jos. 11. 23.—He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. 2 Co. 8. 15.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. 1 Co. 15. 41.

55 Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes or their fathers they shall inherit.

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.

Ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families: and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit. Num. 33. 54.—Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the Lord commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe. Num. 34. 13.—By lot was their inheritance, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. Jos. 14. 2.

And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. Jos. 14. 1.—Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions. Jos. 18. 10.—And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses. Jos. 21. 8.—The lot is east into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord. Pr. 16. 33.

57 ¶ And these are they that were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begat Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Ge. 46. 11. The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And the sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the children of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The sons also of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 1 Ch. 6. 1. 3.—And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were a hundred thirty and seven years. The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families. And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred thirty and three years. And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the families of Levi according to their generations. And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty and seven years. Ec. 6. 16. 20.

And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. And the woman conceived, and bare a son; and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water. Ex. 2. 1, 2, 10.

60 And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61 And Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the Lord.

Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord. Le. 10. 1, 2.—Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offered strange fire before the Lord, in the wilderness of Sinai. Nu. 3. 4.—Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. 1 Ch. 24. 2.

62 And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the Lord, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand. Nu. 3. 39.

Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel. Nu. 1. 49.—And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as a heave offering unto the Lord, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance. Nu. 18. 20, 23, 24.—Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the Lord is his inheritance, according as the Lord thy God promised him. De. 10. 9. Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them. But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the Lord God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them. Jos. 13. 14, 33.—For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them. Jos. 14. 3.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

64 But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the Lord had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

The space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the Lord swore unto them. For indeed the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed. De. 2. 14, 15.—Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the Lord, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you: your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me. Nu. 14. 23, 29.—With many of them God was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 1 Co. 10. 5, 6.—I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. Jude 5.

Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. Nu. 14. 30.—So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. Is. 55. 11.—Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Is. 46. 11.

Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. Mal. 3. 18.

CHAPTER XXVII.

THEN came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

Zelophehad, the son of Heplier, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. Jos. 17. 3.

Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the Lord continually. Ex. 28. 29.—To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven. He. 12. 23.

Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. Is. 49. 14. 16.—He calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. Jno. 10. 3.

2 And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the Lord in the company of Korah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and Oni, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men: and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. Num. 16. 1, 2, 32, 33.

I the Lord have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. Num. 14. 35.—I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. Jude 5.—Among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. For the Lord had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. Num. 26. 64, 65.

The soul that sinneth, it shall die. Eze. 18. 4.—The wages of sin is death. Ro. 6. 23.

In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Ge. 3. 19.—Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Ro. 5. 12.

I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come. And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above; ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. Jno. 8. 21, 23, 24.

4 Why should the name of our father be done away from among his family, because he hath no son? Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses brought their cause before the Lord.

Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God. Ex. 18. 19.—Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 5, 6.

6 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

They came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the Lord he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. Jos. 17. 4.

Thus saith the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer. Is. 56. 4-7.

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. Col. 1. 12. Ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Gal. 3. 28, 29.—Aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2. 12, 13.

To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Ac. 26. 18.—Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: ... in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Eph. 1. 9-11, 13, 14.—To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Pe. 1. 4, 5.

Those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. Jno. 17. 12.—That they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. He. 9. 15.

And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. Ac. 20. 32.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the Lord commanded Moses.

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. He. 1. 1, 2.—I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Ps. 2. 7, 8.

12 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

They removed from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo. Nu. 33. 47.—Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan. De. 3. 27.—Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession. De. 32. 49.—And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the Lord shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan, and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea, and the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar. De. 34. 1, 3.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

The Lord hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan. De. 31. 2.—The Lord said unto him, This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither. De. 34. 4.

The children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried. De. 10. 6.

14 For ye rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

The Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah. Nu. 20. 12, 24.—The Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither. De. 1. 37.—Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel. De. 32. 51.

They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake madly with his lips. Ps. 106. 32, 33.

15 ¶ And Moses spake unto the Lord, saying,

16 Let the Lord, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,

O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh. Nu. 16. 22.—Be-hold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the Father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that smeth it, shall die. Eze. 18. 4.—The Father of spirits. He. 12. 9.—The spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Ec. 12. 7.

17 Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the Lord be not as sheep which have no shepherd.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron. Ps. 77. 20.—[He] made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. Ps. 78. 52.

Moses went, and spake these words unto all Israel. And he said unto them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in. De. 31. 1, 2.—Shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. 2 Pe. 1. 14, 15.

I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd. 1 Ki. 22. 17.—They went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd. Zec. 10. 2. When he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Mat. 9. 36.

Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall: the archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him: but his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob; from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel. Ge. 49. 22, 24.—Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshai the son of Nun. And Moses called Oshai the son of Nun Jehoshua. Nu. 13. 8, 16.

When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pe. 5. 4.—For if Jesus (Joshua) had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day. He. 4. 8.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth. Ps. 80. 1.—Our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep. He. 13. 20.—I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Jno. 10. 11, 16.—He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. Is. 40. 11.

Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. Zec. 13. 7.—Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1 Pe. 2. 24, 25.

18 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thine hand upon him;

He remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him? Is. 63. 11.

Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the Lord commanded Moses. De. 34. 9.

19 And set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight.

Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the Lord hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. De. 31. 7.

20 And thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.

I will come down and talk with thee there; and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon thee; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. Nu. 11. 17.—They answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go. According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the Lord thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. Jos. 1. 16, 17.

When the sons of the prophets, which were to view at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. 2 K^{ings}. 2. 15.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

These are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. Jos. 14. 1.—Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; and they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan. Jos. 21. 1, 2.

Thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummin; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually. Ex. 28. 30.—Of Levi he said, Let thy Thummin and thy Urim be with thy holy one, whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah. De. 33. 8.

When Saul enquired of the Lord, the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. 1 Sa. 28. 6.—The Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummin. Ezra 2. 63.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Pr. 3. 5, 6.—And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the Lord. Jos. 9. 14.

After the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? Ju. 1. 1.—The children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Judah shall go up first. And the children of Israel went up and wept before the Lord until even, and asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the Lord said, Go up against him. Ju. 20. 18, 23.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. P^{salms}. 73. 24.

David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod. Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord said, He will come down. Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up. 1 Sa. 23. 9, 12.—This also cometh forth from the Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working. Is. 28. 29.—And [Ahimelech] enquired of the Lord for [David], and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? 1 Sa. 22. 10, 13.

22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation:

23 And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

Charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see. De. 3. 28.—Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the Lord hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. De. 31. 7.

Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord it came to pass, that the Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give them. Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. Jos. 1. 1–9.

The Lord said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee. Jos. 3. 7.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

And when any will offer a meat offering unto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: and he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereof his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord. Le. 2. 1, 2.—[The priests the sons of Aaron] shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy. Thou shalt sanctify him therefore: for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the Lord, which sanctify you, am holy. Le. 21. 6, 8.

Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the Lord is contemptible. But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the Lord is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible. Mal. 1. 7, 12.

Let all things be done decently and in order. 1 Co. 14. 40.—When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Co. 11. 20-26.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt offering.

The Lord called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the Lord, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the Lord: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar. And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar: but he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord. Le. 1. 1, 2, 10-13.—The precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 19.—Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. 1 Pe. 2. 22.—In all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. He. 4. 15.—Which of you convinceth me of sin? Jas. 5. 46.—The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. Jno. 14. 30.

He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter. Is. 53. 7.—God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering. Ge. 22. 8.—Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God. He. 9. 14.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even;

The priests ... burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense, 2 Ch. 13. 10, 11.—And it came to pass, when midday was past, and [the priests of Baal] prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded. And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken down. 1 K. 18. 29, 30.—Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Ps. 141. 2.—Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray. Ps. 55. 17.

John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Jno. 1. 29.—The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Re. 13. 8.—And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Re. 21. 23.

5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil.

The Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you, and will make an offering by fire unto the Lord, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the Lord, of the herd, or of the flock: then shall he that offereth his offering unto the Lord bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin of oil. And the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb. Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of a hin of oil. And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of a hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the Lord. And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the Lord: then shall he bring with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half a hin of oil. And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord: thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number. Nu. 15. 1-12.—An omer is the tenth part of an ephah. Ex. 16. 36.

6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even: and with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering. And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord. This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord; where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. Ex. 29. 38-42.—Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? Am. 5. 25.

7 And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering.

There I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office. And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. Ex. 29. 43-45.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things; ... but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pe. 1. 18, 19.—This man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. He. 7. 24-27.

9 ¶ And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof:

10 This is the burnt offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

Ye shall ... keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God. Le. 19. 3.—In earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest. Ex. 31. 21.—Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work. Ex. 20. 8–10.—Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings. Le. 23. 3.

Blessed is the man ... that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Is. 56. 2.—If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. Is. 58. 13, 14; Ne. 13. 15–22.—The burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. Eze. 46. 4.

And it came to pass, that [Jesus] went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungry, he, and they that were with him? how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. Mar. 2. 23–28.—Have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? Mat. 12. 5.

We which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. Heb. 4. 3–5, 9.

11 ¶ And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot;

12 And three tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil for a meat offering unto one lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

In the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings. Nu. 10. 10.—Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. Ps. 81. 3.—David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat. 1 Sa. 20. 5.

Behold, I build a house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel. 2 Ch. 2. 4.—[They] afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the Lord that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will offering unto the Lord. Ezra 3. 5.—For the shew bread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings, to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. Ne. 10. 33.—In the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish. Eze. 46. 6.

I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. Ho. 2. 11.—Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. Is. 1. 13, 14.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days. Col. 2. 16.

15 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

The Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: if the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the Lord for a sin offering. And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somehow against any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty; when the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin. When a ruler hath sinned, and done somehow through ignorance against any of the commandments of the Lord his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty; or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somehow against any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. Le. 4. 1–3, 13, 14, 22, 23, 27, 28.

Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd. Zec. 13. 7.—Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer. Lu. 24. 46.

16 And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover of the LORD.

Ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even. Ex. 12. 6, 18.

In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord's passover. Le. 23. 5.—It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof: but every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat thereof. In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof. All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the Lord, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you. Ex. 12, 27, 43-49.

Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. De. 16, 1.

17 And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein:

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering unto the Lord; two young bullocks and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish:

20 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram;

21 A several tenth deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And one goat for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you.
